Amazing News

In October 2019, for the first time since we started taking in refugees, America took no refugees. The Trump Administration has lowered the number allowed to 18,000 per year which is the lowest it has ever been since that program began. While we still have untold numbers of illegals entering our country, this is still good news. How I look forward to the day prophesied in Jeremiah 50:16, for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

Sheep and Goats

Deuteronomy 32:1-9

<sup>1</sup> Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

<sup>2</sup> My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass:

<sup>6</sup> Do ye thus requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

<sup>7</sup> Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

<sup>8</sup> When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

Tell me, where do people come up with universal salvation? For one thing, if “Jacob is the lot of His inheritance” where do some people have the right to add or take from the Jacob Israel people as the “lot of His inheritance?”

In verse 9, the word “lot” is the Strong's #2254 which is the Hebrew word chebel, defined as .... a district or inheritance (as measured.)

We are God's district that He is developing and reaching out to us with His Word. That district is now as the WEST. The other races (the pre-Adamites) and sadly much of White Adamic (to a degree, but mostly the) lost Israelites (which are pretty much the same kindred) today do not “ascribe ye greatness unto our God.” The other races are not leaders, they belong to their own, we are not their caretakers or babysitters, nor are they or we their inheritors, they belong with their own kind. We are God’s inheritance; therefore, we belong to God. He made an everlasting Covenant with Israel and God doesn’t break His Word.

4 He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Our Rock is not a different God or another God. He is “perfect.” His work is perfect, His ways and judgment are perfect, He is a God of truth, without iniquity, just and right is He. He’s our ROCK, the LORD JESUS CHRIST. We depend upon Him; we count upon Him.

5 They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

Israel has “corrupted themselves” and this is certainly true today and this is why Israel is so far away from God. They have corrupted themselves and they have grown even more fond of corruption.

The problem is just a little corruption spoils the “lot” and we become damaged or spoiled apples and we are no longer the “apple of His eye.”

Zechariah 2:8

For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

Because America has allowed the heathen into her shores, we have not only sinned, but now teach sin as virtue.

Proverbs 14:34

Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

When I looked up this word people, I found that word is usually talking about Israel as a community, a nation, or people. When you put together the meaning of words, and you do some investigating, including adding other Scripture verses, you come up with not just a half-baked or less meaning, but a truer meaning. Here is what the Strong's Concordance has to say:

OT:3816 leom from an unused root meaning to gather; a community: KJV - nation, people.

In other words, the Bible is talking mainly about the nation or people of the Covenant. It is to be a community of people who are kindred, or of the same DNA. Now my main purpose is to discuss the “goats and the sheep.”

Matthew 25:31-34

<sup>31</sup> When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

The word “world” in verse 34 is the Greek Word “kosmos” which has more than one meaning. Strong's definition is orderly arrangement, i.e. decoration; by implication, the world (in a wide or narrow sense, including its inhabitants, literally or figuratively (morally)):

Think of that? God planned from before Creation that we would inherit the Kingdom. The first Adam was to provide an orderly arrangement within that area known as the Garden of Eden. In a sense, it was the known world, and Adam was to bring about an orderly arrangement. While non-whites have had primitive or partially advanced civilizations, they have not become thriving communities without White help. A great example of this is the difference between Hong Kong, which was under British rule from 1846 to 1997 (except for a few years during WW2 when Japan overthrew it), and China and the conflict going on there today. Basically, the current situation proves that the residents of Hong Kong were better off with white British Rule than Chinese Communist rule.

The primitive civilizations of the other races do not and have not brought about orderly arrangements that benefit most of their populations. Many have dictatorships where the rulers live well, and their populations live in great poverty and usually have short lives.

In 1972, President Nixon opened trade with China, and we have seen the globalization of most of the primitive places on the planet. Because of this, most of the heathen nations have seen their standard of living rise dramatically. When I was a kid, we saw people in most of the non-white world living in very poor conditions. Now, most people of the world dress in western clothes, use western products, and have seen their economic situations improve by leaps and bounds.

After 9/11, my wife and I went to hear an Iraqi pastor talk about changes in Iraq since the beginning of the war. He explained that before that time, the electricity was not affordable for most folks and the electrical plants did not run well. After the Americans came in, they fixed the electrical plant and due to the influx of American cash, the average Iraqi's income was tripled. Can you imagine if your income tripled?

Other lands of the pre-Adamites may have and possess certain technologies, but they are often takers and usurpers. They do not manage and keep their land as Whites. Though Whites can and do make mistakes, we in a sense pick-up the pieces and try to correct our errors over time.

Anyway, as we are told in these verses, there are “sheep and goats.” The sheep are the sheep of His pasture, His kosmos, or orderly arrangement is one way of thinking about this. The goats are mostly into man’s arrangement where the sheep are mainly into the Kingdom of God. I and most of you who will be reading this are into the Kingdom of God.

I don’t know how many of you have been around goats, but goats are not easily led. One author put it this way:

“Goats tend to be more self-sufficient than sheep, choosing to browse rather than graze in the pasture. They don't enjoy the green pastures in the same way as the sheep. They are not always satisfied with what the shepherd (leader) gives them. They will nibble on the Word of God, a little here and a little there, yet they love to be seen in the high places. The goats walk with their tails held high, spiritually indicating pride, and they emit an offensive odor. There is something distinguishing about the goat, and that is the odor, or 'air' about them.

All this said, it is important to note that goats are not wolves. They will not eat the sheep because they are not the meat eaters that the wolves are. They may be agitators and cause some turmoil for the shepherd, but they are not seriously harmful to the sheep. Perhaps that is why Jesus waits until His return to separate the sheep from the goats. The real danger and threat to our flocks and herds is the wolf.” From a Watchman Bible Study

Goats will not be led by the Shepherd (King Jesus), the sheep (us) will and want to lead by King Jesus. Do you perform as a sheep or a goat? I’m asking this because there will be a separation. This is not about all the nations of the world as many people think, but an orderly arrangement that is of the sheep fold.

A lot of people think it's, well let's use the word "cool" to be as the world and despicable to be a real Christian. Adamic-Israel you are not to be of the world but of the Covenant Israel Sheep fold or pasture.

1 John 2:15-16

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

You may be in the world, but you are not to be of the world.

Isaiah 9:8

The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

All the Kingdom Parables are about and unto Covenant Israel. The Word hath lighted upon Israel.

We darken God's Word unto Israel when we do not read and ponder the Parables unto Israel. The goats clearly will not read and digest God's Word like the sheep. Again, who are the "sheep and the goats?" Well, my opinion is that the "goats" are those Israelites who will not behave as "sheep." Notice that they are in the sheepfold and God does not separate them out until the end of this age. In other words, He is giving them every opportunity to learn from the sheep.

In Matthew 23, Jesus teaches the multitude about the sins of the Scribes and the Pharisees. We know from reading the Bible that there were good people like Joseph of Arimathea in the Sanhedrin and there were bad people who worked to kill Christ. In Matthew 23:33, Christ says this to the bad ones:

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats is very similar to the Parable of the Wheat and the Tares. Both the goats and the tares are separated out. God does not allow either the goats or the tares to corrupt His Perfected Kingdom.

It is my belief that some of the “goats” are Adamites and that part of them are the degenerates of Israel.

Revelation 22:14-15

<sup>14</sup> Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

<sup>15</sup> For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

It is obvious that some of our Israelite brethren are sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Will they always be outside the Kingdom? I do not believe so. We are told in

Romans 11:26-27:

<sup>26</sup> And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

<sup>27</sup> For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

Under the Old Covenant, the High Priest went into the Holy of Holies and sacrificed for all the sins of Israel on the Day of Atonement. Everyone was covered whether they had repented or not. However, just as David was forgiven for his sins of adultery and murder, there are still consequences. So, the wicked of Israel will be outside the Kingdom under the whatever judgment God has sentenced them to. However, at some point their judgment will be finished and it will be at that time that they will enter the Kingdom.

The goats are a mixed bag, they go along to get along. We see them all the time. They are White, but they are dumb to the purposes of God, and they go right along with the “tares,” at least to a degree. It will be Yahweh’s choice as to how they are punished for that.

As I said, I believe they will receive judgment but theirs will not be as the “tares.” The goats are those of Adam-Israel who will be judged, yes, but not as the “tares.” I believe their judgment will be for an extensive period, but not the forever torment that mainstream Christianity teaches. According to the parable, the “tares,” well let’s just say that they will get their come-up-ings. The parable says they will be burned but remember everything in a parable is a symbol for something else. Also, realize that when something is burned, it only burns for a short period of time. No bundle of tares in the real world would burn for an unending amount of time.

Remember the word “for ever” in the Scripture is usually the Hebrew word “olam” or the Greek word “aion” which mean for an undetermined amount of time. It is only in our modern-day usage that it means unending. I don’t know about you, but whatever God decides about all of that is okay with me.

Psalms 95:7

For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

I don’t want to be part of that goat factory.

What Organized Religion Fears

By Richard Hoskins, February 1996

Announcements of the discovery that the Saxon people are descended from the ancient tribes of Israel are treated by the Established Church as “non-events.” The Establishment Church cannot recognize another rival to this title. The reason is that centuries ago it co-opted the title “Israel” from the Saxon people for itself. They co-opted it for a reason.

Strong's Concordance translates the word "Israel" to mean, "He will rule as God." Armed with this title and the authority it bestows, the Establishment Church (both Catholic and Protestant) claim the right to "rule as God" because of the power that resides in the name "Israel." This is how non-Scriptural "spiritual Israel" was born. Saxons are forbidden to bear the name "Israel" today. In ancient Palestine, and before being scattered over the world, God said He would give Israel a new name in Isaiah 65:14:

for the Lord God shall ... call his servants by another name: and in Hosea 2:17:

...and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

Today, the Establishment Church needs that title as much as it ever did. How else can it explain away the brutality of its kings, the venality of its bankers, its land monopoly, its trade monopoly, its taxes, its adultery and the flagrant immorality of its clergy. Armed with God's power of attorney that resides in the name "Israel" – it speaks for God and can do no wrong. Not for one second can it afford to have Saxons learn that it is they and not the church that is Israel. Once Saxons learn who they are they will rise up and strip the priests of their power, the Churches and their governments of their riches and divide the land and rule themselves according to Scripture.

Numbers 26:53-55

The land shall be divided for an inheritance . . . To many thou shalt give the more . . . to few thou shalt give the less . . . the land shall be divided by lot: according to . . . their fathers they shall inherit . . .

What then will become of the Establishment Church?

Why the Big Lie?

Saxons are Christians or they are nothing. Christians believe that We must obey God rather than men. Acts 5:29 The Establishment Churches, claiming to be spiritual Israel, teach that man-made statutes are to be followed instead.

To keep the Saxons quiet, establishment priests promote the following three things:

1. They teach the dogma that all the people of the world are descendant from Noah.

The doctrine that Whites and non-Whites both originated in one set of ancestors logically results in the silly theory that separate races must be a myth and that one God fathered us all. This theory violates the WORD and nullifies God's command, "A bastard (Heb: mamzer – mixed bread, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deuteronomy 23:2. The dogma drags on to its logical conclusion which is that since everyone is descended from Noah, all must be bastards (mixed breeds) from the beginning. Noah carried non-whites on his ark, but not as "blush red" men but under another name.

2. Co-opt the title "Israel"

The title "Israel" infers power "To speak as God." To seize this title, Establishment Church dogma proclaims that there is no more unmixed physical Israel to inherit the title, that unmixed Israel "disappeared," and that they are taking its place as new "spiritual Israel." This justifies their possessing and monopolizing the wealth of the world – the heritage of Jacob-Israel.

3. Ignore the word MAN

Ignoring the world man ("blush red") permits the Establishment Church to continue to receive tribute from man and human (hued-man) alike. The Establishment Church sits securely on its ancient feudal throne proclaiming that it holds the keys to heaven, while carefully protecting itself with hired politicians and their mercenary armies. This is near the center of Babylon where the Saxon-Israel message is banned.

Put Me in Charge . . . by a Texan

https://www.wacotrib.com/opinion/letters\_to\_editor/letters-fixing-social-security-put-me-in-charge-of-welfare/article\_7fc4324b-9fd3-52b3-8c5c-2ecd2c1c862a.html

Put me in charge of food stamps. I'd get rid of Lone Star cards; no cash for Ding Dongs or Ho Ho's, just money for 50-pound bags of rice and beans, blocks of cheese and all the powdered milk you can haul away. If you want steak and frozen pizza, then get a job.

Put me in charge of Medicaid. The first thing I'd do is to get women Norplant birth control implants or tubal ligations. Then, we'll test recipients for drugs, alcohol, and nicotine and document all tattoos and piercings. If you want to reproduce or use drugs, alcohol, smoke or get tats and piercings, then get a job.

Put me in charge of government housing. Ever live in a military barracks? You will maintain our property in a clean and good state of repair. Your "home" will be subject to inspections anytime and possessions will be inventoried. If you want a plasma TV or Xbox 360, then get a job and your own place.

In addition, you will either present a check stub from a job each week or you will report to a "government" job. It may be cleaning the roadways of trash, painting and repairing public housing, whatever we find for you. We will sell your 22-inch rims and low-profile tires and your blasting stereo and speakers and put that money toward the "common good."

Before you write that I've violated someone's rights, realize that all of the above is voluntary. If you want our money, accept our rules. Before you say that this would be "demeaning" and ruin their "self-esteem," consider that it wasn't that long ago that taking someone else's money for doing absolutely nothing was demeaning and lowered self-esteem.

If we are expected to pay for other people's mistakes, we should at least attempt to make them learn from their bad choices. The current system rewards them for continuing to make bad choices.

The New Covenant

Part 2

A Composition on the Principles of Israel's New Covenant Relationship with Yahweh

By Phillip Humber

Circumcision: A Covenant Analogy

Circumcision is one of those not so talked about practices of the Old Covenant. Actually, a lot can be learned about the covenants by taking a good look at this practice and what it stands for spiritually.

In the physical sense, circumcision is the surgical removal of the foreskin of the male sex organ. Under the Old Covenant guidelines, the custom was performed on the eighth day following birth. [Editor's note: The body needs vitamin k in enough quantity to coagulate the blood. This happens on the 8th day.] Circumcision served as a "token" or sign" of Yahweh's covenant relationship with the descendants of Abraham that began when Yahweh made His Covenant with Abraham (Genesis 17:9-14). In the Old and New Testaments, circumcision is also used as a metaphor for something that happens "within" and is spiritual. It is this inward circumcision that I want to give the most attention.

Deuteronomy 10:12-17

12 And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the Lord, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the Lord's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.

17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

In this passage, Moses clearly tells Israel what Yahweh “requires” of them. These requirements are summed up by Christ to love Yahweh thy God with all your heart, soul, mind, and to love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:36-40).

Paul, when he stood in court before the Governor Felix, made a clear declaration of Christianity as he knew it. He confessed that he worshipped Yahweh after “the way” as they called heresy (that is, Christianity), that he believe all things that are written in the Law and the Prophets, and that he had hope toward Yahweh that there shall be a resurrection of the dead. He goes on to say that he “exercises,” or that he “puts into action,” his beliefs by always having a conscience void of offense toward Yahweh and toward Man (Acts 24:14-16). This keeping the conscience clean and free from sin relates in keeping the two greatest commandments as Christ taught, which in turn keeps the requirements of Yahweh that Moses spoke of in our passage of Deuteronomy.

Moses goes on to instruct the Israel, “Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.” Here the “foreskin” is undoubtedly an analogy for something or else the heart actually has a foreskin that we are to have removed. The “foreskin” is an analogy that represents an element that must be removed in the conscience of man as we will go on to see.

Being “stiffnecked” (not turning the head to look in a different direction) is a metaphor that speaks of refusing to look at circumstances from any other point of view besides your own. In the New Testament, Paul often refers to this as being “carnally minded.” A carnal mind can not view any thing in any other way besides from its own selfish point of view.

Deuteronomy 30:6

And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Not only in this verse, but in our previous passage in Deuteronomy, we find a key principle we should take note of.

The very purpose for the circumcision of the foreskin of the heart is to be able to love and serve the living Yahweh!

In Hebrews 9:14, we find the conscience is purged by the blood of Christ for the same reason, that we might serve the living Yahweh!

Romans 2:28-29

<sup>28</sup> For he is not a Jew [Judean Israelite], which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

<sup>29</sup> But he is a Jew [Judean Israelite], which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Here, Paul is identifying a true Judean Israelite by the circumcision of the heart in the spirit. The circumcision of the heart and the purging of the conscience is the same thing. The circumcision of the foreskin of the heart speaks of purging the conscience from sin. The purging of the conscience by the blood of Christ under the New Covenant is through faith in His past sacrifice, whereas, in the Old Covenant the foreskin of the heart was spiritually circumcised (purging of the conscience) through faith in the coming salvation of the Messiah. Both were putting their faith in the Messiah for salvation from their sins.

Colossians 2:10-13

<sup>10</sup> And ye are complete in him [Christ], which is the head

of all principality and power:

<sup>11</sup>In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

<sup>12</sup>Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

<sup>13</sup>And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

The circumcision that we as Christian Israelites received in our hearts by Christ were “made without hands.” It is spiritual and within. This circumcision put [cut] off the body of sins of the flesh. The “sin” of the flesh is symbolized as the “foreskin” of the heart that is to be cut away by Christ “without hands.”

The sins of the flesh are recorded in the conscience (Hebrews 9:14; Revelation 1:5) and are purged (washed totally away) by the blood of Christ. Symbolically, the foreskin of the heart (the sins) is cut away when the conscience is purged by the blood of Christ from dead works. The circumcision of the heart is an analogy for the purging of the conscience.

In our previous passage of Scripture in Colossians, the circumcision of Christ is likened to baptism. This is not the outward ceremonial water baptism that the circumcision of the heart is related to, but the inward baptism that saves. The inward baptism that saves is the purging of the conscience in the blood of Christ as we will see in the next section.

Romans 4:7-12

<sup>9</sup> Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

<sup>10</sup> How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

<sup>11</sup> And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

<sup>12</sup> And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

Here Paul quotes David in Psalms 32:1-2. Then he goes on to speak about the righteousness of faith in relation to circumcision. It is obvious that the righteousness was imputed to Abraham before he was circumcised in the flesh. Abraham received the righteousness “when” he believed Yahweh, and it was at this time that he received the inward circumcision of the foreskin of his heart (verse 3 and 10). The physical fleshly circumcision he received afterwards was only a sign or symbol of the inward circumcision that had already taken place in his heart. Abraham’s conscience was purged by his Father Yahweh!

The outward circumcision of the flesh is a seal of the righteousness that had already been imputed to Abraham. The circumcision of the flesh was the ceremonial rite of entering into covenant relationship with Yahweh just as water baptism is the ceremonial rite of entering into the New Covenant relationship with Yahweh. Both of these ceremonial rites are outward signs of the inward purging of the conscience, which is gained when a person believes Yahweh as Abraham did (Romans 10:9).

Acts 7:51-54

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

In this passage we find Stephen, when standing before a council who is trying to condemn him, relates the circumcision of the heart to the ears (spiritual perception), and the resisting of the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost came to reprove (the Greek word here means "convict." Strong's Greek Lexicon #1651) the world of sin (John 16:7-11) and these people were resisting the conviction by the Spirit. Obviously, Stephen understood the foreskin of the heart and the hearing ear (spiritual perception) to be related to each other, and that through it came the prodding (conviction) of the Holy Spirit. The foreskin of the heart undoubtedly symbolizes sin on the conscience.

Since we are dealing with analogical writing, let us consider the symbolism behind the analogy. In the physical sense, the foreskin covers the head of the male anatomy that is the seat of physical sensation. It is through this foreskin that the gift of life is passed from the husband to the wife. It is also the place through which passes the bodily waste denoting corruption and death. By applying the analogy to the conscience of the inward man, we see that the conscience is the spiritual ear by which we "hear" the word of faith. Or, it is the eyes by which we "look" at the things that are not seen (Romans 10:17 and 2 Corinthians 4:18).

Now, consider this, what would you do without your physical senses, sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch? How would you interact and communicate with the world around you? You would not be able. You would be trapped in a body with no way to interact and communicate with the world around you at all. That is exactly how a person who is uncircumcised in heart is when dealing with spiritual things. In other words, a person whose conscience has not been purged by the blood of Christ is not "sensitive" to spiritual things. The reason being is that the spiritual sense (the conscience) is covered by the corruption of the foreskin (the sins). Until a person is washing in the blood of the lamb, they are cut off and dead to spiritual things just as a person who has no physical senses is to the world around them.

From a friend:

"In recent days I had a revelation on Ephesians 6:12... I don't disagree that evil spirits influence in government affairs, I do, however, disagree with the notion that it is only in the spiritual realm. We have been led (in error) to believe this verse is proof that as Christians, our fight is against unseen, disembodied spirits. I really started looking at this verse and dissecting it, line by line. This is the interpretation I came up with, from my Israelite mindset. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, (as we know the Word is all about one family and their growth into nations, so I content that we wrestle not with family), but against principalities (realms/levels of government), against powers (political and corporate connections and leaders), against the rulers of darkness of this world (people in positions and those behind the scenes as well that rule without the light of the Word of God), against spiritual wickedness in high places (those that purposely fight against the righteous and push ideologies contrary to the will of God). It's the physical body that acts out the direction of the evil spirits and the good for that matter.

Who are our rulers who are contrary to God? They are human bodies with spirits contrary to God or have downright evil spirits that fight against God and His righteous people. They are not disembodied spirits that we cannot see or oppose!

The entire Old Testament is about the Kingdom of God with the family of Jacob/Israel. The Kingdom was taken away from them because of their disobedience and dispersed them throughout the Roman territories.

The New Testament is about the reunification of the Israelites, into God's Kingdom, through Jesus Christ. We await Christ's return to sit upon the throne of David and perfect His Kingdom. When He returns, the wicked will be destroyed, and Babylon will fall, will fall. Then the righteous shall rule, with the Law of God in their hearts." GP, IN

Important Health Information

By Martha Barley

The information below is very important to understand as 54% of the current generation of children have chronic illnesses. This information is important for parents and grandparents to know, so that they can help improve their children and grandchildren's lives. If you are like me, you have seen this in many children. I'm giving the background of the author first as many in the medical field will dispute her findings.

Marcella Piper-Terry received a Master of Science degree in psychology in 1997 from the University of South Alabama, where she completed a dual track, completing the required coursework for both clinical and experimental concentrations. Marcella graduated at the top of her class and received the honor of "Outstanding Graduate Student in Psychology." She was recognized by the American Psychological Foundation in 1996 as recipient of the APF's Graduate Research Scholarship Award for Excellence in Academic Research. Following receipt of her M.S. degree, Marcella was accepted as a Ph.D. candidate at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., where she received full funding and a teaching assistantship. It was at this time that Marcella's daughter suffered a serious vaccine-reaction after her "kindergarten shots" and Marcella made the decision to leave the Ph.D. program to devote more time to caring for her daughter.

Since 1999, Marcella has worked as a neuropsychological evaluator, educational advocate, psychotherapist, and biomedical consultant. She attended the Defeat Autism Now! Clinical Training in 2007 and worked as a DAN provider, assisting families of vaccine-injured children in assessing and addressing the underlying medical conditions contributing to their children's "autism" diagnosis. Marcella continues to advocate for vaccine rights, and currently works as a biomedical consultant at The Cady Wellness Institute in Newburgh, Indiana.

Gluten and Casein Intolerance/Allergy is Often the Root of Substance Addiction Later in Life

By Marcella Piper Terry, Facebook Post 10/26/19

How many of our children appear to be addicted to pizza? Macaroni and cheese? Chicken nuggets? Cereal and milk? Ice cream? French fries and milk shakes? Apples? Grapes? Ketchup? Pickles and pickle juice?

The common factors here are: grains/gluten, milk/casein, sugar, and yeast. How many of our children who crave these things also have problems (occasionally or chronically) with constipation? Grains/gluten, sugar, and yeast make alcohol. Especially in places where they sit for a while in warm darkness.

Yeast is always present in the human body. However, when the internal ecosystem (the micro flora of the gut) is disrupted by overuse of antibiotics and steroids, or when the gut is damaged by exposure to environmental toxins, and especially when the gut is damaged by exposure to environmental toxins AND antibiotics... what often happens is an overgrowth of pathogenic yeast. Because all the good guys (beneficial bacteria) have been wiped out, the bad guys take over. The result is candidiasis-induced gut damage. Leaky gut syndrome. Intestinal hyperpermeability.

Yeast are like plants. They have "roots" that burrow through the lining of the gastrointestinal (GI) tract. A healthy GI tract is impermeable. It's tight. It doesn't leak. A gut that is overrun with pathogenic yeast is like a colander. It's a "leaky gut."

Once the lining of the GI tract is damaged, and pathogenic yeast takes over, and the gut becomes leaky, that's when the factors are perfect for the initiation of what will later become known as "substance abuse."

Let's go back to gluten and casein. Gluten is the protein in wheat. It is also found in many other grains. Casein is the protein in milk. And cheese, yogurt, cream, half and half, and yes... ice cream. Gluten and casein are food proteins. They are the two food proteins that are the most difficult for the body to digest. In the presence of an injured gut, and particularly in the presence of a leaky gut, gluten and casein are more likely to break through the lining of the gastrointestinal system, undigested, and from there, they gain entrance into the blood stream. The bloodstream is where undigested food proteins absolutely should not be.

Undigested food proteins in the blood stream can cause (yes! I said CAUSE) very serious health conditions like anaphylaxis. Which can be deadly. Anaphylaxis is an extreme, acute reaction. Undigested food proteins can also cause or contribute to reactions which are less immediately severe, but which can lead to chronic health issues such as allergies and inflammatory conditions affecting the gut, joints, brain, skin, and immune system.

In some people, when undigested gluten and casein break through the lining of the gut, those proteins are misidentified by the body as endogenous opiates. "Endogenous" means produced within the body, and not taken in from an outside source. Endogenous opiates have very similar effects on the body... similar to other opiates from other sources... like OxyContin. Or heroin. Or other drugs that play a major role in the excitation of the dopaminergic (reward) system.

So... your six-year-old has had multiple ear infections which were treated with antibiotics. Your baby may or may not have had some weird skin rashes that come and go. And some issues with constipation and/or diarrhea. And yeah... he's a picky eater. Craves bread. And cheese. And wants ketchup on everything. And drinks pickle juice. What's with the ketchup and pickle juice??? And why does she only eat apples and grapes? Answer: Fermentation.

There's a reason apples and grapes are used to make wine. They ferment quickly and easily. And that means they "feed" yeast. Children with pathogenic yeast overgrowth crave fermented things and things high in sugar. Are you getting the picture yet?

Our six-year-old has an injured gut and pathogenic yeast overgrowth. The reason we can't get him to eat anything other than macaroni and cheese or pizza is because our baby is not eating for nutrition, she's eating for her fix. The leaky gut allows the undigested gluten and casein to get into the blood stream, where it is misidentified by the body as an opiate.

One of the symptoms of opiate intake/dependence/addiction is constipation. Constipation causes fermentation in the gut. If your child has a leaky gut due to yeast overgrowth, he will crave grains and sugars. Those grains and sugars then sit in that warm, constipated environment. And guess what? Your six-year-old is no longer a child. She's a still. She's producing her own alcohol. She may be overly silly and display inappropriate laughter or other emotional responses that seem out of place. Just like a drunk.

Think about this... the typical American child eats cereal and milk for breakfast (or some other combination of grains and milk). Our darling goes to school and is spaced out for the first couple of hours and then starts to jiggle his leg and pester his classmates, looking like a junky jonesing for his next fix. Then... lunch time.

Pizza or macaroni and cheese for lunch. (Or gluten-coated chicken nuggets and chocolate milk.) Back to class where he's either the class clown or sleeping on the desk for the next two hours, and then it's back to twitching and bitching until it's time to go home.

Afternoon snack? Cookies and milk? Leftover pizza? It doesn't matter as long as it's got gluten and casein. And maybe some sugar, caffeine, yeast, good ol' red dye 40.

In a child with a leaky gut, this kind of daily food intake is like a roller-coaster for their biochemistry. And for their behavior. They look like rapid-cycling bipolar kids. And many of them are diagnosed and medicated with pharmaceutical drugs, which can have dangerous side effects. Off the soapbox...

So, what does this have to do with substance abuse in adults?

Let's say our six-year-old is now fourteen. He's at his first teenage party. Someone hands him a beer. Or a joint. For the first time. It's the first time he - or she - has tried alcohol or marijuana... but your child's body recognizes the response. It's the same high he or she has been getting for years. It's a dopamine response. The same one that makes opioids so addictive.

Your child didn't suddenly become an addict when he or she was handed that first beer or smoked that first joint. That child was addicted at the age of six (or three...). When they are handed that first beer, they just switched to a new route of delivery. Those who follow me may wonder what any of this has to do with vaccines, since that's what I usually post about.

Here's the answer to that question: There is an enzyme called DPPIV, which is produced in the body. The purpose of DPPIV is to break down gluten and casein. DPPIV is deactivated by mercury and by aluminum in vaccines (these enzymes are also deactivated by exposure to other environmental toxins).

Vaccines skew the immune system and in at least some children, lead to increased administration of antibiotics, which leads to the damaged gut, which invites yeast overgrowth.

If you think this is bunk, you probably haven't gotten this far. If you're still with me, let me know in the comments if this makes sense to you, or if your family may have experienced this kind of domino effect. Marcella Piper-Terry

While we do not agree with Catholics in their doctrine, this group has done an excellent job showing how aborted babies have been used since the early 1900s in some of the vaccines and pharmaceutical products that are being mandated for our children and grandchildren. ## #103 Is Christmas Christian?

By Pastor Sheldon Emry

Why did our Pilgrim forefathers forbid the celebration of Christmas? What are the origins of this celebration? Where in God's Word does it tell us to celebrate the birth of Christ or doesn't it?

Most Biblical scholars agree that Christ was born in the Fall, so why do we celebrate His Birth on December 25, the winter solstice? How would you like it if we celebrated your birthday three months late and gave presents to everyone but you? Seems pretty crazy doesn't it when you think about it that way. We need to follow what God has called us to do. Study this out as it is very important to know the origins of this celebration.

Hidden Forces Working Below the Surface

By the late Pastor Frank Dowsett, Australia

Reprinted from The Strategy Vol. 11 #122

It was just seventy years ago, and I was seven. We boarded the passenger liner Montoro for my first overseas voyage. I well remember passing under the Sydney Harbour Bridge before it had been joined in the middle. We were on our way to Rabaul, on the island of New Britain, north of Papua-New Guinea. My father had commenced a building business up there during the depression some two years earlier, and we were at last rejoining him. We lived in a rented house at a place called Valour on the opposite side of the harbor to Rabaul. I well remember waking in the middle of the night to find my parents frantically taking all the crockery off the shelves and placing them on the floor so they wouldn't fall and break because of earth-tremors.

Some twelve months later, we returned to Sydney on the Macduhi (which was later sunk by the Japanese in Port Moresby Harbour during WW2), as mum was expecting her third child, who became my youngest brother. After another two years, we returned to New Guinea on the Neptuna (which was later blown up during the Japanese air raids on Darwin, a city in Australia), but this time to the mainland to a town called Wau, the centre of the goldfields in the highlands. We disembarked at a place called Salamaua, on the north coast, and I had my first flight in an aeroplane to Wau. It was a single-engine

German Junkers. Mum and the baby sat up front in the open cockpit with the pilot, whilst Dad and my other brother and I sat on the cargo in the main cabin and hung on for dear life to the ropes holding them down. We couldn't hear a thing for hours after landing.

As part of his business, Dad, on one occasion flew to Rabaul to check on one of his contracts. It is a terribly hot place, and he and a friend decided one day to go to the local swimming baths to cool off, which was a portion of the bay fenced with shark-proof netting, just opposite where we had lived years previously. They got out of their jalopy, and as they walked down to the water, they were surprised to see some smoke rising from the middle of the baths. The smoke intensified very quickly, and as they watched, the tip of a cone started to rise from the water, out of which the smoke was emerging. As the cone grew larger by the minute, they realised what was happening. It was the formation of a new volcano, which was later given the name of Vulcan. It was spewing pumice everywhere, and the road to Rabaul being already cut by a landslide, they headed for hills. It entirely changed the shape of Rabaul Harbour, and the house in which we had lived a few years earlier, together with a little church into which many of the natives had taken shelter, was by now under some twenty feet of pumice, the natives being buried alive. To make things more interesting, there was a severe electrical storm, and an older volcano on the opposite side or Rabaul township erupted in sympathy, hurling out great rocks the size of motor cars. Naturally, the township was devastated, as I witnessed a few months later when my Dad took me there for a visit.

No doubt you are wondering why I am recounting this event. Well, volcanoes don't just happen on the spur of the moment. They are the final result of centuries of hidden forces working below the surface of which nobody, or at least very few, are aware. But the time comes when they burst forth to view, causing untold misery, devastation, and consternation. Their effects are felt in far distant places. We felt the earthquakes from hundreds of miles away, not knowing what had happened until Dad arrived safely back at Wau some weeks later. The most frightening aspect of this kind of event is that there is absolutely nothing that anyone can do about it.

As I thought back on this experience, I realized how indicative - - if not prophetic - - this was of our present position. For centuries, even millennia, powerful forces have been operating relentlessly under the surface of world events, totally unknown to the general public. Some 3,000 years ago Esau sold his birthright in exchange for material gratification, thus losing the blessing which then automatically passed to his brother, Jacob, to whom he had so carelessly and indifferently sold this birthright. When he realized the awesome results of his rash action, and that it could not be revoked, he promised that after his father Isaac died, he would kill his brother, Jacob, in order to retrieve this birthright. The entire history of the world ever since that day has been in some form or other, the result of this vow. The forces of Esau, or Edom, or Zionism, as his descendants became knows, have been working relentlessly ever since to destroy his brother Jacob's descendants. They were the Idumeans of our Lord's day. They became the founders of communism, and the source of every evil under which the Christian nations now suffer. Just as the volcanoes of which I spoke arose seemingly out of nowhere to devastate Rabaul in the late 1930's, so these destroyers have now arisen to full view. Their activities are no longer hidden. They don't have to be, as they fully realise that heir plans are so far advanced, that they we can no do nothing to stop their march of devastation to ultimate victory.

Their problem is that they have reckoned without the intervention of the Lord God of Israel. He has set a time limit upon their activities beyond which they will not be permitted to pass. And just as we have, generally speaking, not realized the danger in which we have been placed by them, so they likewise have no idea of what is about to happen to them. God did not make all His wonderful promises just to see them destroyed by His sworn enemies. His Word is final, and without revocation, as we read in Isaiah 34:5:

For My sword is satiated in heaven, Behold it shall descend for judgment upon Edom, and upon the people whom I have devoted to destruction. NASB

I am Narrow-Minded, Aren't You?

<sup>13</sup> Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

<sup>14</sup> Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

<sup>21</sup> Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

<sup>22</sup> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

<sup>23</sup> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

We are not to be narrow minded about the things of God, but narrow minded about the things of this world system, it's fleshy ways, values, and the things exalted by this world order. Most people are all about being involved in the things of this world, but "narrow minded" about the truth of the Scriptures. Therefore, most people have no Biblical narrative of which to guide their lives, their family, or be involved on a national philosophical scale with a Biblical introspection.
