HOW TO RESTORE AMERICA AND ULTIMATELY, THE WORLD (A spiritual analogy)

Do you want the short answer, or the long one? Well, I'll make it easy on you and give you the short answer on "HOW TO RESTORE OUR NATION." The answer is, "THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND HIS WHOLE BIBLE WORD." Perhaps that answer may sound too simplistic to you, but it absolutely is the ANSWER AND SOLUTION TO OUR NATIONAL AND INDIVIDUAL PROBLEMS.

Let's extend this answer to "PUT THE GOOD IN AND TAKE THE BAD OUT." Oh, but Pastor, the answer couldn't be that simple, could it? Yes, Virginia, the answer is that simple, and it will restore America, and ultimately, the rest of the world. The same applies to our individual (body) health. If we put GOOD, live, uncorrupted, healthy food into our body, believe it or not, the GOOD will eventually clean out the bad, and health will be restored. Dead, Babylonianized, chemically overloaded, homogenized, genetically engineered foods (GMO), MONSANTO (Frankenstein) seeds are killing us. But purity of food as God created it and intended it for our health is GOOD and this GOOD will overcome the bad, and HEALTH WILL BLOSSOM. You may have to go on an extended raw juice fast for many days to cleanse your polluted system, but it will cleanse you, and make you whole

(at least, a whole lot better physically). Only our Precious Lord Jesus can make us completely whole, and He wants to, but we have to follow His full body and spirit health plan, individually and nationally. Therefore, we have to live by the whole Word of God and seek to be pure IN THE CHRIST WORD.

Psalms 12:6-8

⁶The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

⁷Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

UNDERSTAND THE FOLLOWING:

THE WORDS OF THE LORD ARE PURE WORDS (or purifying Words).

 THOU SHALT KEEP THEM

 THOSE WHO KEEP HIS WORD, GOD SHALL PRESERVE

 THE WICKED WALK ON EVERY SIDE BECAUSE THE COVENANT PEOPLE ARE NOT KEEPING HIS WORD

 THE VILEST MEN (MOSTLY, THOSE IN THE HEADLINES TODAY) ARE EXALTED AS EVIDENCE THAT GOD'S PEOPLE HAVE NOT BEEN KEEPING HIS WORD.

AND THE SOLUTION IS:

PUT THE GOOD IN, AND TAKE THE BAD OUT. I MUST EMPHASIZE, "PUT THE GOOD IN." The good (the sons of God) will get rid of the bad (tares) as a spiritual principle for our national health (Romans 8:21). If we just go out and try through our own efforts to remove the "wicked," the wicked will not be defeated. But, if we PUT IN

THE GOOD (because there is a clear absence of GOOD), THE BAD WILL BE REMOVED BY GOD as a natural spiritual consequence. Just as our own bodies will expel the bad when equipped with good nutritional food.

When we are equipped with good Word nutrition, and we put on the whole armor of God, and we go about doing the Word (our Heavenly Fathers business), the bad will decline, and eventually no longer be able to flourish. The problem has been, that the bad (tares) have been turning weak “good” into spell bound ineffective, ignorant, pacifistic, spiritually dead (Christian in name only) Zombies.

The Bible tells us a new day is coming in which all things will be made NEW, because the GOOD shall be spiritually changed, and the sons of God shall be revealed.

Romans 8:18-19

¹⁸For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

¹⁹For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

A ROYAL FLUSH IS COMING

As a Christian, I have this “earnest expectation...for the manifestation of the sons of God” to be revealed, and I want to see them busy cleansing the Kingdom. No doubt there is corruption that shall be revealed that will shock our senses. I believe the good cells will become spiritually supercharged through a Divine Word Frequency, and they will break down the tare cancer cells, expelling them out of the body or nation. I SEE A ROYAL FLUSH COMING.

The “GOOD” are those who go about doing good, meaning, they are Christ centered and Christ focused. In other words, they (the GOOD) are the “OVERCOMERS” who are equipped to overcome the bad. They do so with the power of their Christ-centered testimony (the two-edged sword of spirit and truth) (Revelation 1:16; 2:16; 19:15, 21).

Revelation 12:11

¹¹And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

There's just too much Scriptural evidence here friends to ignore the fact that a great change is coming, and we (I pray) shall be a part of this blessed change. We can clearly see that “overcomers” have a testimony that will actually change time and seasons to the ushering in of the Kingdom of God and it will happen at the appointed time of the ROYAL FLUSH, or Royal cleansing. It is described this way in the Scriptures, “...OUT OF HIS BELLY SHALL FLOW RIVERS OF LIVING WATER.”

John 7:37-38

³⁷In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

³⁸He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Think about it, out of the sons of God will flow rivers of living water. This means an unstoppable, overcoming, overpowering, outpouring of the Holy Spirit will flush the “tares” out of the Kingdom and the Kingdom will be given to a people bringing forth the fruit of righteousness. The GOOD will be potent (more than conquerors) through Jesus Christ, the Potentate. As the Egyptian army was overcome by the waters of the Red Sea, so shall the bad tares be overcome by the overflowing “rivers of living water.”

The tares cannot stand a Holy Spirit environment of Light. They must have an environment of darkness, so they fight against the GOOD. If GOOD grows, the Light of righteousness grows, and the tares cannot keep expanding. The Scriptures tell us the "leaves (fruit) are for the healing of the nations" (Revelation 22:2) and the healing grows as the "living water" is unleashed from the sons of God, providing living water for an abundance of the healing, spiritually nutritional, fruit of the Spirit.

Some of you are no doubt saying to yourself, "I just don't see how this is possible." Well, let me remind you that through Christ (GOD ALMIGHTY), ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE (Matthew 19:26).

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME? —A FEW THOUGHTS by Pastor Barley

This particular title of an article recently written was asked, referring to non-Israelites. In essence asking the question, what are they to do if the Covenants, Promises, Redemption, identity as the saints, and the bride of Christ, refers to the people of Israel and not non-Israelites? This no doubt is a compelling question, and is centered on the notion of "FAIRNESS & EQUALITY." I must point out that there is often a big difference between God's sense of "fairness & equality" and that of man. Just look at all the crazy, warped values of man that are glorified and esteemed by the media and government today.

The person who wrote this article was indeed troubled by my articles and messages against race-mixing. His question is a valid one regarding his concern for the other races. But here's the problem I have with the question, "WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?" centering in on the other races, and it is this. You can go to 99 percent of the various Christian and nonChristian denominations in any city or town and multiculturalism and multiethnic diversity is celebrated and catered to in every possible way. Historic Christianity, the religion of the West and the Anglo-Caucasian culture is not celebrated. However, the Jews are highly esteemed and even religiously celebrated as God's chosen people.

So the question, "WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?" in today's anti-White Caucasian society, should really be, "WHAT'S IN IT FOR THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS?" I say this, because, little attention is actually being given unto the fundamentals of the Kingdom of God, and Biblically, we cannot ignore the Covenant calling upon Israel, the sons of Isaac, who are the people of Christendom, the lost sheep of the House of Israel, the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic, and kindred people. Historically and Biblically, there is no question that these people bear the marks of Israel upon them, and they are the most targeted by the forces of evil today.

I for one see the insanity of the worldly view of "COEXIST," because behind this view is sinister antichrist propaganda luring our people into embracing their own destruction. NOT ONE PROPHET OF GOD PROMOTED RACE-MIXING. NOT ONE PROPHET OF GOD PREACHED OR DE-EMPHASIZED THE COVENANT ISRAEL MESSAGE. NOT ONE PROPHET OF GOD STRESSED THE MESSAGE FOR ISRAEL TO "COEXIST" WITH ALL PEOPLE, AND BE A WITNESS TO THE WORLD FOR CHRISTIAN MULTI-CULTURALISM

However, the SPIRITUAL ISRAEL teachers do.

You must see that TRUTH blesses everyone!!!! It is important that all peoples of the earth see that God is keeping and will continue to keep His promises to Israel and that He has not changed His plan from the Old Testament to the New Testament. Correctly identifying the Israel people in the world is vital to understanding what God is doing in the world and to understand the prophecies and promises to Israel and their Mission given in Genesis 12:3 TO BLESS ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH! Meaning, what the antichrist forces are promoting, with their multiculturalism, coexist programming, absent of Kingdom absolutes, is NOT BEING A BLESSING TO ALL FAMILIES OF THE EARTH.

So, how does the non-Israelite fit in? He fits in by becoming a Christian, following the laws of God, and this makes him a citizen of the Kingdom of God, but not in a multicultural Spiritual Israel way. IT DOES NOT MAKE HIM AN ISRAELITE. He must follow the Biblical chain of command, which includes Biblical segregation affirming the kind after kind principles (i.e. no race mixing). He must follow the commands of God, and love the Lord Jesus Christ as King over all kingdoms and people. This includes the law that they will not rule over Israelites (Deut. 17:15; 32:8, Ex. 33:16, Ezra 10:11; Neh. 9:2, 10:28, 13:3; Lev. 20:24), but they, as Christians could rule over their own people. I look at it like the countries that came into the British Empire and saw Britain as their head, but without all the corruption that happened in History. THE BIBLICAL PRIORITY IS FOR ISRAEL TO FIRST MAKE THEIR CALLING SURE, FOR THEY ARE THE COVENANT PEOPLE THROUGH WHICH ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH WILL EVENTUALLY BE BLESSED. In God's Kingdom of Light, with Christ as our head, Israelite overcomers (the called) will rule by the mind of Christ and will truly bless all the families of the earth when "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever!" Revelation 11:15

IRS SCANDAL OF THE SCOUNDRELS

By Pastor Dave Barley

One would almost think that a good cleansing of the IRS is taking place at the Congressional hearings. Well, in a sense, a cleansing is happening, and I'm sure that most American people would applaud this, and so do we, even if it's only the tip of the Iceberg, Goldberg, Fineberg, conspiracy.

Most Congressional hearings are politically staged to protect the guilty. Congress is fully qualified and certified, hypocrites, liars, and criminals with the stain of America's national sins upon them, for they are to be one of the main front lines of defense against all enemies foreign and domestic. Yet they (the President, Congress, and the Judicial) have empowered, conspired with, and tyrannized our nation with the arm of the IRS, and this arm is that of Neo-Federalism. What is this Federalism? It is the federal monetary conspiracy known as the Federal Reserve Banking System of families which control all federal policies.

The IRS line of corruption extends throughout Washington D.C. (district of criminals). They are all implicated as the IRS is, after all, one of the ten planks of the Communist Manifesto is "a heavy progressive or graduated income tax). In fact, I will go ahead and list all the 10 planks of Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto at the end of this article.

IS AN AWAKENING HAPPENING?

Even a small awakening for the House of Jacob is welcome and needed, especially if that awakening is of a Biblical and Holy Spirit guided purpose and nature. There is plenty of leaven in the House of God's Jacob people these days. The fact that we have a growing Tare government with a Tare agenda to surround us with ignorant aliens who have little or no Christian moral vision or understanding is evidence that Christendom (Kingdom seeking people) is, and remains the target of the antichrists. Here's a Scriptural reminder:

Matthew 11:12

¹² And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

There is no question that the IRS has been a powerful weapon against Christians and conservative oriented groups who, at least to some degree, adhere to Biblical values.

Groups that believe in our Second Amendment gun rights, and I think you would agree that the skyrocketing gun sales is evidence that people are awakening to the clear and present danger our nation now finds itself in with an Obama administration.

Also, a growing number of ministers are waking up on the 501(c)3 status. It was revealed in these recent IRS hearings, that the IRS cannot revoke the tax exempt status of groups who endorse candidates. This is a big and positive step in the right direction, and we must never forget, that "THE POWER TO TAX IS THE POWER TO DESTROY."

More and more people are openly challenging the IRS, ATF, FDA, and other alphabet government corporate public unions of commercial law. Their purpose is about "force, and control" for the benefit of Federalism and corporate government, for the advancement of world globalism through monetary control. The IRS has been exposed in these congressional hearings to have stopped groups from fighting Obama's election, and they are also being investigated for voter fraud. I must say, this is a good start.

There are also hundreds if not thousands of bloggers on the internet who were reporting on these abuses long before it ever hit the mainstream media and you need to realize that 90% of those under 30 do not listen to the mainstream media but get their news from these bloggers!!

So it is obvious that God is using the Obama Administration, as He did the previous Administrations, as the rod of correction to bring true Israel to her knees. The tares are raising their heads high and just as God promised the hidden things are being revealed.

1 Corinthians 4:5

⁵ Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

Incidentally, George Soros founded a liberal communist group called ProPublica. This Soros group received information from the IRS about tea-party and conservative groups illegally. NO DOUBT THE WHITE HOUSE HAD ACCESS TO MUCH MORE INFORMATION THAN SOROS AND HIS GROUPS.

God has also brought to light the collusion of the White House with the media and the many relatives of media that work at the White House. Carl Bernstein even said on Morning Joe that the Iraqi war can be blamed on “Jewish Neo-Cons” and said that he could say that because he is Jewish. (4/26/13).

First Lady Michelle was caught cheating on her expense report. What a show of arrogance! This information was obtained by Judicial Watch in March, 2012. The administration had to be sued to get this through the FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT. Michelle Obama listed daughters as 'Senior Staffers' to justify her expensive African vacation and safari.

The Department of Justice (really Injustice) has been shown to be spying on AP reporters, Fox reporters, and many others. So hold on to your seats as God causes the tares to be put in bundles and praise Him that the harvest is near!

The 10 PLANKS stated in the Communist Manifesto and some of their American counterparts are...

1. Abolition of private property and the application of all rents of land to public purposes.

Americans do these with actions such as the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution (1868), and various zoning, school & property taxes. Also the Bureau of Land Management (Zoning laws are the first step to government property ownership)

2. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.
Americans know this as misapplication of the 16th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, 1913, The Social Security Act of 1936.; Joint House Resolution 192 of 1933; and various State "income" taxes. We call it "paying your fair share".

3. Abolition of all rights of inheritance.
Americans call it Federal & State estate Tax (1916); or reformed Probate Laws, and limited inheritance via arbitrary inheritance tax statutes.

4. Confiscation of the property of all emigrants & rebels.
Americans call it government seizures, tax liens, Public "law" 99-570 (1986); Executive order 11490, sections 1205, 2002 which gives private land to the Department of Urban Development; the imprisonment of "terrorists" and those who speak out or write against the "government" (1997 Crime/Terrorist Bill); or the IRS confiscation of property without due process. Asset forfeiture laws are used by DEA, IRS, ATF etc...).

5. Centralization of credit in the hands of the state, by means of a national bank with State capital and an exclusive monopoly.

Americans call it the Federal Reserve which is a privately-owned credit/debt system allowed by the Federal Reserve act of 1913. All local banks are members of the Fed system, and are regulated by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) another privately-owned corporation. The Federal Reserve Banks issue Fiat Paper Money and practice economically destructive fractional reserve banking.

6. Centralization of the means of communications and transportation in the hands of the State.

Americans call it the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and Department of Transportation (DOT) mandated through the ICC act of 1887, the Commissions Act of 1934, The Interstate Commerce Commission established in 1938, The Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Communications Commission, and Executive orders 11490, 10999, as well as State mandated driver's licenses and Department of Transportation regulations.

7. Extension of factories and instruments of production owned by the state, the bringing into cultivation of waste lands, and the improvement of the soil generally in accordance with a common plan.

Americans call it corporate capacity, The Desert Entry Act and The Department of Agriculture... Thus read "controlled or subsidized" rather than "owned"... This is easily seen in these as well as the Department of Commerce and Labor, Department of Interior, the Environmental Protection Agency, Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, Bureau of Mines, National Park Service, and the IRS control of business through corporate regulations.

8. Equal liability of all to labor. Establishment of industrial armies, especially for agriculture.

Americans call it Minimum Wage and slave labor like dealing with our Most Favored Nation trade partner; i.e. Communist China. We see it in practice via the Social Security Administration and The Department of Labor. The National debt and inflation caused by the communal bank has caused the need for a two "income" family. Woman in the workplace since the 1920's, the 19th amendment of the U.S. Constitution, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, assorted Socialist Unions, affirmative action, the Federal Public Works Program and of course Executive order 11000.

9. Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries, gradual abolition of the distinction between town and country, by a more equitable distribution of population over the country.

Americans call it the Planning Reorganization act of 1949 , zoning (Title 17 1910-1990) and Super Corporate Farms, as well as Executive orders 11647, 11731 (ten regions) and Public "law" 89-136. These provide for forced relocations and forced sterilization programs, like in China.

10. Free education for all children in public schools. Abolition of children's factory labor in its present form. Combination of education with industrial production.

Americans are being taxed to support what we call 'public' schools, but are actually "government force-tax-funded schools" Even private schools are government regulated. The purpose is to train the young to work for the communal debt system. We also call it the Department of Education, the NEA and Outcome Based "Education." These are used so that all children can be indoctrinated and inculcated with the government propaganda, like "majority rules", and "pay your fair share". WHERE are the words "fair share" in the Constitution, Bill of Rights or the Internal Revenue Code (Title 26)?? NO WHERE is "fair share" even suggested!! The philosophical concept of "fair share" comes from the Communist maxim, "From each according to their ability, to each according to their need! This concept is pure socialism. ... America was made the greatest society by its private initiative WORK ETHIC. (end)

Vice President Joe Biden is praising Jewish leaders for helping change American attitudes about gay marriage and other issues. ...

Biden says, quote, "Think—behind of all that, I bet you 85 percent of those changes, whether it's in Hollywood or social media, are a consequence of Jewish leaders in the industry."

INVASION USA

The Heretic at Heritage

by Patrick J. Buchanan

Pat Buchanan defends scholar booted for paper exposing intelligence differences among races

Pat Buchanan was twice a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination and the Reform Party's candidate in 2000. He is also a founder and editor of The American Conservative. Buchanan served three presidents in the White House, was a founding panelist of three national TV shows, and is the author of nine books. His latest book is "Suicide of a Superpower: Will America Survive to 2025?"

Jason Richwine, the young conservative scholar who co-authored the Heritage Foundation report on the long-term costs of the amnesty bill backed by the “Gang of Eight,” is gone from Heritage. He was purged after the Washington Post unearthed his doctoral dissertation at the JFK School of Government.

Richwine’s thesis: IQ tests fairly measure mental ability. The average IQ of immigrants is well below that of white Americans. This difference in IQ is likely to persist through several generations. And the potential consequences of this?

“A lack of socioeconomic assimilation among low IQ immigrant groups, more underclass behavior, less social trust and an increase in the proportion of unskilled workers in the American labor market.”

Richwine defended his 166-page thesis before Harvard’s George Borjas, Richard Zeckhauser and Christopher Jencks, who once edited the New Republic. But while his thesis was acceptable at Harvard – it earned Richwine a Ph.D. – it has scandalized the Potomac priesthood.

Our elites appear unanimous: Richwine’s view that intelligence is not equally distributed among ethnic and racial groups, and is partly inherited, is rankest heresy. Yet no one seems to want to prove him wrong. Consider Richwine’s contention that differences in mental ability exist and seem to persist among racial and ethnic groups.

In the Wall Street Journal last month, Warren Kozak noted that 28,000 students in America’s citadel of diversity, New York City, took the eighth-grade exam to enter Stuyvesant, the Bronx School of Science and Brooklyn Tech, the city’s most elite high schools. Students are admitted solely on their entrance test scores. Of the 830 students who will be entering Stuyvesant as freshmen this fall, 1 percent are black, 3 percent are Hispanic, 21 percent are white – and 75 percent are Asian.

Now, blacks and Hispanics far outnumber Asians in New York. But at Stuyvesant, Asians will outnumber blacks and Hispanics together 19-to-1.

Is this the result of racially biased tests at Stuyvesant?

At Berkeley, crown jewel of the California university system, Hispanics, 40 percent of California's population and an even larger share of California's young, are 12 percent of the freshman class. Asians, outnumbered almost 3-to-1 by Hispanics in California, have almost four times as many slots as Hispanics in the freshman class. Another example of racial bias?

The 2009 Programme for International Student Assessment, PISA, which measures the academic ability of 15-year-olds worldwide, found the USA falling to 17th in reading, 23rd in science, 31st in math.

Yet, Spain aside, not one Hispanic nation, from which a plurality of our immigrants come, was among the top 40 in reading, science or math. But these folks are going to come here and make us No. 1 again? Is there greater "underclass behavior" among Hispanics? The crime rate among Hispanics is about three times that of white Americans, while the Asian crime rate is about a third that of whites.

Among white folks, the recent illegitimacy rate was 28 percent; among Hispanics, 53 percent. According to one study a few years back, Hispanics were 19 times as likely as whites to join gangs. What about Richwine's point regarding "social trust"?

Six years ago, in "E Pluribus Unum: Diversity and Community in the 21st Century," Robert Putnam, author of "Bowling Alone," wrote that after 30,000 interviews he found that ethnic and racial diversity can be devastating to communities and destructive of community values. In racially mixed communities, Putnam wrote, not only do people not trust strangers, they do not even trust their own kind.

“People living in ethnically diverse settings appear to ‘hunker down,’ that is, to pull in like a turtle ... (to) withdraw even from close friends, to expect the worst from their community and its leaders, to volunteer less, give less to charity and work on community projects less often, to register to vote less, to agitate for social reform more but have less faith they can actually make a difference, and to huddle unhappily in front of the television.”

With the immigration bill granting amnesty to 12 million illegals, an open door to their dependents and a million new immigrants each year, almost all from the Third World, America in 2040 is going to look like Los Angeles today. Yet, it was in L.A. that Putnam found social capital at its most depleted and exhausted.

If Richwine is right, America in 2040 will be a country with whites and Asians dominating the professions, and 100 million Hispanics concentrated in semiskilled work and manual labor. The issues Richwine raises go to the question of whether we shall survive as one nation and one people.

If our huge bloc of Hispanics, already America’s largest minority at 53 million, is fed by constant new immigration, but fails for a couple of generations to reach the middle-class status that Irish, Germans, Jews, Italians and Poles attained after two generations, what becomes of our “indivisible” nation? Rather than face this question, better to purge and silence the Harvard extremist who dared to raise it.

Just wondering:
How come atheists never sue Muslims?

A NEW ERA BEGINS FOR THE NATIONS

(Address given by Australian Bible Teacher, Michael A. Clark at Wellington UK, April 27, 2013)

In 2013, we have the privilege to witness a scene of climax in the affairs of the nations that so many have observed in stages over the past 175 years. We are also 77 years from 1936 and the year of the Abdication when there were three kings upon the British Royal Throne. Interestingly from 1936, 42 years later, the number linked to the papacy, brought us to 1978 when there were three popes upon the papal throne.

Before I come to the recent stages of climax in the affairs of the nations, we should not fail to note that on February 2, 2012 the Realm marked 60 years from the Coronation of the Queen, a significant Diamond Jubilee period, only the second time this has happened in the history of the British Monarchy.

The previous British monarch who celebrated a Diamond Jubilee was Queen Victoria in 1897. We have accordingly renamed the Big Ben clock tower at Westminster, the Elizabeth Tower to balance with the Victoria Tower at the other end of the Palace of Westminster. I suggest this is a double witness to the Age-end period and it is not without significance that it is two women monarchs that are so honored. We are having a framed picture of this put up in our Headquarters.

The Defining Year of 1991

When we came to 1991, an extraordinary and defining year took place in this Age-end process to which I want to refer in detail in a few moments. The significance of 1991, in itself, was that it fell 153 years –the number of ‘The Elect’ – from 1838 which was the year of the Coronation, on 28 Jun 1838, of the young Queen

Victoria. The coronation of Victoria was a huge occasion and four hundred thousand visitors went to London to see the new Queen being crowned, which at that time was surely a very large number of people indeed.

Prophetically 1837-38 was the moment when the Elijah message, turning the hearts of the children to the fathers, began, this as John Wilson prepared his lectures to initiate the great End of the Age movement of witness, of which we are all inheritors today. The Victorian era ran concurrent with the British Empire when the Gospel of the Kingdom of God upon earth could be evidenced as coming to a pre-Millennial stage, or harbinger of the ultimate Great Restoration. The dispersed of Israel had emerged from their ‘Seven Times’ punishment period of 2,520 years and it seemed that things, as we might say, ‘could only get better.’

Of course, what was veiled from everyone at the time was the great global trauma of the ‘time of Jacob’s trouble.’ Cinderella was to lose her grand ball gown and carriage. The Empire was to vanish in a return to Cinder’s ashes and the whole case for Britain having the blessed marks of Israel was to be put into reverse and our case was to be made most difficult to present to the public. Yet, of course, it was only confirming the sure word of prophecy. It is the interpretation of prophecy fulfilled that is the key, not the detailed predictive aspect which we cannot know prior to fulfillment.

Armageddon and the Age-end period

The unfolding crisis at the end of the present Age has gone through a number of stages over the past century. To chart these stages it first needs to be understood that there is an economic system that is basically failing despite all attempts to shore it up. Two World Wars took place in the context of economic tribulation with a system of international finance that has remained unreformed until now.

An era ended when the Soviet Union collapsed on 31 December 1991. The Cold War period had been defined as a confrontation between the Western World and the Communist World, headed by the United States and the Soviet Union. The collapse of Europe initiated that confrontation. There were many other global aspects and phases in this confrontation, but in respect of its central focus, the Cold War was a struggle built on Europe and the aftermath of the Armageddon judgment of the nations, beginning 22 June 1941 with ‘Operation Barbarossa’ launched by Nazi Germany on the USSR. This is confirmed by the fact that 1941 was 1335 years, the number of finality for God’s enemies, from AD 606 when the Pope became universal bishop. Plus 77 years = 2018, or 1260 years from AD 758.

It is also a hugely significant prophetic fact that 80% of Nazi-Germany’s Beast armies were destroyed by the ‘battle-axe’ (Jer. 51: 20) of the USSR to deliver Britain-Israel and the kindred covenant nations on the Continent.

As ‘Babylon’ in the Apocalypse is prophetic, or symbolic, so is ‘Armageddon.’

The word ‘Armageddon’ in Revelation 16:16 means ‘a mount’ or ‘place of slaughter’ and is symbolic of the judgment that comes upon prophetic Babylon, which has politico-economic and religious expressions. It has been a mistake to think of Armageddon as taking place upon the limited and literal geographical plain of Megiddo in Palestine.

The reason for this mistake is the fanatical deception of the Jesuit-inspired Futurist interpretation of Revelation, which has concealed the correct Historicist interpretation of the Apocalypse, believed by all the Reformers. Interestingly, the new Pope Francis I is the first Jesuit to ascent the papal throne of prophetic Babylon.

The Armageddon Confrontation is essentially a judgment on prophetic Babylon, which began in 1941 when the USSR became involved in its conflict with the military power of the Beast in Nazi Germany. The three unclean spirits of Rev. 16:13 include the Dragon (paganism) and the False Prophet (Islam).

While the spirit of the Dragon (and the Beast) can be evidenced as being in contention during the rise of the EU and its single currency as part of the global corrupt system of finance, the manifestation of the spirit of the False Prophet is now really coming into contention with Europe and particularly since 2001 with the USA – which was 1290 solar years (desolation Dan. 12:11) from AD 711 when the Moors invaded Spain. Islam in Europe was not turned back until AD 732 at the Battle of Tours, which 1290 solar years later will bring us to 2022 – another 9 years.

Two Crucial Phases in the Climax

The post-Cold War world has in fact now passed through two phases. From 31 December 1991 (Armageddon plus 50 years) and the Maastricht Treaty of 1992, which created the subsequent European Union and the emergence of the single currency of the Eurozone, the first phase came to a crucial explosive end on 11 September 2001 (Armageddon plus 60 years).

The attack on the Twin Towers of the World Trade Centre was supremely prophetic in its predictive nature as well as literal in its destructive effect. The second phase has lasted from 9/11 until now. Three times in Revelation 18 this destruction is given as coming within ‘one hour’ upon economic Babylon and world trade. One hour in a prophetic ‘time’ of 360 years is 15 ‘days’ or years.

The 15 years from 1991 to 2006, extending a further 2 years to 2008, were in fact extraordinary for their prosperity. It was then hugely significant 7 years after the 2001 attack of 9/11, in September 2008, that the economic storm of collapsing debt really began to take hold. The old economic era centered upon Europe is passing away as is clearly evidenced by the enormous economic strains developing in the Eurozone and in Greece and Cyprus in particular. It is only a matter of time before the inevitable implosion takes place with the powerhouse of Germany at its center.

We are entering a new era for the covenant nations in which there are several defining characteristics. It is interesting in that from 21-22 April 753-2 BC for the founding of Rome it is 2100 years (300 x 7) plus 666 years to AD 2012-13 (there being no year zero). The context now being the collapse of the EU (based on the Treaty of Rome) Eurozone which as Christopher Booker in the Sun Telegraph last weekend wrote under the headline: "The debt-ridden EU stares bankruptcy in the face" – 666 being the number also linked to gold and the Beast system of corrupt global finance. The current year's income of the EU is just £108 billion, but it now owes £182 billion (or 217 billion euros). Booker writes that "Wherever we now look at the EU, its affairs seem to be in an astonishing mess."

The Problem of German Europe

Nothing is as it was in 1991 and we are now 40 years after our entry into the great European Project in 1973 – a wilderness period of testing has passed and it appears that a powerful Divine energy is overruling to bring us as a nation back into the 'bond of the covenant' according to Ezekiel 20: 37. In this new era of things, which it most certainly is, Europe is reeling economically and at the center of this is Germany, which it is easy to forget, did not even exist as a unified country until the mid-Victorian Era.

It was only in 1871 (Jan 18) at the Versailles Palace that the huge number of political bodies on German territory – more than 300 of them – were unified under the leadership of the Prussian King Wilhelm II, who became Kaiser (emperor) of the new Germany. Although German firms boomed over the next few decades, rapidly overtaking their British rivals, the new state never lost its insecurity, which in its desire to prove itself drove the Kaiser's Germany to the humiliating defeat in World War I. That defeat bred resentment bringing on the Nazi regime under Hitler.

When we arrived at the Armageddon Confrontation in 1941, we were a significant 70 years (determination for Jerusalem) from 1871 and the formation of the German unified state. A further 50 years brought us to 1991 and the end of the Cold War with the collapse of the Soviet Union. That makes 120 years, the number of warning, in total from 1871 when Germany began its road to domination in Europe.

Although you would not expect me to hold the former American diplomat, Henry Kissinger in great esteem, he was born in Bavaria and once made a very true observation when he remarked that it was German's tragedy that it was "too big for Europe, but too small for the world" – a diagnosis that remains as true today as it was of the Kaiser's insecure and anxious empire. In British-Israel, as a result of two great conflicts in Europe over Germany, we have had great reservations about who Germany represents as far as the Tribes are concerned, made more difficult by the fact that as a country it is only just over 140 years old.

While there may well be strong elements of leadership in the people of Germany and Judah is often referred to in this respect by the German British Israel believers, we cannot but take Prussia into the equation, which was the leading state of the German Empire and achieved its greatest importance in the 18th and 19th centuries with a monarchy and the capital Konigsberg, later Berlin.

The roots of Prussian militarism, of course, may well have it origins in the Roman Empire and its break-up after the fall of Rome in AD 410. In this respect Esau, who was a hunter, comes to mind and thus the conflicts with these peoples may well have more to do with an Age-end confrontation between Jacob and Esau over the birthright than it does with that of Judah and Ephraim over kingship or monarchy.

On the other side of things, there is a very interesting rising politician in Germany. This is Christian Democrat David McAllister, the incumbent premier of Lower Saxony, the son of a Scottish soldier who has been touted as the heir to Angela Merkel. As a half Scottish politician who has happily described himself as "Merkel's Mac" had trailed in the wake of the Social Democrats, but the charismatic Mr. McAllister has profited from a series of gaffes by Peer Steinbrück, the Social Democrats' candidate for chancellor who will take on Mrs. Merkel in the federal election on 22 September this year.

This brings me to what I begin to see unfolding. In his book, German Europe by Ulrich Beck, one of Germany's most distinguished intellectuals, Mrs. Angela Merkel is the (Lutheran) 'uncrowned Queen of Europe.' With not a little skill and cunning she has made Germany master of Europe in a way Hitler and Kaiser Wilhelm only dreamed about. This Essay in last Saturday's Daily Mail by Dominic Sandbrook, based on this book, suggests that the implications are frightening.

Interestingly, Angela Merkel assumed office as Chancellor on 22 Nov 2005, the 42nd anniversary of the assassination of President John Kennedy in Nov 1963, who you recall famously said in a speech in West Berlin on 26 Jun 1963, just five months before his assassination, "Ich bin ein Berliner," or "I am a Berliner." He was underlining the support of the United States for West Germany 22 months after with Soviet support for East Germany when it erected the Berlin Wall. I'm constantly reminded that there are so many people and in the United States, particularly in the military, with German names, but also with Protestant faith.

You will well remember General 'Stormin' Norman Schwarzkopf who led all the Coalition forces in the Persian Gulf War, Operation Desert Storm beginning 17 January 1991, exactly 120 years (warning) from the eve of the unification of Germany on January 18 1871 (through to 28 February 1991) and who died only last 27 December 2012.

It appears to me, from Divine Time Measure evidence that over the next 18 months we are approaching another significant moment in Europe centered on Germany. The Chart on Germany, the EU and War Cycles, prepared a year ago now does appear to be confirming the projection to December 3-5, 2014, being 4 x 7 Germany's desolating war cycle from August 4-5 1914, and Britain's entry into World War I. Overlaying this I would point to January 18, 2014, and Jan 18, 2015, being 143 and 144 years respectively from January 18, 1871, and the birth of Germany as a country. 143 being half 286 for displacement and 144 the number of government.

There is growing public support for Alternative for Germany, a new Euroskeptical party, reveals a developing awareness among German voters of economic risks related to the Eurozone. Although it is unlikely to challenge mainstream parties in September elections, support for this new group could prompt those parties to adopt a Euroskeptical stance, a phenomenon that is already occurring in other European countries.

Alternative for Germany's agenda, which was officially presented April 14, is based on a few main points. The party calls for the dissolution of the Eurozone and the reinstitution of national currencies, or at least the creation of smaller currency unions among countries with similar levels of economic development. The party rejects the use of the European Stability Mechanism – the European Union’s permanent bailout fund – to aid countries in economic distress, and it opposes the intervention of the European Central Bank in the sovereign debt market – a tool that was designed to reduce borrowing costs for countries in the Eurozone.

Then there is the growing economic crisis in France, which has not run a budget surplus since 1974. When the credit crunch came, that was when the money ran out. France is the only Eurozone member with a consistently widening trade gap, and now they have a hated leader, violent protests – and over gay marriage in particular. Wealth is fleeing abroad and after only a year of socialism under Francois Hollande, who has just announced that he has to raise an additional £5 billion next year, France is in meltdown. The EU has always been about the temporary co-operation of Germany and France and if this is no longer going to continue, then neither is the EU.

Globalization and its Impacts

The MP, John Redwood, in his diary for 4 April, has written about this new economic era of Globalization and its impacts in the following terms:

“This more globalized world is richer overall than the world of more entrenched nations with more enclosed economies it replaces. National governments have been losing power, as more and more countries join the global marketplace, their people seeking access to the opportunity, the products and the services that the market generates. The biggest change came with the ending of the USSR, followed by the gradual transition of China to a more capitalist model of economic development. When people demand the advantages of the global market, a government's opportunity to control economic life and information flows is reduced.

"This transformation has posed big political issues for many of the countries caught up in it. Given that the active and successful rich will get richer, as they benefit from a much larger market with many more better off people and companies to sell to, how do we take care of those who cannot do that? It has also posed a big political issue about how government is conducted. Given the limitations on any individual nation, should a nation join a major continental grouping, or should it pursue its interests by Treaties entered into with the wider world community?"

In our coming issue of The Covenant Nations Magazine themed on The Netherlands you will find reference to the closed secret politic-economic Bilderberg group, which began at The Hotel de Bilderberg, Oosterbeek in The Netherlands. The 60th anniversary of their first meeting from 29-31 May 1954 will coincide in 2014 with the centenary of the outbreak of World War I in July-August 1914. We should note, however, that 99 years from that outbreak – the number of the solemn 'Amen,' or 'Verily' of our Lord Jesus Christ – is taking place in May next month as international conflict grows over the Middle East, Syria, Iran and North Korea (the meeting of the Bilderberg Group in June this year is reported to be taking place north of London, England).

An investigation by The Times inside Syria suggests that nerve gas is being used in Syria's war. Watch events from May 14-15 next month, which will be 65 years (5 x13), Israel's breaking, from the birth of the Israeli State in 1948.

New eras unfold in strange ways and they are not recognized as such until suddenly we realize that the old has passed away and the new one is with us. The Cold War went on for decades and then suddenly the Berlin Wall came down and the Soviet Union collapsed. Now, we are at a point where the post-Cold War model no longer explains the behavior of the world. It is a time of great upheaval with the Arab World in turmoil, Islamic faction against Islamic faction, with the counterfeit Israeli State at the center of this growing storm. We do not know what this new era will be called as yet but there are several defining characteristics.

First, the United States remains the world's dominant power in all dimensions. This has happened in the overruling Providence of Almighty God. The USA has its problems of course and we trust it will not experience the blow-up of the super volcano in Yellowstone National Park. It will act with caution, recognizing the difference between pre-eminence and omnipotence.

Second, Europe is returning to its normal condition of multiple competing nation states. While Germany may dream of a Europe from which it can write budgets for the lesser states, the EU member states will look at Cyprus and choose to default from the Eurozone before losing sovereignty.

Third, Russia is re-emerging. As the Europe fragments, the Russians will do what they always do, fish in muddy waters. They are giving preferential terms for natural gas imports to some countries where they can obtain substantial political influence.

Fourth, China is becoming self-absorbed in trying to manage its new economic realities. The Communist Party needs prosperity as its reason for being, but it is difficult to align itself with lower growth rates and the expectation of the emerging masses that have increasing access to the outside world.

And Fifth, a host of new countries will emerge to supplement China as the world's low-wage, high-growth epicenter. Latin America, Africa and less-developed parts of Southeast Asia are all emerging as contenders.

Relativity in the Balance of Power

There is a paradox in all of this. While the United States has committed many errors, the fragmentation of Europe and the weakening of China mean the United States emerges more powerful, since power is relative. It was said that the post-Cold War world was America's time of dominance. Prophetically we can argue that it was the preface of U.S. dominance. The two great counterbalances to US dominance are losing their ability to counter American power because they mistakenly believed that real power was economic power. The United States had combined power – economic, political and military – and that allowed it to maintain its overall power when economic power faltered.

A fragmented Europe has no chance at balancing the United States. And while China is reaching for military power, it will take many years to produce the kind of power that is global, and it can do so only if its economy allows it to. The United States defeated the Soviet Union in the Cold War because of its balanced power. Europe and China defeated themselves because they 'placed all their chips' on economics. And now we enter the new era in the time of the judgment of the nations. Amen.

Dioxins & Furans: The Most Toxic Chemicals Known to Science

Dioxins and furans are some of the most toxic chemicals known to science.

A report released for public comment in September 1994 by the US Environmental Protection Agency describes dioxin as a serious public health threat. The public health impact of dioxin may rival the impact that DDT had on public health in the 1960's. According to the EPA report, not only does there appear to be no "safe" level of exposure to dioxin, but levels of dioxin chemicals have been found in the general US population.

Dioxin is a general term that describes a group of hundreds of chemicals that are highly persistent in the environment. The most toxic compound is 2,3,7,8-tetrachlorodibenzo-p-dioxin or TCDD. The toxicity of other dioxins and chemicals like PCBs that act like dioxin are measured in relation to TCDD. Dioxin is formed as an unintentional by-product of many industrial processes involving chlorine such as waste incineration, chemical and pesticide manufacturing and pulp and paper bleaching. Dioxin was the primary toxic component of Agent Orange.

Dioxin is formed by burning chlorine-based chemical compounds with hydrocarbons. The major source of dioxin in the environment comes from waste-burning incinerators of various sorts and also from backyard burn-barrels.

Does dioxin cause cancer?

Yes. The EPA report confirmed that dioxin is a cancer hazard to people. In 1997, the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) -- part of the World Health Organization -- published their research into dioxins and furans and announced on February 14, 1997, that the most potent dioxin, 2,3,7,8-TCDD, is a now considered a Group 1 carcinogen, meaning that it's a known human carcinogen.

What other health problems are linked to dioxin exposure?

In addition to cancer, exposure to dioxin can also cause severe reproductive and developmental problems (levels 100 times lower than those associated with its cancer causing effects). Dioxin is well-known for its ability to damage the immune system.

Dioxin exposure has been linked to birth defects, inability to maintain pregnancy, decreased fertility, reduced sperm counts, endometriosis, diabetes, learning disabilities, immune system suppression, lung problems, skin disorders, lowered testosterone levels and more.

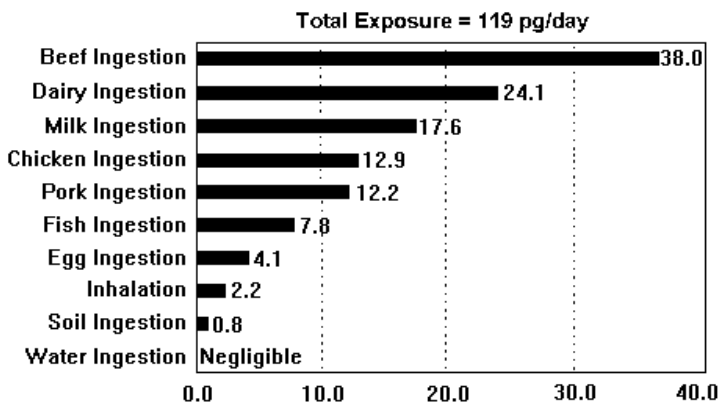

How are we exposed to dioxin?

The major sources of dioxin are in our diet. Since dioxin is fat-soluble, it bioaccumulates, climbing up the food chain. A North American eating a typical North American diet will receive 93% of their dioxin exposure from meat and dairy products (23% is from milk and dairy alone; the other large sources of exposure are beef, fish, pork, poultry and eggs). In fish, these toxins bioaccumulate up the food chain so that dioxin levels in fish are 100,000 times that of the surrounding environment. The best way to avoid dioxin exposure is to reduce or eliminate your consumption of meat and dairy products by adopting a vegan diet. According to a May 2001 study of dioxin in foods, "The category with the lowest [dioxin] level was a simulated vegan diet, with 0.09 ppt.... Blood dioxin levels in pure vegans have also been found to be very low in comparison with the general population. In EPA's dioxin report, they refer to dioxin as hydrophobic (water-fearing) and lipophilic (fat-loving). This means that dioxin, when it settles on water bodies, will rapidly accumulate in fish rather than remain in the water. The same goes for other wildlife.

Men have no ways to get rid of dioxin other than letting it break down according to its chemical half-lives. Women, on the other hand, have two ways which it can exit their bodies: It crosses the placenta... into the growing infant;

It is present in the fatty breast milk, which is also a route of exposure which doses the infant, making breast-feeding for non-vegan/vegetarian mothers quite hazardous. If you're eating the typical North American diet, this is where you are getting your dioxin from:

AMERICA'S PROMISE ANNUAL BIBLE SUMMER CONFERENCE

~ JULY 26-28, 2013

THE SCHEDULED SPEAKERS ARE:

Michael A. Hoffman II (author and researcher). You absolutely will not want to miss his presentations. He will speak on two extremely important topics: 1) Early Protestant Resistance to Usury: Setting the Record Straight. 2) Counterfeit Israel: How Ancient Paganism Mixed with Rabbinic Judaism.

Pastor Richard Kirsch (author of several books, including, THE RICH MAN & LAZARUS, and ROMANS 11). Pastor Kirsch has been ministering the Anglo-Covenant Israel message for many years in Spokane, WA

Pastor Thomas Rolland – Many of you remember his lively talks last year, and he's back from Dallas, TX

Doug Evers – Nutritionist extraordinaire from Wisconsin

Ernestine Young – I most respectfully refer to as a Deborah of Israel. She has been ministering and promoting the Israel Truth for many most productive years

Pastor Charles Jennings – Pastor Jennings is presently in South Africa and has warned me that he may not be able to make this conference. The Israel message comes alive in his teachings! His Truth in History TV program is awesome. It is available on Dish TV and at his website of truthinhistory.org. Pastor Jennings is from Oklahoma Pastor Dave & Martha Barley – Oh yes, we have some messages for you!!
