FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM THE BARLEY'S!

1 Chronicles 16:34

O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

First of all, isn't that a GREAT verse? Let us all give thanks unto the LORD, because He is good, not bad, His mercy endureth for ever, not for a month, year, or fifty years, but for ever. His wrath and anger does not last an eternity in some eternal hell, but His mercy endureth for ever. Isn't it good to know that the Lord Jesus Christ is not unforgiving, but is forgiving, and that He has a GREAT Kingdom Plan?

As I look back over the year, I truly can say that it has been a trying time for me and my family in many ways. Why I was out hunting last year during the hunting season, enjoying life, I went to Louisiana to help my mother in her battle with cancer and then got back here to Sandpoint to be with my families big Thanksgiving celebration. I always love these family get together events, especially Thanksgiving because it is a Christ honoring Christian gathering and there is much love. Another thing we all seem to love are all the fall colors with the leaves on all the various trees changing color. What a site to see and experience. Martha and I believe there is something spiritual about this amazing event, and she especially loves to take pictures of all the various variety of trees and their different colors. We certainly are presently enjoying this color wonder that is upon us, and we hope all of you are also being blessed in this blessed fall event.

Then I developed a couple of debilitating health problems that put me in the hospital two different times. I was in the hospital a little over a week with severe kidney damage and pneumonia the first visit. Then a couple of months later, I ending up back in the hospital with pneumonia again and my left lung filled with fluid. This led to a couple of lung procedures to drain the fluid, but then finding out that my left lung was filling back up with fluid again and they had to put a hole in my chest and drain the fluid into these containers. Eventually I got out of the hospital, but I continued to have to deal with infection and fluid in my lungs that are still bothering me today, but to a much lesser degree. The good news is that my kidney on my left side that was damaged and causing serious problems received a clean bill of health after a couple months and this was most welcome news.

To make a long story short, I am most thankful to the Lord Jesus Christ in answering many prayers and to all of you dear friends for your much needed prayers and financial help. May this year lead to a full and complete recovery.

UPDATE ABOUT OUR SON MICHAEL

Martha and I also want thank you all for your prayers for our youngest son, Michael, (who is 17 years old, and a senior in High school) who sadly developed epilepsy and this has caused some added stress in his life, but he is learning to overcome. He has been in the hospital three times this year, but is making good progress. We have all (all the family) had to make some adjustments in our life to be more patient with Michael and be extra supportive of him and his condition. Expenses for us have been quite high this year, but we are not in despair, we are moving forward with our faith in our blessed Deliverer Jesus Christ. By the way, I should also add that Michael is helping in any way he can. He goes to school Monday through Friday, gets out about 2:40 P.M. each day, and he found a job where he works until about 7:00 P.M. Monday through Friday. He works at a wood processing plant that mainly sells presto logs for fire places and wood burning stoves. They (the managers) told Martha and me that they love having Michael because he is a hard worker and they have given him two raises so far, he is making $11.25 an hour. I'm just sharing this with you, because many of you want to know how Michael is doing, and to let you all know that we are proud of him.

"THAT'S A FACT JACK"

I'm sitting in my office, and I'm wearing a camouflaged hat with a picture of Uncle Si (from the Duck Dynasty guys) and his famous words: "That's A FACT JACK!" on it.

Well it's a FACT that the various nations of end-time regathered Israel are in big trouble with the Almighty. From the Muslim alien invasion that is coming from the Middle-East to the growing state of communism and progressive liberalism, the signs of our national demise is quite visible and quite apparent. IT'S A FACT, JACK! that God's Covenant People are not reading, believing, and acting upon the Biblical absolutes of God's Word. Thinking back on our Puritan, Pilgrim forefathers, IT'S A FACT that they read God's Word without modernistic encroachments upon their reasoning process. They read the whole Word of God; not just the New Testament portion, and because of this they had a much deeper understanding of the Covenants, Promises, Law, and Principles of Life that allowed them to overcome many problems and even deal with unforeseen government and church difficulties in the New World. And that's a fact.

Here is another fact I take great pleasure in presenting to you and your family and it has to do with the Israelite understanding of our Puritan and Pilgrim Christian forefathers. I am going to take the following history from the book THE ANGLO-ISRAEL THESIS by Reed Benson (taken from pages 43-46, & 48, 49) concerning the beliefs of many of the Puritans, and Reformers. This I pray will be a great spiritual encouragement to each of you and brighten your Thanksgiving time with family and friends. First we will begin with the Reformers:

"Dr. Jacques Abaddie, a French Huguenot who was forced to flee France, eventually settled in Ireland and became the Dean of Killaloe. In his four-volume work Le Triomphe de la Providence et de la Religion, published in 1723, he wrote this: "Certainly unless the Ten-Tribes have flown into the air, or been plunged to the earth's centre, they must be sought in that part of the North...namely among the Iberians, Armenians, and Scythians for that was the place of their dispersion—the wilderness where God caused them to dwell in tents...Perhaps if the subject was carefully examined, it would be found that the nations who in the fifth age made irruption into the Roman Empire, and who Procopius reduced to ten in number, were in effect the Ten Tribes who made their home in Europe...Everything fortifies this conjecture; the extraordinary multiplication of the people, marked so precisely by the prophets, the number of tribes, the custom of those nations to dwell in tents, according to the oracles, and many other usages of the Scythians similar to those of the children of Israel."

Henry Spelman (1562-1641), a noted English scholar of church history, was the author of Concilia Ecclesiastica Orbis Britannici and Glossarium Archaologicum. According to his eighteenth century biographer Peter Suhm, Spelman believed the Danes, Norwegians, and Goths were Hebrews and that the Danes were in particular of the tribe of Dan.

Adriaan van der Schriek was a prominent Dutch scholar who published a book in 1614, Troost Mijn Volk. In the subtitle he stated, "The Netherlands with the Gauls and Germans together in the earliest times were called Celts, who came out of the Hebrews."

Pierre Le Loyer, a French Huguenot, wrote this in 1590 in his work The Ten Lost Tribes Found: "The Israelites came to and founded the English Isles."

William Tyndale, the renowned English Bible translator, like Johannes Eureius, observed a surprisingly close affinity between Hebrew and the Germanic languages of northwest Europe (German, Dutch, Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, and English). In 1530 he famously stated, "The properties of the Hebrew tongue agreeth a thousand times more with the English than with the Latin. The manner of speaking is both one; so that in a thousand places thou needest not but to translate it into English, word for word..."

Now we jump ahead in time to the period of the Puritans. To me, this really hits home with regard to Thanksgiving time. The Puritans have been misrepresented and misunderstood in so many ways. Also they were a quite happy people, they were not a stiff bitter people at all. Their joy was in the LORD. Here are some of their Israelite beliefs:

"Cotton Mather, the author of more than 450 works and an American Puritan minister, wrote The Ecclesiastical History of

New England in 1702 about the Puritans who emigrated from England to America. In the work are sundry passages revealing his belief that they were the offspring of biblical Israel:

...our hastening voyage unto the history of new English Israel."

"These good people were now satisfied, they had as plain a command of Heaven to attempt a removal, as even their father Abraham had for his leaving Chaldean territories."

"Among these passengers were divers worth and useful men, who were come to seek the welfare of this little Israel."

"To give them such hearts as were in Abraham and others of their famous and faithful fathers."

"An introduction unto this piece of New English history that when some ecclesiastical oppressions drive a colony of the truest Israelites into the remoter parts of the world..."

"The enemies of New England owed the wondrous disasters and confusions that still followed them as much to the prayers of this true Israelite as to perhaps any one occasion."

"Here lies Nathaniel, True offspring of God's Israel."

John Milton was the author of Paradise Lost and the seventeenth century's most celebrated English poet and writer...Milton believed that the Saxon tribes that settled England were direct descendants of the Israelites. In his work The History of Britain, published in 1670, he wrote this of Saxons: "They were a people thought by good writers to be descendants of the Sacae, a kind of Scythians in the north of Asia, thence called Sacasons, or sons of Sacae, who with a flood of other northern nations came into Europe, toward the declining of the Roman empire."

Nathaniel Morton, a New England Puritan of some reputation and the court secretary of New Plymouth, wrote the following statements in 1669 in his book New England's Memorial:

..That especially the seed of Abraham his servant, and the children of Jacob his chosen, may remember his marvelous works in the beginning and progress of the planting of New England."

..God...brought to nought their wicked devices [the American Indians]...until he had accomplished the freedom of his Israel, by the overthrow of his and their enemies."

Edward Johnson was a historian of the Puritan movement in England and New England. He often spoke of the English people as literal Israelites. In his book Johnson's Wonder-Working Providences of Sion's Savior in New England, published in 1630, he wrote the following, referring to the Puritan settlers coming from England:

..The Lambe is preparing his Bride...yee the ancient Beloved of Christ, whom he of old led by the hand from Egypt to Canaan through that great and terrible wilderness."

..You the seed of Israel both lesse and more, the rattling of your dead bones together is at hand, Sinewes, Flesh and Life: at the Word of Christ it comes."

Yes friends, the Europeans were Israelites, and this blessed Biblical revelation is fought against and silenced at every opportunity. To me and many others, Thanksgiving is just not complete if the Anglo-Israel truth is swept under the rug and silenced as though that part of our great Biblical Heritage is void.

WHITE MAN, YOU ARE SPECIAL

White man, you are special. You are unique in that you are Divinely called, chosen, Biblically directed and Covenanted with to be God's Kingdom People, this is a fact, though seldom understood reality. You are special in that you are the seed of our Bible Fathers: Adam (Genesis 5:1), Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Israelite White people, do not take what I have said lightly. You are special. You are God's treasure people. You are the apple of His Eye. The world wants you to think that you are just Gentiles, but you are the People of the Bible whom God has specifically called and chosen for a great Biblical Heritage that only you can possess.

Do not destroy this great, blessed, Biblical calling by mixing your White seed with non-White people. Do not miscegenate your racial seed or corrupt your Biblical Heritage. Do not amalgamate, mix or blend your precious White ancestry away as though it were some cheap Heritage.

Many of you already know this, but some of you are shockingly riding the fence on this vital issue, and this is why I am unceasingly sounding the alarm to hopefully awaken those who may be spiritually blind, deaf, and deceived. There is a race-war, but the most dangerous race-war is the racial corruption that is happening with the race of White People in race-mixing with abject racial ignorance and indifference to our rightful Biblical Heritage. It is far from a matter of indifference, it is a crying and mourning matter. It is time for White Israelites to fall on the floor prostrate before the Lord Yahweh as the danger posed by race-mixing is on a scale of war in the form of a national invasion.

THE GREATEST DANGER WE (ANGLO-ISRAEL) FACE

The greatest danger we face is disinterest to our Biblical Heritage. That we are the people chose of God and we are therefore to do everything within our power with the help of the Almighty to protect, preserve, and proclaim what God has called and chosen. God said to father Abraham, “In blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thee.” I must stress that this “blessing,” is unto the seed of Abraham. Should we not have thanksgiving over this? Sure, even though we are being cursed today, we still, at the same time, are being blessed in that our race survives and continues to be blessed despite all our sinful ways. God blesses His people, the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

The “curse” comes when God’s people ignore their Biblical duties and responsibilities. This means they have been ignoring the commandments of God, and this happens to a greater degree every time Israel becomes blind to their God ordained Covenantal heritage. In other words, who we are is of paramount importance, otherwise, the racial decay of our race will continue with the course of Divinely ordered “curse.”

Deuteronomy’s Song of Moses makes this abundantly clear. The 28th chapter of Deuteronomy starts off with these words of “blessings” in verses 1 and 2:

“And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all His commandments which I command thee (ISRAEL) this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.”

Well, we certainly are not being overtaken with “blessings.” We are being overtaken with “curses.” Many of us older folks, who are in our 60’s and above, often reflect upon the 50’s and early 60’s of the Twentieth Century as times of “blessings.” We had prayer in school, more of a form of Biblical patriotism, no legalized abortion, no open homosexual nonsense, we had much more wholesome television shows compared with the sick shows of today, America was mostly White and had a fairly strong White culture and most went to church even though those churches were increasingly watering down the Christian faith. The point is, we could feel the “blessings.” to a greater degree back then, and it was as if the blessings of God were overtaking our people and nation for a brief period of time.

From about 1965 through today, America has been changing for the worse in practically every way. The people have in many ways embraced liberalism, socialism, even shades of communism, to outright communism with all its atheistic baggage. So it is not unexpected for many of us who love the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word that America has been going the wrong direction. For a long period of time, many decades, we have been feeling the “curses.” God told His Covenant Israel people:

“But it shall come to pass if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: Cursed shall thou be in the city, and cursed shall thou be in the field.” Deut. 28:15-16

IS IT GRACE AGAINST GOD’S LAW?

What really makes me scratch my head, is when Grace only minded people tell me that we are no longer affected by Old Testament verses, because the laws of God have been terminated by Christ upon the cross. I simply ask them, well, if we are only under grace without the laws of God, then what laws or principles are we to utilize and employ? Are we free to justify stealing, lying, murder, homosexuality, fornication, adultery, usury, and so forth? Is America being Divinely blessed today or cursed? If we are being cursed, how is this possible if we are free of God’s laws, and will any of the political policies and practices of man be able to deliver us? Will “Grace” only living be able to restore America and put it on the path of righteousness?

Clearly not. Righteousness can only come when America exercises “right living,” meaning God’s people quit sinning, they repent, and abide by God’s laws, because Bible laws are inspired of God, meaning they are Holy Spirit inspired. Jesus said:

Matthew 5:17-19

¹⁷ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

¹⁸ For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

¹⁹ Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

GRACE AND RACE

As I've said to many people over the years, "If that is not clear enough for you, and you still want to grace yourself through life, you not only do so to your peril, but you are also aiding the antichrists in their plot against Christianity, the nation, and the race." Yes, God's law follows the race (the White race of Adamic Israel). In serious analysis of the Scriptures, the Biblical Covenants and Promises unto Israel, the Light of Christ, the Rock, the Law, the Ark of the Covenant, the Holy days, the Prophecies, and other examples are all part of Israel's Heritage and Destiny towards the Kingdom of God and Christ's New Covenant "BLESSING" (for Israel) upon the cross.

Hebrews 8:8-10

⁸ For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

⁹ Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

¹⁰ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

It is this Kingdom which the world is in opposition against, and make no mistake about it, this opposition is against Christ and Kingdom People. The spiritualizing away of Israel in all its various false facets, is an affront to God and His Covenant purposes to the Birthright people. The spiritualizing away of Israel or the racial displacement of Israel includes many things including the radical assault against God's law. You see a big part of the Kingdom of God involves the law, the people (Adamic-Israel), and of course the King (Jesus Christ). This is true Christianity. It is the law, the people, and the King (Jesus Christ). The Kingdom of God suffereth violence because the antichrist forces understand that they cannot play in their unrighteous playground when the Kingdom of God stands.

Matthew 11:12

And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

This means, among other things, that Biblical Israel under Covenant, are NOT subject to the whims and fancy of theory. The replacement theology is a false theory, in that it is a direct attack against the Kingdom of God. It seeks to remove the true Covenant People with those people known today as "Jews," or even replace true Israel with some multi-racial form of Christianity. The alien integration of our nation is an effort by red Edomites to "force" White Adamic Israel people into oblivion. This is forbidden fruit we must not partake of for if we do so, it will be to our peril and complete national destruction. Yes, you are hearing me correctly, if the White Adamic Israel people are somehow fleeced away by antichrist schemes and purposes, the nation is lost. The GOOD NEWS, is that God has a plan, and it will dumbfound the antichrist forces. The GOOD NEWS is that the LIGHT of the KINGDOM OF GOD is the “BLESSING” that will bring about blessed change.

The King is coming, this means the Kingdom is coming:

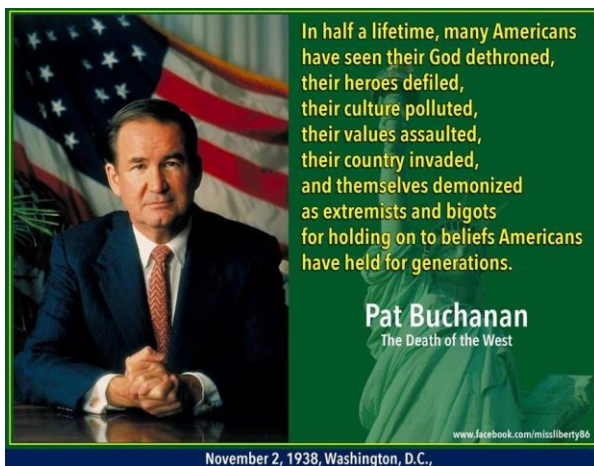

Revelation 21:9-12

⁹ And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

¹⁰ And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem (New Jerusalem), descending out of heaven from God,

¹¹ Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

¹² And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: [end]

What We MUST Talk About!

By Lawrence Blanchard, ND, MDiv

We can't wait any longer. We must talk openly and frankly about race. Why! Because we are in a free-fall dissolution of Christian civilization of White Northwestern European people and their once thriving nations. Race is the fundamental problem and answer to the resolution and restoration of Christian civilization.

Why It's Difficult to Grasp

The connection between the dissolution of civilization and race isn't so apparent to most people. Not consciously, at least. Subconsciously, however, the White race as well as the other races, and even racial sub-types, are very aware of race.

For example, have you noticed that races tend to congregate among themselves? Churches are notorious for racial segregation. Chinese churches, Korean churches, Samoan churches, black churches. Whites also prefer churches of their own kind, even though they are told by hypocritical pastors to be inclusive of others.

And then there is the obvious self-segregation of races into their neighborhoods and divided sections of town. "Mixed" areas are avoided.

I had a recent conversation with a realtor friend of mine and we generally discussed "good" areas to live in. She made a point that it was "against the law" for her to say anything that may sound like "discrimination." So, I asked a few questions on how to approach the issue so as not to get her in trouble. In today's world of political correctness, you must speak in cloaked language.

Race and the quality of civilization are not consciously recognized as connected, but our instinctive thoughts and our actions are evidence of that connection.

Why It's Difficult to Discuss

We can freely talk about the weather and the economy, but we seem to be quite reluctant to talk about race. Other races aren't as inhibited, but White people are paralyzed – even privately. It's a taboo subject.

The reasons why are many. Perhaps the most prevalent is that we don't want anyone getting the wrong impression – that we are not tolerant and fair people or we are “racist” or “White supremacists.” Horror!

The other side of that coin is “White guilt.” Oh, that one has been a carefully crafted consequence of an unending stream of government, media and educational propaganda. Now, the movement known as “White privilege” has infiltrated down to school-age children to make them feel guilty just for being White. White guilt leads to racial hatred – for their own race!

Who wants to talk about race under those circumstances?

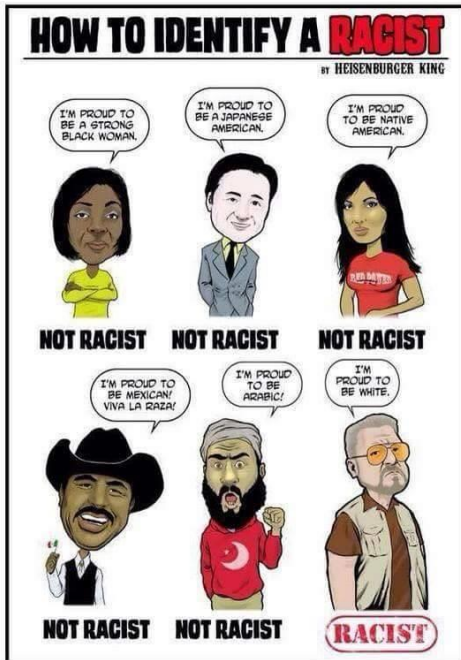

The other obstacle to talking about race is that many families are connected in some way with a racial mix. Mixed marriages, mixed children (including foreign adoption), and mixed racial situations with extended family. It can get quite personal. It's that personal affection that keeps us talking about anything and everything but race.

Get Over It

Well, we're going to have to talk about it. Throw off the shackles because if we don't start the discussion and start challenging the false presumptions about race, we will keep sliding down the slippery slope of tolerance and diversity and into the pit of chaos and the destruction of God's ordained order of His Kingdom civilization.

So, we have to ask the questions like:

1. Are all races equal in God's sight?
2. Are they different only in appearance or are they also different in other genetic respects such as how they think and behave?
3. If the races and racial sub-types are so equal, why do they tend to prefer to be with their own kind? Just culture?
4. Do different races and racial types create their own culture or does culture distinguish the races? Which comes first – race or culture?
5. Did all races come from Adam? Did all races come from Noah's three sons after the Flood event?
6. Does "the gospel" under the New Covenant apply to all races?

See More Crazy Pictures & Videos on Owned.com

The answers to these questions are critical in order to understand the reality of race. Let's ask the questions and search out the answers.

That's what I have done in my books in the Covenant Heritage Series. (See pages 30 and 31) These books ask the hard questions and the answers are backed up by the evidence of the Bible, history and science.

We must talk about race. It's important. It's critical.

I want the truth. Do you?

Iceland Sentences 26 Bankers to a Combined 74 years in Prison

October 22, 2015

In a move that would make many capitalists' head explode if it ever happened here, Iceland just sentenced their 26th banker to prison for their part in the 2008 financial collapse.

In two separate Icelandic Supreme Court and Reykjavik District Court rulings, five top bankers from Landsbankinn and Kaupping — the two largest banks in the country — were found guilty of market manipulation, embezzlement, and breach of fiduciary duties. Most of those convicted have been sentenced to prison for two to five years. The maximum penalty for financial crimes in Iceland is six years, although their Supreme Court is currently hearing arguments to consider expanding sentences beyond the six year maximum.

After the crash in 2008, while congress was giving American banks a $700 billion TARP bailout courtesy of taxpayers, Iceland decided to go in a different direction and enabled their government with financial supervisory authority to take control of the banks as the chaos resulting from the crash unraveled.

Back in 2001, Iceland deregulated their financial sector, following in the path of former President Bill Clinton. In less than a decade, Iceland was bogged down in so much foreign debt they couldn't refinance it before the system crashed.

Almost eight years later, the government of Iceland is still prosecuting and jailing those responsible for the market manipulation that crippled their economy. Even now, Iceland is still paying back loans to the IMF and other countries which were needed just to keep the country operating.

When Iceland's President, Olafur Ragnar Grímsson was asked how the country managed to recover from the global financial disaster, he famously replied,

“We were wise enough not to follow the traditional prevailing orthodoxies of the Western financial world in the last 30 years. We introduced currency controls, we let the banks fail, we provided support for the poor, and we didn't introduce austerity measures like you're seeing in Europe.”

Meanwhile, in America, not one single banking executive has been charged with a crime related to the 2008 crash and U.S. banks are raking in billion in annual profits with little to no regulation in place to avoid another financial catastrophe.

Why Evangelicals should think Twice about Equating Modern Israel with Israel of the Bible

11 JULY 2014 / BEN IRWIN

The other day, I raised a question for evangelicals who think standing with Israel means supporting them no matter what. How do you reconcile a “never criticize Israel” mentality with the overwhelming witness of the biblical prophets?

If you've been told that unconditional support for Israel is the only “biblical” position, that the modern-day state enjoys the same kind of “most favored nation” status with God as ancient Israel did, then here's another question. If Israel today is entitled to the covenant blessings spoken by the Old Testament, what about their covenant obligations?

The Bible never spoke of Israel's covenant blessings apart from their obligations. It's no use trying to have one without the other. And at least one of these obligations poses a bit of a problem for the modern state of Israel, if it is indeed the same nation as the one in the Bible... [There's more to this article, but we'll have to cut it off here, but these are good questions] <http://benirwin.me/2014/07/11/evangelicals-equating-modern-israel-with-israel-of-the-bible/>

AS IN THE DAYS OF NOAH!

By Bob Vermaat, Canada

"Take heed lest any man deceive you." (Mark 13:5)

WHEN we read the account set forth in Genesis 6 we read that mankind had become so wicked and corrupt that God chose to do away with all that was corrupted, save Noah and his family. Since we also read in Genesis 5:1 that this is the Book of the generations of Adam, namely the Bible, we can safely assume that the Antediluvian Civilization that God chose to destroy with the Flood were the descendants of Adam. Prior to the Flood these descendants were all inclusive, whereas after the Flood the line of descent concentrates solely on the progeny of Shem to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and finally culminating Lord Jesus Christ. One man's family, exclusive of all others except for the odd times where others are interacting with people that became known as Israelites.

The Bible narrative in Genesis does not give specifics as to the nature of the violence and corruption of those early Adamic peoples with the exception of Genesis. 6:2 and 4, where these verses indicate race mixing.

"That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all whom they chose." (Genesis 6:2).

In Verse 3 following, we can see God's reaction when He exclaims,

"And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."(Genesis 6:3).

So, you can see that after the longevity of Adam and his offspring up until the Flood, God is cutting men's lives shorter there after warning.

"There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men who were of old, men of renown" (Genesis 6:4).

Again let's look at the following verses and see what God's reaction is.

"And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the Lord that He had made man on the earth and it grieved him in his heart." (Genesis 6:5, 6).

Thus in both these instances it seems that God's reaction is closely related to the sons of God marrying and having relations with the daughters of men.

There are two trains of thought as to the sons of God. The one holds that they are the fallen angels that left their first estate (Jude 6), while the other line of thought holds that they, the sons of God, were the descendants of Seth that intermixed with the ungodly descendants of Cain or with pre-Adamites. This writer tends to hold to the latter thought, mainly because we read that at the end of Christ's genealogy as recorded in Luke 3:38, Adam is identified as being the son of God, but that is a whole different issue that we will not go into at this time. Our focus in this essay is the depravity of man. If we follow the genealogy from Adam to Noah and the flood we can determine that it only took 1663 years for Adam-kind to corrupt itself to the point that God saw it needful to destroy His Adamic creation and to start anew with Noah and his sons, and the Bible from this point forward focuses itself primarily with the descendants of Shem.

Moses recorded these facts around 1445 BC, some nine hundred years after the flood, and thus the event was known to the Israelites, yet they took no notice of the fact that mankind can only push and ignore God so far until He, God, again says enough is enough. So, even though God had promised a Redeemer as far back as Genesis 3:15, He finally divorced and banished His people from their land for their idolatry and corruption, to become lost until this day and to a large extent even unto themselves. God in His mercy, however, promised to restore His people unto Himself through most of the prophets, most noticeably Hosea 2:23 and Hosea 3:4-5. The fact remains that His people, Israel, are and always were a stiff-necked and stubborn lot, who did not often learn anything from their past mistakes and follies. Not much has changed unto this present time.

Enter Jesus Christ, the Redeemer of His people Israel, the One promised from the beginning, the light of the world, our Rock! He came preaching and teaching the message of the Kingdom of God. He healed the sick and broken hearted. He showed us the way and bled on the cruel cross of Calvary in order to pay the price for our iniquity so that we could have life in Him, instead of death for our sins. According to the Gospel of Matthew, it was during the Olivet Discourse, chapters 24 and 25, where Jesus was explaining to His disciples the events preceding His second coming that Jesus warns us about the similarities in the last days to the conditions that prevailed just prior to the flood. The pre-flood civilization had no outward guidance other than the Edenic Covenant, which most seemed to have ignored. The post-flood civilization up until the time of Christ soon had the written word by way of Moses and the prophets and by and large ignored that Divine guidance.

And now we are in the latter days of the Church age. We have Moses and the prophets, we have the teaching of Christ Himself, we have the Gospels and the teachings of the Epistles and still we as a whole don't get it. Christ said, "Take heed that no man deceive you." (Matthew 24:4) and He went on to say

"And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall grow cold." (Matthew 24: 11, 12).

We are living in the Laodicean Church period. The Lord states that since we are neither hot nor cold He will spew us out of His mouth. In other words, He will reject us the way we are. (Revelation 3:15, 16). Churchdom abounds with false prophets. The Word of God is being distorted in such way that most of the time the true teachings of Scripture are unrecognizable. The church has become a social club in a feel good society. Most Christians think that they have it all and are rich, whereas in fact they are poor and naked. (Revelation 3: 17).

"But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the Ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." (Matthew 24:37-39).

Yes! Just like then the Christian world is living just for today. We eat and drink and we indulge ourselves in material things.

We have our fun and we have our sports, so what else do we need? We pay scant attention to Biblical matters, for they only put restrictions on our happy go lucky lifestyle. Race mixing and inter-racial marriage are the norm. The Biblical mandate of kind after kind (Genesis 1) is being completely ignored. Sodomy and homosexuality have become an accepted lifestyle and is being embraced in most denominational churches today. Yet, to God it is an abomination. (Leviticus 18:22). Don't accept it either! If your preacher does not teach sound Bible truths, search them out for yourselves, for you are ultimately responsible for your own destiny. You have the most complete roadmap and manual available to man, namely your Holy Bible. Study it and learn from it, so that you will find yourselves ready and approved. As in the days of Noah, when the flood came, only a few souls were saved, so according to Christ's admonition it will also be the case when He returns. Return unto your God and Saviour, O Christians. Return, O you stubborn and stiff necked Israelites, for your time is short.

When the Ark of Salvation arrives be sure you have a boarding pass, lest you be left standing on the shores of oblivion.

Vladimir Putin Speaks Honestly

By Paul Craig Roberts

<http://www.paulcraigroberts.org/2015/11/02/vladimir-putin-speaks-honestly-paul-craig-roberts/>

Russia's president is a refreshing contrast to the liars who inhabit Western governments and Western media. The agenda of the Russian government is peace and international cooperation under the rule of law. Washington's agenda is hegemony.

President Putin endeavors to lead the world to peace, while the neoconservatives who control Washington's foreign policy try to drive the world to war. Contrast the crazed statements that flow from Washington comparing President Putin to Hitler, suggesting his assassination, and calling for shooting down Russian military aircraft with President Putin's appeal that Washington abandon its hegemonic agenda and submit to international law and international cooperation. As President Putin has emphasized, for Washington "international cooperation" means submission to Washington's will.

President Putin repeatedly states that governments must govern in accord with the people and not function as a decree-issuing body in accord with interest groups disrespectful of the people.

Throughout the West we see the increasingly unresponsive behavior of government. In the United States careful studies conclude that, despite elections, the American people have essentially zero input into the policies decided in Washington. In Greece, the government is coerced to impose on the Greek people policies dictated by large German banks supported by the German and EU governments. In Portugal, the socialists who won the election were told by the conservative president that they would not be permitted to form a government. In the UK, a senior military official stated that the military would not permit Jeremy Corbyn to form a Labour government should the Labour Party win the election. The United States government threatens the governments of Venezuela, Ecuador, Bolivia, and Argentina for representing the interests of the voters who put them in office instead of Washington's interests. The United States government has destroyed American civil liberty with its unconstitutional mass surveillance, indefinite detention without charges, and murder of US citizens without due process of law. Dissent itself is in the process of being criminalized.

Just looking at the basic facts makes it impossible to conclude that the West has "freedom and democracy" or that Washington's bombs and invasions have brought "freedom and democracy” to Africa and the Middle East.

Every American can get a conclusive lesson about where moral leadership resides by becoming familiar with Putin’s speeches. Here are some examples:

New Book

In Rise of the Black Serial Killer, Justin Cottrell expels the myth that serial killers in America are predominantly white. With a myriad of newspaper records and books, he has compiled a list of black serial killers that is equal to or greater than the number of white serial killers from 1860 to the present. Few, if any, have ever heard any of their names or stories until now.

This study contains a full list of every black serial killer and a brief description of their crimes. The author offers reasons why most people assume black serial killers don't exist-

-from media suppression to common misunderstandings.

If You Believe

If you believe "science" is already determined, and is merely about majority consensus, you are actually referring to religion.

If you believe a potential finding in scientific studies, or hypotheses presented by scientists are unquestionably true, you are actually talking beliefs.

If you believe in this concept of science above all else, and cannot consider criticism or permit this science to be challenged or questioned, then you are following dogma.

If you believe all people must follow this science without doubting or searching for more answers, you are demanding an act of faith.

If you believe that the amount of science you have at your hands right now is the ultimate knowledge, and that all people must be compelled through peer pressure or laws to follow this science, you are attempting to make our country a theocracy. <http://www.thevaccinereaction.org/2015/09/the-religion-of-anti-science-fanaticism/>
