So bring the entire family for great fellowship!

We are getting ready for this upcoming June conference. If you can attend, this is surely turning out to be a truly memorable conference. Just look at the list of speakers, I want to assure you that they all will be bringing eye opening subjects, and they have Biblical Israel Truth we all need to hear. While Spiritual Israelist attach themselves to a multiracial, multicultural blend and message trying to please everybody like a politician, and are in a Judeo-Christian be all things to all people mindset, we reject such Talmudic mysticism. The Adamic, Noah, Abrahamic, Isaac, Jacob (Israel) message is not a message to all people, but a Covenant truth to the seed of White Adamic Israel people (Genesis 5:1).

Come support this vital Israelite, Christ centered conference. When Jesus stated in Matthew 15:24, “I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” He absolutely was in His right frame of mind of Divine Biblical Providential understanding. I assure you that you will be hearing and interacting with some great Christian Bible based pastors, teachers, and researchers. I look forward to seeing you here.

How are We Deceived?

I have in my hands a report by naturopathic physician Dr. A., N.D., called “TECHNIQUES OF CONTROLLING PEOPLE”. It is a real eye opener, and I simply must share some of this report and its findings with you. The main emphasis presented is the following: “Teach them (the people) not to think, and keep them entertained, drugged and economically dependent.” Now we, at least most of us, understand that this in many ways, is exactly what has been going on for many decades. The control mechanisms, political wording, socialism baiting is only getting worse, and it is mind controlling. If you have been watching what has been happening through a mostly black controlled county in Baltimore where blacks again rioted and became as one black man referred to them as “nigger thugs,” the black mayor and the entourage of black dominated counsel personnel, included the recently appointed black attorney general, are taking full advantage of their political power that goes all the way to Obama. According to them and the media, White people are the bad guys and the reason for all the unfairness, social discrepancies, and poverty. If you think for one minute that this is all about injustice because of unfair police practices, you better think again. The police are only the targeted group that can produce political unrest that will heighten black victimization and allow them to be justified in their animalistic criminal behavior. Treating black people as though they are the same as white people is utter nonsense. We clearly are not the same in color, behavior, thinking, and they are not in tune with Biblical principles except the short periods of time when there is white money and culture behind those periods of black enlightenment. Remove the white man and any hope of black reform becomes a South African tribal nightmare.

This, of course, does not excuse deceived fickle white people because they can and are as misdirected as the blacks when it comes to Biblical thinking and understanding. The main difference is, we are a God created higher order of race, culture and this certainly includes behavior. Dare anyone claim that we are all the same? White people, though they are at this time highly dumbed down and deceived, still have a more controlled way and presence about them that black people (for the most part) do not have.

Dr. A. says, "The first principle of people control is not to let them know you are controlling them." Meaning, people are much easier to control if you can do so without tipping your hand to them that they are being deceived or manipulated. Therefore, we need to let people know that they are being controlled, and that such control is not benign, but is highly political, religious, and economic in its purpose. The best way to do this is by quoting Scripture to them if they are Christian, such as:

Proverbs 1:1-7

the words of understanding; ³ To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; ⁴ To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. ⁵ A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: ⁶ To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. ⁷ The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Scripture reading alone will not wake people up, but the Word of God is where we must start. Do have faith in the Word because it carries with it the power and influence of the Holy Spirit. It is the Christ-centered truth that will set people free and help deprogram them. But I must warn that just getting people to "accept Jesus Christ as their own personal Savior," will not work if that approach is given in a Judeo-Christian fashion. The reason is because the Judeo-Christian way is unbiblical and the evidence of such is quite visible throughout our nation and the world. It is nothing but a programmed belief in Christ that is not Biblically based, but is Judeo-Christian approved and emotionally appealed. It is clearly based upon false-traditions of men. The real Biblical Christ is both Law and Grace oriented. He is the first and the last Adam (meaning, He completes what the first Adam was incapable of doing). Jesus is Covenant (both old and new) unto Israel. He is the author and finisher of our faith. (Hebrews 12:2) He is the Alpha and Omega. (Rev. 22:15) He is the King of Israel and He directs His Word unto them throughout the pages of the Bible.

What I am telling you friends, is that Jesus Christ, the true Jesus Christ is the Word unto Israel, and the true Word will, if applied properly, be used to reconcile His people. Jesus Christ is the Redeemer of Israel. Their reconciliation is New Covenant directed and purposed, but when man engages in multiculturalism and some “all purpose” Scriptural fantasy, the Judeo-Christian deception and political correctness will continue unabated. The Scriptures warn us that in the last days, we would see and experience these New World Order things right out of Mystery Babylon and the Judeo-Christian church is falling for it hook, line, and sinker.

The article goes on to say that it is paramount that they (the controllers) “keep the people ignorant.” People who are not mentally absorbed in the public educational system, but who are truly independent thinkers and researchers are more apt to discern deception. Highly educated people such as doctors, lawyers, businessmen, and so forth can still be “totally ignorant of the larger issues of the world in which they live.” The reason is because they have an “absence of original thought.” They will generally recite “what someone else thinks,” by so called experts they have been conditioned to believe it.

The main technique is to keep the people “entertained.” Of course in this day and time, it is a highly dumbed down form of entertainment, where the language is purposefully kept to a low-level whereby the “uneducated,” can interact with it and appear smarter than they really are. Have you not noticed that Hollywood is more and more absorbed with black actors and actresses?

The “final straw is to control a person’s health. Keep them drugged!” According to his article, the propaganda is high “as to what pills people can take to cover up symptoms of disease, force them to take vaccinations against all kinds of imaginable and unimaginable diseases while there by achieving a chronically depressed immune system.” One of the things about this whole Obama forced health care, is to restrict natural herbs and vitamins, and take away the people’s right to choose their own health care. This is also why there is a huge push to make vaccines mandatory. Here is a recent one at the Federal Level. Many states are doing the same.

Congresswoman Frederica S. Wilson Introduces Legislation to Require Public School Students to Receive Vaccines

May 1, 2015 Press Release

Washington, DC – Today, Congresswoman Frederica S. Wilson (FL-24) introduced the Vaccinate All Children Act of 2015. This bill will require students attending public schools to receive vaccinations, with a medical exception for students who cannot be vaccinated. Congresswoman Wilson released the following statement:

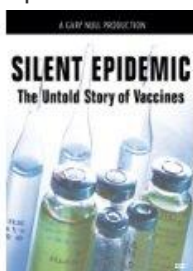

“This week, the World Health Organization celebrated World Immunization Week, recognizing the importance of vaccines. Research has shown that vaccinations are effective, keep people healthy, and save lives. As a former educator, I understand the importance of childhood vaccinations.

This bill makes all vaccines mandatory with no exceptions. For those of you who have not kept up, they have added dozens of vaccines to this schedule and have over 200 in the pipeline for the future. These vaccines have many toxic substances and some even have aborted fetal cells. All of these violate God’s Law and Christians need to stay away from these vaccines for biblical and health reason. Please get these two DVDs that explain what is happening in this field. This is vital information for yourself, your children and grandchildren.

The Greater Good is an award winning film by Leslie Manookian, Kendall Nelson and Chris Pilaro that goes beyond the fear, hype and politics that have polarized the vaccine debate. The film re-frames this emotionally charged issue and offers, for the first time, the opportunity for a rational and scientific discussion on how to create a safer and more effective vaccine program. 84 minutes

WORDS OF WARNING

By Pastor Barley

The Bible is God's Word to Israel, that is very clear once you understand Bible meaning, words, terms, and symbology. Let us preach God's Word unto Israel and quit being distracted by all the Judeo-Christian spiritual-Israel false fantasy doctrine, that is in many ways Jewish inspired and supported. Judeo-Christianity is a LIE, a double-minded mixture of false Talmudic Judaism and a highly diluted compromised Christianity. Playing footsie with Judeo-Christianity is a religious Mystery Babylonian trip!

P.S. A word to the wise. Steve Jones dinar broker and frequently "spirit-led" holy-spirit hot potato, who suckered probably hundreds, if not thousands, of unsuspecting people into buying large quantities of "dinar," that they might get rich one day after "re-valuation," is at it again. This time it is a multi-level gold marketing scheme with a place out of Germany. I warn you to avoid Vinnie and his money scheme like the plague. Keep your money away from him or you will be soon very regretful. Vinnie like Steve Jones are not what they appear at all. They are like Red Santa Claus, all jolly looking on the outside, but the Covenant Kingdom Message is being infiltrated by such rascals.

Britons Still Live in Anglo-Saxon Tribal Kingdoms, Oxford University Finds

A new genetic map of Britain shows that there has been little movement between areas of Britain which were former tribal kingdoms in Anglo-Saxon England

Britons are still living in the same 'tribes' that they did in the 7th Century, Oxford University has found after an astonishing study into our genetic make-up.

Archaeologists and geneticists were amazed to find that genetically similar individuals inhabit the same areas they did following the Anglo-Saxon invasion, following the fall of the Roman Empire.

In fact, a map showing tribes of Britain in 600AD is almost identical to a new chart showing genetic variability throughout the UK, suggesting that local communities have stayed put for the past 1415 years.

Many people in Britain claim to feel a strong sense of regional identity and scientists say they the new study proves that the link to birthplace is DNA deep. The most striking genetic split can be seen between people living in Cornwall and Devon, where the division lies exactly along the county border. It means that people living on either side of the River Tamar, which separates the two counties, have different DNA.

Similarly there is a large area in southern and central England with a shared genetic heritage which coincides with the boundaries of Anglo-Saxon England. Likewise, separate genetic groups can be found in areas of North and South Wales corresponding to the ancient kingdoms of Gwynedd and Dyfed.

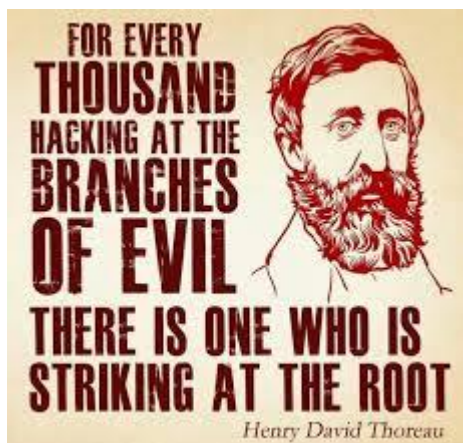

In the North, specific groups were found in the North East, tallying with the area of Bernicia which was colonised by the Angles from Southern Denmark. And, intriguingly, a small genetic cluster was spotted in the West Riding of Yorkshire, which coincides with the former small kingdom of Elmet, one of the last strongholds of the ancient Britons. Geneticist Professor Sir Walter Bodmer of Oxford University said: "What it shows is the extraordinary stability of the British population. Britain hasn't changed much since 600AD.

"When we plotted the genetics on a map we got this fantastic parallel between areas and genetic similarity. It was an extraordinary result, one which was much more than I expected. We see areas like Devon and Cornwall where the difference lies directly on the boundary."

Professor Mark Robinson, of Oxford University's department of archaeology added: "The genetic make-up we see is really one of perhaps 1400 years ago." Read the rest of the article at:

Editor's Note: We are always told that we are so mixed that race does not make a difference. But genetics are telling us a different story. In fact, most people marry people of their own background and the Israelite people seem to understand (by God's grace alone) to remain pure. God said He would scatter His People among the nations and that He would bring them back to Himself. It only makes sense that He would see to it that even with their scattering that a remnant would obey His Kind after Kind commands!

Welcome to Liberland, the Tiny Patch of Woodland Claiming to be the World's Newest Country

Self-proclaimed libertarian micro-state whose founder admires Nigel Farage welcomes its first citizens on Friday, with the first 100 arrivals to be granted honorary citizenship

By Nick Squires The Telegraph May 2, 2015

The first citizens will arrive on Friday to populate the world's newest self-declared country – Liberland, a tiny patch of woodland and fields on the sandy banks of the River Danube.

The establishment of the pocket-sized nation was declared earlier this month on land wedged between Croatia and Serbia which, its founders argue, was never properly claimed by either country. Liberland has its own flag, which features an eagle and a sun, a constitution, and a motto – "To live and let live."

Its self-appointed ruler is Vit Jedlicka, a conservative, anti-EU Czech politician and admirer of Britain's Nigel Farage, the leader of UKIP. Known officially as the Free Republic of Liberland, the country's independence was formally declared on April 13. Some 120 would-be citizens are expected to arrive on Friday for what has been dubbed the state's first Liberty Day.

On Saturday, Croatian police detained Jedlicka as he tried to enter Liberland, according to local news reports. He was reportedly released on Sunday morning.

Obama Administration Sending Thousands of Muslim Refugees to Idaho

By Tim Brown / 8 May 2015

Dinesh D'Souza claimed the Barack Hussein Obama was "anti-colonial" in his film 2016: Obama's America. However, Obama is demonstrating just how colonial he is as he sets up colonies of Muslim refugees across the United States.

The latest revelation of such colonization is coming to Idaho.

According to MagicValley.com:

The College of Southern Idaho's Refugee Center is expecting an influx of Syrian refugees starting in October. Projections show the center will likely receive 300 refugees from around the world during the upcoming federal fiscal year. That's the same number as this year. Refugee Center director Zeze Rwasama anticipates the biggest populations of newcomers will be from Syria and the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

To date, the U.S. has resettled just 648 Syrians. U.S. Assistant Secretary of State Anne Richard said during a recent visit to Lebanon that between 1,000 and 2,000 Syrian refugees will be brought to the U.S. by the end of September and several thousand more in 2016. CSI's Refugee Center has already resettled more than 1,000 refugees from Iraq, the neighboring country to Syria, and many speak Arabic.

Of course, many will say that this is the humane thing to do and that there is no danger. However, keep in mind that these people will experience a major culture shock and they only speaking Arabic. They are coming not because they desire to come to America, but because we are told they are refugees from war; a war in which their enemies were funded and trained by our government.

The International Rescue Committee urged the resettlement (think colonization) of 65,000 Syrians by the end of 2016 in America. Though those numbers that have actually been resettled in Idaho sound small, the reality is the numbers are much larger.

Leo Hohmann reports:

WND has learned the numbers will be much larger statewide and include refugees from Syria, Iraq, the Democratic Republic of Congo and possibly Somalia.

Sources tell WND that community leaders learned of the plans for up to 2,000 refugees at a recent conference at Boise State University attended by church groups, social services providers and other "stakeholders."

"That's the number they put out that they're planning for, a total of about 2,000 over the next one to three years, with 70 percent going to Boise and 30 percent in the Twin Falls area," said Shahram Hadian, a former Muslim turned Christian pastor in eastern Washington who said he spoke with a conference attendee.

However, Idaho is not the only state in the Union that is being colonized by Muslims. Recently, Rep. Trey Gowdy found out that the Obama administration had plans to resettle some of these Syrians in his district in South Carolina. He chastised Secretary of State John Kerry for not notifying anyone of what was taking place.

"As the Member of the U.S. House of Representatives representing the Spartanburg area, I am deeply concerned about the lack of notice, information, and consultation afforded to me and my constituents about this issue," he said in a letter to Kerry.

Gowdy requested at least a month's prior notice before any resettlement takes place. Sadly, Governor Nikki Haley has backed the resettlement plans.

Christina Jeffrey, who is former historian for the US House of Representatives and ran against Gowdy in the 2010 Republican primary said, "When the governor came out in favor of the refugees, our (Republican) legislators said it would all turn out OK and that they had faith in the vetting process. But this refugee thing makes us all very nervous, especially if the governor's office is on board. It's pretty well known around Spartanburg that there's a lot of unhappiness about it, and surprise, especially since she was so strong on some other issues like Medicaid expansion. It could be she looks at this with a little bit of identity politics, seeing that maybe immigrants will soon have an advantage over native-born Americans. Look how many immigrants we have running for president. I think she's moving on. I don't think South Carolina is her intended destination."

It has been reported that 7 million Syrians are seeking refugee status in the US.

Catching Pigs

(A story worth repeating!)

A thought to remember, Marx said,
"Remove one freedom per generation and soon you will have no freedom and no one would have noticed."

There was a chemistry professor in a large college that had some exchange students in the class. One day while the class was in the lab, the professor noticed one young man, an exchange student, who kept rubbing his back and stretching as if his back hurt. The professor asked the young man what was the matter.

The student told him he had a bullet lodged in his back. He had been shot while fighting communists in his native country who were trying to overthrow his country's government and install a new communist regime. In the midst of his story, he looked at the professor and asked a strange question. He asked: "Do you know how to catch wild pigs?"

The professor thought it was a joke and asked for the punch line. The young man said that it was no joke. "You catch wild pigs by finding a suitable place in the woods and putting corn on the ground. The pigs find it and begin to come every day to eat the free food. "When they are used to coming every day, you put a fence down one side of the place where they are used to coming. When they get used to the fence, they begin to eat the corn again and you put up another side of the fence. They get used to that and start to eat again. You continue until you have all four sides of the fence up with a gate in the last side. The pigs, which are used to the free corn, start to come through the gate to eat that free corn again. You then slam the gate on them and catch the whole herd. Suddenly the wild pigs have lost their freedom. They run around and around inside the fence, but they are caught. Soon they go back to eating the free corn. They are so used to it that they have forgotten how to forage in the woods for themselves, so they accept their captivity."

The young man then told the professor that is exactly what he sees happening in America. The government keeps pushing us toward Communism/Socialism and keeps spreading the free corn out in the form of programs such as supplemental income, tax credit for unearned income, tax exemptions, tobacco subsidies, dairy subsidies, payments not to plant crops (CRP), welfare entitlements, medicine, drugs, etc., while we continually lose our freedoms, just a little at a time.

God help us all when the gate slams shut!

"The problems we face today are there because the people who work for a living are now outnumbered by those that vote for a living."

New York Times Stumbles onto the Truth About Baltimore – Discovers why Blacks Riot.

Jared Taylor, American Renaissance, April 29, 2015

An article from yesterday's New York Times about the relative calm in Baltimore stumbled by accident onto something like the real reason why blacks were rioting. Near the famous burned-out CVS—the city had begged the company to “invest” in a dodgy neighborhood—the Times reporter found someone it identified as “Robert Wilson, a college student who went to high school in Baltimore.” The article concludes with Mr. Wilson’s explanation of why blacks rioted. He said this:

We’re just angry at the surroundings—like this is all that is given to us?—and we’re tired of this, like nobody wants to wake up and see broken-down buildings. They take away the community centers, they take away our fathers, and now we have traffic lights that don’t work, we have houses that are crumbling, falling down.

This quote almost perfectly captures the black mentality that leads to rioting. Blacks live in neighborhoods that they, themselves, have wrecked, and then ask, “This is all that is given to us?”

Hard-working white people built the “broken-down” buildings Mr. Wilson is complaining about. Many had parquet floors, high ceilings, and fine moldings found today only in the most expensive new construction. After the riots in Baltimore in 1968, whites panicked and sold their property at desperation prices. Now, these houses are “broken down” because blacks didn’t maintain them. This pattern of white flight and “broken down” houses was repeated in Detroit, Philadelphia, Chicago, New York, Washington, St. Louis, Memphis, Atlanta, Birmingham, Jacksonville, and countless other American cities. Some of the best city housing in the world was handed over to blacks who wrecked it. Neighborhoods filled with irreplaceable architecture are now wastelands.

Mr. Wilson complains that "we have houses that are crumbling, falling down." The remedy for crumbling houses is for the people who live in them to fix them, but instead, Mr. Wilson asks, "Is this all that is given to us?"

Like so many blacks, Mr. Wilson doesn't realize how perverse it is even to think in terms of pleasant houses and neighborhoods being "given" to anyone. Does he imagine the white authorities "giving" nice neighborhoods to whites and cruelly handing out slums to blacks? They didn't start out as slums. Whites saved and worked hard to build those neighborhoods. They maintained them, repaired them, and loved them.

But in today's world of welfare, food stamps, government housing, and white guilt, Mr. Wilson doesn't know any better than to ask for handouts. Jesse Jackson is just as self-absorbed. At the funeral for Freddie Gray he wanted to know, "Why can't the [black] West Side get the same things downtown gets?" Jesse Jackson is asking the same question: "Is this all that is given to us?"

And who, exactly, is not giving enough? Baltimore elected its first black mayor in 1987. Today, the mayor, the police chief, the fire chief, and half the police force are black. Two thirds of the population and most of the city council are black. But when Mr. Wilson and Jesse Jackson complain about stinginess, they are not blaming Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake; they are blaming white people.

Mr. Wilson says Baltimore's blacks rioted because they are "angry at the surroundings." Blacks make their surroundings ugly and miserable, and then make them even more ugly and miserable by burning them down. And then they ask, "Is this all that is given us?"

Mr. Wilson has more complaints: "They take away the community centers, they take away our fathers." Mayor Rawlings-Blake cut funding for 20 of 55 city-run community centers in 2013, but private foundations and neighborhood organizations kept most of them going. Rioters burned one down on Monday.

And fathers? In 1983, Baltimore had the highest black illegitimacy rate in the country: 76 percent, at a time when the national rate for blacks was about 55 percent. Now that the national black rate is 72 percent, what is the figure likely to be for Baltimore? Ninety percent? Ninety-five percent? Whoever "they" are didn't have to work very hard to "take away our fathers." Black fathers were never there to begin with.

It's no surprise that Mr. Wilson thinks blacks haven't been "given" what they deserve, and that "they" took away his father. He's a college student – probably on scholarship – and that's what blacks are taught from grade school.

The New York Times invariably blames "racism" and white privilege for the plight of blacks. It assumes that if only whites could curb their bigotry, blacks would bloom and flourish. It is remarkable that it concluded this article with a quotation that so brutally undercuts its own assumptions. People who think "they" have taken away their fathers, who blame others for their "broken down buildings," who look at misery of their own making and ask "Is this all that is given to us?"—such people will not bloom and flourish no matter what white people do. Nor do they deserve to.

American Sniper Chris Kyle was Murdered by a Muslim Convert?

Appearing on the Kuhner Report, Walid Shoebat gave the details about how Eddie Routh, the alleged killer of Chris Kyle, whose autobiography American Sniper is the basis of the record breaking movie of the same title, was an Iraq War veteran who along the way became a Muslim terrorist sympathizer and possibly a Muslim convert. Shoebat explained how Routh was assigned to guarding Muslim terrorist prisoners at Balad Air Base in Iraq, during his single tour of duty there, and during that time came to oppose the war in Iraq and sympathize with Muslim terrorists.

Shoebat stated that Routh because a Muslim terrorist sympathizer and had the characteristic of a Muslim fanatic. "He was hanging around with Muslim fanatics the whole time," Shoebat said of Routh's time at Balad Air Base in Iraq. "It's not unusual for servicemen to go there and get brainwashed by Islamic extremists," Shoebat said, in explaining how Routh become a Muslim terrorist sympathizer and possibly a convert to Islam.

"He had sympathy with the (Muslim) terrorists," Shoebat said, explaining how in one instance Routh tried to convert a nurse to Islam while in Iraq, he held a warden hostage until police were called. Routh had become a Muslim fundamentalist while a prison guard at Balad Air Base in Iraq. "This man has targeted Kyle for a reason...Kyle is wanted by Islamic jihadis," which is the reason Shoebat says Eddie Routh killed Chris Kyle.

MOTHER AND FATHER SCRIPTURES FOR YOU

by Pastor Barley

I do hope these verses will be a blessing for you in many ways. They are not meant to specifically put a smile on your face, but they are meant to bless and comfort us spiritually because they are Biblical truths. I have taken the time to cover many Scripture verses to provide some special time for you to stay upon God's Word, and be uplifted and strengthen by its truth. It is also my hope that all you Mothers and Fathers will be blessed during Mother's and Father's Day in a Biblically instructive way. – Children and young people should also be encouraged to feed upon this study of God's Word.

Matthew 15:4

For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

Matthew 19:19

FATHERS DAY!

Letters from Readers:

I have found that the meanings of words change over time. This can be due to general misuse by ignorant people or it can be due to deliberate manipulation (as with the word “gay”) by those who wish to deceive and corrupt.

One such word is apparently “prey.” Another is “Ethiopian.” See Jeremiah 39:15-18

¹⁵Now the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

¹⁶Go and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

¹⁷But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

¹⁸For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord.

The dictionary defines “prey” as something hunted and devoured. How is that being delivered and saved by God as mentioned in Jeremiah? It makes no sense. However, if you look up the word “prey” (#7998) in Strong’s Concordance, you find that it means “booty” or “spoil” and is taken from #7997 which means “to plunder.” In other words, Ebedmelech’s life was to be the treasure taken from the enemy. That is what booty and spoil are – any rich gain taken by violence, usually of war.

GOD'S TIME CAPSULE

THE GREAT PYRAMID AND SPHINX OF GIZA EGYPT — Vol I

By Ralph Lyman - 10.75" x 8.38", 158 pages.

Isaiah 19:19-20 identifies the Great Pyramid's location and height to the very inch.

19 In that day shall there be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the Lord.*

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the Lord because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.*

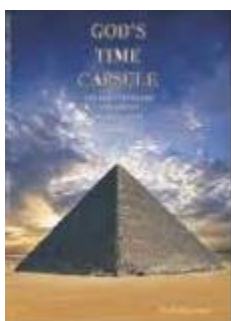

God encoded in the structure a chronograph of the same prophetic events found in the Bible, which include the Exodus date. Sir Flinders Petrie, trained surveyor and Father of Egyptology, gave the measurement from the Scored Line to the beginning of the Ascending Passage floor as 688.85 B". Applying an inch-per-year scale to Petrie's measurement, the Great Pyramid records the date of the Exodus to within 5.5 days of a full moon, but does the Great Pyramid identify the correct Passover full moon?

Verification is supplied by means of a biblical benchmark that took place precisely forty years following the Exodus when Joshua entered the Promised Land. As recorded in Joshua 5:11, it was on that day that "They ate of the produce [grain] of the land on the morrow after the Passover." Joshua's "morrow after the Passover" was the 15th day of the first month on God's calendar, and it was a Sunday—the day that first fruits [grain] are offered up to God. The Great Pyramid indicates the years of both Joshua's entry into the land and Israel's Exodus from Egypt. Those dates are substantiated to the very day using NASA website new and full moon tables, which identify the 15th day of the first month to have been a Sunday in the year that Joshua entered the Promised Land and a Sunday as well 40 years previous in the year of the Exodus—just as the Scriptures record. The mathematical probability for the 15th day falling on a Sunday 40 years apart is one in 140.

In this first volume of two discussion includes ancient legends naming one man, Thoth-Hermes-Enoch—the seventh from Adam, as the Great Pyramid's builder. The Herodotus controversy, seemingly inconsistent carbon dating results, Egyptologist's illogical building progression, Khufu's own record, and related subjects are resolved. The units of measure used in the Great Pyramid's construction are determined.

God's Time Capsule, Volume I is a visually impactful work containing 122 photographs and drawings most of which were taken or drawn by the author. The book is presented from a truly unique perspective, and the reader is left with no doubt as to the message that it holds, or who it was that designed and built the Great Pyramid.
