FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

WOW, What a winter! Even in the South they got some pretty cold weather. But up here in the North, it was serious life threatening stuff, especially if the only car you owned and drove was a two-wheel drive vehicle. All I can say is, thank God SPRING is here. Whoever believes in that global-warming nonsense needs to have their brain examined. Yes, I believe that “all things work together for good... to those who are called according to His Purpose,” It's very clear to me that “all things working together for good,” means, “eventually” ha, ha.

Does Russia invading Crimea Equal Iraq invading Kuwait?

I couldn't help but notice the similarities between what happened between Iraq and Kuwait just prior to the Gulf War, and Russia and Crimea. Iraq under the dictatorship of Saddam Hussein invaded the small gulf state of Kuwait. The United States of America political czars were outraged, even though they had given Saddam their nod of approval to go ahead and invade Kuwait. The American officials declared war on Iraq for invading the small province of Kuwait. They were going to teach Iraq a lesson, because supposedly Iraq was acting like a bully.

Fast forward to a few weeks ago, Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered Russian troops to invade the Ukraine and take possession of the Crimea next to the Black Sea. The Ukrainian people were outraged and asked for their powerful friend and ally, the United States to intervene, but the United States decided that it would not be smart idea for them to militarily confront Russia in the Crimea, because the powerful Russians just might fight back.

Some of you may strongly disagree with what I am about to say, but, I kind of like President Putin. He seems to care more about his people and the threat of multiculturalism than Obamination does, and that's because Obama is an antichrist alien stranger in the White House. Obama is by far a bigger communist than Putin is. That being said, I now want you to read the following statement by the Reverend Franklin Graham, Billy Graham's son. I believe it will bless you and amaze you:

Rev. Franklin Graham Praises Putin for Stance against Homosexuality

By: Todd Beamon

Saturday, March 15, 2014 06:27 PM

The Rev. Franklin Graham has praised Russian President Vladimir Putin for his stance against homosexuality and slammed President Barack Obama's "shameful" embrace of gay rights.

"To be clear, I am not endorsing President Putin," Graham, the son of renowned evangelist Billy Graham, said in the March issue of Decision Magazine.

The magazine is published by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, based in Charlotte, N.C. Franklin Graham is the association's president and CEO.

"To survive in the KGB and rise to power in Russia, you have to be tough," Graham said of Putin. "His enemies say he is ruthless. To some, he is a modern version of a czar. His personal life has its own controversies.

"Isn't it sad, though, that America's own morality has fallen so far that on this issue — protecting children from any homosexual agenda or propaganda — Russia's standard is higher than our own?"

"Putin is right on these issues," Graham continued. "Obviously, he may be wrong about many things, but he has taken a stand to protect his nation's children from the damaging effects of any gay and lesbian agenda."

Last year, Putin banned the "propaganda of nontraditional sexual relations to minors," Graham said. The restriction was highlighted by the Russian president's critics leading up to the Winter Games in Sochi last month.

"American media and liberal activists were outraged that the Olympics would be allowed in such an 'intolerant' culture," Graham said. "Even though Putin said that gays and lesbians would be allowed at the Olympics, the fact that he took a stand — simply to protect children — ignited a worldwide cultural firestorm. He further explained the law by saying, 'We have a ban on the propaganda of homosexuality and pedophilia,'" Graham said.

The evangelist called the American response to Putin's crackdown "sadly predictable," noting that President Obama sent gay and lesbian athletes to Sochi. He also mentioned Attorney General Eric Holder's announcement last month that his office would push for recognition of same-sex marriage in all 50 states — "even in the 33 states that outlaw those marriages." Graham then charged Obama and Holder with having "turned their backs on God and his standards, and many in the Congress are following the administration's lead. This is shameful. The world used to look to America for moral leadership," Graham said. "But those days are long gone." He said that the United States has "abdicated our moral leadership" — at home and abroad.

"We defeated Communism, only to relax and see secularism and progressives take over our country," Graham said. "Secularism is as godless as communism. Secularists and progressives have taken over our schools, media, and local and federal government.

And it has all happened in the twinkling of an eye."

He ended by quoting portions of Matthew 25:34 from the New Testament. "But the Bible makes it clear that one day, 'all nations will be gathered before [God]' for judgment, and that 'at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,'" Graham wrote.

IRS to Become Biggest Police Threat

That's right friends, the IRS continues to gain enormous federal police powers, and is expected to quadruple its political enforcement powers through the advent of Obama care. They will have unprecedented confidential information of all citizens beyond financial records and your social security information. They will have access to everyday transactions, all your health records, payments and expenses. They will be able to track your whole medical future, plus they will have access to political affiliations and religious groups. In short, there will be little that the people will be able to do for protection that will be outside the IRS's ability to terrorize through a wide variety of enforcement measures. Federal bureaucratic thuggery and communistic gestapo investigations, interrogations, and political prisoner tactics will certainly increase. IRS drones will be dispersed with enhanced legal loopholes and increased use of federal judges who are political hacks for the Obama administration.

STAY VIGILANT

By Pastor David Barley

Listen to me carefully. Do not think for one minute that the Spiritual Israel nonsense has toned down or is somehow safely put out of our movement. The Spiritual Israel lie is going just as strong as it ever has, but the false ancient Cabala knowledge has a big problem “THE TRUTH.” I should explain that the serpent’s statement “ye shall be as gods knowing good and evil,” means to employ carnal knowledge, calling that which is good, evil. In other words, it is allowing your carnal mind to assume the role of god, determining for itself what is good and what is evil. Truth, though the ultimate victor, is always the target of deceivers as long as we are in this first Adamic fallen state. False knowledge will try to wrap itself around our thoughts and drive us into false beliefs that cannot help but endanger our racial Adamic Israel Covenant calling. It most certainly is “racial,” as repugnant a term as that may be to the worldly indoctrinated masses, and it is most certainly a Holy, Spiritual Covenant calling that we are to cherish, defend, uphold, and maintain as vigilant Watchmen with a Biblical sense of duty and honor towards.

Recently, efforts were being made to promote certain Spiritual Israel leaders as bona-fide racial Anglo-Israel people, when such has never been a matter of dispute as far as I am concerned. What is of dispute and of grave concern, is the teachings of those who have crept into the Anglo-Christian-Israel tenets of faith weaving the deception of racial adulteration as acceptable as long as faith is applied, thus making all, regardless of race or lineage, an Israelite. They would have us put away any discrimination, biases, or racial barriers. That Christians can go ahead and racially mix as long as they apply “faith” in such relations, and presto, they somehow become creatures of the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel). No, they would become a “LEGAL-FICTION,” an “OXYMORON.”

This does not mean that people of mixed races are inconsequential or spiritually doomed, but it does mean that there are Biblical qualifications that we cannot and must not ignore or belittle without grave Spiritual or Biblical consequences to our Israelite Biblical Covenant Heritage. Non-Adamic, non-Israelite people should not live with regrets or carry any sense of worthlessness concerning their future state or hope of resurrection because the Lord Jesus Christ can heal, cleanse, and enhance all fallen people. However, my calling is unto the Covenant Kingdom people of Adamic Israel first. I am not called to justify all the various races or confer upon them that which the seed of Israel is called unto. To conjure up one-world spiritual equal opportunity conditions is perverting the Word of God.

²You (Israel) only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

Jesus Christ has an order of priests and kings. He has a chain of command with various folds or degrees of order and dominions. Even those of Israelite standing shall not have or hold the same status or ranking. True, our spiritual “eternal-security” does not belong to your race apart from the Lord Jesus Christ, however, I must again remind you that it is unto the Adamic Israel people that His Covenants and Promises are made. They are the people of His election and the people of His Redemption.

Romans 9:4-5

⁴Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

⁵Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

We need Biblical ministers and members of the Body of Christ with this understanding. I am disturbed by those who want to celebrate racial indifference or open diversity with no racial Biblical discretion. It's called adulteration, and adulteration often incentivizes and encourages more adulteration which is a breaking of the seventh commandment. Remember the old adage "miserly loves company." For some reason, though not exclusively, spiritually and physically adulterated people favor more adulteration and diversity of unBiblical perversions which only promotes more paganism, pluralism, idolatry, and multicultural frenzy. If God's Covenant Adamic Caucasian Israel people do not set the proper Biblical standard of race relations within the realm of their national civil order, our national decline and moral demise will continue its downward trend. We must contemplate the danger signal of endearing ourselves to ministers who sing the praises of racial multiculturalism and spiritual Israel debauchery. Such gospel did not exist for the first millennium Christian era, except within narrow perimeters of the encroaching Roman Catholic gospel of globalism with its pagan adaptations to keep the natives happy.

Psalm 147:19-20

²⁰He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

The Law of cause and effect is of God and it is the central function of Christian consciousness that is of Christ. It is a truism in medical and natural health science that unless the causes of disease are healed, there is no permanent healing. It is also a truism that unless we discover a way to banish sin and unrighteous thinking (that releases corrupt self-destructive motivations) such negative thinking will continue to pervert, even in subconscious ways our mind, body, and spirit.

Without question or doubt, Jesus Christ is the Answer, Healer, and Solution to our dilemma, but He must abide in you, and He must be the Holy Spirit conscious that guides, leads, and directs. This means that we must come to the point spiritually that we no longer look at this life and its questionable objectives as the sole focus of our personage. That we behold ourselves as sons and daughters of God coming together in blessed fellowship with the Creator, Jesus Christ, our Covenant Master. This means looking beyond our personal interests to the place where we look upon God's Divine Holy interests and His Biblical Plan of the Ages for His Covenant Called out and Chosen National House of Israel. I can assure you that the world will not value or concern itself with the true lost, hidden Adamic-Israelite seed of the Covenant of Abraham. This is where we must call upon and rely upon the guidance and leading of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:14-23

¹⁴For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

¹⁵For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

¹⁶The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

¹⁷And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

¹⁸For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

¹⁹For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

²⁰For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, ²¹Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

²²For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

²³And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

Looking unto the false antiChrist Jews as the seed of Promise and blessings to the nations is a sickness and disease upon all the end-time nations of regathered Israel that must be healed. God's Word shall not be mocked. Whether you believe it or not, there can be no permanent healing for our nation or the world, as long as the multicultural minded people and their leaders continue to emaciate us spiritually and physically with anti-Christ Jewish control. It is a stimulus-package designed to bend the Jacob-Israel people within the web of unbelievable massive deceitfulness. A people so religiously, politically, and philosophically drugged that they can no longer discern good from evil, or right from wrong because they have been spiritually neutered with the lies that the Jews are God's chosen people and that anyone who dares question the identity of the Jews is damned by the so called ultimate sin of "being anti-Semitic."

Though it will be hard for many Caucasian Christian people to understand, they are, first and foremost, the main people being targeted and programmed to think contrary to what the Word of God teaches. (examples: God's laws are dead, the escape rapture, that anti-sodomy is the result of bigoted hate-mongers, race-mixing is Biblically acceptable, that the anti-Christ Jews get a free pass from Christian criticism because they supposedly are God's chosen people, and so forth) They must do their best to question Jewish supremacy, and never place them above criticism or Biblical scrutiny.

HEBREWS

Part Twelve

Holy Words and Deeds to Live By

The book of Hebrews was written to the Hebrew people, who in these end-times are the dispersed, formerly lost tribes of Israel. Today, the world knows them as the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic, and kindred people. From among these Hebrew people, God is calling out the Sons of God who will become His servants in the ages to come. As I pointed out before, the book of Hebrews is a spiritually deep letter concerning what is expected of the Sons of God. It was written to help these elect understand in a greater way God's calling and purposes. These purposes are revealed throughout the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation, but only an elect remnant have been given the understanding to grasp them.

There are people who look at rituals and they see only rituals. There are people who read about the Tabernacle, the functions and duties that were performed by the Levitical priests, and they see only the shadow of reality. It is similar to many Christians today when we take communion. How nice, we get together and partake of the ritual of juice/wine and unleavened bread, but this is as far as many Christian spiritually see and experience within the outward visual aspects of this sacred ceremony.

The author of the book of Hebrews wants the Sons of God to see more deeply. The author wants us to seek a high calling level of understanding for the things of Christ and His Kingdom. We are to glory in the sacred things of Christ because they glorify Him, and they spiritually inspire and uplift the Hebrew Body of Christ to embrace their Kingdom Covenant calling. My spirit is uplifted when I understand these nuggets of truth. When you get a vision of the deeper truths of God's purpose, you begin to see beyond the rituals and realize that they were merely a shadow of the divine reality that awaits us.

The Body of Christ needs to be strengthened spiritually and to focus on our Christian duties and responsibilities far more than just memento warm fuzzy ritual observance. We know that conflicts challenge us to overcome, but spiritual Biblical preparation of our hearts and mind is essential for our continued sonship growth. Biblical spiritual overcoming is only possible through the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we absorb God's Word and seek to apply its Kingdom Covenant Truth.

We want the Body of Christ to be strong without contention, strife and divisions, but they are often part of our calling to be overcomers. I do not mean to imply that we should seek "contention, strife, and divisions" within the Body of Christ, but we must understand that we will often encounter such issues, and that we should be spiritually prepared to deal with them and to seek to come together in and for the unity of the Faith. We should desire a spirit of love, a spirit of humility, a spirit of willingness to work together with a servant attitude. These are the fruits of the Spirit, and these are the character attributes that are brought out in the book of Hebrews.

With that introduction, let us now turn to Hebrews 10. We must hold fast our profession of faith. No matter what storms may be presented to us, no matter what difficulties we may be called to undergo, the faithful will remain steadfast with Jesus Christ who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Hebrews 10:19-20

¹⁹Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

Notice that we will have the boldness to enter into the Holy of Holies. In other words, it takes boldness to go on into Christ for sonship development. It is easy to be a liberal, or to be in agreement with the world, but it takes boldness to go into the deeper things of Christ. It is easier to remain in the physical or carnal things of life. However, if you want to enter the spiritual things, it takes boldness because it will challenge and correct your carnal mind.

We need to desire the deeper things of God, embrace them, and to look beyond ourselves and share them with our brethren so that they will come to know and embrace them also. We all need much more love, humility, patience, and openness to grow spiritually and to be more approachable and teachable among our Adamic Hebrew Christian brethren. It would do us all much good if we exercised more love and patience in the sharing of Biblical Spiritual material as there are far too many “know-it-all” impatient brethren who cannot see beyond their short-sighted spectacles of knowledge. We should all do our best to share the truth in love, but also, we need to realize that often truth requires boldness and courage, especially when we come face to face with enemies of the Gospel of Christ.

It takes boldness to choose a righteous way of life. It takes boldness to advance in righteousness and in the deeper things of the Spirit. On the other hand, weakness and a high priority of self will prevail when we pursue the carnal ways of life.

The Example of Noah

There are many examples of boldness that we can examine. The first one that comes to mind is Noah going against the popular opinion of his day. Noah was undoubtedly laughed at and ridiculed for one hundred years, because it had not rained before, and the people thought he was crazy because they did not know what rain was. We worry a little about people calling us extremists, but think of what Noah had to endure. It took boldness for him to stay true to the word that God gave him.

The Example of David

How about David and his classic dual with Goliath? Do you think it took boldness for that young man to stand up to that notorious giant? You bet it did. Did it take spiritual conditioning and preparation? Absolutely! Can we just read that story and let it pass through our minds as a pleasant and inspiring little story without really comprehending the boldness David needed to face that enemy? Think about it: Goliath was a trained soldier, giant in stature, known throughout as a devastating warrior. Would you have had the boldness it took to face him?

David emerged as a champion for his people Israel by triumphing over their adversary. David discovered that there was great glory in following Yahweh and obeying Him. There is glory for each and every one of us if we make that commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to sacrifice for Him for the sake of His Kingdom and the Covenant.

The Boldness of Moses and Joshua

Think of Moses and Joshua. Both of these men endured great odds in the deliverance and formation of the nation of Israel. By overcoming these odds, there were some great days in Israel when righteousness prevailed and tyranny was subdued.

These men had their own doubts and fears and had to overcome their own inadequacies and physical limitations. Being a leader brings trouble, it brings the arrows, and it is seldom fun and games. The good leaders questioned themselves many times, asking why they were chosen, and their carnal minds would reason that there are others who appear far more qualified. However, God Almighty knew exactly what He was doing and why He chose those men to lead. They were spiritually prepared of the Lord where they did not need the approval of man or the popular vote of the masses.

It does take boldness to be a true Christian. It takes boldness to enter into the Holy of Holies. It takes boldness to claim the blood of Christ and to be an adherent of that faith. Under the old Levitical Order, the common people were barred from the Holy of Holies. Only the High Priest could enter. That is why the author of the book of Hebrews is encouraging each of us to press in for the mark of the prize of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus.

In Hebrews 10, we read the following:

²¹And having an high priest over the house of God [referring to Jesus Christ]; ²²Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

We know that Jesus Christ is the High Priest over the House of God.

Through Christ we are delivered from the restrictions and limitations of the old Levitical Order and we are delivered by a new and living way as it tells us in verse 20. Remember that Jesus said, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” Man, in his carnal, egocentric thinking, wanted to go beyond this Kingdom planet “earth” and reach into the heavens, to be as gods, so he built the Tower of Babel. Man is still trying to be as gods today by using his technology. They have overlooked and denied the simple gospel, the essential Kingdom of God Truth that will realign this Babylonianized world into a Biblical righteous order of the ages.

We must go through the Tree of Life, of which the fruit of Christ our Redeemer is freely given unto those who enter His gates of salvation and redemption. That is why we read in verse 22, “Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience.” There is something that has to happen in our lives. We would like to think that when we are born, we are adequate, and we have all that we need, but the Word of God tells us that this thinking is in error. We are born with a conscience that will not naturally lead us in the right direction all of the time. We have a carnal mind that thinks about material things, in material self-satisfying ways. We have a conscience that will lust after the things of the flesh. We have a conscience that dwells on self-advancing, creature comforting, emotional based wants and desires.

The Scriptures tell us that this conscience, which has aided our destruction today, needs to be sprinkled. It needs to be cleansed and purged, and it needs to be consecrated. The book of Numbers sheds some needful light on this subject:

Numbers 8:5-11

⁵And the LORD SPAKE unto Moses, saying,

⁶Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

⁷And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

⁸Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

⁹And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

¹⁰And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

¹¹And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD FOR an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD.

Baptisms for Priests

Notice, it says to take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them. They were to be cleansed first. If we are to be priests and kings of the most high God, we need to be cleansed before we can minister to others. Again, what we read of old Israel was a type, a shadow of the true that was to come. The author of the book of Hebrews is trying to get us to understand that the rituals were outward signs (or shadows) of something that was to occur internally within the Sons of God, to be priests and kings of the Most High God.

The priests were cleansed outwardly, consecrating them for service. Today, He is sanctifying internally, preparing us for priestly service. Water Baptism may be an outward process, but it is an act of faith that will yield much spiritual fruit, if acted upon with truth and uncompromising commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ.

The book of Hebrews discusses this entire spiritual process, preparing us for service of the Lord. We therefore need to be sanctified or set apart (separated) for His holy service. Many Christians are beginning to get their heads out of the false religious playground and acknowledge that we are here for a purpose and that purpose is to serve Jesus Christ and advance His Kingdom. Each of us has a duty and responsibility in that calling. This process does require that we be equipped with spiritual, Kingdom directed attributes to serve the Body of Christ. The Apostle Paul wrote about these responsibilities in his letter to the Christians at Rome (who were a part of the massive numbers of lost Israelites of the dispersion):

Romans 12:1-2

¹I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. ²And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

This really puts pressure on me when I stop and read this. I am supposed to be presenting my body as a living sacrifice. The world out there is not going to be in step with you in this spiritual renewal process. The world is going to war with your mind, and our minds are going to rebel against this transformation process. Therefore, you and I must offer up ourselves as a holy sacrifice and pray that the Holy Spirit will fill our minds to bring about the spiritual transformation that will make us useful servants of our God. Going back to Hebrews 10:23, we read:

²³Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) ²⁴And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

Body of Christ Bonding

Within the Christian profession of faith, we are admonished to provoke one another to love and good works. The flesh likes to provoke anger, bitterness, revenge, resentment, and hatred, but it takes the Spirit to provoke us to love and do good works. It is far easier to allow our flesh to lead us, but with prayer and the working of Holy Spirit, we can strive to overcome the flesh with boldness of spirit.

God wants His priests to be different from the world and we read this from Genesis to Revelation. He wants us to think Biblically and righteously in our pursuit of the Kingdom of God. He wants His priests to provoke His people into righteousness. Do you think we would see a change in the character and values of our nation if all Christians provoked love and good works? The blessed change would be truly glorious.

If you are doing the job you should be doing, you will not wrap yourself up in what someone else is doing in the flesh. If you continue on course, provoking unto love and good works, other people around you will begin to see your good works and it will rub off on them eventually. Do not become despondent about their actions, but pray for them and be an active worker for love and good works.

Returning to the book of Romans, the Apostle Paul continued his teaching about our responsibilities toward our Covenant brethren:

Romans 12:3-5

³For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. ⁴For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: ⁵So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Notice that he calls our attention to the fact that we (of the Covenant family) are all of one body. Our flesh is frequently selfish, unstable, and unpredictable. However, when we mature spiritually, we recognize that we are of the family of God and we have extended duties of a Holy Covenantal calling to our kinsmen for our Providential Heritage. We are not called to be a fleshly melting-pot of anything goes. The Scriptures prescribes Biblical order towards the restoration of the lost sheep of the House of Israel. Thus we are called unto Biblical brotherly love that is of Christ and His New Covenant Purposes for His Adamic Hebrew Israel People.

Romans 12:6-10

⁶Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; ⁷Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; ⁸Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. ⁹Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. ¹⁰Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;...

Jesus said, “Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” John 15:13 The Apostle Paul said, “Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love....” Our wants and desires are always in the forefront, but what about the needs of our kinsmen and our responsibility to the seed of Abraham’s sons of Isaac (the Isaac-sons/Anglo-Saxons, and kindred people)? We are Covenant brothers and sisters in Christ, so why do we not think of each other in that manner?

Jesus wants us to benefit His many membered Body and their restoration calling unto the lost sheep of the House of Israel. Rather than focusing on the world, our view should be upon the people Jesus came calling and whom He came to Redeem, the lost sheep of the House of Israel. The only way we can do that is to open ourselves up as living sacrifices unto Christ to be living epistles of His Word. Seriously pray about and consider what I am sharing with you because we need such spiritual determination among the Body of Christ. There are too many floundering around clueless Christians who have little or no idea about the true callings and purposes of God and this is because they lean more to their emotions than stand upon the Everlasting Word of God.

¹¹Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord...

Whatever you do, do so serving Christ because then you become a witness for Him. For example, if we help someone in need, say a handicapped person, our carnal mind will probably want a pat on the back, but our attitude should be that we want to do such things as unto the Lord, to be a reflection of His Goodness and Love. There are many services of blessing we can perform for others to various degrees throughout the day, such as saying something kind, helping open a door, carry some package, perform some service, pass on a Scripture of blessing, or a wide variety of other things than can help be a blessing to others. And, this is not just Judeo-Christian mush, it is wonderful Christ-centered "serving the Lord" servanthood. You perform services to please Him. When you do it with the right spirit, motive, and attitude, people notice and comment, "What a difference." That attitude and service brings spiritual light and strengthens the Body of Christ. That is what is needed in the Body of Christ.

¹²Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Patient in tribulation. We must be patient during our service. When we are experiencing tribulation, we are to continue in prayer and patience. This powerful spiritual chemistry will change our character, because when we exhibit these attributes, our brethren will also be blessed, and it brings peace to the Body.

¹³Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

¹⁴Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. ¹⁵Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

That tells us to not worry about what others will say or what the world thinks about you, but move forward in spiritual hospitality. Meaning, be Christian to all, even unto those who "persecute you," as odd as that may sound. This means we are not to seek to out cuss, be more of a tyrant, be crueller, and so forth, because we feel fleshly justified in our outrage or anger about a particular situation. We are not to fight evil, with evil. But, unto the antichrists, the Bible says, “don’t even bid them God’s speed.” There is a difference between those who “persecute you,” and antichrists who will do everything in their power to obstruct the Kingdom of God. In such cases, we are to stand against them, expose their evil ways, and set the righteous example.

16Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Christian Civility

When others within the Body of Christ begin minding high things by believing that they are above service or that they deserve fleshly praise, there will be problems with the Body. Nothing is more destructive than a complaining self-righteous, obnoxious Christian who wants to disrupt a Christian gathering or conference with their holier than thou opinion. Certainly there should be a time for debate and discussion, but when the Body of Christ is gathered together, we should look for more reasons to come together in the unity of the faith, in Christian love, and not just be there to have our opinions heard and our demands imposed. That attitude is offensive to others, and of even more importance, it shows little regard or sacred respect for the Holy Spirit, the gathered fellowship, or the appointed leadership who are there to help maintain godly order and unity. Our attitude makes a big difference.

Those who mind “high things” things of worldly appeal, worldly values, makes them pawns of the predators of Red Edom. Remember, we have a Christian duty, a Christian responsibility to be about our Father’s Business. There are different offices, but that does not mean that one office is better or less than another office. All are parts of the Body, and all are necessary to the functioning of the Body. All of the offices are necessary within the Body, and God has ordained each of them. One is not to be valued over another. Godly order under Biblical direction and Holy Spirit values is to be highly regarded and must be cherished and respected.

17Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. 18If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Recompensing (repaying) evil for evil will not provoke a righteous resolve, nor will a Christian doormat for others provoke a righteous resolve. Evil must be confronted and evil must be held accountable to Biblical measures. Man's immediate response to evil will often be a knee-jerk fleshly reaction. Our objective should not be to replicate evil, but to overcome evil with good righteous directives.

A remnant within the Body are already exhibiting these fruits. We are called to demonstrate these attitudes of service and, as much as possible live peaceably with all men. Judgment, attitude, the way we interact with one another, and our life-styles, all project to others what is really transpiring within the Body of Christ. We are to be living epistles of the faith. When we are out of order with God's Word, we are projecting a negative witness in the sight of all men.

19Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Many Christians interpret this verse to mean that Christians are to do nothing to confront evil, such thinking only encourages more evil. Jesus never ran from evil or injustice, but He was not motivated by a Spirit of revenge or fleshly vengeance. He was always led by the Spirit, and the Holy Spirit is far from a passive "just let bygones be bygones." If "vengeance is Mine," saith the Lord, then this means He is not indifferent to justice. Actually He is the Only True Justice.

We would be better off both physically and spiritually if we would not become so bent out of shape every time we felt that someone was wrong, unjustifiably accusing or slandering us. Be patient, pray, and let God have His Way, and if you believe that you must speak up about an issue, use the Word of God, speak the Truth in love, use and exercise as much Godly Wisdom as you can possibly acquire. Leadership has its own particular set of problems and difficulties, and they must deal with certain situations in their leadership role and responsibilities. This is why Biblically they carry a greater degree of accountability. Luke 10:27

Prayer and fasting may very well be a prerequisite before any dispute can be resolved. The reason for this is because our flesh has to be silenced or prevented from interfering as it is prone to do. The Bible does provide a healthy alternative, “AVENGE NOT YOURSELVES,” think outside “self-satisfaction,” and place your faith on the course of the Holy Spirit and God’s perfect timing above our own.

If you will embrace the advice and instruction here, you will go to sleep at night knowing that God is Sovereign, and He will take care of the injustices and disputes in His own good time and in His own perfect way, because He is our Kinsman Redeemer. Our attitude should be according to “THY WILL,” not “my will.” Our flesh cries out for revenge, and we want it now. However, God is working out His purposes in that person or persons in ways that are unknown to us. Do your Christian Biblical duty, pray, and rest in the confidence that Christ will bring it all about in His perfect timing. Remember, the Kingdom of God is not about a bunch of screaming, whining babies. It is about:

Romans 14:17-19

¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

¹⁸For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

¹⁹Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

Our objective in disputes should not be one of fleshly motivation, meaning placing our wants and desires above someone whom we think is our enemy. Our Biblical Spiritual objective should be showing forth the right spirit, motive, and attitude, because doing so will “heap coals of fire on the head” of someone we believe is our enemy. This spiritual procedure will work upon the carnal mind of our adversary. Going back to Romans 12:20.

²⁰Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Do those words upset your flesh? Then your faith and understanding of God's Word needs greater spiritual insight. If you really want to get even with your adversary, be spiritually wise and in tune with the leading of the Holy Spirit. Righteous Holy Spirit directed behavior will provide powerful defenses that the enemy will never have victory over. Righteous solutions and applications are not mere actions of the flesh, they are Holy Spirit directed and a weapon of Divine protection. As we exercise spiritual patience and faith in our Christian walk, it confuses the enemy and allows the power of the Holy Spirit to deal with him about his attitude and behavior. Again, the issue of antichrists, self-protection/defense, war-time, terrorists, and other threatening people, including thieves, you have every Biblical right and duty to protect yourself and your family by any means necessary. We have a Biblical duty to own and bear arms.

²¹Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

How many times have we met people within the Body of Christ who have an angry spirit? I am sure all of you have met that type of spirit within the Body where you least expect it. If we allow this angry spirit to take hold within a church group, it will destroy it. It will destroy a home, a family, a church, and it can damage a community.

When the Body begins to experience a problem of this nature, the Body should have that disrupter sit down and read Romans 12. We should tell them that we love them and that we want to help them in any way we can, but we are not going to allow them to bring an unChristlike spirit into our fellowship and destroy it.

The members of the Body should practice all of the character attributes that the Apostle Paul is examining because it brings God the glory and it advances the household of God. Our prayer for the Body is that each of us will read and re-read these words and develop them in our lives so that we can become a true reflection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. As we apply these principles they become easier and easier and we have to fight our fleshly desires less and less. Hallelujah!

Isaiah 55:8-9

⁸For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. ⁹For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Even Obama is for our Good!

By Martha Barley

Isn't it fun to watch how God works everything together for our good, even when it doesn't seem like it? I don't know about you, but after Obama was elected the first time I was really disheartened until the Lord assured me that He was going to be for our good and was going to "bless" America. God led me to Genesis 12:2 which uses the Hebrew Word barak (Strong's number 1288) at 3:31 am after the election. When I looked up this word, I found that it occurs 331 times in the Bible. It is used mostly as bless, but also can mean curse and blaspheme.

All of this fits because Barack Obama is doing all of those things. Here is an article that appeared at dailypaul.com that illustrates this point. I do not know anything about the author, but he enumerates how Obama is blessing us. He thinks this is all unintentional, but we know that Our Father is intentionally causing these things to be.

The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

Proverbs 16:33

Obama is our Guy, Advancing Liberty

Submitted by George Strait on Fri, 03/14/2014 - 08:45

Obama may not realize it, but he is doing more for the cause of liberty in the United States than any president in recent history.

Uninspiring and ineffective, he hasn't lately been able to do much of anything to actually curtail liberty as much as he'd like. However, like a chained dog, growling and foaming at the mouth, biting isn't necessary to tell everyone just how risky the institution of government is with fascists at the helm wielding enormous power.

- -Obama has ensured that stocks of guns and ammunition in the hands of Americans are at all-time highs.
- -Obama has motivated millions of Americans to get their concealed carry permits. If they weren't allowed to in their state, many changed the laws so they could.
- -Obama has demonstrated the frantic ineptitude of government more clearly with his signature Affordable Care Act than ten thousand pages of postulation by the Cato Institute ever could.
- -Obama has drawn into sharp focus the real nature of US foreign policy: make it up as you go, hope no one notices. American support for foreign adventures is at a historic low.
- -Obama has best revealed the nature of US crony-capitalism more starkly than any other president. While cronyism has been around since before President Grant, never have the people been so aware of the self-dealing Solyndras and CGI.
- -Obama has taught everyone a lesson in the dangers of fiat currency. Never before has the money printing of the Fed been so overt and so well publicized. Many are making the connection between prices, wages and the Fed that never had before.
- -Obama helped highlight the link between the military and the police by placing thousands of conspicuous, otherwise useless MRAP armored vehicles at neighborhood police stations across the country.

- -By beating the dead climate-change horse all through the worst winter in living memory for many Americans, Obama helped demonstrate the enormous gulf between politician's interests and the interests of the people.
- -We all got a lesson on the lesser-known amendments with the IRS scandal, Lois Lerner and Obamacare. Who was paying so much attention to the 5th, the 9th and 10th before all this?
- -With numerous well-publicized golf outings and lavish vacations, Obama, with the help of Joe Biden has ensured that the American people are well aware of the plush life of politicians enjoyed at citizen's expense. No phony G. W. Bush photo ops showing Obama with a chainsaw clearing brush in Texas. This man is all "let them eat cake", and he's not about to hide it.
- -Obama discredited the IRS, CIA and NSA more handily than any dissident ever could.

Can you name a guy who has pushed more people into action and outrage over the disgusting US political machine? I can't.

Can you name a better promoter of the 1st, 2nd and 4th amendments? I can't.

Let's all take a moment to be glad we don't have a more capable president who can wear the mask and fool the people more effectively.

Barack Obama: (Unintentional) Man of Liberty.

Equal Rights vs. Special Privileges

Abbreviated article. Full article at <http://afr.org/equal-rights-vs-special-privileges/>

Written by: Nelson Hultberg on March 7, 2014.

One of the major evils of the welfare state in libertarian eyes is that it destroys the concept of objective law (i.e., equal rights under the law) throughout society. This is because the welfare state is based upon the violation of individual rights in order to convey privileges to special interest groups. All primary policies of state welfarism entail such a violation and conveyance. This is why justice can never be achieved under a welfare state philosophy, liberal, or conservative.

Government's job is to protect rights, not violate them. Its laws must be applied equally, which means no privileges. Yet we are taught today that government conveyance of privileges to special interest groups will bring us a just society. It is even taught that our concern with "special interest groups" is the American Way – this in face of the fact that the Founders' repeatedly warned against the creation of "political factions."

Special Privilege Defined

What follows will hopefully throw some light on this important issue and clarify how government's conveyance of special privileges is destroying freedom and justice. Because of the heavy ideological obfuscation that prevails in our media and our schools, we need to first define the term special privilege. It means the intervention of government into the free-market to legislate policy that favors specific individuals and groups over other individuals or groups. It is the enactment of laws that either aid or suppress some people in relation to other people. Special privilege can take any number of forms. For example:

1) When government grants subsidies to corporations, banks, farmers, and low income earners, it is conveying a special privilege to these recipients at the expense of the individuals whose earnings are confiscated in order to pay for such subsidies. Their right to the disposal of their income (i.e., their property) is violated.

2) When government dictates that certain quotas of racial / sexual groups must be enrolled in colleges and hired in businesses because of race or gender rather than the free determination of merit, it is conveying a special privilege to those who are enrolled and hired at the expense of those who are better qualified, but are not enrolled and hired because of the quotas. Their right to free determination of merit is violated.

3) When government allows striking labor unions to physically prohibit non-union workers from replacing them by means of violence or through NLRB mandates, it is granting a special privilege of monopoly power to union workers at the expense of all non-union workers in the marketplace. Their right to freely seek employment is violated.

4) When government passes a law mandating that oil prices cannot be raised beyond a certain level, it is conveying a special privilege to the consumers of oil at the expense of the producers of oil. Their right to freedom of trade is violated.

Therefore, whenever government intervenes into the marketplace to aid or suppress specific individuals and groups at the expense of others, it is conveying privileges and violating rights, which cannot make for a just society...

Mutual Exclusivity

In conclusion, rights and privileges cannot be mixed. This is the Law of Mutual Exclusivity. A just, stable, and free society cannot provide special privileges for some of its citizens and remain just, stable, and free. The curse of modern day societies is that their governing authorities believe they can circumvent this truth.

What this means is that a society must be based upon equal rights, or it must be based upon special privileges, but it cannot be based upon both. The latter consumes the former. Just as wheat and locusts cannot co-exist in the same field, neither can rights and privileges co-exist in the same society. Just as locusts will eventually spread throughout the entire field to destroy the wheat and its life giving nutrients, so also will government conveyed privileges spread throughout an entire society to destroy the concept of rights, and with it the life giving values of justice, freedom and stability.

This is why we have the insufferable locust horde of factions, coalitions, foundations, corporations, banks, and divergent individuals today who feel their "need" justifies their lining up at the government trough to lobby for the corrupt favors, handouts, and pork that have flowed so overwhelmingly from Washington for the past 100 years. Once we step beyond minimal Lockean government so as to allow government to violate individual rights to convey special privileges to others and accept this as morally legitimate, there is no end to the process. Tyranny must follow.

Government should not be in the business of conveying privileges and favors to anyone. Period. It should protect rights and do for us those few things we cannot do for ourselves in a free-market, and these few services should be done on the state and local level. This was the Lockean ideal that the Founders envisioned. This is the only morally just form of government. It was not meant just for the nineteenth century; it was meant for all of time.

Marching as to War

By Pat Buchanan Buchanan.org

Sweeping through Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania this week, Joe Biden reassured all three that the United States' commitment to Article Five of the NATO treaty remains "solemn" and "iron clad."

Article Five commits us to war if the territory of any of these tiny Baltic nations is violated by Russia. From World War II to the end of the Cold War, all three were Soviet republics. All three were on the other side of the Yalta line agreed to by FDR, and on the other side of the NATO red line, the Elbe River in Germany.

No president would have dreamed of waging war with Russia over them. Now, under the new NATO, we must. Joe Biden was affirming war guarantees General Eisenhower would have regarded as insane.

Secretary of State John Kerry says that in the Ukraine crisis, "All options are on the table." John McCain wants to begin moving Ukraine into NATO, guaranteeing that any Russian move on the Russified east of Ukraine would mean war with the United States.

Forty members of Congress have written Kerry urging that Georgia, routed in a war it started with Russia over South Ossetia in 2008, be put on a path to membership in NATO.

Following Russia's annexation of Crimea, other voices are calling for expanding NATO to bring in Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova, and for moving U.S. troops and warplanes into Poland and the Baltic republics. President Obama says, "All options are on the table" if Iran does not give us solid assurances she is not building a bomb. Members of Congress support U.S. military action against Iran, if Tehran does not surrender even the "capability" to build a bomb.

End all enrichment of uranium, or America attacks, they warn.

In the Far East we are committed to defend Japan if China seizes the Senkakus that Beijing claims as Chinese territory, a collection of rocks in the East China Sea. If Kim Jong-Un starts a war with South Korea, we are committed by treaty to fight a second Korean War.

We are committed by treaty to defend the Philippines. And if China acts on its claim to the southern islands of the South China Sea, and starts a shooting war with Manila's navy, we are likely in it. Is this not an awful lot on Uncle Sam's plate?
Is America really prepared to fight all of these wars that we are obligated by treaty to fight?

The national recoil at attacking Syria, for crossing Obama's "red line" last summer and using poison gas, suggests that there is a vast gulf between what America is obligated by treaty to do, and what the American people are willing to do in sending their soldier sons into a new war.

Indeed, the latest mantra of the war hawks, "no boots on the ground," is meant to reassure the nation that in our next war, unlike Afghanistan and Iraq, there will be no more planeloads of dead coming into Dover, no new generation of Wounded Warriors arriving at Walter Reed.

Soon, the United States is going to have to come to terms with this reality -- the unwillingness of the American people to fight the wars they are committed to fight by the American government. Yet, the immediate problem is how to avoid a military confrontation or clash with Vladimir Putin's Russia over Crimea, which almost no American wants.

Apparently, the West has decided to start down the sanctions road. But where does that road lead?

While sanctions may cripple the Russian economy, will they break Putin? Did they break Castro? Did they break Kim Il Sung or Kim Jong Il? Did they break the Ayatollah? Does Putin look like someone who will respond to an economic squeeze by crying uncle? Moreover, in this age of interdependence that America did so much to launch, sanctions are a two-edged sword.

If Ukraine cuts off oil, gas, water and electricity into a seceded Crimea, whose tourist trade is drying up, this could provoke Putin into invading Eastern Ukraine and seizing the lone land bridge onto the peninsula.

It could provoke Russia into cutting off imports from Ukraine, turning off the oil and gas, and calling in Ukraine's debts. This would precipitate a default by Ukraine, without more Western aid than the $35 billion it is now estimated Kiev will need by 2016.

Are House Republicans willing to vote America's share of that vast sum and make Ukraine a recipient of U.S. foreign aid roughly equal to what we provide annually to Israel and Egypt? And if we severely sanction Russia, she could cut off oil and gas to Europe, cause a recession in the eurozone, and move closer to China.

Nixon's great achievement was to split China off from Moscow. President Reagan's great achievement was to preside over the conversion of the "evil empire" into a country where he was cheered in Red Square.

What our Greatest Generation presidents accomplished, our Baby Boomer presidents appear to have booted away. [Editor's note: God's Law is very specific that were are not to make treaties with other nations. This is the outcome of ignoring God's Law. We do so at a very great price!]
