GREETINGS CHRISTIAN BRETHERN, CALLING GOD'S PEOPLE BACK TO THE FAITH

Is it me, or do you also feel like the world has gone mad? In this present period of time, we obviously feel and see the corruption of man's self-serving ways more so, because we are living in this quagmire or antiChristism. Attacking God's laws, corrupting morals, debasing society, turning God's people into targets physically and politically is very evident. ANTICHRISTISM means "opposition towards Jesus Christ and His Kingdom." This is the main problem facing the national House of Israel, and ultimately the world, and this problem must be understood and this trend reversed. My heart grieves when I consider the devastation we are witnessing today within the nations, or mountains of regathered Israel (America, England, Canada, Europe, Australia, and South Africa) because God's Israel people have been rendered spiritually dead and void of Kingdom understanding because they have failed to understand the devastation of antiChristism.

When man puts his laws in place of God's law, we are under the curses of Deuteronomy 28. This is the natural outcome of disobeying God's Law and hardly a month (sometimes even a week) goes by that we do not see the evidence and results of Adamic Israel abandoning their Christian duty and the tide of antiChristism bringing about unnatural events of spiritual purpose.

We are all aware of the devastation and disaster visited upon many parts of Colorado recently with the almost unbelievable rain and flooding that took place in that state. It is actually being referred to by many weather personalities as a thousand years event in their attempt to try and explain the “unexplainable” without Biblical understanding. It is laughable watching unregenerate man try and explain away all the various cataclysms in blaming these tragedies upon man’s violation of nature (global warming), but never nature’s God, the Lord Jesus Christ and His commandments.

We had over a dozen major forest fires that destroyed billions of dollars of forest, property, and homes throughout the west. Just a little over a week ago, fire destroyed the boardwalk in New Jersey that was recently rebuilt after being destroyed by hurricane Sandy. The cost to rebuild after hurricane Sandy exceeded 37 billion dollar..

Anything not destroyed at Fun Town Pier by Sandy was leveled by flame, said Seaside Park Mayor Bob Matthies. He is quoted as saying, “the fire was DEMORALIZING.” Interesting comment, wouldn’t you say? I could not help but think that because man has been void of godly morality, he becomes demoralized. This, plus the fact that God is a “consuming fire” Hebrews 12:29.

Governor Christie told reporters that when he got word of the fire, he told his aides, “I feel like I want to throw up.” Well, Governor, I know how you feel, but I also feel that way when I think of the demoralizing things you stand for, and the way you kissed up to Obama just days before the last national election. But let me move on, because I’m wasting words on that media favored Jersey boy.

DID SOMEONE SAY “RACE WAR?”

Right now, I want to address the present race war. Oh, you were not aware that such a war is going on? Well, it is, and more and more White people are starting to recognize this fact. This war is not being fought according to conventional warfare battles, and like this fact or not, this war and killings, are mainly being perpetrated and committed by Black people, against White people. This war, of course, is not being addressed by the media or government, but thinking and Biblically aware people are certainly not ignorant of this war. The main question before us is, “What should we do about this problem?” Well, I’m not going to beat around the bush, the Biblical answer is, “We must repent (turn from antiChristism) or we shall perish.” The solution, is not to grab our gun, organize, and go to war with these people, thinking that will deliver us. America’s problem is a spiritual problem. America’s problem is her abandonment of their Christian Israelite Covenant duties to Jesus Christ, their New Covenant King. Never forget that our deliverance, ultimately must, and will come from our Deliverer, Jesus Christ. He does not deliver His people based upon the works of their flesh or physical weaponry. No, He always delivers His people when they repent and embrace the righteous tenets of His Kingdom Word, by and through the leading of the Holy Spirit. I wholly embrace this Biblical solution and I implore all of you, as well, to do so.

This also involves dealing with the “race problem” on all levels and categories with Bible directed understanding for a righteous resolve. Aren’t you sick and tired of the antichrist curse producing methods? To think we can simply adopt Judeo-Christian methods in the name of Jesus and expect God’s healing love to pass over them, is nothing but emotional highly dumbed down Christianity. Spiritually transforming the race problem, leaving racial issues and the race-mixing Babylonian idea that "all we need is love" without any consideration of Biblical separatism or Biblical racial boundaries is a gross misguided faith and a serious misunderstanding of God's Love. This modern day concept is the perversion of Judeo-Christianity because of their abandonment of God's Law. God's people need to reacquaint themselves with true WHOLE BIBLE Christianity.

Personally, I must warn the Kingdom people of the race war before us. However, I am not doing so to feed you with fear, or give you and sense of hopelessness, I do so, to let you know that this war is about God speaking to His Covenant people. Let us consider these verses from the Song of Moses in Deuteronomy 32:4-9.

⁴ He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

⁵ They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

⁷ Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

⁹ For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

First, we are reminded that Jesus Christ is the ROCK, and He is Just and Right, but that His people have “corrupted themselves.” How, by corrupting “their spot” (a physical or moral blemish), and “their spot is not the spot of His (God’s) children.” In a very real sense God’s Israel people are losing their Biblical identity, in a physical and moral way. Then the Song of Moses calls His people to “REMEMBER THE DAYS OF OLD,” and asks for us to “consider the years of many generations” by asking thy father and thy elders, and they will tell thee. One problem is, that today, there are not many fathers or even elders who can instruct in the true Biblical ways of the Lord, especially when most of them are spiritually blind concerning the Israel Truth of God’s Word.

I must reemphasize the warning that Judeo-Christianity is not true Christianity, but a hybrid faith. Judeo-Christianity in its antichrist Judaism modification has been sacrificing its victims on the altar of “equality and social justice.” Its doctrines, though in the “name of Jesus,” are in reality promoting a “New World Religion” of spirituality that is short of the mark of essential Christianity. Though most Judeo-Christians will find this somewhat hard to accept, their religion is an adulteration that panders more and more to worldly values, and is absolutely being used by antichrist value manipulators.

True Christianity simply cannot be sustained when tainted with antiChristism and it is a matter of “the natural” verses “the unnatural.” Believe it or not, our founding forefathers in America were ethical because they were largely unmixed, and above all, they were predominately CHRISTIAN. Meaning, it was natural for this Anglo-Caucasian people to hear and accept the Gospel of Christ. For thousands of years, the Negro knew nothing of Christ, or the Christian faith until they encountered the White man. Our Divinely ordained destiny lies not in being racially indifferent, but in being cognizant of our Biblical Covenant calling. No other nation but America was founded by Christians for the express purpose of being able to be free to practice Christianity. This does require some racial reasoning with Biblical direction.

There are grave reasons for concern in the arrogance so evident in the recent government performances which have fostered racial aggression even the beginnings of a Negro infused race war. Government and Judeo-Christian attempts to assimilate all the colored races towards racial harmony and spiritual greatness have been, to a large degree unsuccessful and the darkness of Babylon ever grows and deepens. Mongrelization is an ignorance that must be dispelled. The fact of Biblical segregation as a principle of national healing must not be ignored. Our Puritan fathers paid a dear price for our nation's Christian foundation and we must not sell our offspring for a mess of red pottage. All men do not share equally in everything. Our Anglo-American heritage and its sacred Biblical principles were in no way connected with “progressivism.” No ecclesiastical or governmental official, regardless of how high his position, should be celebrated to the setting aside God Almighty's edicts of Kingdom ideology.

God's Love is not predicated upon man perverting himself racially toward some worldly glorified state of Universal brotherhood. This is antiChristism, and progressive ministers promote Acts 17:26 “And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth.” Their argument hangs on the word “blood” although this word DOES NOT APPEAR IN THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS. Correctly translated, it should read “He (God Almighty) hath made by One (Christ) every race of men to dwell upon the whole face of the earth.”

God's Covenant Anglo-Saxon and kindred people have been given a spiritual conscience that has a deep sense of justice and equity. The Black race dilemma in all the Caucasian concessions and attempts to bring fairness, and equity to the Negro, who did not advance as far as the wheel for over 6,000 years, most evidently cannot be fixed through measures of mere "equality." God's equality is defined by His law and God's laws of segregation are a right and Biblically lawful way of dealing with man's sin of progressivism., multiculturalism, and redefining of terms.

Joshua 23:12-13 "..if ye do in any wise go back and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them and they unto you: know for a certainty that they shall he snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish off from this good land which the Lord your God has given you. "

Jesus did not come to violate the meaning and Divine intent of these verses. He did not come with a multicultural Judeo-Christian progressive gospel. He did not come and chose Disciples of every race to change the Word of God into a worldly pleasing humanistic appeal. When Jesus said, "I have not come but for the lost sheep of the House of Israel," Matthew 15:24, He affirmed His Sovereign unchanging Whole Bible Word and He expects His Covenant Israel people to do the same.

Exodus 19:5-6

⁵ Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

⁶ And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

I for one am speaking these Words unto the Children of Israel whether others will or not. Will you join me in the righteous crusade? ~ Pastor Barley

A STUDY IN HEBREWS (Part Eleven)

Through this study, I hope that you will begin to see a brighter light in your Christian walk. The book of Hebrews is for the Hebrew Sons of God, so there are deeper spiritual truths in here that we need to understand. I pray that you will not be satisfied to just scan through these pages, knowing that you are an Israelite, being content in that knowledge, and waiting for the resurrection. There is not a lot of difference between that mentality and the Judeo-Christians rapture mentality. We look at them in our self-righteousness and say that they are content with just being saved and waiting for the rapture so that they can escape conditions on earth. But friends, our "spiritual misplaced contentment" is just as dangerous. I hope you can see there is more to walking the walk than resting on your genealogy. I hope you see that God's plan is so much greater than that.

Hebrews 10:1

*For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

The writer of Hebrews is saying that the Levitical priests under the Old Covenant could never with the sacrifices which they offered make those Israelites "perfect." It is biblically and experientially evident that the law cannot make us "perfect." In order for us to grow into spiritual maturity, we need to understand that fully. Yes, the law is essential because it reflects the nature and character of Jesus Christ. However, it cannot accomplish or fulfill our perfection. The law is not a cure-all, but it is our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, and He is writing it on our hearts so that we will reflect His righteousness in everything we do. But it is also essential that we pray and seek Him and His Will in this.

Verse one of Chapter 10 tells us that the law is a shadow or reflection of good things, but it is not the very image of those things. I do not want to put my whole faith and struggle into an effort that is not going to make me perfect. Therefore, if the law cannot make me perfect, what then? How do I attain perfection?

You and I attain perfection through the sanctification process that Jesus Christ is performing in us daily. This process is the Holy Spirit writing the law on our hearts, and through it we experience the purging of sin – the law (under Holy Spirit direction) burning the chaff from our thoughts and actions. He alone applies the law in our lives for our perfecting. The law is perfect, but without the Holy Spirit using it to cleanse and purge us leaves us but a shadow of what we can be. I put my faith and trust into Him who will cleanse me of my carnality and make me perfect.

This word “perfect” is interesting. Looking back at verse one, the writer tells us that the law with its sacrifices can never make “comers (those coming into the tabernacle) thereunto perfect.” The law cannot bring us into the fullness of measure of perfection that is the stature of Christ. I want to be all that I can be and obtain all that I can obtain in Christ Jesus. We know that we have many shortcomings and many failures. Fleshly man – those around us – may certainly give up on us. Nevertheless, I am not giving up on myself, and I am not giving up on you because I know that Jesus Christ is not giving up on either of us. His Providential New Covenant

Plan as stated in Hebrews 8:8-10 shall not fail.

True, our flesh is weak and fails us daily, this is why the Apostle Paul emphasized the importance of “dying daily to our flesh.” 1 Cor.15:31 & 2 Cor.4:10-11 We cannot be perfect because flesh fails us daily. We fall in and out of love with one another daily. We begin thinking negative things about one another, and our love tank falls to empty. We should be thankful that we do not have a God with a carnal mind whereby we have to worry about His love. Our Lord and Savior is faithful to us, He is consistent, even in our carnality. When He promises in His Word that He is going to do something, He is going to keep His promise. That should give you the same peace and spiritual strength that it gives me.

This word “perfect” in the Greek means “to complete, to accomplish or consummate in character.” Perfection, therefore, is not instantaneous. It is a process. Thayer’s Bible Dictionary adds this thought to the above: “To add what is yet, in order to render a full thing.” In other words, we are not full. We are like a glass that is only partially filled. We want to be made full – to come into the fullness of the measure.

Luke 6:21

Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled.

Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

For many years I thought that all I had to do was accept Jesus Christ into my life and that was all there was to it. I did not realize that there was more to our perfecting. I want you to get a full revelation of what Jesus Christ and what the writers of the New Testament are teaching. My goal is to open the eyes of your understanding to this necessary part of your growth because there are components missing in our character. There are attitudes in our lives that need correcting, and the Holy Spirit will perform this work in us and fill our measure.

Luke tells us that if we hunger, we shall be filled. We will no longer be like the glass that is half full. To be filled, we must exhibit love, faith, and a zeal for righteousness. Do you have a love for the Holy Spirit? Do you have a love for the things of the Spirit? Do you even realize that the Holy Spirit can help you to grow and to mature? Consider the following verses in Colossians:

Colossians 1:7-9

⁷ As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;...

Did you notice how Epaphras was characterized? Do you know people of whom you could say, "That Brother or Sister is a faithful minister of Christ?" Christian character is quite a testimony. They are faithful, they are not playing "Christian," they are not in and out of THE FAITH, they are consistent, faithful servants of Christ who can be counted upon. God's Kingdom Covenant people need faithful Christians living a life of Christian civility, rooted in Christ and His Kingdom Truth. This involves "love in the Spirit," not love created by social engineering that is based upon man's depraved thinking which teaches a twisted unconditional "love."

⁸ Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

In order for us to grow spiritually and to be brought into the fullness of the measure, we must possess a love of the Spirit and the things of the Spirit. This is essential. We need spiritual understanding. Believe it or not, we need spiritual understanding to deal with iniquitous forces, and the sons of God will deal with them in full measure at the appointed time. But in the context of these verses, we are talking about spiritual things that are beyond the carnal, worldly, dung things of this world.

⁹ For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding...

Notice that the Apostle Paul is praying for their spiritual understanding, but it takes a love of the Spirit for this to be accomplished. If you want to be filled with wisdom and knowledge of His will and His purposes, then you must have a true and deep love of the Holy Spirit. This Holy Spirit has moved upon God's Covenant Israel people from Genesis through Revelation. If you have little or no understanding of the Israel truth, that the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic, and kindred people are true sons of Isaac, then you have a void of vital Holy Spirit understanding. It is an evident fact that the marks of Christianity are upon the Caucasian people, even in their morally depraved condition today, whereas, it is equally evident that a spirit of antichrist is upon the bulk of Jews who advocate Talmudic Judaism and despise the name of Jesus Christ. God's dealings with His Hebrew Israelite Covenant people are throughout the Scriptures and vital Holy Spirit understanding accompanies every aspect of their Israelite purpose:

Ephesians 1:17-18

¹⁷ That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

¹⁸ The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

The body without the spirit (or breath of LIFE) is dead (James 2:26). We see throughout the Scriptures, that Israel, without faith, or the leading of the Holy Spirit, is lifeless to overcome the moral destruction upon them as a people and as a nation.

Hebrews 10:5-10

⁵ Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

⁶ In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

⁷ Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

⁸ Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

⁹ Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

¹⁰ By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

The above is a reference of the sentiments expressed in Psalms 40:1-10.

¹ I waited patiently for Yahweh; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. ² He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

Yahweh brought us up out of the pit which is our Adamic, fallen condition – the carnal flesh we are born with. Who is the rock? Jesus Christ – not the law, but Jesus Christ. Yahweh, through Jesus Christ, has lifted us up out of the state of death that is our Adamic legacy. He is working out

His plan through the counsel of His will. How? Through the burdens, the trials, the tests of this life. As we read further in Psalm 40, we find that portion that is quoted in Hebrews.

Psalm 40:3-10

³ And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yahweh.

⁴ Blessed is that man that maketh Yahweh his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

⁶ Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

⁷ Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,

⁸ I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

⁹ I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Yahweh, thou knowest.

¹⁰ I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

God Almighty was writing His righteous purposes within the heart of David that he might give forth this divine knowledge unto Israel – preaching unto spiritually dead bones. Do you remember the prophecy in Ezekiel of the dead bones of Israel? God told Ezekiel to go and prophesy unto those dead bones that they should live. Ezekiel saw flesh come upon them that was representative of a spiritual resurrection. Thus, it is through hearing the Word and yielding to its work within us that our spirits are lifted up, or resurrected, out of this dead, Adamic fallen condition. Yielding to the Holy Spirit's work in us is our trial by fire that results in our spiritual resurrection. The Apostle Peter addresses our trials by fire in his first epistle:

1 Peter 1:6-8

⁶ Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

⁷ That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

⁸ Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

Peter is acknowledging here that we have trials, tests, and tribulations in this life, especially if we are going to be pursuing spiritual resurrection. When we begin pursuing spiritual things, we will begin to develop a greater awareness of the real battle that is before us. You will actually be able to engage in what we would refer to as "spiritual warfare" against the enemy. Please understand, I am not referring to praying away spirit concocted enemies as some do to make you think they are great spiritual saviors praying away "spiritual enemies" of their own making and fantasies. Many Christians follow such "prophets" without question, placing their faith in their "prophets" spiritual scenario, not even questioning the fact that what he or she is telling them is absolute made-up fiction. This is not the type of spiritual warfare I am putting forth in this teaching. What I am referring to, is “spiritual warfare” that is directed against real, present dangers of spiritual wickedness in high places (meaning government of the accuser from Strong’s #1909, an accusative case). When the Apostle Paul speaks of the “wiles of the devil” in Ephesians 6:11, the “devil” literally means “false accuser” in the Greek. We read in Ephesians 6:12.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Our battle is not against some dualistic evil god referred to as the “devil,” for there is only one true Sovereign God, the Lord Jesus Christ, all others are NO gods. Meaning, they are nonexistent fantasies of man’s misguided thinking that is full of religious false traditions.

The humanistic laws, schemes, policies, treaties, G-20 global edicts, and so forth are also NOT “flesh and blood,” but they are created by “principalities, powers, and rulers of the darkness of this worldly order.” You will find the “accuser” in an adversarial situation such as a false accusing beast system government that passes laws or policies against the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness.

True “spiritual warfare,” is based upon true Biblical understanding and acted upon through seeking Kingdom Divine direction. In seeking “the High” authority, Jesus Christ, and His Kingdom wisdom and its application, each life, and all that each life encounters, is our time in space into which we are birthed to become the Sons of God. Our Sovereign God loves us and is preparing us for His service as His sons by purifying our minds during our time in this present age. The Apostle John elaborates further:

1 John 3:2-3

² Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

³ And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

This is a tremendous revelation. We are being purified in this HOPE and in this FAITH. It does not yet appear what we are going to be. Looking at a lot of us, it does not appear that we are very much at all. It does not appear that we are much of a threat to the anti-Christ workers of iniquity. Nevertheless, it is through the power of the Holy Spirit upon the Sons of God that this evil, wicked system will be brought down. Remember, the seven “physical” walks around the walls of Jericho that became the Old Covenant promised land, was in reality “spiritual warfare” unleashed for Kingdom purposes.

Meanwhile, the spiritual wickedness within the Sons of God is being tried, and we are going to be experiencing chastening and tribulation during the purifying process. What it will take for me to grow in this purification is not necessarily what it will take for someone else. Have you ever wondered why you seem to go through so many unique and Divinely guided forms of tribulation? It is because there is something within your life that God Almighty is working out, even though your carnal mind may not understand it and will often rebel against it. But when you come to the place where you can really yield to the cleansing power of Jesus Christ, the author and finisher of our faith, then you will be given understanding.

When you encounter a big bully, sometimes it takes a bigger stick just to wake him up and get his attention. We have a bully within all of us, and sometimes it takes a little stick to get our attention, and sometimes it takes a big stick to get our attention. It is the same with God's stiff-necked saints. Did I say "saints?" In the following verses, the Apostle Paul uses this same term:

Ephesians 1:14

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints (meaning Israelites of the dispersion) which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

This word "saints," is a descriptive word biblically applicable of Israel. While the term "saints" can also mean "godliness, sacred, or even grace," the fact that Israel fell short of these spiritual qualities does not negate the fact that they carried this title. The terms "saints, angels, the sons of God," are all descriptions of Israel in various capacities, especially reflective of their role in the Kingdom of God.

Going back to these Scriptures, in Ephesus, where segments of the gentilized dispersed tribes of Israel had relocated (within Asia-Minor), the Apostle Paul is writing to a very specific group of people. He is talking to the "SAINTS the Hebrews of Israel."

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

⁴ According as he hath chosen us (Israel) in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

It is to the Hebrew Saints that God Almighty has bestowed spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Notice the requirement is that you must be in Christ, meaning, the Covenant blessings, being fruitful and multiplying in God knowledge for Kingdom service, the essence of every Kingdom parable Jesus taught. The Christ ministry centered upon teaching the principles of the Kingdom of God and the Apostle Paul continues in this Kingdom teaching throughout his writings. Looking back at Ephesians, Chapter 2, we read the following:

Ephesians 2:5-10

⁵ Even when we (Israel and Judah) were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

⁶ And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

⁷ That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

⁸ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

⁹ Not of works, lest any man should boast.

¹⁰ For we (Israel) are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

When we are in this sin condition, we are spiritually dead. We are in a state of death in this Adamic fallen nature. But in Christ, we are made alive. If we are in Christ, we have been raised from a state of death into life. This place of life is the heavenly places that the Apostle Paul was talking about. We want to be there with Christ and the only way we can is to be in Christ Jesus because it is only in Him that we receive spiritual blessings.

Hebrews, Chapter 10, tells us that Jesus is at the right hand of God, “EXPECTING,” I repeat, “EXPECTING,” His enemies to be made His footstool. Remember, Israel in the Scriptures is known as God’s “battle axe and weapons of war” Jeremiah 51:20, and other similar verses as Isaiah 2:3-5, Micah 4:1-5, Psalm 44:2-8. I must also remind you that Israel is also referred to as God’s Priests and Kings 1 Peter 2:9, Rev.1:6; 5:10.

Hebrews 10:11-13

¹¹ And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

¹² But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; 13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

What does the word “expecting” mean here? It means “to look for, or awaiting.” We are all anticipating and “looking for” His enemies to be made His footstool. Some of you may exclaim, “Oh, boy! The bad guys are going to get it!” Jesus Christ is ruling on high at the right hand of God waiting until His enemies are annihilated. Is that what we read here? Think about that. Is He waiting until His enemies are annihilated, or are we reading something into that passage?

“His enemies shall be made His footstool” is not annihilation. Brother Barley, are you saying that His enemies are not going to be punished? No, I did not say that, but some people interpret this phrase to mean that His enemies are eternally destroyed or annihilated. Being Christ’s footstool means his enemies shall be brought under His authority and they shall serve His Will.

Let us look at this word “footstool.” It is used metaphorically in the Scriptures to express the subordination relationship of Christ’s enemies. Its meaning and purpose is not about annihilation, but subordination and subjugation. Jesus Christ will rule over them, and they will learn through much tribulation, as we have, how to enter into the Kingdom. As Acts 14:22 tells us: “Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.”

Let us consider our sanctification process. Our sanctification process contains much tribulation to burn out the chaff and prepare us for entrance into the Kingdom of God. As the Apostle Paul wrote in his letter to the Ephesians, we will “grow up into him in all things.”:

Ephesians 4:13-16

¹³ Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

¹⁴ That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

¹⁵ But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

¹⁶ From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

You see, it is a process that all of the Sons of God must go through.

Hebrews 5:14

But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Our senses are being exercised to become the Sons of God. These things that we are learning in this life are for a purpose. Our senses are being heightened and we are developing greater understanding. How many times in your life have you learned something and thought that you had "arrived spiritually?" Then, someone comes along and gives you an even greater revelation, and your understanding is elevated to an even higher level. You can then see beyond where you were spiritually, not in an eastern religious way, but in a Christ centered Biblical way.

That is how it is for the Sons of God. Jesus Christ is working a work within this Adamic time period preparing us for the coming ages of His Kingdom. I encourage each of you to continue to press in for the mark of the prize of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus. There is a greater ministry coming, there is a greater calling and capacity that we are going to be called upon to perform. We should seek and desire to be used of Him in that capacity for His glory.

What enables you to go through the tribulation and the corrective fire, dying to self, and so forth? It is the power of Christ within your heart. No greater love hath any man than he will lay down his life for his brethren. Christ did this for His Covenant people Israel. He was born of the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, through the Holy Spirit. Jesus stated His Divine Purpose for coming, "I have not come, but unto the lost sheep of the House of Israel." Matthew 15:24 His Kingdom would not be complete without them. Presently He has them on this earthly obstacle course of "training for reigning." Israel ruling and reigning with Christ is beyond mere "Identity." It is Israel coming into the "Headship of Christ" and functioning as His Priests and Kings, fulfilling the actual calling and purposes of the name, "Israel." God's Kingdom people ministering in the righteousness of Christ, -- that's some powerful Kingdom Truth, beyond Identity.

The book of Hebrews is to the Hebrew Israelitish people who lost their identity, but they did not lose their birthright. New Covenant order is about the restoration of Israel, bringing them into sonship. Jesus Christ's High Priest Purpose, entering the Holy of Holies, is for the deliverance and restoration of Israel. The work of the Priest is for the perfecting of Israel. Our birthright is secure in Christ and He and He alone shall perfect and restore unto Israel their birthright in the New Jerusalem as our true High Priest.

He is preparing His Bride (Israel). The birthright blessing is based upon Israel being His true and faithful bride, through the leading of the Holy Spirit (Christ within His people) in obeying God's Covenant calling upon them. Obedience produces blessings, while, disobedience produces curses. Israel is not free to disobey God Almighty and His commandments without consequences. Our national condition proves this over and over. Israel has robbed God of His tithe by not being fruitful and multiplying in the blessed things of the Kingdom.

Russia gave UN 100-page report in July blaming Syrian rebels for Aleppo Sarin Attack

By Matthew Schofield | McClatchy Foreign Staff Posted Sep. 05, 2013

BERLIN --]

Russia says a deadly March sarin attack in an Aleppo suburb was carried out by Syrian rebels, not forces loyal to President Bashar Assad, and it has delivered a 100-page report laying out its evidence to the United Nations.

A statement posted on the Russian Foreign Ministry website late Wednesday said the report included detailed scientific analysis of samples that Russian technicians collected at the site of the alleged attack, Khan al Asal in northern Syria. The attack killed 26 people. A U.N. spokesman, Farhan Haq, confirmed that Russia delivered the report in July.

The report itself was not released. But the statement drew a pointed comparison between what it said was the scientific detail of the report and the far shorter intelligence summaries that the United States, Britain and France have released to justify their assertion that the Syrian government launched chemical weapons against Damascus suburbs on Aug. 21. The longest of those summaries, by the French, ran nine pages. Each relies primarily on circumstantial evidence to make its case, and they disagree with one another on some details, including the number of people who died in the attack.

The Russian statement warned the United States and its allies not to conduct a military strike against Syria until the United Nations had completed a similarly detailed scientific study into the Aug. 21 attack. It charged that what it called the current “hysteria” about a possible military strike in the West was similar to the false claims and poor intelligence that preceded the U.S. invasion of Iraq in 2003.

Russia said its investigation of the March 19 incident was conducted under strict protocols established by the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, the international agency that governs adherence to treaties prohibiting the use of chemical weapons. It said samples that Russian technicians had collected had been sent to OPCW-certified laboratories in Russia.

“The Russian report is specific,” the ministry statement said. “It is a scientific and technical document.” The Russian statement said Russian officials had broken the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons’ code of silence on such probes only because Western nations appear to be “preparing the ground for military action” in retaliation for the Aug. 21 incident.

On Constitution Day, Remember the Anti-Federalists

By Trevor Burrus, a Research Fellow at the Cato
Institute's Center for Constitutional Studies.

(This article appeared in Daily Caller on Sept. 17, 2013.)

On September 14, 1787, the delegates to the Constitutional Convention got a little rowdy. Joining a group of elite militiamen who staged a party in honor of George Washington, the 55 men, delegates and militiamen together, drank 54 bottles of Madeira, 60 bottles of claret, 50 bottles of “old stock,” and ample amounts of other spirits. The final bill included an additional fee for “breakage.”

They certainly had something to celebrate. In three days they would sign the Constitution. Today is the 226th anniversary of the signing, and it is a good time to reflect on the document and the men who created it.

Yet, if we want to understand that monumental event, we should not reflect on it using the myths that have sprung up around the convention or that have been manufactured by leftist historians. The Constitution's existence and ratification was not foreordained, and to think so is to eschew a deeper understanding of the times.

In particular, we should remember the Anti-Federalists. Those men, the opponents of the Constitution, are generally demonized by leftist historians who view centralization as synonymous with progress. The resisters to the Constitution are generally regarded as knuckle-dragging philistines who doggedly held onto antiquated ideas and resisted “modernity,” an epithet with which modern conservatives should sympathize.

But the Anti-Federalists were far from obstructionist cavemen. In fact, they offered some of the best and most prophetic critiques of the Constitution. To see why, however, we must remember the context in which the Constitution was written.

By the fall of 1786, when James Madison and others met in Annapolis, Maryland and decided that a convention would be held in Philadelphia beginning in May of the next year, many people believed that the newly formed United States teetered on the edge of anarchy. The Articles of Confederation were unworkable, they believed, and a stronger, more energetic central government was needed.

To understand late-Eighteenth century America and the Articles of Confederation, it is useful to look at Europe. The Articles of Confederation were more a treaty than a constitution. Treaties preserve the sovereignty of every individual member, treat every signatory country as one unit regardless of population, and hold no power over members without their consent. Treaties, such as the Treaty of Rome that created the initial European Economic Community, allow nations to work together for common purpose, but do not turn them into a unified whole.

Unification is useful, but it has its limits. The nations of Europe are a fractured bunch with different cultures, languages, and interests. Unification can help some things, but, particularly for tiny nations like Luxemburg, unification can destroy local interests that are more closely aligned to the people. The Anti-Federalists were no more reactionary than those who believe, rightly, that the EU in Brussels should have no power over Luxemburg's welfare state, Germany's manufacturing laws, and the Netherlands' drug laws.

First and foremost, the Constitution is a unifying, centralizing document. It was a "big government" solution to the problems of the day. Those who refused to sign the Constitution, or to attend the convention at all, such as Patrick Henry, were appalled by the act of centralization carried out that summer in Philadelphia. Upon declining his invitation to the convention, Henry famously said, “I smell a rat in Philadelphia tending toward monarchy.”

That summer in Philadelphia, 55 men tried to walk a tightrope between destructive unification on one hand, and unworkable decentralization on the other. Did they succeed, or were the Anti-Federalists correct? In many ways, they were.

Anti-Federalist George Clinton, described the “Federal City” prescribed in the Constitution — the ten square miles that would become Washington, D.C. — as inevitably becoming the “asylum of the base, idle, avaricious, and ambitious.” Gee, glad that didn’t happen.

Luther Martin, the Anti-Federalist who stayed the longest at the convention, warned that “the national government will someday call up militia members from any particular state without its permission and send them upon remote and improper services.” Dodged a bullet there.

Anti-Federalist “Brutus,” most likely Robert Yates, thought the Necessary and Proper Clause, which gives Congress the ability to extend its power beyond the small list of enumerated powers, would eventually “annihilate all the State governments, and reduce this country to one single government.” On this he was surely correct.

Yates’s prescience was particularly astute as to why the national government would, in time, steamroll over the state governments: “it will be found that the power retained by individual States, small as it is, will be a clog upon the wheels of the government of the United States; the latter, therefore, will be naturally inclined to remove it out of the way.” Obamacare has only been the latest iteration of this tendency.

The Anti-Federalists offered wisdom at a time, like all times, when immediate solutions were suggested to fix pressing problems but the long-term, negative effects of those solutions were ignored or downplayed. They looked further into the future than most Federalists and saw a federal government inevitably increasing in size and scope. They knew that each time the federal government reached for some power out of its grasp the argument would be made that the new power was needed in order to make the existing powers work better. They also know that there would be no end to such arguments.

Constitution Day is always a good day to reflect on our founding document. But don't forget the wisdom of those who opposed it.
