FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Faith, Fear, and the Stroke

Those of you who are not on our email may not know that I suffered a stroke in the brain stem in the back of my head. My wife, Martha, and I were having breakfast with Marguerite (a good Christian Israel lady) on a Tuesday morning when I noticed that I could not swallow any food or water. Marguerite said that she was also having a problem swallowing food and recently had to have her esophagus stretched. I thought, well, my mother also had this problem and so, I must now be having this same situation. That night, I threw-up most of the night causing my esophagus to be somewhat coated with stomach acid. So, I reasoned, that my inability to swallow food or liquid was being exasperated more from this situation. Well, my wife finally convinced me that I needed to go to the hospital, arriving Thursday night (August 1st), and was not released for three weeks (on Thursday (August 22nd)).

There are many details that transpired in those three weeks, MRI, CAT-SCAN, to having a PEG (stomach) feeding tube being put in my stomach. The type of stroke I had is called a left lateral medullary ischemic stroke. Because it was a very small blood clot in my brain stem, it shut down my ability to swallow food or liquid. It also caused some other disabilities, including my ability to balance myself in some ways. But, I can now walk, talk, think, and even eat without using the tube in my stomach now. Most of what I am able to eat are soft things like ground up meat, mashed potatoes, eggs, yogurt, protein drinks, smoothies, and other similar foods.

As you can imagine, this whole ordeal has been a challenging Faith confrontation. I appreciate and felt that many of you have been praying for me and about this serious stroke ordeal.

It sure has been a significant testing of my faith. It is putting Faith in action, living and applying Faith. “Have Faith,” are powerful words. It takes courage to go through the valley of darkness where no positive outcome is visible. Where waves of discouraging words are thrown as weapons against you by various doctors and you have to “stir up the Faith.”

One of the most encouraging events occurred about two days after arriving at the hospital, when a man of faith entered my room telling me that he was sent of the Lord to pray for me. His name is Kris Blankenship. We had a wonderful time of prayer and fellowship concerning the Covenant message. He was an angel of Light and he spoke great words of encouragement and faith to me. Just what I needed to hear at such a time on that particular day. Many others called, friends, and get well-wishers. My wife, sons, their wives and children, and my daughter came to visit me on many occasions and would share Get Well cards and prayers many of you good folks were sending.

I was in the hospital a total of two weeks and then at our local skilled nursing center for a week. I will continue to do speech and physical therapy along with some other treatments. For my three weeks in those facilities, I was eating what they gave me. It is wonderful to be able to eat, but also to eat healthy food instead of their food!

Some of you have passed on great suggestions of outside the medical process. These are health healing things to try that will help and mitigate the effects of my stroke. We are open to these health suggestions and welcome any helpful advice.

As I said, the stroke took away my eating and drinking reflexes and so the doctors decided to have a Peg (a feeding tube put in my stomach). They will be removing this in the near future. I must have lost close to 30 lbs. of weight the first two weeks in the hospital. Now, I needed to lose some weight, but that is a hard way to do it. Ha ha

One day a young Chaplin came to visit and stayed visiting with me for over an hour and he took pages and pages of notes on the various things we discussed. I shared with him many Bible verses on the Kingdom, principles of faith, and why my faith in Jesus Christ was so vital. He left my room with a big smile on his face and told me that he had not encountered such an impactful Bible discussion perhaps ever. Both of us were faith uplifted.

For many people who are battling illnesses, cancer, heart, stroke, diseases of a wide variety, it is not easy to spiritually hold on to Faith. We struggle in the Faith. We have to exercise Faith. Push forward in the Faith and work the Faith. Work through the doubts and fears, work through the obstacles that are placed in our path. It has been said, "Storms do not define you; they reveal who you really are." Meaning your real spiritual identity is revealed by how you handle the storms.

There are many of you who clearly have a ministry of "building one another up in the most Holy Faith." I say, "God bless you in this Holy endeavor."

Jude 20-22

<sup>20</sup> But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,

<sup>21</sup> Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

We are children of the Kingdom, and we are to appreciate the privileges of being the Kingdom people. There is a “Peace which passeth, or surpasses all understanding.”

Philippians 4:7-9

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Praise in pain. The Apostle Paul had to do this in prison. He endured beatings, stonings, abuses of his body and mind few can hardly imagine. I thought about the Apostle Paul and the suffering of our Lord Jesus Christ and in Faith I praised the Lord in my pain, I praised for a refreshing, for a renewed mind, and I started feeling His Presence. His Presence was greater than my feelings or emotions. Many things I will not elaborate on tested my faith. Jesus Christ is the Solution; we must learn to Rest in Him.

I have received many good encouraging and spiritually uplifting things that have lifted by heart during this health struggle. But I do want to share this inspirational letter from friends in Texas that brought a tear, well maybe it was two or three to my eyes. Words are powerful, good words, or spiritually anointed words are life changing. Hope you are inspired by these good thoughts as well.

Dear Dave,

I am so glad to hear that you are bouncing back. Arnold Schwarzenegger said in one of his classic movie statements, "I'll be Bach!" And you are well on your way "bach!" I know there are multitudes who are praying for you. I have always prayed for your ministry, but now I am praying daily for your speedy recovery! And you WILL be back before you know it.

I have talked to several folks who have gone through the same thing you are going through. They all tell me the same thing. There were times when they got frustrated and tired of their situation---but you never give up! It doesn't matter how slow you go, as long as you don't stop! Every day you are better than the day before! Remember that difficult roads always lead to beautiful destinations! You will have to push yourself, because no one else is going to do it!

Don't let fear creep into your life. Fear is allowing yourself to believe that God is not in charge of your life or the world He created!

I hope you don't mind my preaching, but I wanted to let you know God has you in the palm of His hand and you will be back 100% before you know it!

Laura and I love you and appreciate you more than you realize.

Marc

PS: If you are like me, I can get down if I don't get out and about. That is a trait of a person who is a "people person." And you are a wonderful people person.

So, if you feel like you are drowning in life or any situation, just remember that your lifeguard walks on water!

Race Versus Character

By Pastor Dave Barley

I'm not going to quit preaching on Biblical Truth just because the politics of the day wants to silence certain Biblical absolutes. Let us all continue to speak the Truth. God's Word unto Israel shall NOT return void:

Isaiah 55:11

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Dare we hide from God's Word? We have nothing to hide from or be ashamed of when it comes to our Biblical Covenant Identity or racial Purposes. The world is attacking our race, our Heritage, and even more importantly God's Heritage people (Israel). This is a major part of our Faith; dare we deny or hide from this Abrahamic Faith?

Recently I was sent an article by a man I know and respect in many ways. His article is called "I'm Proud of How God Made Me, White" dated July 18, 2019. He and I spoke at a conference many years ago. Many of you know him. His name is Dave Daubenmire (most people call him "Coach," because he was a great coach years ago). He is especially famous among conservatives and Christians for bravely standing up for the "life rights" of the unborn, and he is well respected for his uncompromising stand on this and many other issues.

The reason I feel compelled to write about Coach's recent article on race and character is because I believe his premise concerning "race" is contrary to the declaratory Word of God. I'm not challenging his racial makeup, he, nor anyone else has any control over their racial origin. I question some of his conclusions concerning character and race. The Bible has much to say about character and race, and God's Word does not endorse sexual frivolity with regard to race-mixing.

First of all, the view that people can freely procreate (have sex) with any race they choose without racial, national, or Biblical consequences is not just a cute thought, it is national genocide. God's Law states: Thou shalt not commit adultery (Exodus 20:14). This is the seventh commandment. Contrary to what the Judeo-Christians claim concerning the meaning of "adultery," it does not just mean "a man or woman who breaks wedlock." There is a much broader definition of adultery and to a large degree the Biblical definition of adultery is "racial adulteration." Adultery means to adulterate. Race-mixing is the adulteration of a race.

It is not my objective in this article to present an in-depth study of adultery. My main purpose is to dispel the belief it is either character or race when in fact it is both character AND race! To adulterate one's race (or race-mixing) has quite a bit to do with the racial, national, and spiritual ramifications about our national destiny. Babylon and Rome were destroyed because of their paganism and indifference to the race issue.

In 1921, Hereditas published an article on the fall of Rome written by the famous classical scholar Martin P. Nilsson. Why was a paper on this unexpected topic printed in the newly founded journal? To Nilsson, the demise of the Roman Empire was explained by the "bastardization" occurring between "races."

In his book, Imperial Rome, under the chapter "The Race Problem of the Roman Empire," page 383, he states this:

"...The effects upon civilization were very important: the bankruptcy of the civilization and sinking of the general level of culture in the hardships and wars of the bad third century destroyed much more than all the cruelties of the emperors. But it is not our task here to investigate this point. The mixing up of the races involves not only a problem for civilization but also a biological problem."

"When under the shelter of Roman peace and Roman administration all these races - those mentioned are only the most important of the races known - were mingled with each other, the result was an unlimited bastardizing. Bastardizing conveys perils which cosmopolitanism did not acknowledge but which modern science has shown to be real...Bastardizing between two races which differ from each other to more than a certain degree results in the deterioration of the race.

"...The unity and harmony of the race and the individual will be destroyed, the personality loses its balance. The individuals which are born out of this crossing fail to achieve a firm and fixed type. Psychically they lack a definite direction and vacillate indecisively between conflicting and unconnected hereditary dispositions. They may often possess great intelligence, but the moral strength is wanting. This state of affairs is due to biological factors but gets still worse if - as was the case in the Roman Empire." the fixed form of the mental life at the same time breaks down and is transformed."

This next part is a selected quote from the book Race or Mongrel by Alfred P. Schultz, written in 1909:

"That environment is of little importance to the development of a race is clearly demonstrated by the fact that when Hellenes lived in Greece, Greece was great. Since their mongrelization, Greece has produced nothing. As long as Romans existed, Rome was great; when they were mongrelized, Rome was dead. The Lombards came to Italy, and they produced the Renaissance. Their mongrelization left only an Italy. The Phoenicians produced a great civilization; it perished with them... The same phenomenon can be observed the world over. Where a great race is, civilization flourishes; where the great race is not, the best possible environment cannot produce it."

The tenth commandment actually deals with the "breaking of wedlock" union between a man and a woman. ...thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife (Exodus 20:17). The ten commandments are not duplicated laws of God, each one has various applicable meaning and purpose. This why the seventh commandment is not the same as the tenth. God wants His Covenant people to be Germaine or genuine.

If the Bible declares something to be immoral, then it is an unchanging fact with Divine implications. I am thankful that most of our readers are using sound Biblical reasoning when challenged with "politically-correct" rationalization.

In brief, here's the problem with Coach's title and article in general. As a person reads through his article, they will soon discover (as Coach states) "my family heritage has a lineage back to a group of Americans called Melungeons...My ancestors were a mixture of European, African, and Native American. But today people just call me and my family "white." It is easier to label me a racist that way."

The point he is making, is that he is not a "White" by race, but a racial mixture of various races. Although, according to today's Babylonian perverted standards, people who are "mixed breeds" can identify themselves as "Caucasian or White" and be a mongrel or mulatto at the same time. In actual Truth reality, White or White DNA is either pure White, or it isn't. When a horse and a donkey are inter-bred, the offspring is no longer a horse or a donkey; it is a mule. If you take a glass of pure white milk, and you add chocolate (even a small portion) to the white milk, it is no longer pure white milk, but a mixture of two or more ingredients.

My point is not to belittle Coach's racial pedigree. He is whatever racial makeup he is, and he had no control over his racial identity. But I do want to take issue with his premise "Dr. King (meaning Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.) asked Americans to stop judging by skin color but by the content of one's character." On the surface, that may sound true, just, honest, and correct. According to modernist thinking today, many would actually believe that what Coach and Dr. King stated was right out of the Bible.

Coach goes on to state, "Bottom line? Your skin-suits are simply containers in which the real you rides around in. Your skin color has nothing to do with what kind of a person you become." In other words, Coach is saying race doesn't matter, only the character of one's soul. So, whoever you may be racially, feel free to inter-racially marry or mix your DNA seed with whatever race you chose (just make sure, he's implying, that they're Christian and love Jesus). Feel free White man, to become a Melungeon like me or some other racial mixture, as long as both of you "love Jesus," that's Coach's message.

He is stating that race really doesn't matter. If you can find a Negro Sunday-school teacher who has the "love of Jesus in her heart," and you want to help spread a worldly gospel of Judeo-Christian multiculturalism, renounce your race, and just let the light of your character shine forth. And, if you're a mixed race mulatto, but you appear to show White Caucasian features, go ahead and refer to yourself as a White Adamic individual, help make America multi-racial.

Yes, I know most mixed race or nonwhite people will be outraged at the audacity of this subject matter. But listen, if

Coach has the audacity to make the various claims and assertions in his article denouncing those who uphold their Biblical and racial integrity with his assertions that “skin color” or race is not important, that all we need is “character,” then he is a deceiver and in many ways, against the teachings of the Bible.

Yes character, righteous character is vitally important. We need good wholesome Godly values, which includes, abstaining from the sin of “adultery” or “fornication” and mixing or mingling our seed with those races who are not of our racial kindred.

Bible verses most people want to tear out of their Bibles is found in Deuteronomy 23:2-3.

<sup>2</sup> A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever:

What does this mean? Well the term “bastard” is the Hebrew word “mamzer,” from #4464 in the Strong’s Concordance, which means: “mamzer (mam-zare’); from an unused root meaning to alienate; a mongrel, i.e. born of a Jewish (Judean or Israelite) father and a heathen mother: - bastard”

Yes “bastard” is a Biblical term, and it means the offspring that is born from an illicit union between a racial Israelite and a non-Adamic person. Does this Bible verse does mean a “mamzer” can continue to have sexual relations with Israelites for ten generations and somehow this seed corruption is then miraculously purified? Obviously not, because the rest of those generations would not be pure! That’s some warped and perverted Darwinian concept of evolution. No, this verse is making it clear that it is never acceptable or lawful for the church or congregation of Israel to permit non-Adamic-persons to mingle in a worship service or tabernacle with the Covenant people. The racial (and Israel is an ethnic body) Church of Israel is not to mix themselves racially or religiously with those who are outside of the seed of the Abrahamic Covenant people. God Almighty warns His Israel people, that if they do allow the aliens to dwell among them, this is what will eventually happen:

Mongrelization of the race and perversion of the Faith. It would result in the genocide of the White race, and a departure from the Covenant Faith.

The Scriptures tell us that Noah was racially pure, and we should also advocate racial purity and its applicable blessing upon our Kindred.

Genesis 6:8-9

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD. 9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

In Biblical context, to be “perfect in his generations,” means morally and racially pure. Perfect in descent of racial kindred. The Bible does not even suggest “spirituality” apart from genealogy. That would be advocating a “spiritual oxymoron.” Racial Biblical laws of purity are not meaningless concepts for people to gloat about. The Bible never advocates mongrelizing our racial genetic DNA. The word “generation” is from the Hebrew word “towledah.” It means: “descent, i.e. family; (figuratively) history: birth, generations.”

Remember, the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel) are racial Adamites (who are fair skinned, of a ruddy complexion), meaning, they were of a unique genetic Caucasian order. The other races are pre-Adamites and have a different DNA. They ethnically are non-Adamic people.

Adam and Eve were not the progenitors of all the races of the world, Adam was of a particular race (or Kind). Adam (man or Kind) was of a special order racially, he was not a multi-racial gene donor, nor was Noah. The Bible is about the Adamic Abrahamic Covenant people not all the races of the world.

Genesis 5:1

This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

There are many Bible verses condemning the sin of race-mixing or adulteration of one's race. For instance, Ezra 9:1-2, at the time when the foundations for the Southern Kingdom of Judah's temple was being laid:

Ezra 9:1-2

<sup>1</sup> Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

<sup>2</sup> For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

Let's understand what has taken place. A percentage of the "holy seed" or Covenant Israel's offspring were engaged in whoredom with other races. They had not separated themselves ethnically.

Deuteronomy 32:8-9

When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the LORD's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Leviticus 20:24-26

But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people... And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

Deuteronomy 7:6

For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

Romans 8:30

Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

Practically all of perverted Christendom (now called Judeo-Christianity, or Babylonian Talmudic-Christianity) would believe that this racial mingling and seed corruption would be acceptable in the eyes of King Jesus. God's Word says differently. Jesus Christ (the Alpha and the Omega) is the “same, yesterday, today, and forever.” He “changes NOT.” Humanistic reasoning man who is in touch with his feelings would say “our Jesus of Grace” would wholly endorse today's multicultural way of Baalism.

I would recommend any doubting “Thomas” to also look up the following supporting verses on this subject matter and these are but a few of many: (Deuteronomy 7:1-6; Genesis 26:34-35; 27:46; 24:2-4; Amos 3:2; Ephesians 5:5; Mark 7:21-23; Romans 9:4-5; Galatians 4:5; Psalms 147:19-20; Leviticus 20:24; Joshua 23:12-13; Hosea 5:6-7; Jude 7).

Long ago, I heard a minister share that he heard an Indian preacher state (as best as I can remember): “Jesus is not a race or some skin color, He is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in Truth." Well, I was young and inexperienced in Biblical Truth. I had little Biblical understanding, and I thought, "Well that makes sense." But, while we must worship King Jesus in Spirit and Truth, let's not just focus on the Spirit alone, but also the Truth part. We must do our best to be Biblically correct, meaning, to live in harmony with the Divine Covenantally Purposes of God unto His chosen seed of Adamic Israel. Worldly wisdom wants us to be ashamed of our White race and believe we are horrible White racists if we proudly uphold our White Israelite Heritage. But, somehow, it's perfectly honorable for non-white alien races to exalt their "honor, blessings, and culture" over and above that of ethnically White people.

Coach is proud of his racial makeup. I'm fine with this. However, all of us should uphold the Biblical Principle of "racial separation." I want Biblical Order as prescribed throughout the Word of God (properly understood in Scriptural context), not in a politically correct fashion. Coach ends his article with these words..." I'm proud to be white. Don't blame me. I was born this way." Well, Coach is what he is. His life (however good) and ethnicity, are not Biblical mirrors of what God has called His Chosen seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel to be. Emotion and feelings aside, God Almighty does not want a multicultural mongrelized New Covenant Israel. Jesus is in our race. His Covenant Purposes are unto racial Israel.

Only an idiot disarms themselves , and thinks the criminal will do the same.

The New Covenant

Part 1

A Composition on the Principles of Israel's New Covenant Relationship with Yahweh

By Phillip Humber

<sup>31</sup> Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

<sup>32</sup> Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord:

<sup>33</sup> But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

<sup>34</sup> And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.” Jeremiah 31:31-34

The above passage was written over 500 years before Christ and is the best passage that prophetically describes the New Covenant that Christ established. It is the basis of our relationship with God (YHWH). Unfortunately, mainline Judeo-Christianity apparently does not comprehend our New Covenant with Yahweh. Before examining the articles of the New Covenant, it is really helpful to get a good understanding of the meaning of the word “covenant.”

Meaning of the Word Covenant

A Covenant is a binding agreement. It is a contract or compact between two parties. Our English word, “covenant” is from Middle-English which in turn comes from the Anglo-French word “covenir,” which means “a coming together.”

Black’s Law Dictionary, 6th edition page 363:

“Covenant - An agreement, convention, or promise of two or more parties, by deed in writing, signed, and delivered, by which either of the parties pledges himself to the other that something is either done, or shall be done, or shall not be done, or stipulates for the truth of certain facts. . . In its broadest usage, means any agreement or contract.”

The English word “covenant” in the Old Testament is translated from the Hebrew word “beriyth” (bereeth) Strong’s #1262, which means “a compact.” This means a formal agreement between two or more parties. “Beriyth” is translated as covenant 263 times, league 17 times, and confederacy 1 time.

The Greek word “diatheke” (dee-ath-ay’-kay) is Strong’s #1242 and is the New Testament version of the word “covenant.” It carries the meaning of a contract; an agreement between two or more parties for the doing or not doing of something specified. “Diatheke” is translated in the New Testament as covenant 20 times and as testament 13 times.

Our Covenant with Yahweh is a compact or agreement through which we may “come together” with Him. The purpose of establishing a covenant between Yahweh and man is for their reconciliation to each other. Without a covenant between them, man and Yahweh have no basis for a relationship. Yahweh is holy, just, and righteous. Man, in his sinful state is unholy, unjust, and unrighteous. It is impossible for the holy Yahweh to enter into a relationship with man without a covenant between them.

Who is the Covenant Made With?

Another thing that is often overlooked or taken for granted is with whom the covenant has been made. It's easily agreed with all Christians that the Old Covenant was made specifically with Israel. Unfortunately, blindness covers most Christians as to whom the New Covenant is made with in particular. Judeo-Christianity theology teaches that the New Covenant is made with "spiritual Israel." Spiritual Israel, according to the modern teaching, is those who accept Jesus (Yahshua) the Christ as their personal Saviour. According to Scripture, this logically cannot be the case. According to the passage in Jeremiah, Yahweh said that He was going to make a New Covenant "with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah." In no way can this be construed as a "spiritual" type of Israel. The context of the passage does not allow it. The passage goes on to give evidence that clearly points out that it is speaking of physical Israel when it goes on to say that it would be like the Covenant that He (Yahweh) made with "their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt." Jeremiah 31:32 The fathers spoken of here are undoubtedly physical Israel! The New Covenant is made with their descendants, the physical Israel of today who are the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Celtic, Scandinavian, and kindred peoples. There is an abundance of Scriptural evidence to support this fact, but it is not my aim in this composition to expound in this area.

Why Did They Need a New Covenant?

Now, why did Israel need a "New" Covenant? They had an Old Covenant, wasn't that good enough? The passage in Jeremiah says that the Israelites broke the Old Covenant that Yahweh made with them even though He was a husband to them. Jeremiah 3:8 testifies that Yahweh divorced them. Ancient Israel was dispersed and rejected by Yahweh for their sin. According to the letter written to the Hebrews, the Old Covenant wasn't really a perfect covenant itself. In the eighth chapter, Paul begins a discourse on the New Covenant by saying of the Old Covenant, “For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.” Hebrews 8:7 Undoubtedly, the Old Covenant had a fault.

What is the fault of the Old Covenant? “For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.” Hebrews 10:1 The fault of the Old Covenant is that it could not perfect anyone by the observing of its rites and rituals.

How was it that the rites and rituals could not perfect the Israelites under the Old Covenant? Verse 2 of Chapter 10, goes on to say where it lacked in making the people perfect; “For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.” The rites and rituals of the Old Covenant could not perfect the consciences of the worshippers! Verse 9 of Chapter 9 also bears witness to this when it says that the rites and rituals “was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience.” The lack of perfection of the Old Covenant clearly had to do with the cleansing of the consciences from sin. The rites and rituals of the Old Covenant could not perfect the consciences of the worshippers from sin!

The rites and rituals of the Old Covenant were blood sacrifices that were made for the atonement of sins. “The wages of sin is death” Romans 6:23, and these wages must be paid! According to Leviticus 17:11, the life is in the blood and it is the blood that makes an atonement. “And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.” Hebrews 9:22 The Old and the New Covenants both were established with blood. The Old Covenant was established and perpetuated with the blood of sacrifices that could not perfect the consciences of the worshippers from their sins; “3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. 4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.” Hebrews 10:3-4

The New Covenant is established in and by the sinless blood of Yahshua the Christ (Matthew 26:27-28). The letter to the Hebrews clearly testifies that the blood of Christ does what the blood of the sacrifices of the Old Covenant could not do; “How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” Hebrews 9:14

Christ’s blood does perfect the conscience of the worshippers from sins so that we may serve the living Yahweh! And it is for this cause that He is the mediator of the New Covenant! By the shedding of His blood He paid the death penalty price and perfectly washed our conscience from our sins. This is definitely a “Better Covenant.”

What the New Covenant Entails

“8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

“And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.”

Hebrews 8:8-11

This is Paul’s quotation of the New Covenant prophecy from Jeremiah 31:31-34. There are seven main points to Yahweh’s New Covenant with Israel:

1. He will put [place] His Laws into our minds.
2. He will write them [form on surface] in our hearts [spirit].
3. He will be to us a God.
4. We [Israel] will be to Him a people.
5. We shall not teach each other to know the LORD for all shall know Him.
6. He will be merciful to our unrighteousness.
7. And our sins and our iniquities will He remember no more.

We will mainly be concerning ourselves with the first two points, “I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts...” These are found to be illustrated very well in the letter to the Romans 2:13-15:

“<sup>13</sup> (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

<sup>14</sup> For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

<sup>15</sup> Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)”

These Gentiles (which were the dispersed House of Israel) had Yahweh's Law written in their hearts! They must have been New Covenant Christian Gentile/Israelites because this is one of the promises of the New Covenant! And here we find the conscience, which was purged by the blood of Christ, to be "bearing witness" to the Law that was written in the heart by using their "thoughts" (their minds) as the means to accuse or excuse (conviction). This is also one of the New Covenant promises! It is through the "witness" of the purged conscience that Yahweh puts His Laws into our minds!

Thus, the Law is "written" in the heart and "put" into the mind through the conscience which uses the thoughts as the means of communication between the two. The Law is "written" in the heart just as these words are written on this paper. The Law will remain written in the heart just as these words will remain written here. While the Law is written and recorded in the heart, it is "put" into the mind just as by reading these words, the thoughts and concepts appear in your mind. The previous passage in Romans 2 demonstrates the actual working principles of how we follow and serve Yahweh under the New Covenant. Through the purging of the blood of Christ, we enter into a New Covenant with Yahweh having His Law established in our hearts and communicated through the cleansed conscience to the mind using the thoughts as the means.

Putting the Law into the mind by accusing or excusing thoughts is call "conviction." The obedience to this conviction is "faith."

Faith

Faith is an intricate part of the New Covenant we have with Yahweh because it is the belief and obedience to His Word which He puts in our hearts by His Holy Spirit. It is not something that can be possessed or caused to come to existence by an act of our own wills. Ephesians 2:8

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:”

Paul says in Romans 10:17:

“So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

This is not a physical hearing he is speaking of, but a spiritual hearing perception of the Word of Yahweh in the heart. The gift of faith is originally received by our hearing (spiritual perception) of His Word in our hearts. It is this spiritual hearing that we receive the Law that Yahweh wrote on our hearts into our minds. This is how the Law gets “put” into our minds. Romans 2:15 again points out that this done through the conscience by means of the thoughts. Logically, the conscience must be the seat of the spiritual senses because it is through the conscience that we “spiritually hear” or perceive the Word of Yahweh in our hearts.

It is most probable that the best defining, and descriptive verse of faith is Hebrews 11:1.

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”

Faith is an evidence that has a substance. The word “evidence” in this verse is translated from the Greek word “elegchos” (el’-eng-khos) Strong’s 1650 in the Greek Lexicon. It means conviction. Faith is a conviction and it has substance.

In the Gospel according to John, we have another witness of Scripture that points out that the conviction comes by means of the conscience. In John 8:1-11, is the story of when the Scribes and Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery before Christ. They wanted to use her to tempt Him so that they could find something to condemn Him with. When they repeatedly asked what should be done with her He answered, “He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.”

They heard His words and were convicted by their consciences and left doing nothing to the woman (vs 9). This is a good example of how faith actually works. They heard (perceived) the conviction (accusing thoughts) of His Word and acted on it. What the accusing and excusing thoughts that Romans 2:15 speaks of is the conviction of the conscience by the Word of Yahweh.

Now the other part of Hebrews 11:1 speaks of a substance of faith. What is this substance? The substance of faith is the obedient reaction or work of conviction. James, in his letter, clearly points out that faith without works is dead (2:17, 26). So, even though one is convicted by the Word, if he does not act on it in obedience, his faith is dead or useless. Faith begins with “conviction” of the Word. It is completed and has substance by the “obedience” to the conviction.

Paul goes on to tell more about the word of faith in Romans 10:6-11. He says that we do not need anyone to go get the Word [Christ], so that we can hear and obey. The Word is already in our heart and mouth. Now, in order for it to get from the heart to the mouth it must undoubtedly go through the mind or else you will be talking without thinking (unfortunately, we still do this at times).

What I am pointing out here is that the Word of Faith follows the working principles of the New Covenant; the Laws are written in the heart and put into the mind by means of our blood purged conscience. Verse 10 here speaks of believing in the heart, which is the receiving of the conviction of the Word. And it also speaks of the mouth confession which in this case is obedience to the conviction of the Word for salvation purposes.

Word in heart + conviction by the conscience + obedience = faith

Great Resources

By Martha Barley

There are many good videos on YouTube as I am sure many of you are aware. I recently watched one that I wanted to share with you. Schools have taught that evolution is fact for many, many years. In fact, in my first high school Biology class in 1972, my teacher started the class by stating, "If any of you in this room believe in Creation, you are absolute idiots." This one video is excellent at debunking this myth. It is titled, Mathematical Challenges to Darwin's Theory of Evolution and Peter Robinson of The Hoover Institute interviews Dr. Stephen Meyer, author of The Signature in the Cell, Darwin's Doubt, and other books, David Berlinski, author of The Devil's Delusion and David Gelernter, professor of computer science at Yale University who recently wrote an essay titled Giving Up Darwin in the Claremont Review of Books Spring 2019. You can read the whole essay here:

https://www.claremont.org/download\_pdf.php?file\_name=1513Gelernter.pdf If you wish a copy of it, just write and ask and please send $5 shipping. It is ten pages long. Here is a quote that I just loved.

"To help create a brand new form of organism, a mutation must affect a gene that does its job early and controls the expression of other genes that comes into play as the organism grows. Evidently, there are a total of NO examples in the literature of early mutation that effect the early development and the body plan as a whole and are NOT fatal." David Gelernter, Claremont Review of Books

Dr. Stephen Meyer is a Christian and the other two men are not. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=noj4phMT9OE>

Documentaries

Our local group has watched two excellent documentaries by filmmaker Timothy P. Mahoney. The first is titled Patterns of Evidence: Exodus. Even though Timothy Mahoney is a Judeo-Christian, he has uncovered the evidence showing that the dating of the Exodus has been wrong, and he shows the patterns of evidence that everything Bible records did happen, but at a different time than the “scholars” say it is.

The correct dating of the Exodus leads to his 2nd documentary, Patterns of Evidence: The Moses Controversy which shows that Moses did have the ability to write the first five books of the Bible and much of the controversy is because of the wrong dating of the Exodus. I don't want to ruin the documentaries for you, but there is amazing evidence that he shows that actually supports our identity as true Israel that others will miss.

Because he is a Judeo-Christian, he does interview Rabbis and Israeli officials, but even that is enlightening so that we know what they are teaching people in our universities and seminaries. The parts you will disagree with are minor compared to the evidence that he brings forth. Both of these documentaries are available from Mr. Mahoney on his website <https://patternsofevidence.com/> or from Amazon. I have ten copies of each one available for $12 each plus $5 shipping.

Mr. Mahoney also has materials for homeschooling. While I have not viewed those myself, I believe that they would be excellent. These two documentaries debunk much of the nonsense taught as fact in our seminaries and universities. It is important that you share this information with your children and grandchildren so that they will have the information necessary to counteract what is being taught.

Is the “Green Party” the Third Horseman of the Apocalypse?

From Germany by Karma Singh-

<https://bolenreport.com/is-the-green-party-the-third-horseman-of-the-apocalypse/>

To save you looking up Revelation in the Bible Revelation 6: 5-6, the Third of the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse is “Famine” mounted upon a black horse.

(Just for a point of discussion let’s say that the First Horseman – the great dictator – is the international bankers, the Second Horseman – the war bringer – is the military-industrial complex and the Fourth Horseman – pestilence – is the pharmaceutical cartel.)

Farmers in the participating states of the Federal Republic of Germany...where “the Greens” hold the balance of power and have, thereby, managed to impose some of their dogmas – know that it is, in those states, forbidden for a farmer to improve his land resulting in reductions in fertility and harvests. The Greens wish to impose more of their dogmas leading to “Agenda 21,” the so-called “Sustainable Development” whereby, for “environmental reasons”, most of humanity is to be slaughtered and the remaining 500 Million (5.5% of the present population) are to be pushed into ghetto cities and ruled over by a “Green” elite.

In re-writing one of my books... ... (I have never published it in English and the new German edition may well get a new name) one of the introductory chapters concerns the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

When writing about the Famine Horseman, I found that I had written the following: (Although, in Germany, this represents Green Party dogma, the self-same movement and agenda has many names around the world:

In the USA it is the extreme left Democrats epitomized by "Occasional Cortex," [Alexandria Occasia Cortez] in many countries, "Extinction Rebellion", the abuse of Greta Thunberg - a mentally retarded (vaccine damaged) juvenile from Sweden - to make her parents very rich by letting her be used for "Green Party" propaganda any many similar all with the aim of bringing about the de-industrialization of the Western world which would result in the deaths of many, many billions of people and a return to an agricultural feudal-like society ruled over by the bankers.)

Just a few days ago, an event happened in the US State of Pennsylvania...a group of "Eco-Terrorists" calling themselves "The Sunrise Movement" decided to storm the local Democratic Party headquarters. Their "research abilities" did not even extend to finding the correct address and police had to forcibly remove them because they refused to believe that the Democratic Party wasn't housed there.

One wonders, of course, how much research effort they devoted to finding out whether the Greens "Global Warming" is actually happening (definitely not is the scientific answer). Such are the Greens - and it gets worse!

From the new book:

The third horseman in Revelations is "famine." There can be no doubt that, in some parts of the world, this has been a chronic condition for many years. The question is "why, and who is doing it," for it is NOT a natural condition.

We are accustomed, in Europe and N. America to massive over-production of all foodstuffs.

A group of farmers in Austria published, in a video in 2018,

a detailed explanation of how and why 40% of what they produce is simply thrown away to maximize bankers' profits. They declare that, without this deliberate wastage, farmers could easily feed twelve billion people (the population of Planet Earth NOW is less than 9 billion). And yet the production is almost hopelessly inefficient. Were, for example, Bavaria alone could get rid of all farm animals and concentrate on just producing food for people then none of the other farmers in Germany would be needed!

The other great danger here is the Green Party and their demand that we switch from coal, oil, gas and nuclear generation to "renewable" (solar and wind power which, it turns out isn't renewable at all and creates large amounts of radioactive waste!) The greatest problem is, however, the extreme instability of these methods of electrical generation.

A national electrical grid, in any country, is built upon the premise that electricity production is constant. With coal, oil, gas and nuclear this is, in fact, the case. There are a few minor fluctuations which can be readily ironed out. The so-called "renewables", however, are, by nature, extremely unstable.

Neither wind nor sunlight are constants but vary enormously. Even a cloud passing between the sun and a photo-voltaic accumulator will cause a large swing in electricity production. The electrical grids cannot cope with either the frequency or the intensity of these natural swings.

It is inevitable that, once all reliable generators have been switched off...the grid will collapse. It is estimated that it would take at least three months for Germany to get the grid working again and the USA possibly six months. Take a look at what this means:

No street lighting. No telephones. No heating (even your oil heating won't work without electricity to run the pumps and provide the spark to ignite the burners).

No computers. No internet. No television. No radio. No newspapers. No petrol (Gasoline) or diesel as the pumps are worked electrically and so no cars, no busses and no trucks; this means no foodstuffs being delivered to shops and stores which, themselves, are in total darkness. Gas cookers will work (if you have some matches) but electric cookers won't, and neither will your kettle. No trains.

No planes because no electricity to pump the fuel and no radar or radio for traffic control. Result: Mass starvation. It is estimated that at least 24 million Germans would die and over 100 million Americans. This is very obviously a carefully planned and coordinated part of Agenda 21 and the mass-genocide which is an integral part of it.

The Greens have, of course, been repeatedly told of this both by the electricity generators, the grid managers and private researchers. They cannot claim to be in ignorance of this and yet continues as though it were of no importance at all.

Greta Thunberg, in case you've not yet heard of her, is a sixteen year old Swedish schoolgirl. She is a typical vaccine damaged child diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome which is one of the very many effects of the heavy metals and other toxins included in vaccines.

What is Greta famous for? Her appearance at the Climate Summit in Katowice, Poland in December 2018— where she mouthed almost EXACTLY the same story Alexandria Ocasio Cortez was belching out on US liberal TV – right out of the Democratic Socialist Cultural Marxist playbook.

Just to make very clear how real this is...

...look who is Greta Thunberg's handler: A green party senior member with direct personal links to satanic organizations. So, let there be no doubt in your mind just what is going on here. Are these the End Times, the forewarned Apocalypse? Only a fool could maintain otherwise. Many have taken heed of the warning in Revelations and elsewhere and have been acting to neutralize them for years.

The real problem is the passive who will "take action if and when" because that will be too late. You can't stop Armageddon and the Apocalypse when they have happened, but you CAN prevent them by acting to disempower those who are doing their utmost to engender them.

It IS up to you, NOW!

[Editor's note: The author does not KNOW that God has promised to deliver us from this evil. Hallelujah!]
