FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Numbers 6:23-27

²³ Speak unto

Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

²⁴ The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:

²⁵ The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

²⁶ The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

²⁷ And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

ISRAEL MUST CONFORM TO KING JESUS

Let us not forget that we are of Israel and we are God/YHWH created and purposed. We have a purpose and we are ordained to accomplish that purpose. This means that as Israel we need to be merged together with Christ to carry out our purpose because there is a Divine calling on every Israelite to do this.

Deuteronomy 32:3-4

³ Because I will publish the name of the LORD: ascribe ye greatness unto our God.

⁴ He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

I want to be aligned with God Almighty because His ways are judgment (or righteous) and He is Truth. We should really not need any other reason. We are His sheep and the sheep of His pasture and this is calming, but we must stay in His Word and do what His Word declares. Forget for a moment whether you're a Historicist, Preterist, Futurist, or something else. The main thing is to be in the Lord, and this means be in His Word, for He is the Word. Living by His Word is the reason we exist.

Psalms 82:5

They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

The reason the earth is out of course is because it's foundations (meaning the WORD) is not being obeyed.

Israel has an obligation to the WORD. Israel is not obeying the Word for the most part because they are not in the Word of God. You are not in the Spirit if you are not in the Word. It's impossible. The WORD makes us spiritual by developing a well-rounded and functioning application to the overall WORD of Yahweh in which the purposes of God become reality. This is the real reality or the real spiritual in which Israel is linked with the Divine. Thus, the spiritual is developed into a life in which we “live, and move, and have our being” in Him Acts 17:28.

I love food, but certain food is not good for me. Stated differently, the wrong kind of food will produce the wrong type of person. A lack of God's Word will produce the wrong type of people. Do we not see this taking place among our people today? Meaning, the food (God's Word, which has become neutralized among many) is so misspoken and taught to the point that it has become VOID of real nutrition causing many people to be malnourished and anemic of the vital Word they need.

I want Israel to become spiritual, but in order for us to become spiritual we have to be Word led and directed. We, therefore, must be Word readers and purposefully led by the Word. There isn't a real spiritual man who is not Word of God oriented. I can assure you that President Donald Trump is at least, to a degree, reading the Word of God and many prayers are being lifted up in all sorts of ways for him and our nation. There is a drawing happening where God is calling His Sheep home.

1 Peter 2:5-9

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

We are not all “lively stones” and my proof is that we all are not in the Word as we should be. Those who are in the Word are real change agents of Christ. In a very real sense, we are “spiritual houses” of God to do spiritual things. So, be “holy priests...and offer up spiritual sacrifices which are acceptable” (or true and meaningful).

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious; and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

We are not to be just talkers; we are doers of the Word. We do what the Word directs us to do. For Christ is in His people, not just anyone. Therefore, He is our Foundation, and Hope of Glory, and Sustainer.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, 8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

Isn't that the truth? Jesus Christ became a Rock of Offense to them which stumble at the Word. So, let us not stumble at His Word, let us be joyful with His Word and happy with His Word. It's what sustains us and keeps us.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

Ye are a chosen generation (or race), a royal priesthood (we have priesthood duties therefore we are a priesthood), an holy nation (or gentiles, people, nations of Israel) and therefore we are made to be peculiar to the world. We are called and chosen by God and His Word; therefore, we will be peculiar to them, meaning, we will develop through His Word into Sons of God.

Do You Love America or Jesus First?

I love America (the parts that is righteous) and I love King Jesus. Is America perfect? No, but Jesus is, and He can fix what's wrong with America. So, Jesus Christ and His Kingdom is the solution and answer to everything that is wrong with America.

When America was mostly Christian many years ago, America had less of an immigration problem, less debt, less taxes, less crime, less government, and for a while there was less all-around-trouble. In the early 1900's, around 1913, we had the Federal Reserve Act, and the equally dreaded Federal Income Tax, and government started outrageously expanding in all kinds of ways. Government in many ways became our god. We relied upon Government, trusted Government, chose and voted for more Government. Government became our solution, pride, and benefactor. For a while they seemed great, but in many ways, they were fraud disguised as a deliverer.

There is only one Deliverer, one Way, and one true God and He is the same yesterday, today, and forever and He is our Redeemer, Jesus the Christ.

Our nations have many problems today and to a large degree they ironically have to do with the highest office in the land, the President of the United States. They (mostly the Democrats) want to impeach the President. The Democrats are told to do so for a number of reasons and they mainly have to do with one-world and financial reasons. I happen to believe that President Donald Trump was chosen by God Almighty as a Cyrus to accomplish various tasks in order for White America to return to Him. In other words, we are afforded a window of opportunities to turn (or REPENT) and King Jesus will help and turn the flood gates in Israel's benefit. It is not a long-shot for King Jesus but will we the people of Israel repent and turn? Are we capable? Yes, I believe that we are capable, but will Israel repent for the things we are to put away? We shall soon find out.

Revelation 2:5

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

Psalms 135:14

For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

Jeremiah 18:8-10

⁸ If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

⁹ And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

¹⁰ If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

Jeremiah 26:2-8

² Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

³ If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

⁴ And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

⁵ To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

⁶ Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷ So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

Jeremiah 26:13

Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

The Media and the Democratic Circus

I do not really wish to elaborate about the current circus act we are watching unfold before our eyes regarding all the shenanigans regarding the present impeachment process. Really it is for our awakening and if you think it is way and above the fray, just imagine how God Almighty must feel regarding Israel's misguided behavior. It is very interesting to me that present headlines are also condemning Netanyahu with (bribery and fraud charges) like President Trump. What does this mean? Well to me, it means that the enemy wants to put Trump and Netanyahu in the same bed of tricks they are up to. Do not misunderstand me. What I am saying, is that the enemy wants to label PM Netanyahu with the same brush they are painting President Bush with so they can join them together. Like Judeo-Christianity. Will something go wrong? Will their circle of evil be broken?

It is all about them trying to manipulate things so we will think President Trump is like PM Netanyahu, and yes, to a degree they are right, but let us not forget that Netanyahu is a false Judean, and President Trump is an Israelite. The indictment against Netanyahu is more than true with buyoffs and bribery including as the Wall Street Journal (dated Friday, November 22, 2019) stated: "...as well as gifts worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, including pink champagne, cigars and jewelry.” As usual, we have a choice between good and evil. We need to choose good.

Perhaps something big will be exposed. While pandering is happening, let us not forget that Jesus Christ is in charge and is exercising His Will. On our end of things, let us not forget that it is mainly the antichrists who are orchestrating the impeachment process among other things. President Trump is having it all put on him. While he is not perfect, those who are very imperfect are trying their best to unseat him and/or make him look so bad that we would want to get rid of him. But if President Trump is God’s appointed leader, not one can remove him until God wants him removed.

Crying?

I have noticed that more and more commercials present not only blacks, but other racial colors with whites. Certainly, you have as well. We are not color blind and we are not fools.

Have you noticed the use of certain men and more and more women crying and using it to emotionalize people to purchase their products. This is not our imagination, but is being used to draw people into their proverbial webs of deceit. Crying certainly can be natural and understandable at times, but crying to elicit an emotional response is often times unnatural and it’s becoming more of a technique with which to suck people into whatever response is desired. Let’s face it women, most of you are extremely susceptible to crying and this is not necessarily wrong, it depends on how it’s being used. We all need to be on guard. Men are built to want to stop someone from crying and this mechanism is being used against them as well.

Don't be sucked or led into some trick or emotional response of crying. I have even noticed this being used in the impeachment by various witnesses. Let us not be led by these criers, let us be led by the Truth which will set us free, and ye shall be free indeed.

Babies to Replace USA Population?

I will not fully repeat all their population numbers of our nation, except they show huge gains in the "minority" populations. Sure, Whites people are declining, and our numbers are dropping significantly. But we do not need more minorities, we need less of them?—No, I would argue we need none of them.

The heathen, as I have said many times are not a blessing to America, but are a hinderance and a curse. We are not to be a multicultural society, but a society of White people and the other way around will bring on more confusion and turmoil and is NOT GOD'S BIBLICAL WAY. The more we are inundated with alien immigrants the more America, Canada, England, Europe, Russia, Australia, South Africa and others of our kindred will suffer.

They say in one report that there needs to be 2,100 births per 1,000 women in order for the USA's population to reproduce. God's Word simply declares that all we need to do is obey Him and put His Ways above all else and we will be fruitful and MULTIPLY. If we go contrary to God's Ways we will be less fruitful, and we will decline. Deuteronomy 28 is very clear that when we disobey God, our numbers decline.

The Kingdom and our King Jesus the Christ does not lie to us...almost everything else is a lie...sports, media, churches, politics, religion, man, educational system, the one world government, our government that has been taken over. Trust King Jesus and His Kingdom. He will not deceive you nor forsake you!

I do have to add, in closing these articles, that yes, I am aware, in more ways than we can enumerate, that President Trump has signed an executive order to make Jews a protected class attached to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and federal funds can be denied to entities that get federal funds if they are found guilty of "anti-Semitism." The point is that we need to be in prayer about this and other things. Our fight is far from over in the spiritual realm and the physical realm. Always remember that God can take something we think is bad and cause it to be for our good. It is possible that this designation shows that the Jews are a race and that may actually work in our favor. Next, is the excellent letter that President Trump wrote regarding the House

Impeachment Farce.

Dear Madam Speaker:

I write to express my strongest and most powerful protest against the partisan impeachment crusade being pursued by the Democrats in the House of Representatives. This impeachment represents an unprecedented and unconstitutional abuse of power by Democrat Lawmakers, unequaled in nearly two and a half centuries of American legislative history.

The Articles of Impeachment introduced by the House Judiciary Committee are not recognizable under any standard of Constitutional theory, interpretation, or jurisprudence. They include no crimes, no misdemeanors, and no offenses whatsoever. You have cheapened the importance of the very ugly word, impeachment!

By proceeding with your invalid impeachment, you are violating your oaths of office, you are breaking your allegiance to the Constitution, and you are declaring open war on American Democracy. You dare to invoke the Founding Fathers in pursuit of this election-nullification scheme—yet your spiteful actions display unfettered contempt for America's founding and your egregious conduct threatens to destroy that which our Founders pledged their very lives to build. Even worse than offending the Founding Fathers, you are offending Americans of faith by continually saying "I pray for the President," when you know this statement is not true, unless it is meant in a negative sense. It is a terrible thing you are doing, but you will have to live with it, not I!

Your first claim, "Abuse of Power," is a completely disingenuous, meritless, and baseless invention of your imagination. You know that I had a totally innocent conversation with the President of Ukraine. I then had a second conversation that has been misquoted, mischaracterized, and fraudulently misrepresented. Fortunately, there was a transcript of the conversation taken, and you know from the transcript (which was immediately made available) that the paragraph in question was perfect. I said to President Zelensky: "I would like you to do us a favor, though, because our country has been through a lot and Ukraine knows a lot about it." I said do us a favor, not me, and our country, not a campaign. I then mentioned the Attorney General of the United States. Every time I talk with a foreign leader, I put America's interests first, just as I did with President Zelensky.

You are turning a policy disagreement between two branches of government into an impeachable offense—it is no more legitimate than the Executive Branch charging members of Congress with crimes for the lawful exercise of legislative power.

You know full well that Vice President Biden used his office and $1 billion dollars of US. aid money to coerce Ukraine into firing the prosecutor who was digging into the company paying his son millions of dollars. You know this because Biden bragged about it on video. Biden openly stated: "I said, 'I'm telling you, you're not getting the billion dollars'... I looked at them and said: 'I'm leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you're not getting the money.' Well, son of a bitch. He got fired." Even Joe Biden admitted just days ago in an interview with NPR that it "looked bad." Now you are trying to impeach me by falsely accusing me of doing what Joe Biden has admitted he actually did.

President Zelensky has repeatedly declared that I did nothing wrong, and that there was No Pressure. He further emphasized that it was a "good phone call," that "I don't feel pressure,” and explicitly stressed that “nobody pushed me.” The Ukrainian Foreign Minister stated very clearly: “I have never seen a direct link between investigations and security assistance.” He also said there was “No Pressure.” Senator Ron Johnson of Wisconsin, a supporter of Ukraine who met privately with President Zelensky, has said: “At no time during this meeting... was there any mention by Zelensky or any Ukrainian that they were feeling pressure to do anything in return for the military aid.” Many meetings have been held between representatives of Ukraine and our country. Never once did Ukraine complain about pressure being applied—not once! Ambassador Sondland testified that I told him: “No quid pro quo. I want nothing. I want nothing. I want President Zelensky to do the right thing, do what he ran on.”

The second claim, so-called “Obstruction of Congress,” is preposterous and dangerous. House Democrats are trying to impeach the duly elected President of the United States for asserting Constitutionally based privileges that have been asserted on a bipartisan basis by administrations of both political parties throughout our Nation’s history. Under that standard, every American president would have been impeached many times over. As liberal law professor Jonathan Turley warned when addressing Congressional Democrats: “I can’t emphasize this enough... if you impeach a president, if you make a high crime and misdemeanor out of going to the courts, it is an abuse of power. It’s your abuse of power. You’re doing precisely what you’re criticizing the President for doing.”

Everyone, you included, knows what is really happening. Your chosen candidate lost the election in 2016, in an Electoral College landslide (306-227), and you and your party have never recovered from this defeat. You have developed a full-fledged case of what many in the media call Trump Derangement Syndrome and sadly, you will never get over it! You are unwilling and unable to accept the verdict issued at the ballot box during the great Election of 2016. So you have spent three straight years attempting to overturn the will of the American people and nullify their votes. You View democracy as your enemy!

Speaker Pelosi, you admitted just last week at a public forum that your party's impeachment effort has been going on for "two and a half years," long before you ever heard about a phone call with Ukraine. Nineteen minutes after I took the oath of office, the Washington Post published a story headlined, "The Campaign to Impeach President Trump Has Begun." Less than three months after my inauguration, Representative Maxine Waters stated, "I'm going to fight every day until he's impeached." House Democrats introduced the first impeachment resolution against me within months of my inauguration, for what will be regarded as one of our country's best decisions, the firing of James Comey (see Inspector General Reports)—who the world now knows is one of the dirtiest cops our Nation has ever seen. A ranting and raving Congresswoman, Rashida Tlaib, declared just hours after she was sworn into office, "We're gonna go in there and we're gonna impeach the motherf*r." Representative Al Green said in May, "I'm concerned that if we don't impeach this president, he will get re-elected." Again, you and your allies said, and did, all of these things long before you ever heard of President Zelensky or anything related to Ukraine. As you know very well, this impeachment drive has nothing to do with Ukraine, or the totally appropriate conversation I had with its new president. It only has to do with your attempt to undo the election of 2016 and steal the election of 2020!

Congressman Adam Schiff cheated and lied all the way up to the present day, even going so far as to fraudulently make up, out of thin air, my conversation with President Zelensky of Ukraine and read this fantasy language to Congress as though it were said by me. His shameless lies and deceptions, dating all the way back to the Russia Hoax, is one of the main reasons we are here today.

You and your party are desperate to distract from America's extraordinary economy, incredible jobs boom, record stock market, soaring confidence, and flourishing citizens. Your party simply cannot compete with our record: 7 million new jobs; the lowest-ever unemployment for African Americans, Hispanic Americans, and Asian Americans; a rebuilt military; a completely reformed VA with Choice and Accountability for our great veterans; more than 170 new federal judges and two Supreme Court Justices; historic tax and regulation cuts; the elimination of the individual mandate; the first decline in prescription drug prices in half a century; the first new branch of the United States Military since 1947, the Space Force; strong protection of the Second Amendment; criminal justice reform; a defeated ISIS caliphate and the killing of the world's number one terrorist leader, al-Baghdadi; the replacement of the disastrous NAFTA trade deal with the wonderful USMCA (Mexico and Canada); a breakthrough Phase One trade deal with China; massive new trade deals with Japan and South Korea; withdrawal from the terrible Iran Nuclear Deal; cancellation of the unfair and costly Paris Climate Accord; becoming the world's top energy producer; recognition of Israel's capital, opening the American Embassy in Jerusalem, and recognizing Israeli sovereignty over the Golan Heights; a colossal reduction in illegal border crossings, the ending of Catch-and-Release, and the building of the Southern Border Wall—and that is just the beginning, there is so much more. You cannot defend your extreme policies—open borders, mass migration, high crime, crippling taxes, socialized healthcare, destruction of American energy, late-term taxpayer-funded abortion, elimination of the Second Amendment, radical far-left theories of law and justice, and constant partisan obstruction of both common sense and common good.

There is nothing I would rather do than stop referring to your party as the Do-Nothing Democrats. Unfortunately, I don't know that you will ever give me a chance to do so.

After three years of unfair and unwarranted investigations, 45 million dollars spent, 18 angry Democrat prosecutors, the entire force of the FBI, headed by leadership now proven to be totally incompetent and corrupt, you have found NOTHING! Few people in high position could have endured or passed this test. You do not know, nor do you care, the great damage and hurt you have inflicted upon wonderful and loving members of my family. You conducted a fake investigation upon the democratically elected President of the United States, and you are doing it yet again.

There are not many people who could have taken the punishment inflicted during this period of time, and yet done so much for the success of America and its citizens. But instead of putting our country first, you have decided to disgrace our country still further. You completely failed with the Mueller report because there was nothing to find, so you decided to take the next hoax that came along, the phone call with Ukraine—even though it was a perfect call. And by the way, when I speak to foreign countries, there are many people, with permission, listening to the call on both sides of the conversation.

You are the ones interfering in America's elections. You are the ones subverting America's Democracy. You are the ones Obstructing Justice. You are the ones bringing pain and suffering to our Republic for your own selfish personal, political, and partisan gain.

Before the Impeachment Hoax, it was the Russian Witch Hunt. Against all evidence, and regardless of the truth, you and your deputies claimed that my campaign colluded with the Russians—a grave, malicious, and slanderous lie, a falsehood like no other. You forced our Nation through turmoil and torment over a wholly fabricated story, illegally purchased from a foreign spy by Hillary Clinton and the DNC in order to assault our democracy. Yet, when the monstrous lie was debunked and this Democrat conspiracy dissolved into dust, you did not apologize. You did not recant. You did not ask to be forgiven. You showed no remorse, no capacity for self-reflection. Instead, you pursued your next libelous and vicious crusade you engineered an attempt to frame and defame an innocent person. All of this was motivated by personal political calculation. Your Speakership and your party are held hostage by your most deranged and radical representatives of the far left. Each one of your members lives in fear of a socialist primary challenger—this is what is driving impeachment. Look at Congressman Nadler’s challenger. Look at yourself and others. Do not take our country down with your party.

If you truly cared about freedom and liberty for our Nation, then you would be devoting your vast investigative resources to exposing the full truth concerning the horrifying abuses of power before, during, and after the 2016 election—including the use of spies against my campaign, the submission of false evidence to a FISA court, and the concealment of exculpatory evidence in order to frame the innocent. The FBI has great and honorable people, but the leadership was inept and corrupt. I would think that you would personally be appalled by these revelations, because in your press conference the day you announced impeachment, you tied the impeachment effort directly to the completely discredited Russia Hoax, declaring twice that “all roads lead to Putin,” when you know that is an abject lie. I have been far tougher on Russia than President Obama ever even thought to be.

Any member of Congress who votes in support of impeachment—against every shred of truth, fact, evidence, and legal principle—is showing how deeply they revile the voters and how truly they detest America’s Constitutional order. Our Founders feared the tribalization of partisan politics, and you are bringing their worst fears to life.

Worse still, I have been deprived of basic Constitutional Due Process from the beginning of this impeachment scam right up until the present. I have been denied the most fundamental rights afforded by the Constitution, including the right to present evidence, to have my own counsel present, to confront accusers, and to call and cross-examine witnesses, like the so-called whistleblower who started this entire hoax with a false report of the phone call that bears no relationship to the actual phone call that was made. Once I presented the transcribed call, which surprised and shocked the fraudsters (they never thought that such evidence would be presented), the so-called whistleblower, and the second whistleblower, disappeared because they got caught, their report was a fraud, and they were no longer going to be made available to us. In other words, once the phone call was made public, your whole plot blew up, but that didn’t stop you from continuing.

More due process was afforded to those accused in the Salem Witch Trials.

You and others on your committees have long said impeachment must be bipartisan—it is not. You said it was very divisive—it certainly is, even far more than you ever thought possible—and it will only get worse!

This is nothing more than an illegal, partisan attempted coup that will, based on recent sentiment, badly fail at the voting booth. You are not just after me, as President, you are after the entire Republican Party. But because of this colossal injustice, our party is more united than it has ever been before. History will judge you as you proceed with this impeachment Charade. Your legacy will be that of turning the House of Representatives from a revered legislative body into a Star Chamber of partisan persecution.

Perhaps most insulting of all is your false display of solemnity. You apparently have so little respect for the American People that you expect them to believe that you are approaching this impeachment somberly, reservedly, and reluctantly. No intelligent person believes what you are saying. Since the moment I won the election, the Democrat Party has been possessed by Impeachment Fever. There is no reticence. This is not a somber affair. You are making a mockery of impeachment and you are scarcely concealing your hatred of me, of the Republican Party, and tens of millions of patriotic Americans. The voters are wise, and they are seeing straight through this empty, hollow, and dangerous game you are playing.

I have no doubt the American people will hold you and the Democrats fully responsible in the upcoming 2020 election. They will not soon forgive your perversion of justice and abuse of power.

There is far too much that needs to be done to improve the lives of our citizens. It is time for you and the highly partisan Democrats in Congress to immediately cease this impeachment fantasy and get back to work for the American People. While I have no expectation that you will do so, I write this letter to you for the purpose of history and to put my thoughts on a permanent and indelible record.

One hundred years from now, when people look back at this affair, I want them to understand it, and learn from it, so that it can never happen to another President again.

The New Covenant

Part 3

A Composition on the Principles of Israel's New Covenant Relationship with Yahweh

By Phillip Humber

The Inward Baptism of the New Covenant

In the King James Version of the Bible, the English word baptism is translated from the Greek word "baptisma" Strong's #908. It is translated only baptism and is derived from the Greek word "baptizo" Strong's #907. "Baptizo means to make whelmed; that is, to "cover with" or "engulf into." It is translated Baptist, baptize, and wash. Scripturally it is used only of ceremonial cleansing with water.

In our Protestant Christian Faith, baptism is a ceremonial rite or ritual of cleansing by total immersion into water. It is done in accordance with Yahshua's command to His disciples in Matthew 28:29, *Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Acts 8:27-39 gives a good example of baptism. In this passage, an Ethiopian eunuch is baptized by Philip after they had went down both into the water (v.38). The ceremony of submerging into the water is not really my focus here. I believe the majority of our Protestant Christian Churches rightly observe the ritual of baptism even if there are minor differences between the denominations. The main thing I want to touch on here is what baptism as a ceremony represents. It really seems to be an outward ceremony that symbolizes what has happened inwardly.

Water baptism as a ceremony is much like the marriage ceremony. A man and woman who have agreed together to be married are "Betrothed" (engaged) to each other. In this betrothed position, they are already considered husband and wife by Yahweh's Law because of their agreement. Deuteronomy 22:23-24. [Editor's note: This is why Joseph was going to "put away", i.e. divorce Mary even though they were just engaged. Matthew 1:19] They just have not had the outer ceremony before Yahweh and man. The same is true of baptism. It is an outward sign or symbol of what has already happened inwardly.

Something else to that needs to be looked at before we get into what baptism symbolizes is the many kinds of baptism talked about in Scripture. In a quick overview of the Scriptures there appears to be many forms of baptism that a believer goes through. For example, John's baptism of repentance (Mark 1:4), baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire by Christ (Matthew 3:11), Baptism into Christ (Galatians 3:27), baptism into one body (1 Corinthians 12:13), baptism into Christ's death (Acts 8:27-39), and the baptism that Christ was baptized with (Matthew 20:22-23).

Now, which is it? Is a Christian to go through all these forms of Baptism? Or do we just go through a certain one, or two, or what? Before we go off the deep end, we need to "rightly divide" these different baptism forms with the following Scripture Ephesians 4:4-6.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all,..."

In this passage, Paul clearly states that there is only ONE baptism. There can be no doubt about his meaning here. So, if this is true and there is only one baptism, then how are all the previous mentioned forms of baptism "one?"

Let's say you are a man who has a father, a son, a grandfather, a wife, and an uncle. By your father you would be called a son. By your son, you would be called a father. By your grandfather you would be called a grandson. By your wife, you would be called a husband. And by your uncles you would be called a nephew. Does this mean that there are five of you? No. These are just five different ways or aspects of your “one” existence in this world. This same principle applies to baptism, except for water baptism, which is the ceremony or symbolic sign of the true inward baptism. So, what does this ceremonial water baptism represent?

In the Gospel according to Mark, Yahshua says, “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved...” Mark 16:16. This definitely implies that baptism is an essential element of salvation. But, does this refer to water baptism? No. In the letter to the Romans, Paul teaches that by belief and confession is a man saved (Romans 10:9-10). Now, either we have a contradiction here or the baptism referred to in Mark 16:16 is an inward baptism that is the result of the confession of which Paul spoke.

And what about the thief on the cross next to Christ? He believed and confessed Christ and Yahshua Himself said to him that he would be with Him in paradise. (Luke 23:39-43). The thief here was definitely “saved” yet, he did not have the chance to be baptized in water. How does this “rightly divide” when the necessary baptism for salvation that Christ spoke of in Mark 16:16? The thief here “believes” and by his “confession” he received the inward baptism that is very much necessary for salvation. The thief was baptized, but not with water.

In his first letter, Peter gives us more details about this saving baptism (1 Peter 3:21). He starts out by talking about the flood in Noah’s day and how it is a like figure of the baptism that saves us. Peter clearly points out here that the “baptism saves us.” Then comes the parenthetical statement that defines this “saving baptism,” “not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God.” It is not the immersion of the physical body into water that saves, it is the baptism of the conscience!

Now, since a man has a guilty and sinful conscience before being saved, this inward baptism of the conscience must be a cleaning process in order that it may give a good answer toward God. When we find out what it is that the conscience is baptized into and thus, defines the inward baptism that saves. Of course, we already know by what we have already gone over that the conscience is washed in the blood of Christ because it says so in Hebrews 9:14, ... blood of Christ, ... purge your conscience from dead works ...” The inward baptism of the conscience is in the blood of Christ. Revelation 1:5, also testifies that He washed us from our sins in His blood. This inward baptism is the baptism that saves! A man can not be saved without it.

Leviticus 17:11 says that the life of the flesh is in the blood. Therefore, in principle, we can see that to be baptized into His blood is to be baptized into His life. In the letter to the Galatians, Paul makes a statement to the same effect when he says to the Christians, For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ (Galatians 3:27). So, not only is the baptism of the conscience in the blood of Christ the cleansing of our sins, it is also the putting on of the life of Christ. We [our conscience] have been immersed [covered and engulfed] in and with the blood [the life is in the blood] of Yahshua the Christ, our Messiah. Are you covered with the blood? If so, then you are covered with His life. You are in Christ.

The inward baptism is the immersion of the conscience of man in the blood of Christ. This inner baptism is what truly cleanses man from his sins. The ceremonial water baptism is an outward symbol or sign of the inward baptism of the conscience. The water baptism ceremony is a seal of righteousness under the New Covenant just as circumcision was the seal of righteousness under the Old Covenant. Water baptism is only a seal of the righteousness, not the righteousness itself. The answer of a good conscience toward Yahweh and the maintaining of that good conscience (Acts 24:16) through the help of Christ (1 John 1:9) is the righteousness.

Our New Covenant with Yahweh is established by the inward baptism of our conscience in the blood of Christ. Through our cleansed conscience, we have communion with the Holy Spirit and are become the sons of Yahweh, just as the New Covenant states. Truly our New Covenant is a BETTER COVENANT! Hallelujah!

Preparing the Ground

By Dave Loring, Colorado david.loring@ministerhisway.net

When the Pilgrims came from the Old World to settle in the New World, they were truly seeking to create a New World. A World of Christians following the Way of Christ as given in His Word. When it came to their survival however, they brought with them the old ways of planting crops. These ways did not yield the bounty they expected. Especially as compared to their neighbors of the Wampanoag tribe. A friendly member of that tribe named Squanto shared with them his tribe's way of preparing the ground in the New World to receive the bounty that Squanto's tribe had. The secret was to place a portion of fish with the corn seed. We now have different ways to fertilize the ground which have increased the yield even beyond those days of old.

When my wife wanted to have her dream of having a horse, we wanted to improve the grass on our property for her horse. Trying old methods on a small plot that worked in the Midwest did not work in the High Rockies of Colorado. When we inquired of neighbors, we learned of the practice of actually drilling into the ground and at the same time planting the grass seed. Fertilizing is also a part of preparing the ground here as well. How does this relate spreading the Word?

Almost all who study the Word are familiar the parable of the Sower and the Seed as found in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. The method common in the time of Christ was plow the ground and then cast the seed by hand over the prepared ground. In this manner, some of the seed fell on ground that wasn't prepared. Some fell on rocky ground, some on thorny ground, and some was eaten by birds. This was not a condemnation of the sower. This was just the way things worked in that place and time. The majority fell on the prepared ground and brought forth high yield. The point of the parable was to explain how the Word would yield its fruit. Not all of the ground was conducive to a favorable yield. This parable explains why not all receive the Word to a good result.

There are many who try to prepare the ground, however they, in most of today's churches, are casting partially formed seed. In doing so, the seed of the Word isn't capable of yielding any true bounty of the Word. In short the Word must be complete to grow and yield its bounty.

This parable was meant for those who sow the Word to understand why it doesn't always yield a favorable result to all who hear the Word. How does this relate to today? The simple answer is that the majority of those professing to teach how one becomes a Christian are frankly doing an abominable job. They prepare the ground well for their own gospel which deletes much of what the true Gospel clearly teaches. This is one of the prime reasons we have so many denominations today. In many cases they are nothing more than cults of personalities of Charismatic, Prosperity, fraudulent Faith healing, salvation by works, pre, post and amillennialism, and the list goes on and on.

In all of this the simple truth of how one gets rid of one's sin debt load, i.e. being saved, and becoming a disciple of Christ gets lost if not ignored completely. Many slick phrases which cannot be found in the Word, are often used to deceive those who truly seek Christ and His Kingdom.

The Christian Israel Truth

How to Introduce it Without Scaring the Judeo-Christian

By Jaye S. Torgerson

Perusing the Websites of Christian Israel teachers, one does not read far before finding negative references to those masquerading as the covenant people. “The Jews” they say are this, “the Jews” are doing that. It is unfortunate that most Judeo-Christians, introduced to the Christian Israel message this way, choose not to give it a second look. A reason for this is found in the following quote.

There is a principle which is a bar against all information, which is proof against all argument, and which cannot fail to keep a man in everlasting ignorance. This principle is contempt prior to investigation. William Paley (1743-1805), British Christian apologist and philosopher

The Judeo-Christian has been conditioned by a secular and religious establishment to respond with contempt when seeing the word Jew in a negative context. When thus introduced to the Christian Israel truth it triggers the raising of a red flag in their mind. This red flag tells them to stop reading, to look no further when presented with arguments for Israel, correctly identified.

Why then, when multiple scripture texts (Rom. 2:26-29; Rev. 2:9, 3:9, etc.) tell us that certain people are not, in a religious sense, real Jews, is it necessary to call them—Jews? Why, when we know that most of them are not descended from the Judah portion of Israel and are not therefore Judahites (i.e. Jews) do we give them credit for the same by calling them—

Jews? These, in addition to the aforementioned red flag response are reasons why I introduce the Christian Israel message with little or no mention of the Khazar people, and without calling them Jews. Reserve this word for real Jews, for the Messianic Israelites in the book of Acts.

Remind your Judeo-Christian friend or relative that when the gospel was preached to the Jew first (Rom. 1:16; 2:9-10) it resulted in the first Christians. Remind them that already, in 33 AD there were about five thousand (Acts 4:4) Jews who believed. Also accepting the gospel were Jews in Berea, those who became Christians because they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures (Acts 17:11) whether things were so. As you continue by repeating Jew in its positive context remind the Judeo-Christian that an Israelite, a certain Jew named Apollos...mightily convinced the Jews, and that publically, showing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ (Acts 18:24-28). Politely remind him or her that the many thousands of Jews there are which believe (Acts 21:20) proves that it was some (Rom. 3:3), that it was not all Jews who rejected Jesus.

When They Say, “But His Own Received Him Not”

When they ask regarding John 1:11 (he came unto his own and his own received him not) remind them that John’s Gospel is emphasizing Christ’s earthly ministry, not the decades which followed. And his own: this is not necessarily inclusive of all Israelites. It best describes His own tribe, Judah, not that of Benjamin in Galilee, the Galileans received him. (John 4:45). This is why Jesus often avoided Judea, walking mostly in Galilee (see John 7:1). Corroborating with this, is the fact that His disciples and early followers were overwhelmingly of the tribe of Benjamin, and of Galilee. Many, however, of Judah did, eventually, accept Jesus, but mostly after his earthly ministry was finished. Remind the Judeo-Christian that Scripture does not contradict Scripture that if his own received him not for the duration of the Bible narrative there would not have been those thousands of Jews who, later, believed.

Agreeing that Israelites, in general, did receive Him is the Epistle to the Hebrews. Politely inform the Judeo-Christian that the title and context of Hebrews identifies these Hebrews as Israelites (most evangelicals do not know this). Explain how chapters 8-10 identify them as a people who accepted Jesus and the New Covenant. Explain also how James, an epistle to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad (James 1:1) was written to Israelites, to Christian Israelites. Again, most evangelicals do not realize this. Their leaders have them focused, so focused on the idea Israel rejected Jesus that they do not see otherwise when reading these epistles.

At this point you have not told the Judeo-Christian that all first century Israelites were not located in Palestine and were not all known as Jews; neither have you told them that certain people (Ashkenazi-Khazar) are not a good representation of Judah. They can learn this later. Keep your introduction simple, keep them focused on the Christian Israel described in Hebrews and James, and the fact that thousands of Jews did not reject Jesus.

The Judeo-Christian has respect for Jew when used in its positive context (and so should we). For this reason, they will not react with contempt when you identify today's millions of descendants of those thousands of Jews by explaining Isaiah's prophecy. Tell them how Isaiah prophesied that Israel would be called by a new name (62:2); by another name (65:15) and how fulfillment of this began when the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch (Acts 11:26). Tell them how this transition, from the name Jew to Christian, was completed early in the second century; how after this time the descendants of those Messianic Israelites described in Acts, Hebrews and James, etc., are called, not Jews, nor even, Israelites. They are known in history as Christians, the prophesied new name for God's Israel servant people. And who in history, while performing as God's servant people are also known as Christians? Is it not the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, Scandinavian and related European people?

Remind the Judeo-Christian that it is wrong therefore to identify latter-day Israel based on the idea that Israel rejected Jesus. While this was true of the Judean Scribes and Pharisees and those loyal to them, it does not describe the majority of Israelites, those whose descendants became known as Christians.

Jesus, before sending forth his disciples said: Be ye therefore wise as serpents and harmless as doves (Matt. 10:16). If you are tired of being looked upon with contempt, with suspicions of "anti-Semitism" when introducing the Christian Israel truth try the serpent and dove approach. Begin your explanation with those Acts 21:20 *thousands of Jews. Copyright © 2014 by Jaye S. Torgerson

The Year 2020: Will the Eyes of Israel Be Unblinded?

By Martha Barley

Recently a friend shared an article titled, Preacher, You Better Start Including Politics in Your Sermons, that was in Charisma Magazine which is a mainstream Pentecostal Magazine. The author, Bert Farias said, "Preachers and all Christians who actually apply their faith to politics are the great final barrier to the corrupt socialist/communist agenda that has infiltrated our American society. This is why they are now being targeted. There are humanistic ideologies and demonically designed strategies that have infiltrated our educational institutions and the political realm, and yes, even the church, that are moving us toward universal egalitarianism and a cultural Marxism.

I believe the greatest enemy in decadent times like these may be the sleepy, lukewarm and deceived church. A subversive effort by the leftist-leaning liberals to infiltrate the church and turn people away from the real gospel and true doctrine is gaining momentum in this hour. The purpose of this agenda is to sway the church toward a radical political movement and the spread of socialism and atheistic, hatred-inspired, communism in our nation."

Wow, I think maybe they are finally starting to wake up. I know all of that has been obvious to many of us for decades, but this is good news. We need more Israelites awakening to the danger. The author ends his article this way: "It is high time for the church to awaken and arise. The enemy has entered in through our back door and is stealing our liberties and our land.

I trust more of us are now coming to the realization that although authentic Christianity can survive without America, America cannot survive without authentic Christianity. It's time to take the fight to the enemies within."

Interestingly, Strong's Hebrew #2020 is the word hatstsalah which is only used in one verse in the entire Bible. The word means deliverance. It only appears in Esther 4:14.

For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

Malachi is letting Esther know that if she keeps silent at this time her family will be destroyed and that by speaking up she can save her family. The author of the article has realized this same truth. That it is time to be brave and speak the truth. Many Christians do not realize that Christ said many hard things to his enemies and we also must not shrink our duty to speak against evil.

Esther heeded the words of Mordechai and said these words in verse 16:

Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

May 2020 be the year that the eyes of Israel are open to the truth of God's Word and may it also be the year that all of us repent of our own sins so that God will fight on our side. May 2020 be a time of our deliverance from the tares and may the Lord cause the tares to be taken out of His Kingdom.

Make 2020 be a year of fasting and praying for Israel's deliverance. Please pray earnestly for all of Israel to have the bravery of Esther and to understand, if I perish, I perish.
