Pastor Dave Barley

Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

This just happened. Ruth "Talmudic-Jewish" Ginsburg just died--the wicked witch is dead. Let us all PRAISE KING JESUS. That wicked woman has caused so much evil and been behind much destruction in America. Let us all praise YHWH God that she is gone from the planet. This was an answer to many of our prayers!

God's not Through with Judgment

I opened the front door to our house the sky was gray and darkish misty looking. The wind had turned and was now blowing in deep smoke from California, Oregon, and Washington State. We had heard that many fires were being set on purpose by the usual suspects like BLM, ANTIFA, and climate control degenerates. They so want to upset things and prove their agenda which is based on a lie. Their cry about climate change is to bring about control. They are destroyers of the environment not protectors.

So once again, we must endure these fires and all the shenanigans that go with them. But the truth is, God is using these criminal communist half-wits into doing His plan of judgment. The hurricanes, tornados, fires, and such are YHWH's way of getting Israel's attention and for good reason as we have been a very rebellious people and our ways are not HIS WAYS. People have been the product of these humanistic brainwashing schools and universities, and those parents who sent their youth to these communist camps are getting paid back with extremely poor results.

God will not be mocked. Whatever we sow, we shall reap.

Jesus and His Word are one and the same. His Laws are provided for us that we be not deceived. Our one time blessed nation is being thrashed by Jesus Christ the Holy One because we are no longer serving Him, His Covenant, or His Law Word. America, there is no other way; our duty is to serve Jesus and do His Will, period.

Fires: How Much Can the Left Coast Take?

Proverbs 1:17-20

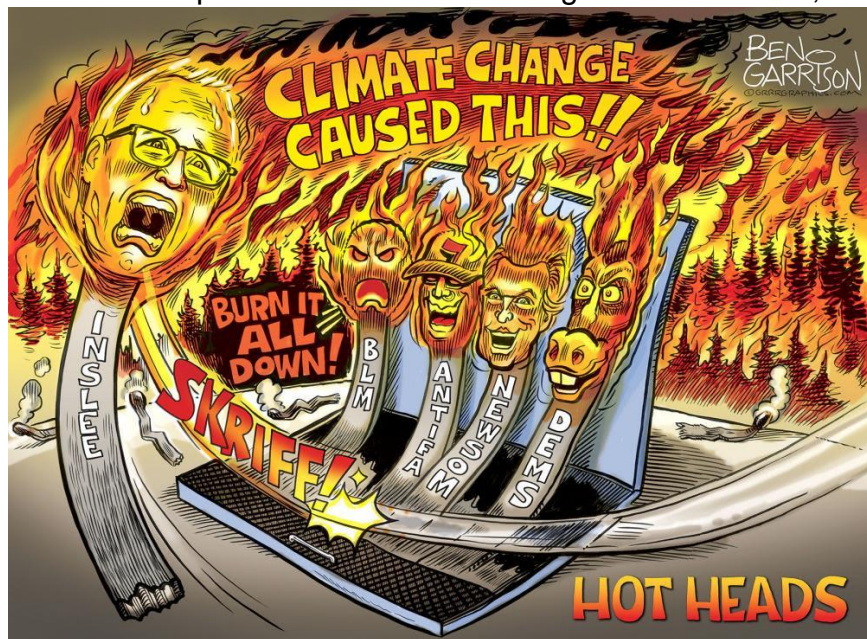

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

Again, that portion of America, liberal California, Oregon, and Washington have some unbelievable fires. Fires that are almost incomprehensible. Is God talking to America? No, He is through talking; He is now carrying out His wrath.

To be sure, the antichrists are moving, and God is letting them, to a certain extent, but He will win in the end. He will win big time. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth with what is going to transpire. It will be bigger than what we can imagine, HELL is going to come and those who are the enemies of Christ, shall I say, well, "They will get what is coming to them." Oh, I'm not really vindictive, just Bible realistic. I certainly will not be kind, sweet, or tolerable to these beasts. I've had more than enough, haven't you?

Colossians 2:14-15

¹⁴ Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

¹⁵ And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

So fires, as far as me and Jesus are concerned is just a good start. Nationally, we are getting it in lots of ways with regard to well deserved and needed Divine judgment! These devils (adversaries) are out to destroy us. YHWH, we pray and ask that you go before us with your righteous cause and create another Exodus divide of great salvation for your people as YOU did with your Israel people in the Exodus. We're not playing soft with our enemies any longer. We have to grow up and call a spade and spade. Be, we pray, our Great Deliverer, Jesus!

Our streets are full of Christ hating sodomites, communists, liberals, humanists, so called intellectuals, justifiers of evil. God Almighty have mercy upon your Israel Covenant people and deliver us from this pestilence. Oh, yes, America deserves this national spanking for sure, but to a degree there is a turning of a remnant of Anglo-Israel back to Jesus, His Word, precious Holy Spirit and Law. We all ought to stand firm in Jesus Christ and His Kingdom Purposes.

Do NOT let the enemy take this nation from Christianity (which it once was), as there is much work to be done in His Name.

We need to be ever so vigilant. We need to build upon the Purposes of the Kingdom and plow our way through with firmness of mind, honor, and dignity our Holy King deserves. Let us again act like God's people. Let us come forward with the firm assurance we have in God's Covenant Word to His called-out people—to be purposed, to be faithful, to be stalwart in our calling and duty, not only to ourselves and our posterity, but to our Divine Destiny.

Matthew 24:24

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

So much deception is out there, but we are not deceived, we are being made into the SONS OF GOD, doing His Will on earth. It's growing in His people. It is coming to fruition. Don't keep your eyes on the world. Keep our eyes upon Jesus. There is a new day coming, a Kingdom of Glory and Righteousness that will outshine even our greatest hopes and desires towards a new government of peace and righteous fruit. God's Kingdom will be exceedingly uplifting to His People.

2 Peter 1:12-16

¹² Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

¹³ Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

¹⁴ Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

¹⁵ Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

¹⁶ For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

King Jesus is our majesty! Through whatever trials and temptations He may put us through, let us with open hearts declare, "Not my will, but thine be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. May His peace which passes all understanding be yours." We are not really ever alone. We have His peace and Holy Spirit and we also have the Word of the Bible. We can receive Divine inspiration anytime of the day. All we have to do is apply it to our lives. Truly, He will never leave us nor forsake us. We are His, and His hand of mercy is upon us to lead and guide us. Let us all come together in His special calling upon Israel and forsake not the assembling of ourselves together. For He is righteous altogether, and He will keep His Word and deliver us from our enemies!

A Call to Awaken

Here is an article I wrote many months ago, and did not put it out (at least not that I remember). But upon reviewing it again. I think it fits even more so with today's madness and fear. I'M MAD—PEOPLE IN GENERAL ARE ACTING LIKE A BUNCH OF SCHOOL CHILDREN IN FULL PANIC!! That's right, I'm shall we say, more than a little angry. First, let me provide some needed Scripture verses.

Deuteronomy 6:24-25

²⁴ And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

²⁵ And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

Psalms 31:19

Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

Psalms 128:1-4

¹ Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

² For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

³ Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

⁴ Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

1 John 4:18

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

There are certainly many more Bible verses I could have provided, but if you didn't get the message not to fear man, then there is no way I can reach you; you'll just have to wallow in your fear.

We are not to be led, if you are, by the media diatribe and doctors' so-called advice. If so, then you might as well go out screaming in the streets and have yourself a good old temper tantrum for all the good it will do you. Go ahead and scream "WE ARE ALL GOING TO DIE, PLEASE MR. MEDICAL ESTABLISHMENT HELP US." But please, then don't go into some holy state and once again claim you're a born-again Christian.

For some of you, you are living in fear of what might happen and what might be an unholy outcome. If you are, then STOP IT. Stop overreacting and freaking out over everything your hearing out of man. Let the world see us poised, in control, and with our wits about us, but especially in right Biblical form.

The world is reacting in a panic frenzy wild manner. They are wildly running around and charging in all crazy sorts of directions like BLM, Antifa, and several other communist groups and liberal lefties. Is this Biblical or is this fanaticism gone amuck? It is a created hysteria in the name of their newfound religion, communism, or New World Order.

Through FORCE, government, and I mostly mean democratic state government is closing all kinds of events. But in general they are churches, religious gatherings, sports (I'm referring to our children and young people exercises), libraries, speaking engagements, airlines (and it's scary all the regulations and masks rules in effect), buses, cruise ships, museums, government offices, and that is just a small list.

To Arm or not to Arm?

The truth needs to be told on this, and by golly, as God is my witness, I'm going to do this. Americans and certainly White Christian Americans are told by the Word of God that they should be armed:

Luke 11:21-23

²¹ When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

²² But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

²³ He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

Exodus 22:2-3

² If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

³ If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him;

Isaiah 49:25

But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

Luke 22:35-36

³⁵ And he (King Jesus) said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

³⁶ Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword (or no gun), let him sell his garment, and buy one.

Remember this, I am not referring to revenge against your neighbor, and please do not tell me that today's multicultural America which our nation has become is the same as your neighbor. There is a time for everything, and this includes war and killing our Goliaths. God does not expect us to surrender our God given rights, freedoms, and liberties.

The time is quickly approaching and may have already passed in which God's people with the help of YHWH, should be preparing and willing to stand and resist the enemy. We must not passively surrender or just follow some Judeo-Christian formula for prayer. Let us be accountable Biblically. Let us be willing to offer a Godly resistance that is pursued when an enemy comes against our homes, heritage, and church by help of Almighty God.

I certainly realize that we cannot on our own defeat the enemy. The enemy is, in some cases, there because they are paid by Soros and the gang, and they are well armed and equipped in powerful ways. But with God's help, we are more than able to defeat them. God can cause a vast array of miracles. He can cause our enemies to even flee in more ways than we can imagine.

Shakespeare said: "A coward dies a thousand times before his death, but the valiant taste of death but once. It seems to me most strange that men should fear, seeing that death, a necessary end, will come when it will come."

Let's face it folks, there is coming a time when we will have no alternative, but to resist. I realize God is our Deliverer. We are called to "occupy" or "resist" because such a time has come to do so. Oh, I very well realize that to pray is Divine and we do most assuredly have a blessed Redeemer. But Prayer alone without works, is dead. We do have additional tools God has provided us which certainly include spiritual gifts, powers, and wonders, but let's not be naïve folks, Jesus can use all things, including the powers He has bestowed upon Adamic man which God can bring out that would amazed you.

This is why owning and bearing arms is also essential to our basic rights and freedoms. Guns, yes, guns should be used at various times, including target practicing. We must be fully aware of their need, function, and purpose which God gave us. We do have a Divine right to own and bear arms and especially for such a day and time as this. I want to close this article by quoting from the book Operation Vampire Killer 2000, by my old friend Officer Jack McLamb, pages 42-43:

Americans won't Need Guns in "Utopia"

Police officers and soldiers must remember what the renowned H. L. Mencken said, "To die for an idea, it is unquestionably noble. But how much nobler it would be if men died for ideas that were true."

Officers are told the reason the guns have to be removed from the American people is to stop crime and the killing of the innocent. This is fabrication. Truthfully, the only reason the guns must be removed is to stop any chance of our countrymen rising up and throwing off the "wonderful" programs that their "philanthropic" government leaders have planned for them.

It is time to seriously consider what each of us will do when these Global elitists in our government instruct OFFICERS and SOLDIERS to go forth and take the guns away from the armed, good people of your city or town... "FOR THEIR OWN GOOD." Most officers and soldiers know the day will come when they will have to make that very hard decision on this gun removal issue. The evidence is all around us that this day is near.

Consider the Imperialist New World Order position. For the World Elite to truly enjoy their "utopian" Socialist Society, the subject masses must not have a means to protect themselves against more “voluntary compliance.” When one grasps this logical position, there is no longer any question about it: THE GUNS WILL HAVE TO GO.

If there are any colleagues who still doubt this, we are about to prove this planned scenario to you. Keep in mind that the second part of the three-part plan of the NWO Regional Government programs (which precedes the One-World Government) is that Canada, USA, Mexico and South and Central America are to be combined into one Region. Hence, the North American Free Trade Agreement (P.S. We sure hear a lot about free-trade these days, don't we?) is on a FAST-TRACK including NOW Congressmen, Senators, and Governors. The other two-parts presently in the works are: First part – the uniting of the European Nations (Common Market), and #3 – the uniting of the Asian nations. These make up the “TRI” [3] parts of the Tri-lateral One World Government.

...Some guns will be easily removed. Many unsuspecting (and very naïve) Americans will turn to their “liberty teeth”(their means of personal protection) when told to do so. Each of us knows such people in the community, i.e. those “good” citizens who are too scared to oppose anything their government tells them to do.”

I might add, you can also tell who these people will be, because they are all wearing masks today!

Update from Man in Seattle

“Since the attack on July 4th, my freedom and independence was taken from me in that park. And you see the blacks in Seattle are occupying the space around that park and my building which they are vowing to take over and expel all tenants. As a result I am trapped in here unable to be seen coming or going as they will finish me off. Several Tenants have been harassed out front, but the culprits don't know I live in here so my blinds must be kept drawn day and night. I have not been outdoors since the 4th and must have all food delivered, etc. So much has resulted from that assault on my life. My lie has become a living nightmare and I am a prisoner in my own apartment.” DF, Seattle 8/10/2020

Exclusive from Gen. Flynn: This Is My Letter to America

<https://www.westernjournal.com/exclusive-gen-flynn-letter-america/>

We are witnessing a vicious assault by enemies of all that is good, and our president is having to act in ways unprecedented in decades, maybe centuries. The biblical nature of good versus evil cannot be discounted as we examine what is happening on the streets of America.

It's Marxism in the form of antifa and the Black Lives Matter movement versus our very capable and very under-appreciated law enforcement professionals, the vast majority of whom are fighting to provide us safe and secure homes, streets, and communities. When the destiny of the United States is at stake, and it is, the very future of the entire world is threatened.

As Christians, shouldn't we act? We recognize that Divine Providence is the ultimate Judge of our destiny. Achieving our destiny as a freedom-loving nation, Providence compels us to do our part in our communities. It encourages us in this battle against the forces of evil to face our fears head-on. No enemy on earth is stronger than the united forces of God-fearing, freedom-loving people.

We can no longer pretend that these dark forces are going to go away by mere prayer alone. Prayers matter, but action is required. This action is needed at the local, state, and federal levels. Action is also required in the economic, media, clerical and ecclesiastical realms. Decide how you can act within your abilities.

Stand up and state your beliefs. Be proud of who you are and what you stand for. And face, head-on, those community "leaders" who are willing to allow dark forces to go beyond peaceful protests and destroy and violate your safety and security.

Churches and houses of worship must return to normal. We invite everyone of goodwill to not shirk their responsibilities and instead act in a fraternal fashion. If for no other reason or with no other ability, act in a spirit of charity.

We cannot disrespect or disregard natural law along with our own religious liberties and freedoms. I am witnessing elderly people lose their connection to all that is good in their lives: connections to their faith, their families, and their individual freedoms, especially the simple act of attending church, something they've been doing for decades.

Let us not be intimidated or fear those who cry out that we are in the minority; we are not. Good is always more powerful and will prevail over evil. However, evil will succeed for a time when good people are divided from each other and their personal lives — children away from their teachers, preachers from their congregations, customers from their local businesses.

America will never give in to evil. Americans work together to solve problems. We do not and should not ever allow anarchy and the evil forces behind it to operate on any street in our nation.

No one should have to fear for their very life because some dark, disturbed force is challenged by the very essence of what America stands for. We are “one nation under God” and it is our individual liberties that make us strong, not liberties given to our government. Our government has no liberty unless and until “we the people” say so. God bless America and let's stand by everything that was and is good in our lives, in our communities and in our country. Otherwise, America as the true North Star for humanity will cease to exist as we know it.

That Hateful Four Letter Word

By Phillip Humber

In our modern American society and its controlled media, the word hate has become a dangerous four letter word, mainly because of our ignorance of it. By labeling anyone who is against their communistic Talmudic rule as being hateful, a hate-monger, or a hate group, when they in fact are attempting to destroy the lives of those who are not ignorant to their ungodly wickedness. It is no wonder that Christians have been so easily brainwashed to run from the subject of hate.

The very mention of the word usually brings with it the idea of an 'evil and wicked, malicious, cruel hostility,' even though this is not the definition of the word, but that is what we have been led to believe it means. The most basic and common definition of the verb form of the word hate is to regard with extreme dislike. The noun form of the word is defined as extreme hostility and dislike. These are really good definitions, but actually, it is really hard to define the word hate in simple absolute terms as it is used in the Scriptures because of the various levels used. In the Holy Scripture, hate ranges from strong dislike to indifference towards someone or something.

Hate is seated in the emotions or will. It is true that hatred (enmity) can definitely be a "work of the flesh," and while there are kinsman who transgress the LORD God's Law with carnally motivated hate, there is also a righteous godly hate that is also seen in the Scriptures. Unfortunately, because of the propaganda of Mystery Babylon, our people have been so desensitized that most dismiss godly righteous hate as something of the Old Testament that passed away with the coming of Christ.

The modern belief that all hate in itself is wicked and sinful cannot logically be true because the LORD Himself hates certain things. Old Testament Scripture records the LORD hating images set up for idolatry. Deuteronomy 16:31, every abomination which the other nations do to their gods Deuteronomy 12:31, him that loves violence Psalms 11:5, a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that thinks up wicked imaginations, feet swift in running to mischief, a false witness, he that sows discord among brothers Proverbs 6:16-19, Esau Malachi 1:3, and the deeds and doctrines of the Nicolaitans Revelation 2:6, 15. Since there is no wickedness or sin in the LORD God, His hate must be righteous. Also, since He is a Spirit John 4:24, and we individually are temples of His Holy Spirit 1 Corinthians 6:9, it is logical that His righteous hate for wickedness could manifest itself through our lives just as the other attributes or fruits of the Spirit. I believe that this happened with King David.

David is recorded as a man after God's own heart 1 Samuel 13:14, Acts 13:22, yet he hated the congregation of evil doers Psalms 26:5, them that regard lying vanities Psalms 31:6, the work of them that turn aside Psalms 101:3, every false way Psalms 119:104, 128, vain thoughts Psalms 119:113, and lying Psalms 119:163. The best example of David's righteous hate is in the Psalms 139:21-22 where he says to the LORD God:

²¹ Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

²² I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

After making such a bold statement of his hate, he goes on to say to the LORD,

²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

²⁴ And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

David must not have seen hating the LORD's enemies as a sin because he was not fearful of having his heart tried before the LORD, even with it harboring such hate. And surely, he would not have gone on to encourage those who love the LORD to hate evil as he did in Psalm 97:10 if there had been a doubt of the righteousness of his own hate for the LORD's enemies. In addition, there is the fact that nowhere in Scripture does it ever condemn David of any unrighteous hate. In Proverbs, Solomon made some truly clear observations about the “fear of the Lord.”

The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, Proverbs 14:27
The fear of the Lord prolongeth days, Proverbs 10:27
The fear of the Lord tendeth to life: Proverbs 19:23 the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life.

Proverbs 22:4

by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. Proverbs 16:6

The word fear here means reverence. The reverence (fear) of the Lord is to honor and devote ourselves to Him. The fear of the LORD is the foundation on which our relationship and obedience are based. In Proverbs 8:13, Solomon goes on to make a clear statement of the effect that our reverence of the LORD has on our standing in regard to evil. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil:

When we wholeheartedly commit and devote ourselves to Him, we automatically turn against those things that oppose Him. In the New Testament, we find Jesus teaches the true nature of the Spirit of the Law, which is love.

being rooted and grounded in love, Ephesians 3:7
And walk in love Ephesians 5:2
But the fruit of the Spirit is love Galatians 5:22 therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Romans 13:10
Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 John 2:15

In Matthew 5:43, Jesus says, Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. The Law does teach us to love our neighbour Leviticus 19:18, but to hate thine enemy was an addition by the people that was mistaken to have always been a part of the Law at the time of Christ. On the contrary, the Law does teach to do good to our enemies Exodus 23:4-5, which is just what Jesus goes on to teach in verse 44, But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you,

Here Jesus was clearly teaching a solid principle of the Law while correcting a traditional error.

Another mistake that most Christians make about Jesus' teaching on loving our enemies is that it means for us to love everyone no matter what. Loving our enemies and loving the Lord's enemies is really two different things. And while we and the LORD may have the same common enemy, the key is where our hate is motivated from. Is the motivation because of it being the LORD's enemy or our own? Just because Jesus teaches us to love and to do good to our enemies does not mean we are to love and do good to the LORD's enemies. Consider 2 Chronicles 19:2.

. . . Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? . . .

Hate will either arise out of a reverence for the LORD or out of selfish pride. So far we have really only touched on the righteous form of hate. Of course, there is no doubt that there is a form of hate that is the work of the flesh. Galatians 5:19-21

¹⁹ Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

²⁰ Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

²¹ Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

This kind of carnal hate is rooted in selfishness and pride and is hostile. In fact, the word hatred in Galatians 5:20 is translated from the Greek word echthra (Strong's #2189) which means enmity. Enmity is the hostile carnal form of hate that is rooted in pride and transgresses the LORD's Law by its works. It is this kind of hate that wickedly lashes out and commits the hate crimes that our anti-Christ enemy uses to slander all Identity believers!

Make no mistake, carnal hatred is sinful!

In conclusion, there is clear Scriptural evidence to prove there are both righteous and unrighteous forms of hate. There is the LORD's way and then there is our way. If we harbor any sort of hatred for anything or anyone and it is not based on our love and devotion to the LORD there is no doubt that it is selfishly motivated, and we are in sin and in need of repentance.

The LORD God saved us from the sin and unrighteousness we used to live in, including carnal hatred, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus the Christ Titus 3:3-6.

We should strive to never return to any form of carnal hatred. We should also always keep in mind that even if we are harboring a perfect righteous hatred for the LORD's enemies, as David did, it is still not an excuse to break His Holy Law.

¹⁴ Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

¹⁵ Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

Amos 5:14-15

Let's Move Forward Towards The Kingdom

By Pastor Barley

Sometimes, we can get to far out there in never-never land, and we can paint ourselves and others into a giant conspiracy corner that is hard to get out from. Yes, certainly, there are conspiracies, but not all of them hold truth that we should depend on and place on others in our circle of beliefs. Have you ever noticed that some people jump at every conspiracy that is sent their way and next thing we know; they are so full of conspiracies they become “abnormal?” Never forget that we are first and foremost Christians. Do not open doors to every conspiracy that come our way.

You must have firm assurance in Jesus Christ first and foremost, which is the Bible way. This must be our source of Truth. Let's not get extremely far away from our true heritage and foundation. Stay Biblical. Now, we are living in “very strange days” to say the least. We are living among a multiple of strange events such as this “virus,” riots and unruly mostly crazed youth and the black madness, serums of disease, death and folly, political madness, world unrest, and so forth.

Now I know most of us are not allowed to go to restaurants and such, including hospitals if you have a health problem perhaps, because you do not wish to go through all of their regulations and shenanigans including all the virus testing and rules.

For instance, have you ever been to a restaurant and all of a sudden you sort of “drop your proverbial teeth” when someone or group of people walk in and you say to yourself “WHAT IS THAT?” You are shocked by the audacity and utter outrageousness of that person or creatures for the outlandish way they look, dress, covered with tattoos or have their “hair.” Once in a while you will even run into a “cross-dresser.” You almost go into shock! Well, we are living in those kind of days friends. The Bible warned us about this doesn't it?

2 Peter 3:13-18

¹³ Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Don't we "look for a new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness?" It is burning in our heart and we have a strong desire for righteousness, and the Kingdom of God to be manifest.

¹⁴ Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

We "look (and search) for such things, be diligent (steadfast) that ye may be found of him (Jesus) in peace, without spot, and blameless." This means that we must regularly evaluate our actions and behavior, that we try to line up in conformity with Jesus and His Will.

¹⁵ And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

¹⁶ As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

Clearly there are "hard to be understood" Bible Truths, but we are meant to press forward in the Truth. But there are massive groups of Christians that are unlearned in many passages of the Bible and they are so unlearned in the Word that they have become "unstable." They are misled unto their own destruction because they are unstable in many of their ways and care not how they look or behave.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

The message is don't be "led away with the error of the wicked" who follow the lusts of their flesh. Meaning, many will "fall from your own stedfastness." They fall, because they allow themselves to be led away in the ways of the flesh because they somehow lost their "stedfastness," their firmness to not sway away from the Word of God.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

We so look forward to the Kingdom of God, that we hold to His (King Jesus) firm assurance as to what type of people we should be, and so, we guard ourselves. We do not waiver from the Holy Quest. Do we hear the message today that we are more than able to take, possess, and attain the Kingdom of God? Are we more than able to pursue righteousness? Yes, with God's Holy Spirit in us!

Joshua and Caleb came to Moses with a good report. Their message was, "We are more than able to possess the Kingdom and drive those giants from that land." Folks, let us not live in fear of the enemy. Let us in no way abandon our faith. Let us move forward in righteousness, joy, peace, and so forth, which are things of the Holy Spirit. This is taking possession of land, government, taking back our schools, our false money system, our race, our society, our godly foundation to the end we help usher in the Kingdom of God.

We are pleased to announce the upcoming ordination service for Matthew Dyer on October 25, 2020 at our local services. Another young man to preach the Good News of our Israelite Identity and His Kingdom!

Identifying the Kingdom

By the late Pastor Frank W. Dowsett, Australia

Excerpt from his book, The Kingdom of God

In studying the subject of the Kingdom of God, it is imperative that we understand two major factors concerning it. They are:

1. What is the Kingdom of God?
2. Where is the Kingdom of God?

In regard to these basic questions, quite incredibly, there appears to be at least three different teachings and points of view. They are:

- a. That the church is the Kingdom of God
- b. That the Kingdom of God is a spiritual condition within our hearts.
- c. That the Kingdom of God is a literal nation here on earth.

Now it must surely be obvious to even the most elementary student that there must be a considerable degree of confusion on the subject to allow for such a seemingly wide divergence of opinion. Yet paradoxically, despite these differences, it becomes more and more obvious as we study the subject that all three of these aspects are required for a complete picture and understanding of God's Kingdom. The trouble seems to be not so much in the divergence of opinions as much as in the fact of the exclusiveness in which these opinions are held and expressed. The general rule seems to be to believe in one of these points of view to the exclusion of the other two. Most people just don't realize, and sadly all too often simply don't want to realize, that both the national and spiritual aspects of the Kingdom go hand in hand, and cannot be separated from each other.

God quite clearly and concisely expressed this important fact when He first commissioned the nation of Israel, as recorded in Exodus 19:6. He said:

“Ye shall be unto Me a kingdom of priest and a holy

So, let us examine these three aspects in order to determine the complete nature of this Kingdom.

I am convinced that a great deal of misunderstanding and wishful thinking is exhibited by most Bible teachers and students when it comes to the subject of The Church. So, let us get our thoughts straightened out on this before proceeding any further.

The word church in the Hebrew is qahal and it means an assembly called together. The word church in the Greek is ekklesia and means that which is called out. [From Young's Concordance.] So, we see that in both the Hebrew and the Greek language, the word church means the same thing.

Now whilst I have given the Hebrew word for church, it does not appear once in the entire Old Testament, and the word qahal does not appear once in the entire Old Testament in relationship to what is presently referred to as the Church! This word is always used in the Old Testament of the nation of Israel. If you don't believe me, then look it up in your concordance. You will find that in every reference, the congregation of the Lord which is the phrase translated from the Hebrew word qahal, is the nation of Israel. As a matter of fact, the only reason that this particular Hebrew word is associated with the word church is because of its identical meaning with the Greek word. In its original sense and usage, it referred to an assembly or congregation of Israel on a national scale. But with the passage of time following the captivities and dispersion of Israel, and following the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, small groups of Christians, mostly Israelites by the way, began to fellowship together in groups or congregations for the purpose of worship and praise. These groups consisted of called out ones by virtue of their acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the word church, in its original sense was quite correctly applied to them. Thus was manifest the result of the commission give to the disciples, as set down in Matthew 10:5-6 where Jesus Himself told them:

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

The serious student might list to read and study Ezekiel 34:6-12; Matthew 15:24; 18:12, and Luke 19:10 for further light on this situation. But I would draw the readers' special attention the words of our Lord Himself in Matthew 15:24 where we read:

But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

This was not a statement of exclusiveness. It was a simple statement of priorities. These groups did not come into being or meet just in a national sense, but as people who had accepted the atoning sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ, and who believed on His Name, accepting His call to come out from the world system and follow Him. We repeat, that with few exceptions, these people were Israelites who then went out to take the gospel, or Good News of Israel's redemption to their dispersed brethren so that they in turn could turn back to their God, grow into the Nation and company of Nations which their father Abraham had been promised, and then become the greatest missionary force ever seen to take the blessings of God's Word to all the families and nations of the earth, which was their God appointed destiny and responsibility.

Christ thus worked through these called out ones within His Israel people. Paul, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, designates them as the Body of Christ. In both Ephesians 1:22-23 and Colossians 1:18, we read respectively:

22 . . .the head over all things to the church,

²³ Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

And he is the head of the body, the church . . .

Thus, we see that this body or church, these called out ones, operated within the called out nation. Under no circumstances did it every replace the nation as the literal Kingdom, the qahal or ekklesia or congregation or called out ones of God. To substitute the church, in the present theological usage of the term for the Kingdom is to spiritualize the Word of God in a totally unwarranted manner, and not only destroys the opportunity of God's faithfulness in performing His covenants which were national, but confuses our understanding of His great plans and purposes. It is a sorry fact, but a fact nevertheless, that must of the preaching and teaching today, which is applied to the church, does not apply to the church at all but to God's literal Kingdom here on earth.

The second belief commonly held regarding the Kingdom of God is that it is a spiritual condition in our hearts. We have already referred to this practice as having developed from a misunderstanding of the proper meaning of Luke 17:21 where we read:

behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

As previously mention, the original Greek word used does not carry the intention of the subject being inside us, but rather of being among us that is, in the midst of us. You can quite easily check this for yourself in both your concordance and many of the other translations.

There would seem to be no doubt but that this view gains much support from the previously discussed view that the church is the Kingdom, and the statements relative to that opinion as outlined above will be found to be also relevant to this belief.

So, before proceeding to the third point of view, namely that the Kingdom of God is a literal Kingdom here on this earth, let us take stock of the position which we have studied thus far.

The church is the body of Christ comprising primarily and originally, the nation of Israel as the called out congregation of God and secondly, those who, by their acceptance of salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ are called out within that greater congregation, to do His work as individual members of that Body. Thus, we have an elect group, referred to as the church operating as a specially empowered entity within the overall church or congregation of the national Kingdom.

Under no circumstances can it ever be, nor did God every intend it to be a substitute for the Kingdom!

In addition to this, the spiritual nature of both Christ and His Kingdom, may and indeed must, operate within the hearts of the individual. But again, this power within is not a substitute for the Kingdom! The Kingdom of God is a literal Kingdom here on this earth where it was first brought into being, and where it was always intended by God to be. It is the Kingdom over which our Lord Jesus Christ will reign. Surely, the words of Luke 1:32-33 could not be plainer:

³² He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

³³ And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

So, we come now to the study of our third alternative, namely, that the Kingdom of God is a literal Kingdom here on this earth. Probably the greatest stumbling block to the acceptance of this fact by many sincere Christians is that having always been lead to believe that the Kingdom of God is simply a spiritual condition within themselves, they consequently are only aware of the spiritual aspects of the Kingdom, without recognizing the existence of the literal Kingdom itself within which the spiritual operates.

One can understand such people's reluctance to deviate from their position because all too often the literal nature of the Kingdom is presented in such a way as to lead them to conclude that its spiritual aspects and qualities and requirements are being denied.

So, in defense of the spiritual, they set up a barrier against the literal which they have mistakenly concluded oppose them. But this defensive stand is not necessary. The Kingdom of God, whilst being a literal nation on the earth, is no ordinary nation or kingdom. It is not like the other nations of the earth. It is in the world, but not of the world. Having been especially formed by God as the instrument through which He intends to fulfil His Divine purposes here on earth under the rulership and dominion of the Lord Jesus Christ, as distinct from the Non-Israelite nations whose dominion belongs to Satan, (you will remember that it was this dominion which Satan offered to Jesus when he was tempting Him), the spiritual nature of this very special Kingdom is as much a part of its existence as its literal nature. Thus, those who adopt the extremes of either point of view in isolation from the other, find themselves in error. The literal and the spiritual cannot be separated. In fact, the very life and existence of the literal nation, and its relationship to the very God Who formed it, depends absolutely on its spiritual condition.

The fact of the incredibly special nature of this Kingdom, or nation of Israel – that being the name which God gave to His early kingdom as being a ruler or prince with God - is amply demonstrated in Deuteronomy 7:6-8:

6For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

And as we read in Romans 11:29:

For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

At this point, it would probably be pertinent to comment upon the fact that we are using the words kingdom and nation as synonymous terms. A look at the Scriptures, and the meaning of the Hebrew and Greek words used, will certainly be found to support this practice in the context in which we are using the words. If we turn to Exodus 19:6, we read:

And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation.

Looking up the meaning of the words in Hebrew and Greek we find the following:

	Hebrew	Greek
Kingdom	dominion, estate, country, realm	the royal dominion
Nation	a nation, people	a nation, people

So the common or synonymous use of these words is clearly demonstrated. Again, the literal nature of God's Kingdom on earth is borne out by the very prayer which our Lord gave us as a pattern for our own prayer life. He instructed us to pray for the coming of His Kingdom and its righteousness here on this earth.

And what do we make of the promise of God made to Mary by the Angel of the Lord as recorded in Luke 1:31-33?

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Words can surely not be plainer. The Kingdom of God, the Kingdom over which our Lord Jesus Christ is to reign which He returns to this earth is The House of Jacob or Israel.

Is God Awakening Some to the Differences in the Races?

Next is an article that someone sent to me from Taki's Magazine Website. For those of you who are not familiar with this website this is how it is described on their home page.

We at Taki's Magazine take our politics like we take life—lightly. We believe political labels such as conservative and liberal are as outdated as flared trousers. Ideology is a false god, a secular religion that seeks vainly to create a paradise on Earth.

Our only ideology is to be against the junk culture foisted upon us by Hollywood and the mainstream media, and mirages of a new world order. Think of us what you will, but read us.

Be Nice to Black People

By Jim Goad, author of is the author of four books, including The Redneck Manifesto.

https://www.takimag.com/article/being-nice-to-black-people/?fbclid=IwAR3W-JieISqYydXs3-MnD6ZgHf4mnEGac8_iNguEOuvavYaw-0laJ91MXbM

In all the endlessly tiresome back-and-forth screeching about race relations in this country, never once have I heard anyone beyond an anonymous tweeter here or there suggest the main problem is that we've been far too nice to black people.

Despite the fact that black-on-white violence far outstrips the inverse, and despite the fact that American culture has performed nonstop anilingus [butt kissing] on blacks and nonstop defamation of whites for a couple generations now, and despite the fact that it's ludicrous to assert that modern blacks are being economically exploited in any possible way since blacks in the aggregate take far more from the "government" (i.e., white taxpayers) in assistance than they contribute in taxes, the establishment left and right both seem to agree that anti-black "racism" is a real problem.

Multiple speakers at the COVID Skype show that was the Republican National Convention last week bent over and grabbed their ankles wishing warm feelings for Jacob Blake, the black male from Kenosha with a felony warrant for rape who was filmed on camera fighting with white cops before they wound up shooting him after screaming at him to put down his knife. But there wasn't a word of sympathy for Kyle Rittenhouse, the white Trump supporter who shot three non-blacks in Kenosha last week as they were attacking him with fists, a skateboard, and a handgun.

Republicans get called Nazis no matter how far they bend over, and still they try to appease the same malicious actors who call them Nazis. You know what they say about those who don't learn from history.

If the establishment left and right disagree on anything, it's whether or not anti-white rhetoric and anti-white violence are problems. But both groups openly pander to blacks as a racial group, while neither dares to openly appeal to whites. The Republicans simply never say anything about whites, while the Democrats openly demean whites.

Despite what the narrative-sculptors would have you believe, I've never had a problem being nice to black people. And in most cases, black people don't have a problem being nice to me. Having gotten that out of the way, what I'm about to say will be scorned by people on both ends of this imaginary political spectrum for different reasons, and I suppose it won't help to explain that I'm saying this not to win points with anyone. . .

There have, of course, been exceptions—I've been robbed and punched by black people, although I've never robbed or punched one myself. And I know multiple white people who've suffered violence, rape, and murder at the hands of blacks, whereas I've never personally known a white person who's done the inverse.

But that's not what the narrative-sculptors would have you believe, is it?

"When you concede to an infant's tantrums, does their behavior improve?"

Despite all of the evidence, they keep peddling this antiquated notion that America is such a cesspit of anti-black hatred and violence that blacks are scared of even walking outside these days. Even basketball superstar LeBron James and his net worth of nearly a half-billion dollars recently asserted as much.

Coulda fooled me! Blacks don't seem to have the slightest problem appearing in public and bullying and hitting and demeaning every white person within spitting distance.

No, it's whites who are afraid. Deathly afraid.

Back when whites actually had a positive collective identity, they weren't nearly as afraid. In fact, it was the blacks who were afraid. And that was a bad thing—if you were black. If you were white, one of the perks that you didn't have to live in constant fear of being physically attacked for saying the wrong thing.

But as modern whites, we're lectured that it's a good thing to live in constant fear. We're told it's what we deserve for all that we've done to blacks.

Sorry, but what have I ever done to blacks except being nice to them?

So I have to ask ye white Americans: How has being nice to black people been workin' out for ya?

Have you noticed that the nicer we are to blacks, the angrier they act toward us? Have you noticed that this phenomenon acts with almost mathematical precision? Have you pondered that perhaps they don't interpret our kindness as kindness, but rather as weakness?

I read a long time ago that Southerners hate the idea of blacks as a group but are nice to them individually, whereas Northerners love the idea of blacks as an abstract concept but treat them rottenly on an individual basis. While that's a gross overgeneralization and impossible to quantify, it's appearing more and more that in this equation, I would qualify as a honorary Southerner.

Back when you could get your ass kicked by white people for saying nice things about black people, I was that guy.

Now, when you can get your life destroyed for saying nice things about white people, I'm still that guy.

I haven't changed at all. All that "progress" really means is that society has shifted its poles and redefined the good guys and the bad guys.

Except for the times when I was punched and robbed by individual blacks, my experiences with them have been overwhelmingly positive. So, yes, it can be said that I have very high regard for most of them as individuals.

But holy *, they are a complete mess as a group. Where on Earth does a large presence of blacks actually improve the per-capita income and life expectancy? Where is there a majority-black country on Earth where blacks enjoy a higher standard of living and live longer than they do in this allegedly white-supremacist hellhole called the USA? I've been asking that last question for a quarter-century and have never received an answer. I've been called plenty of names for asking the question, but after about the hundredth time, that only seems like a dishonest way of avoiding the question altogether.

It's stupid to be nice to someone who has no intention of being nice to you.

Even though White Fragility [pure propaganda hit piece] is one of the best-selling books of recent years, what we're actually dealing with is black fragility, because if you dare to even utter one negative thing about them, the entire nation might burn.

It's not a healthy world where you're constantly afraid of speaking the truth.

It's as if all of white America is a battered wife desperately scrambling not to make her husband angry again. Sounds like we're in an abusive relationship with blacks—so deeply abusive, we're being gaslit as the abusers and most of us seem to believe it. It's like, wow, honey, you just made your abusive husband breakfast in bed, but he slapped you harder than ever. The nicer we get, the more racist they say we are, and the meaner they get. And no one sees a connection to any of this?

If people refrain from ever thinking or saying anything negative about black people again, do you think this current situation will resolve itself, or will it get a lot worse? I recently conducted a poll on this very question, and 93.8% of the 499 respondents said things will only get worse.

When you concede to an infant's tantrums, does their behavior improve?

Mind you, I don't like white people any more than I like black people. In a lot of ways, I respect modern whites far less than I respect modern blacks. I'll respect anyone who acts in self-interest far more than I'll respect any masochist.

But we currently occupy a culture where being perceived as a "racist" justifies your murder. So would you rather be dead, or would you rather be called a racist and stay alive to fight back? Sooner than you think, you will be forced to answer that question. I choose to continue being nice to blacks as individuals, but when it comes to blacks as a group, I am now highly suspicious of both their capabilities and their intentions toward me and other whites.

Let's put it this way: I love my dog, and he has a great personality, but I wouldn't let him drive my truck. Despite how likeable he is, I'd only be inviting disaster.

Corona (CROWN) Blessings From God

By Martha Barley

Are the Tares Burning? Is God Burning California, Oregon, and Washington with Red Fire to turn them Red Politically? Are the Idols Being Torn Down?

All of us have complained about the lockdowns, masks, etc., and we need to learn to look at world events through God's eyes rather than some political or preconceived framework. I often hear people giving God's Glory to the Antichrists. They attribute far more power and credit to the evil ones on their machinations rather than asking, "What is God doing through this evil?"

Do you believe that God is sovereign, or do you believe that someone or something is thwarting His Plans?

I KNOW with every fiber of my being that everything down to the smallest detail is orchestrated by our Father and that while we much occupy until He returns, we must also wait as David waited for Him to give us the fullness of the Kingdom.

Luke 12:28-32

²⁸ If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

²⁹ And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

³⁰ For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

³¹ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

³² Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Just as Solomon said, there is no new thing under the sun, Ecclesiastes 1:9 the Antichrists are building their new Tower of Babel (Baal) and they think they will accomplish it. They think that they will thwart God, but they do not know who God is and we do. Please read the entire chapter of Isaiah 45. Here is a just of glimpse of what God is doing.

Isaiah 45:5-7, 9, 25

⁵I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

⁶That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else.

⁷I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

⁹Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? Or thy work, He hath no hands?

²⁵In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

So with a certainty, we can know that this Corona virus, the lockdowns, the riots, the arson, etc., is all from God's Hand and that in the end that all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

Corona (means crown) Blessings

1. Children and even college students have been taken out of the indoctrination centers and many are learning love of God and country for the first time. Parents are actually getting to know their children because of all the time they have had together including those who are working from home. Think about how much time is now family time compared to pre-corona days.
2. The idols of sports, Hollyweird, the music industry, alcohol (bars have been closed), and even Las Vegas and other hedonistic pleasures have been stopped
3. The most "liberal" cities are reaping what they have sown.
Hosea 8:7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. Have the tares started to burn? I think that is very possible.

4. The color revolution believes that by creating chaos in the streets they can have a Marxist state in America, but many of the people harmed by the chaos are experiencing what real Marxism is. Many are realizing that they don't want that, and many people are realizing that we must turn back to God. More and more churches and cities are having days of prayer and repentance and more and more churches are realizing that we must stand together against the mobs of Mystery Babylon.
5. More and more whites are learning that they are the ones in real danger as more and more share the truth that it is whites who are much more harmed by blacks than the other way around.
6. We are seeing a mass migration from the cities to the country. Thousands of people are moving out of the liberal states and cities. White flight is now a stampede.
7. Globalism has been severely weakened as people have learned that we cannot be dependent on other nations.
8. Fast tracking a vaccine has caused hundreds of thousands to research vaccines and to question people like Gates and Fauci. Many have learned what vaccine ingredients are for the first time. Will God use the vaccine to further burn the tares that line up to take it? Another possible outcome.

So, I want to encourage all of you to trust God throughout this time and to seek Him regarding what He would have you to do. Remember to Praise Him in this Storm and Praise Him even if bad things happen. In the end, all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

Book 1: 814 – THE ORIGINS AND EMPIRES OF ANCIENT ISRAEL – A look at the early history of Israel with emphasis on the little known important events that helped to shape our modern world. Here is the evidence that God's People visited distant lands in Europe and America in ancient times.

"This is an awesome series!!! I have known of the Identity truth since around 1985, but I never knew what a vast empire Israel was! Modern historians really mainly touch on Rome and Greece, but there was a vast world before them! Mr. Collins does a super history lesson in these four books! For anyone wanting to know more of Israelite history along with pre-American history, these are definitely the books to read. They added so much to me and my understanding of Israel! PH, GA
