The Spiritual Israel multicultural Judeo-Christian false Gospel WILL NOT be taught at this conference. The blessed Kingdom Gospel along with God's Glorious plan for His Word of God Covenant people will be presented. We will also be awakened to God's declared curses and blessings that are so visible in today's apostate conditions. We will be having classes for children of all ages.

So bring the entire family for great fellowship!

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ISRAEL TRUTH

Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; Romans 9:4

One of the most important truths in the Word of God is the Israel truth. It encompasses vital Biblical truths about the Kingdom of God, the adoption, the glory, the Covenants, the giving of the laws of God, service to God, and the Promises. The Spiritual Israel, "legal-Israel", multiculturalists shall not succeed in their endeavors to remake Israel according to their mix-match corrupted theology. God's Word and the Israel truth it proclaims shall stand. There are no time restraints upon Jesus Christ to accomplish His Great Plan of the Ages. Though the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic, and kindred people of Adam Israel are under Divine judgment, and they are being corrupted racially, spiritually, politically, socially, religiously, economically, and so forth, there is good news! Jesus Christ our King, WINS and He will not fail in His special callings upon His Covenant Israel people.

Isaiah 59:21

As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

The world has embraced Judeo-Christianity because it mirrors the type of Christianity that is acceptable in their eyes. Whereas New Covenant Bible founded truths (Hebrews 8:8-10) of Israel will always lead to our national vibrancy, their replacement with spiritual, multicultural, multiracial, Judeo-Christianity, adulteration of the New Covenant will lead to our inevitable national decline. But remember, all is certainly not lost.

Most "so-called-Christian" churches are in reality "judeo-christian," which falsely defines and portrays the Jesus Christ ordained New Covenant. Let's continually refresh our Spiritual man with the blessed truth of Hebrews 8:8-10:

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

Spiritual Israelites and Judeo-Christians rearrange the New Covenant to flatter all people into a united front of diversity. Jesus Christ never did this, He never promoted such an idea, He never (using their term) "evangelized" such a concept, and never went into all parts of the world to invoke such a model of diversity.

JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY IS:

Isaiah 5:20

Woe unto them that call evil good , and good evil ; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Isaiah 28:15

Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

Jeremiah 17:5

Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

Galatians 1:14

And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

Colossians 2:8

Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

You need to understand that Jesus Christ, the Author, and Finisher of our faith is talking to His Adamic Caucasian Israel people, and He is doing so oddly enough through our present day judgment of multiculturalism (that the world is totally embracing today). The Lord Jesus is doing so, that He might prove who will serve Him and who will just be emotional (carnal-minded), mostly name only “Christians,” without following His righteous laws or principles. J.H. Allen, author of JUDAH'S SCEPTRE AND JOSEPH'S BIRTHRIGHT stated on page 24: “...these Abrahamic nations are fleshly seed, we must remember also that they are not necessarily a race of saints; for it is a notorious fact that some of that race have been, and others are now, just as wicked as that fallen son of the heavens would have them; but, on the other hand, that same race has furnished, and still is furnishing, men who are the grandest and best on earth.”

J.H. Allen provided some needful Scriptural perspective on the spiritual shape of the racial Adamic Israel people with regard to their being a “race of saints.” Clearly they have their short-comings and failures, but they are also “the grandest and best on earth.” Apart from Jesus Christ, His Covenant, laws, and the glorious purposes of His Holy Spirit, Israel is not so grand. It must be stated and stressed what Jesus said in Matthew 5:17-20:

¹⁷Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

¹⁸For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

¹⁹Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

²⁰For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Truly, we have been lied to by a false religion known as Judeo-Christianity. False Shepherds' in sheep clothing, who often are ravenous wolves, scattering the true sheep. The idea of there being false shepherds is not just a troubling concept for the moment, it is the clear and present danger.

Jeremiah 23:1-2

¹Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

²Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

We are not to be a homogenized, blended Israel of a Judeo-Christian concept whereby our race becomes the make-up of any and everybody out there because of the twisting of God's Word. He has called us to be separated, unmingled, holy, partakers of His Word, not to twist it to justify ourselves whereby we become Covenant breakers. God hath not forsaken His people Israel, it is the false shepherds who have done so in a very misguided way. Quoting author Fredrick Haberman in the introduction of his book TRACING OUR ANCESTORS, he said the following:

"As I said to begin with: A wanderer who has no recollection of where he came from has a poor chance of reaching his destination. Therefore, let us examine into the origin of our race.”

Biblical scholar Ferrar Fenton produced the Ferrar Fenton Bible translation, and dedicated it to: “ALL THOSE NATIONS WHO HAVE SPRUNG FROM THE RACE OF THE BRITISH ISLES, AND TO WHOM THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, IN ITS DEVELOPED POWER, IS THE MOTHER TONGUE; AND WITH THEM TO ALL THE INHABITANTS OF THE WORD TO WHOM ENGLISH HAS BECOME, OR MAY BECOME, THE LANGUAGE OF THOUGHT, IN HOPE THAT A CLEAR PRESENTMENT OF THE LAWS OF CREATION AND HUMAN EXISTENCE WILL RESTORE THEM FROM THE MENTAL DISTRESS OF ATHEISTIC DOUBT, TO A FIRM RELIANCE UPON GOD, THEIR CREATOR, AND THE PRACTICE OF HIS REVEALED LAWS OF LIFE, BODILY AND SPIRITUAL.”

I should add that I intend on providing as many Scriptural proofs and considerations as I can possibly provide in the space I am allowed. I do not wish to leave any of you wondering if there is sufficient Biblical proof concerning God’s Will, Plan, and Purposes for His Covenant people. Do not ever doubt the Scriptural admission given here in Roman 11, by the Apostle Paul concerning the “seed of Abraham.”

Romans 11:1-2

¹ I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

² God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew.

Without one whisper of doubt, “God hath not cast away His people which He foreknew.” When we read in Galatians 3: 7; that this means all people can now be “the children of Abraham,” we have every Biblical right and cause to question this. Are we to believe that the words “Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham,” (Galatians 3:7) and that we should now place Israel into some spiritualizing blender and throw all people into it and drink this spiritual Israel Kool-Aid. No, God changes not, and He did not get frustrated and abandon plan A. Only the blood rituals and ceremonial orders did Christ fulfill upon the cross and put them away, then “The veil of the temple was rent in twain” (Matthew 27:51). The New Covenant began, and “they which are of faith” (the faith of Abraham), were not some multicultural crowd, but the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Paul did not jump out of Scriptural script and jump into today's mixed and mingled Babylonian social order of Judeo-Christianity, and make this claim.

He was writing unto the Galatians, the Gentilized Northern House of the lost sheep of the House of Israel.

We need Biblical discernment. Most of our people do not know the true Jesus Christ, many of them mainly know Him as a Jew, a multiculturalist, a rapturist, a grace without law Judge, and a variety of other deceptions. Adam through Jesus Christ (period of time) did not exist to prove the invalidation of the laws of God, but the validity of His laws through His Grace. God truly is Love, but not without Law and Order.

As Patrick Henry stated, “Give me liberty, or give me death.” Which is not a statement of mere national awareness, but of Jesus Christ who is the true Liberty, whereby we must come out of her (Babylon) and be not partakers of her sins. Truly, there are stages of Babylon falling, but we are not free to wait until every high place of Babylon has fallen before we can get out of her. I do not have to wait for Babylon to fall before I start obeying God's laws not to bear false witness, honor the Sabbath, honor father and mother, and so forth.

God Almighty has not changed, but man has.

The following Scripture verses are clearly about Israel throughout the Bible. Please note that I have only listed a few within each category, but these should be a sufficient among to show the Purposes and Faithfulness of God towards His Adamic Israel People.

JESUS CHRIST IS THE REDEEMER OF ISRAEL: Isaiah 41:14; 43:14; 44:6; 48:17; 49:26; 54:8; 60:16

COVENANT ISRAEL: Genesis 17:2-4; 17:7; 17:21; Deuteronomy 7:8-9; 8:18; 29:9-10; 1 Chronicles 16:15-16; Psalms 89:3; 105:8-10; Isaiah 59:21; Jeremiah 31:31-34; 32:37-40; 33:25-26; 50:5-6;

INHERITANCE BELONGS TO ISRAEL: Deuteronomy 4:20; 9:26; 32:9; Psalms 28:7-9; 74:2; 78:71; Jeremiah 10:16

ELECT OR ELECTION BELONGS AT ISRAEL: Isaiah 42:1; 45:4; 65:9; 65:22; Matthew 24:24; 24:31; Luke 18:7; Romans 8:33; Colossians 3:12; Titus 1:1; 1 Peter 1:2

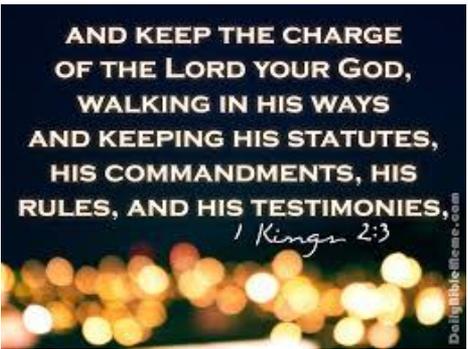

SAINTS OF ISRAEL: Deuteronomy 33:2-4; Psalms 148:14

SERVANTS OF GOD: Psalms 105:6; 136:22; Isaiah 41:8; 42:16-22

CHOSEN OF ISRAEL: Deuteronomy 7:6; Psalms 135:4; Isaiah 41:8

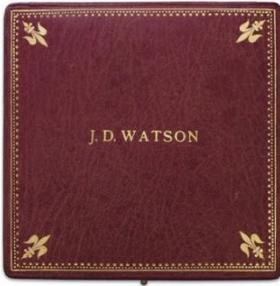

I pray this Bible study has been a blessing to you and that its truth will keep on blessing towards awakening everyone to the dangers of Judeo-Christianity.

Russian Billionaire Buys Nobel Medal of Ostracized DNA Scientist... to Hand it Back

Published time: December 10, 2014

Russia's richest man Alisher Usmanov has bought the auctioned Nobel Prize medal of publicly-shunned American geneticist James Watson. He says he plans to return the medal to its owner.

Usmanov's bid of $4.1 million won the medal at the auction, USM Holdings group, of which the billionaire is the largest shareholder, said on Tuesday.

"In my opinion, a situation in which an outstanding scientist sells a medal recognizing his achievements is unacceptable," Usmanov said in the statement. "Dr. Watson's work contributed to cancer research, the illness from which my father died. It is important for me that the money that I spent on this medal will go to supporting scientific research, and the medal will stay with the person who deserved it."

The auction took place on December 4 at Christie's in New York. The medal was awarded to Watson in 1962 for discovering the structure of DNA. However, the scientist claims he was forced to auction off the prize after being ostracized for seven years, following his public comments about black African IQ in 2007, which were widely deemed racist.

In October 2007, Watson told the Sunday Times in an interview that he was “gloomy about the prospect of Africa” because “all our social policies are based on the fact that their intelligence is the same as ours, whereas all the testing says not really.”

Since then, Watson has not been invited to give public lectures.

“Because I was an ‘unperson’ I was fired from the boards of companies, so I have no income, apart from my academic income,” he explained before auctioning off his Nobel Prize.

Watson said he had plans to donate some of the proceeds of the sale of the medal to the “institutions that have looked after me,” including the Universities of Chicago and Cambridge.

Usmanov is worth $15.8 billion, according to Forbes magazine. He is also a major shareholder in Arsenal Football Club. The Sunday Times named him the second-richest man in Britain in 2014.

Five Questions Same-Sex Marriage Advocates Refuse to Answer

And by refuse to answer we mean they will either change the subject, change the question or offer an answer so irrelevant and stupid, you wonder who they're talking to.

Question #1. If we redefine marriage to include two men or two women, can we also redefine it to mean one man and 4 women? What about one man and a 12-year-old child?

They will either accuse you of the “Slippery Slope” fallacy (which is only a fallacy if the slope is an unreasonable conclusion, which in this case, it's already happening) or they will claim children are unable to offer informed consent, and then call you a racist when you point out that they claim that same child can consent to an abortion. Truth is, many homosexual activists have made it clear that they want age-of-consent laws abolished. This is obviously bad PR, so the marketing people for the Gay Mafia has quieted down such demands, for now. So the real answer is, “Because we don't want to let people know that this is part of our long term goal.”

Question #2. How will “allowing” same-sex marriage work without empowering the government to force states, counties, cities, businesses, churches and even individuals to accept it, against their will?

This is a question they ignore and generally offer a regurgitated chant that goes something like, “It's about equal rights. It's about equal protection. It's about poached eggs. It's about blehblehbleh bleh.” Anything to avoid actually answering the actual question actually asked. The truth is it's impossible to implement same-sex marriage without handing much more power to the government to do so. Pretending it's about “getting the government out of marriage” is complete nonsense, and we have more than enough evidence that those behind same-sex marriage want more government control over marriage, not less.

Question #3. Since every single legal aspect of marriage can be duplicated between any two people using already existing legal measures, the battle for same-sex marriage boils down to nothing more than redefining the term “marriage” and the argument becomes, why would we refuse homosexuals the right to be “happy”. Are you really saying that homosexuals are only happy when they are allowed to force society to redefine words (like “gay” and now “marriage”)?

Again, this will cause them to spew the same regurgitated responses they do for Question #2. I mean, it’s like watching a frog jump when poked with a needle. Oh, they’ll maybe throw in some pathetic mention of “separate but equal” but when you point out that using that argument means Black people can never achieve equality until they are allowed to call themselves white, they’ll respond with—of course—an accusation of racism.

Question #4. If homosexuals cannot achieve happiness unless they are allowed to redefine terms, isn’t that a rather stark condemnation of the psychological well-being of homosexuals?

Be careful because this may actually cause their heads to explode. You’ll definitely be called a lot of names as they search for some response in order to evade the raw, naked truth of this question. Homosexuality was only removed from the APA’s list of mental disorders after the APA board was packed with pro-homosexual activists, making it a political decision, not a medical one. The pretense that homosexuality is not a mental disorder continues to this day, and has been “augmented” with the horrible myth that it’s a lifelong condition that they can never, ever escape.

Question #5. If a group of people declared that they can only be happy is they are allowed to redefine racial titles, allowing them to legally be recognized as any race they choose to declare themselves to be, would you favor allowing that? If not, why?

They’ll of course, claim it’s not the same thing, but they’ll flounder trying to explain why it’s not the same thing. But it is the exact same thing. I want to be considered Jewish so I'll have the government force all food manufacturers and restaurants to use the new definition of kosher, that includes all the foods I like, but aren't actually kosher. It'll be about my freedom, after all. Aren't they doing this very same with gender? They are trying to force society to accept that a person's gender is whatever they say it is, at the moment, so get out of the way while we go watch your little girl in the bathroom, bigot.

COULD IT BE THE VACCINES?

IS THERE A LINK TO THE RISING RATES OF AUTISM AND OTHER AUTOIMMUNE DISORDERS TO THE INCREASED SHOTS THAT CHILDREN ARE ASKED TO HAVE?

By Martha Barley

Rev. 21:8

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

Rev. 18:23

And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

Sorcerers – Strong's number 5332 - From pharmakon (a drug, i.e. spell-giving potion). This is where we get our English words pharmacy and pharmaceutical Sorceries – Strong's number 5331 which comes from 5332 above.

Outline of Biblical Usage:

1. The use or the administering of drugs
2. Poisoning
3. Sorcery, magical arts, often found in connection with idolatry and fostered by it
4. Metaphor – the deceptions and seductions of idolatry

The Bible warns us in the Last Days that there will be an evil system called Mystery Babylon and one of her weapons is sorcery. Delving into the meaning of that word we find that it perfectly describes the medical profession of today. Now, don't get me wrong. There are very many wonderful, well-meaning nurses and doctors, but this sorcery is being used to damage and kill many of our Israel people.

My father, Pastor Sheldon Emry, raised our family with the understanding that vaccines were not safe. He witnessed this first hand when his strong older brother was struck with polio as a soldier in WWII. His brother had volunteered and had gone in and had the multiple shots that soldiers get during their induction. Sadly, a mistake was made and my uncle was given two doses of the live polio vaccine as were many other men that day. They were shipped out and all became very ill. My uncle and one other man in that group were the only survivors and both of them were severely crippled because of the vaccine. The rest of the men died!

Back in those days, the government took full responsibility and my uncle received complete disability for the rest of his life as he was left with no use of his right arm and had to have braces on his legs in order to walk. But none of that really made up for his loss of function and probably a shortened life span.

But that was a long time ago, and they have certainly got it right now don't they?

The short answer is NO!

How much has the US government paid out for vaccine injuries?

$2,745,105,106

That's almost 3 BILLION dollars!
How can that be when vaccines are supposed to be so safe and effective?

Get the facts before you choose the vax.

The CDC admits this in their own publications. Here is just one example.

The current U.S. Department of Defense influenza vaccination policy mandates that all uniformed personnel receive seasonal influenza vaccination, unless medically exempt, or face punishment under the Uniform Code of Military Justice. The policy specifically directs all Navy operational units to be at least 90% vaccinated. However, despite vaccination measures, influenza outbreaks can still occur in highly vaccinated military populations. -

http://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/preview/mmwrhtml/mm6342a3.htm?s_cid=mm6342a3_e

Let's take a look at the flu shot that is being pushed so heavily and is often offered for free. That should send up a red flag! Why is it still pushed when even the CDC says it is only 35% effective this year? Four of the six types of the flu vaccine contain Thimerosal. They are Fluarix, Flulaval, Fluvirin, and Fluzone, per the CDC website.

<http://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/pubs/pinkbook/downloads/appendices/B/excipient-table-2.pdf>

Straight From the Horses Mouth!

Mercury is deadly and is know to cause brain damage even in small doses!
 Do the 2013-2014 seasonal flu vaccines contain thimerosal? CDC - "Since seasonal flu vaccine is produced in large quantities for annual immunization campaigns, some of the vaccine is produced in multi-dose vials, & contains thimerosal to prevent possible contamination of the vial once opened."

proud parents of unvaccinated: children find us on facebook

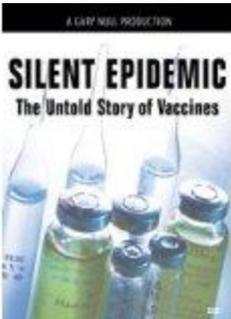

Notice the flu is given every year to children and that Thimerosal adds us along with many other unhealthy ingredients.

There is a lot of information available on vaccinations. For those of you who want to share this information with family members I highly recommend these DVDs that you can order from us.

The Greater Good is an award winning film by Leslie Manookian, Kendall Nelson and Chris Pilaro that goes beyond the fear, hype and politics that have polarized the vaccine debate. The film re-frames this emotionally charged issue and offers, for the first time, the opportunity for a rational and scientific discussion on how to create a safer and more effective vaccine program. 84 minutes $20.00 Or get a five day stream for your computer for $4.95 at

Silent Epidemic, by award winning film director Gary Null, is the first documentary to investigate thoroughly the true medical record and the historical evidence about vaccine marvels. Conventional medicine has heralded the invention of vaccines as a miracle of modern science. Vaccines and Autism: A New Scientific Review

By SHARYL ATTKISSON

CBS NEWS April 1, 2011, 7:55 AM

For all those who've declared the autism-vaccine debate over - a new scientific review begs to differ. It considers a host of peer-reviewed, published theories that show possible connections between vaccines and autism.

The article in the Journal of Immunotoxicology is entitled "Theoretical aspects of autism: Causes--A review." The author is Helen Ratajczak, surprisingly herself a former senior scientist at a pharmaceutical firm. Ratajczak did what nobody else apparently has bothered to do: she reviewed the body of published science since autism was first described in 1943. Not just one theory suggested by research such as the role of MMR shots, or the mercury preservative thimerosal; but all of them.

Ratajczak's article states, in part, that "Documented causes of autism include genetic mutations and/or deletions, viral infections, and encephalitis [brain damage] following vaccination [emphasis added]. Therefore, autism is the result of genetic defects and/or inflammation of the brain."

The article goes on to discuss many potential vaccine-related culprits, including the increasing number of vaccines given in a short period of time. "What I have published is highly concentrated on hypersensitivity, Ratajczak told us in an interview, "the body's immune system being thrown out of balance."

Are Measles as Deadly as They are Being Reported?

Sent by a friend.

Prior to 1963, when the measles vaccine was introduced, there were 3-4 million cases of measles a year in the US. Out of those cases about 450 died yearly. When you take into consideration that the population in 1963 was 189,241,798... the death rate for the entire US population from measles was 0.000237%.

Today, according to WHO (World Health Organization), there are 145,700 deaths GLOBALLY from measles. The current population is roughly 7 billion people that means the global death rate from measles is 0.00208%.

So, comparing the two figures, as a country, we Americans did better in 1963 at not dying from measles than the general population of the world is doing RIGHT NOW. But...the vaccine still gets credit for "eradicating" a disease whose, as I previously mentioned, morbidity rate was already down by nearly 100%.

Yet, people are in an absolute uproar because "anti-vaxxers" are causing these "massive" outbreaks of such "deadly" diseases. I'd take a fever, rash, runny nose, cough, life-long immunity, protection from more serious diseases as an adult and antibodies to pass along to my baby during its first year of life any day over the MMR vaccine. I'm not interested in a concoction of chick embryo cell culture, WI-38 human diploid lung fibroblasts (lung tissue of an aborted female baby), MRC-5 cells (lung tissue of an aborted male baby) and bovine serum that will only provide temporary (if any) immunity.

Oh but wait...

"The vaccine has been proven "safe" and "effective"."

Wrong.

Let me know when someone does a double-blind (saline/inert) placebo controlled study on this vaccine.

"But measles can cause blindness, encephalitis and pneumonia."

Yeah, and so can the vaccine, in fact, it can even cause measles itself! –

"My child could die from measles."

- According to US statistics, they're more likely to die from the MMR vaccine.

There have also been 288 deaths reported to VAERS (Vaccine Adverse Events Reporting) in association with the MMR vaccine. However, the numbers of vaccine-related injuries and deaths reported to VAERS may not reflect the true number of serious health problems that occur develop after MMR vaccination.

Even though the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986 legally required pediatricians and other vaccine providers to report serious health problems following vaccination to federal health agencies (VAERS), many doctors and other medical workers giving vaccines to children and adults fail to report vaccine-related health problem to VAERS. There is evidence that only between one and 10 percent of serious health problems that occur after use of prescription drugs or vaccines in the U.S. are ever reported to federal health officials, who are responsible for regulating the safety of drugs and vaccines and issue national vaccine policy recommendations.

Editor's Note

I don't know about you, but when I was young it was very common for people to have mumps, measles, chicken pox, and the flu. Our mothers made us comfortable and doctors even told our moms to expose us to these communicable diseases so that we would have lifetime immunity. I cannot remember a single person in my lifetime even having to go to the doctor for these. It was considered NORMAL!

I have been absolutely flabbergasted at the fear instilled in people about chicken pox, measles, and especially the flu. I had mumps, measles, chicken pox three times and the flu many times in my 56 years. I never went to doctor for any of them. When I was raised, we knew this was NORMAL! My mom watched over us and I did the same with our seven. My kids only got chicken pox once each and have only seen doctors for broken bones, stitches, and one was hospitalized with a ruptured appendix. Another had asthma for about five years and saw a Doctor when needed.

Also when growing up, I only remember one obese child and Dolly Parton was an anomaly. Now the number of overweight and buxom seems the norm. The change has been dramatic in my 56 years.

Victory in our “Now”

“I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

2 Cor. 6:2

To “grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,” 2 Peter 3:18, means there is progression, and the vision steadily grows brighter in the midst of, and perhaps because of the many pressures of the day. While it is true that we wait for the totality of fulfillment, it is not all “in the future” either, for we are finding that HE IS IN OUR NOW. The more there is yieldedness to the Holy Spirit, and He inworks the Divine Will, the more there is a daily victorious living.

Yet, there are many who are aptly described in a quote gleaned along the way. “We habitually stand in our ‘now’ and look back by faith to see the past filled with God. We look forward and see Him inhabiting our future, but our ‘now’ is uninhabited except for ourselves. Thus, we are guilty of a kind of pro-tem atheism which leaves us alone in the universe, while, for the time, God is not. We talk of Him much and loudly, but we secretly think of Him as being absent. We inhabit an interval between the God who was, and the God who will be.”

Praise God! We find Him far more than some Historical Being who delivered the children of Israel from Egypt, or preserved Daniel in a lion’s den. He is more than the Future King of some great millennial reign, for “God is our refuge and strength, A VERY PRESENT HELP in trouble. — the Lord of hosts is with us.” Psalm 46:1, 11. Furthermore, Jesus constantly proclaimed a realm of “I AM,” not “I was,” nor “I will be,” but simply I AM. It is into this dimension that we desire to live, and move, and have our being. Finding in Him a victorious NOW, knowing that “this is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24. (Ray Prinzing)

William E. Borah, Idaho Senator

The League of Nations

November 19, 1919

On the final day of Senate debate over the League of Nations, William E. Borah spoke powerfully and persuasively in opposition to the League.

"William E. Borah," one scholar has noted, "was one of the last public speakers in the United States to be compared favorably to the giants of the nineteenth century such as Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, and John Calhoun." The progressive Idaho Republican had honed his oratorical skills as a successful criminal lawyer and special prosecutor prior to his election to the Senate in 1907; during the thirty-three years that he served in the Senate, he was, in the words of his biographer, Marion C. McKenna, "long the most outstanding speaker in Congress, his oratory being both intellectual and emotional."

Known as "the Great Opposer" for his independent stance on a myriad of issues, Borah was a resolute opponent of special interests, a staunch defender of the Constitution, and a confirmed isolationist. As World War I drew to a close, he emerged as the leader and spokesman of the "irreconcilables"--the group of predominantly Republican senators whose unbending opposition to American participation in the League of Nations helped insure the defeat of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919 and 1920.

Borah's November 19, 1919, speech was the culmination of an effort that began in 1917, when he introduced a resolution affirming the principles of the Monroe Doctrine in response to President Woodrow Wilson's January 17, 1917, address before a joint session of Congress calling for the creation of a League of Nations to preserve a "peace without victory." He declined the invitation that Wilson extended to Senate Foreign Relations Committee members to discuss the treaty on February 26, 1919. After Wilson returned to Paris to continue the treaty negotiations, Borah took his case to the American people. On speaking tours of the Northeast, Colorado, and the Midwest, he captivated the audiences that crowded auditoriums and lecture halls well past their capacity. "America has arisen to a position where she is respected and admired by the entire world," he informed a Brooklyn audience. "She did it by minding her own business . . . the European and American systems do not agree."

After the Senate finally received the treaty in July of 1919, Senate Majority Leader and Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts began his effort--which ultimately proved successful--to defeat the League by delaying the final vote while adding reservations to the treaty that would render it unacceptable to Wilson's supporters. Borah and the "irreconcilables" remained resolutely opposed to the idea of a League in any form--with or without reservations. Borah pressed for an immediate vote, but finally agreed to cooperate with Lodge's effort, subject to an understanding that he and his supporters reserved the right to vote against the final product. In the meantime, Borah continued to muster opposition to the League. When Wilson embarked on a speaking tour to rally support for the League, Borah and Republican Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California followed to express the opposing view, with Borah covering the Midwestern states.

Lodge succeeded in adding fourteen reservations to the treaty, which the Senate considered on November 6, 1919. On November 19, the final day of the first session of the Sixty-sixth Congress, amid a protracted and wearying debate over the "Lodge reservations," Borah--whose "superb sense of timing" was legendary--rose to deliver a speech that one contemporary pronounced "one of the Senate's oratorical masterpieces." He spoke for two hours--a rare violation of his maxim that "a man can tell all he knows in forty minutes"--without notes, but his measured arguments offered ample evidence of the extensive preparation that always informed his rhetoric.

Borah began his remarks by repeating Abraham Lincoln's advice: "Entertain no compromise; have none of it," then informed the Senate that "my objections to the league have not been met by the reservations." Reminding his audience of "the great policy of 'no entangling alliances' upon which the strength of this Republic has been founded for one hundred and fifty years," he asked "where is the reservation which protects us against entangling alliances?" Although Borah rarely employed sarcasm as a rhetorical device, and never made personal attacks on his opponents, he confronted his would-be detractors with a direct and emotion-laden challenge: "Call us little Americans if you will," he urged, "but leave us the consolation and the pride which the term American, however modified, still imparts. . . . If we have erred we have erred out of too much love for those things which from childhood you and we together were taught to revere . . . because we have placed too high an estimate upon the wisdom of Washington and Jefferson, too exalted an opinion upon the patriotism of the sainted Lincoln."

Borah's address moved Henry Cabot Lodge to tears. Vice President Thomas R. Marshall and members of the press gallery passed notes to "the Great Opposer," complimenting him on his triumph, and even such an accomplished orator as Indiana Senator Albert J. Beveridge conceded that he could not recall "a speech that more perfectly satisfies my conception of the standard of taste and genuine eloquence. Nobody can answer it--nobody will try to answer it."

Several other senators spoke against or in support of the League of Nations during the grueling five-and-a-half-hour debate of November 19, 1919, but no one could match Borah's brilliant performance. The Senate voted on the treaty as the session drew to a close. The Democrats, who, at Wilson's insistence, refused to accept the reservations, combined with the irreconcilables to defeat the treaty with the "Lodge reservations" by a vote of 39 to 55. In a subsequent vote, the treaty without reservations was defeated by a vote of 38 to 53. Four months later, on March 19, 1920, the treaty once again failed to receive the two-thirds Senate vote needed for approval.

Borah continued in the Senate until his death on January 19, 1940. He remained one of the body's most powerful speakers, delivering his last major speech on October 2, 1939, in support of the Neutrality Act embargo.

When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion – when you see that in order to produce, you need to obtain permission from men who produce nothing – when you see that money is flowing to those who deal, not in goods, but in favors - when you see that men get richer by graft and by pull than work, and your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you – when you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice – you may know that your society is doomed.

American Sniper Chris Kyle

Israelite Warrior for the Wrong Cause

All History from the Adam forward is replete with warriors. But as Abraham Lincoln said, Sir, my concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right.

Most people base their ideas about Chris Kyle on emotion rather than fact. Fact: Chris Kyle joined the military because he was duped into believing he was fighting for American freedom. But is he a man of sterling character? No. Just like King David and other warriors down through time, he has made mistakes. It was proven in court that he lied about fellow Navy Seal, Jesse Ventura. Many have been angry at Jesse Ventura for pursuing the lawsuit, but the question really is Did Chris Kyle lie or didn't he? While he isn't here to correct that error, he should have done so, long before the book was published and the publishers of the book should have made sure that everything in the book was accurate. Sadly, they published knowing these three pages were a lie. Chris Kyle like so many Israelites forgot the commands of the Lord.

“but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.” James 5:12

But the saddest lie Chris Kyle told was that all proceeds of the book were going to charities to help the war veterans. According to the National Review, 2% of the sales, $52,000 have gone there. The rest has gone into the Kyle estate. It brings to mind the story of Ananias and Sapphira who kept back part of the price committed to God. Could that be why Chris Kyle died at the hand of a fellow soldier?
