America's Promise Ministries Newsletter

May/June 2022

Pastor Dave Barley

Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

Associate Pastor: Kevyn Reid

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Pastor Kevyn Reid and Family have Now Arrived

Pastor Kevyn Reid has now arrived at America's Promise Ministries and we thank those of you who sent funds to either them or us to pay for the move. As always when we are in disobedience to God, God tightens the financial screws, but God promises to bring us through when we give cheerfully. We ask that you follow God's command to tithe to the ministries that feed you and if you wish to help with the remaining moving costs, just let us know that is what you are sending it for.

Pastor Reid is now here and has jumped in with both feet and both Martha and I appreciate all that he and his family are doing and their willingness to be used of the Lord in this way. They are taking a big load off our shoulders and we are all very excited about this opportunity. He will need your prayers and support and I will be assisting him as needed, so I am not out of the picture. I am still at it with my finger at the pulse of things. But if God moves upon your heart please give what you should and as you are well aware food, gas-prices, and other things are going up for us as well. I can't even fill up my car for less than $60.00 these days. Consider giving an amount each month to help with the expenses and allow us to use Pastor Kevyn to his full potential.

A Sad Announcement

Mr. Richard Kelly Hoskins died in January of this year at age 93. This reminds me of the passing of Archeologist E. Raymond Capt, who also died at age 93. Mr. Hoskins was a first rate, down to the point Bible economist and historian. He was one of the finest historical story tellers I ever heard. He authored many great books and we have some of them in stock. We have War Cycles Peace Cycles, In the Beginning, Wolves and Sheep, and other books that he wrote are Our Nordic Race, and Vigilantes of Christendom. We do not have the last two.

Mr. Hoskins was a speaker at many of our conferences, and camps. He was well known for his bold straight forward lectures. You could depend on hearing the straightforward truth and Bible Law on topics every time he was at the podium. Many times he would call me and encourage me in a gracious way. Richard Kelly Hoskins deserves all our honor and respect. He fought the good fight, and ran the faithful race. Mr. Hoskins, you shall remain in our thoughts and prayers.

My Condition

Many of you on our newsletter list have not heard about my recent health issue. I was sitting at home throwing up for four days before I made the decision to go to the hospital emergency room. It was a chilly day when I arrived, a male nurse greeted me and one of the first things out of his mouth was "Oh, he's got COVID." We know several nurses who told me that this was incredibly unprofessional and not something any nurse should ever do. He was further annoyed when he asked the question, "Are you vaccinated or unvaccinated?" and I said Unvaccinated. He was the only nurse we had that was that way. Once in the ER, they did an EKG on me and determined I had a heart attack and that I had a severe stomach infection and my blood sugar was very high. They decided to rush me in an ambulance to the medical center in Coeur d'Alene which is about forty-five miles south of Sandpoint. They did a number of tests and decided not to operate on my heart, but my blood sugar was very high and they worked to get that under control. I was in their hands now and could do nothing.

I was in the hospital for four days with them constantly sticking needles in me, testing blood, and other items. They made sure my diabetes was stable before they let me go. After I got home, I had another stroke causing the left side of my face to go numb which gives me a crooked smile and I was unable to walk without wheelchair assistance, but am now able to walk a few steps without my upright walker, but I use it most of the time. After a month at home, I am now back in the office and doing this newsletter for you, but in a limited way. Please forgive any mistakes or limited writing I may do, I cannot write now as much as I would like – I WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU ALL, BUT don't expect me to write back because of my condition.

Russia Con

We are being lied to by our federally controlled media about Russia and Ukraine. Our Zionist's controlled media has not changed one bit. It still is under the power and control of our enemy and those who hate righteousness. Why would anyone believe these antichrists and their lies? Why would anyone believe it is their American duty to die for Russia or the Ukraine? Let's face it folks, most of us don't even know what is going on across the street, much less across the globe with any degree of accuracy. We only know what we are told, but again who or what is our source, and how accurate are they? Do they have an agenda? Are their facts and figures true? We know Biden is a liar and that his son (Hunter Biden) has corrupt dealings with Ukraine. Even the New York Times reported on how corrupt the Ukrainian government is several years ago, as if our government isn't? Gas prices were going up before the conflict, but they have skyrocketed since.

President Putin is a more honorable man than that clown Biden is. People are so concerned about Putin's oil control, heck I'm more concerned with Biden's control over America and Canadian oil than Putin's oil control. It appears that Putin is more concerned with NATO, and the EU and American energy corporate control emerging in the Ukraine than mere take over. The Russians are seeking to control the Ukraine to keep it out of NATO. The United States want the Ukraine part of NATO and are seeking to make the Ukraine part of the west plus providing the Ukrainians with weapons. Remember, war is the outcome of evil created out of the love of money, or power. The USA power-brokers want global control and it is not Russia.

Alexandr Dugin, a top Russian philosopher, on the war in Ukraine:

"... This is not a war with Ukraine. It's a comparison with globalism as an integral planetary phenomenon. It's a comparison on all levels - geopolitical and ideological. Russia rejects everything in globalism - unipolarism, Atlanticism, on the one hand, and liberalism, anti-tradition, technocracy, Great Reset in a word, on the other. It is clear that all European leaders are part of the Atlantic liberal elite.

And we're at war with exactly this. Hence their legitimate reaction. Russia is now excluded from globalist networks. He no longer has a choice: to either build his world or disappear. The Russia has set a path to build its world, its civilization. And now the first step has been made. But sovereign in the face of globalism it can only be a large space, a continent-state, a civilization-state. No country can withstand a complete disconnect for long.

Russia is creating a global resistance camp. His victory would be a victory for all alternative forces, both right and left, and for all peoples. We are, as always, beginning the most difficult and dangerous processes.

But when we win, everyone takes advantage. That's the way it has to be. We are setting the ground for real multipolarity. And those who are ready to kill us now will be the first to benefit from our enterprise tomorrow. I almost always write things that then come true. This too will come true "....."

And again: "What does it mean for Europe to break up with the West?" He is the salvation. The modern West, where the Rothschild, Soros, Schwab, Bill Gates, and Zuckerberg triumph, is the most disgusting thing in the history of the world. It's no longer the West of Mediterranean Greco-Roman culture, nor the Christian Middle Ages, nor the violent and contradictory twentieth century. It's a graveyard of toxic waste of civilization, it's anti-civilization. And the sooner and more completely the Russia breaks off, the sooner it returns to its roots. To what ? Christian, Greco-Roman, Mediterranean... - European... That is, to the common roots of the real West. These Roots - Their Own ! - the modern West cut them off. And they stayed in Russia .

Only now Eurasia is raising its head. Only now liberalism in Russia is losing ground under our feet.

Russia is not Western Europe. Russia followed Greeks, Byzantines, and Eastern Christianity. And he's still following that road. Yes, with zig zags and detours. Sometimes in dead ends. But it's moving .

The Russia is out to defend the values of Tradition against the modern world. It's really that "revolution against the modern world." Have you not learned?

And Europe must break up with the West, and also the United States must follow those who refuse globalism. And then everyone will understand the meaning of modern war in Ukraine.

Many people in the Ukraine understood that. But the terrible rabid liberal-Nazi propoganda left nothing in the minds of the Ukrainians. They will come back to their senses and they will fight together with us for the kingdom of light, for tradition and a true European Christian identity. the Ukrainians are our brothers. They were, are and will be.

A breakup with the West is not a breakup with Europe. It's a breakup with death, degeneration, and suicide. Its the key to recovery. And Europe itself - the European peoples - should follow our example: topple the anti-national globalist council. And build a real European house, a European palace, a European cathedral."

Goldman Sacs and other banking Zionist agencies have put a stop on Russian and other countries federal reserve note withdrawals which may very well spark entanglements –The Zionist want war, but don't fall for it. BRICS is an acronym for Brazil, India, China, and South Africa and the said form of money they were contemplating. Goldman Sacs may well be behind this fraud. It is for global standing and winning out over federal reserve notes. I say again, the love of money is the root of all evil. Without money nothing politically would happen. It makes the federal machine work.

New Autistic and Possible Cancer Breakthrough

A man on our mailing list has a wife with cancer and she has been helped with a mineral supplement. Autistic children are noticing the same good transformation. It has to do with a rebuilding of the neural structure. So I am bringing this breakthrough information to you.

New Scare

Have you heard the latest? Many doctors are now warning and even predicting that there may well be an outbreak of AIDS acquired auto immune deficiency due to two or three COVID vaccinations and this is a real threat. Doctors are puzzled in that they are throwing everything at this emerging development of AIDS. One such doctor you should listen to is Dr. Elizabeth (Betsy) Eads on Twitter or you can follow her on Telegram. She recommends Ivermectin as a treatment early on. And that more and more young people are developing blood clots early on and no one should take these shots. Watch her interview at:

<https://usawatchdog.com/millions-get-aids-from-vax-by-fall-dr-elizabeth-eads/>

We are looking at war developing between the vaccinated and the unvaccinated.

Disinformation is Rampant

We have heard, garbage in equals garbage out. Another way to look at this is confusion of facts, facts are confused or distorted these days. Gas prices are ridiculous to say the least as we all know, they are also highly distorted, or a better way of describing this is robbery. We have a thieving president and government. Today all ten planks of the communist manifest are in operation in America from the income tax to the corrupt educational system. Russia seems to be far more honorable than America.

Today, is like the time of Martin Luther and the darkness of rule of the Catholic Church and the Inquisition keeping the Bible closed to the average person. The Word of God was kept from the general public. It is the very answer that would set them free, but it is up to every generation to come to Bible Truth. In the Judeo-Christian false foundation the objective is to keep vital Truth from masses, to keep them dumbed down and a danger to themselves and their posterity.

If you have not done so already, boycott Disney. The reports are coming more and more numerous that there are major perversions and as Christians we should not support such anti-family and antichrist agendas. Do NOT subscribe to the Disney channels or buy a Disney products or movies.

Movies will often portray bank robbers as mean and advantaged, and the federal, state, or county government somehow disadvantaged. Reality is not in movies such as 007 or The Untouchables. The reality is large forces of federal FBI, or ATF type of troops are employed to bolster and reinforce the federal or state position. Older folks will remember TV shows such as Hogan's Hero's which perpetrated the stereotypes of Germans being dumb and incompetent. You obviously will not find reality in the movies, but lies, distortions, and fraud. The federal government is never at a disad-vantage. It has plenty of money and personnel at its fingertips.

I remember when the FBI shot and killed Randy Weaver's son Sammy and murdered Randy's wife Vicky, plus wounding their friend Kevin. There was a large amount of ATF well armed at the scene, well paid, big, mean, and menacing. They were there for over ten days. I was there every day during that time and it was horrible.

Then there was the Branch Davidians in Waco, Texas. The FBI with massive troops surrounded that so called compound most likely setting fire to the building murdering many people while the media and general public a distance away. Just remember, he who wins the war, or who ends up in control, writes the history whether true or fabricated. Much of what we are told about wars and history has been highly skewed or distorted.

The world is full of compromise, and compromises are not necessarily wrong and we all have to make compromises from time to time. But making compromises with the Word of God is evil and will lead to folly. Following God's Law and implementing His Principles everywhere in our lives brings peace and blessings.

This deception goes back to the beginnings of Hollywood. For those folks who are my age, remember the old TV show, I Love Lucy done back in the fifties? They used laughter to get their audience to ignore blatant race-mixing, and Lucy's defiance of her Cuban husband's authority. The ridiculous antics of Jewish comedian Lucille Ball was used to loosen up her audience to ignore reality. It was an ingenious ploy by the Red Edomites and caused people to look the other way and ignore the corruption before them. They use words like "half-breed" in the old Westerns and made the audiences have get sympathy for how bad they were treated. They have continued this in newer movies like Harry Potter where those who want the pure blood lines are evil and the mixed blood lines (called Mudbloods in Harry Potter movies) are to be celebrated. They are indoctrinating people to look down on anyone with such views, and they are preaching that we are only good if we embrace their corruption and multiculturalism dogma. The goal was to get you to look the other way and chose evil over good, and their goal is to make you believe that good is evil and evil is good.

3 John 1:11

Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

Adulterers of God's Word offer no Biblical proof or reason or cause for action. They only put forth the Judeo-Christian perspective, that all races came from Adam and Eve and that we are all of the same blood. NO, WE ARE NOT OF THE SAME BLOOD! We are His peculiar people. Edom wants us to mix with the alien and become diluted into non-existence. Blacks, homosexual, and so-called minorities have long understood this acceptance of the federal system and its power; therefore they gravitate to it.

Have you ever wondered why God Almighty wiped out the sodomites? Because they are far more detrimental and violent than they appear. Decades ago I did a lecture at the High School in town and the homosexuals went berserk and called me horrible names and threatened to kill me in front of my family in a gruesome way too horrible to describe. The sodomites are not pleasant at all. They are very dangerous and not the least bit nice or tolerant. They are behind sodomite sex education and the younger the child the more advantageous. Please take your children out of the public schools. It is not safe for them. It is a breeding ground of perversion and sin. It is also good to see people like Kirk

Cameron and other Christian leaders calling public education the number one enemy of Christians. It took them a long time to finally see this, but praise God they are speaking out.

Separatism is Godly

The Apostle Paul warns Christians in 2 Corinthians 6;14-16:

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

The wicked not only separate themselves from the truths of Biblical Christianity, but they “reproach” those who live such Christianity and “cast out” their name as evil. This has happened to me and to many good Christian people who have taken a stand for the Truth of God’s Word.

You see, when they call us right wing extremists, Bible thumpers, the radical right, White separatists, and so forth, they are actually practicing their separation by attempting to “cast out your name as evil.”

The significance of this principle is pointed out in many places throughout the Word of God. For instance, Jesus said in Matthew 6:24:

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Do our enemies understand this principle? - - You bet they do, because they certainly love their own kind and hate those who are not of their kind! We must ask ourselves, "Is this necessarily wrong?" Well, human wisdom may not like it, but Jesus does not take a middle of the road approach on this issue. He said, Ye cannot serve God and mammon. If this does not make Jesus Christ a separatist to you - - then perhaps worldly opinion is greater in your heart than the eternal wisdom from God's Word.

Are You With Christ?

In Matthew 12:30, Jesus again draws a specific line of separation which Christians seldom take cognitive notice of:

He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

Though a person may seem to have good intentions, have a great personality, and even display many good Christian characteristics, the fact of the matter is, that, if they are not with Christ, then whether intentionally or not, they are against Christ! Either way, they will gather according to their own sense of right, rather than gathering what is Biblically right.

Furthermore, through the biblical principle of separation, we learn that there are many who have been deceived to the point that they actually enter the world (darkness), who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh 2 John 1:7. In other words, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh are actually of this world. In principle, it does not really matter how good they may seem to be, the fact is they are either with Jesus Christ, or they are against Him. You cannot have it both ways. As a side note, please notice the curious way this Bible verse is worded, Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. Well, all of mankind is come in the flesh, so why stress the point that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, unless it is to point out the wonderful truth that it was God Almighty coming in the flesh?

Making the Correct Choice

The world sustains itself mostly on half truths and lies; that is why Jesus told us to separate ourselves from its influences. Through the world, we receive darkness, and from this darkness comes death. However, through Jesus Christ we receive Light and from the Light, we receive Life. The question is, do we want to be more and more like Jesus Christ (Life) in everything we say and do, or do we want to be more and more like the world (death) about us today? The carnal mind will choose the way which seems right according to its own sense of self interest, but as Christians, we are to trust and obey the Way, the Truth, and the Life of the great I AM! Jesus said in Matthew 4:4:

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Consider the following verses from 1 John 1:5-7:

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

This means there must be some changes and they must begin with you and me! You see, it is easy to say, "We have fellowship with Him," but are we really having fellowship with Him in Spirit and in Truth? Is your relationship with Jesus Christ a double-sided, double-minded one? Do you use foul, ungodly language with no care for the poor witness you are creating? Do you have the right to get angry anytime you want and say and do things which bring dishonor to the name of our Lord and Savior because you think your feelings and your so-called self rights are more important? If you think this way, then you are certainly walking in darkness, and you are not with Christ! We cannot break God's rules of life, without experiencing the sad consequences which will come from such behavior! Again, 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

You see, you can live for yourself, you can ignore the consequences of your actions and behavior, but there is a price to be paid. It reflects a great shortsightedness on the Body of Christ as a whole, if we practice or do those things which bring disunity and disharmony to the Body of Christ. If we do that, we are looking at the little picture, not the big picture.

Mature Relationships

Living for yourself shows a great lack of spiritual maturity. Certainly, we all love children, but there are some characteristics about children that we should not be manifesting as mature Christians. As an example, children lash out at others when they do not get their way. I think the Apostle Paul stated it best in 1 Corinthians 14:20.

Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

Some Christians talk about being a man, but their words, actions, and behavior tell me that they are children!

This truth is essential for the bonding which must take place within the Body of Christ. You see, true Christian LOVE can and will heal broken relationships. Jealousy, malice, hate, anger, and so forth, will only bring about more division, disunity, and strife. But of most importance, through a spirit of true Christian love, Christ will grow in our hearts, there will be restoration, the Body of Christ will start coming together, and we will learn to grow in love and respect for each other. With these attributes, we can work through our problems.

Ephesians 3:17-21

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, 21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Being a separatist from every uncomfortable situation is not necessarily the right or proper thing to do. Some people just keep to themselves because it seems to be an easy and convenient form of escapism. They get their feelings hurt, and they throw in the towel. Now, certainly, conditions can become so intolerable that you just might be better off separating yourself from a bad situation. However, as Christians, we need to be careful about separations within the Body of Christ. As an example, we are warned in 1 Corinthians 6:7:

Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

In other words, although it is very contrary to our flesh and carnal thinking, the Scriptures are admonishing us to go ahead and suffer the loss, rather than conducting a hate campaign against our brother. And, yes, I said “brother,” and no, I did not say that he or she had to be as perfect as you and I are. Have you noticed that many Christians are more protective and supportive of temporal things than they are of their fellow brethren within the Body of Christ? We should think well on the qualities of love (charity) we are given in the Scriptures. As an example, look at 1 Corinthians 13:4-7:

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

We should not lightly pass over these qualities of Biblical love, or charity; in fact, let us briefly examine each of these characteristics of Charity:

“Charity suffereth long.”

In other words, the love of Christ ought to be so strong in our inner being that we can suffer even being defrauded by a Christian brother. Rather than being longsuffering though, some Christians have a short fuse, and they blow up in each other’s faces. I am often shamed by my lack of Christian understanding in this regard. The way I have behaved with certain of my Christian brethren you would think that I believe that Jesus Christ died upon the cross for me alone. In other words, sometimes I behave so self-righteously and with such self-importance, that I forget that my Savior is also their Savior and that Christ did not die for just “worthy” me; He also died for those brethren I have disagreements with. You see, sometimes I am blinded to the fact that I am just as unworthy as they are without Christ.

Charity “is kind.”

Charity (or love) does not practice unkindness. Many people have come to me over the years and asked, "Why are Judeo-Christians and other types of people so hard to witness to?" Well, generally, it is a matter of self-righteousness on one's part. In the knowledge of our Israelite identity, which wrongly inflates the ego of some, we must understand that this has never been a Biblically justifiable attitude. Charity is kindness. We will be able to reach far more people with understanding and kindness than with puffed up egos and a know-it-all attitude.

"Charity envieth not: vaunteth not itself, and is not puffed up."

I put these three together because they are similar in that they all involve ego and pride. In the case of envy, it is not that different from ego; only with envy, a person is puffing up, and vaunting up the image of someone else. A person who is "puffed up," lacks the humility to be open to the hurts and problems of others. Here again, we find the scenario of a person looking at the little picture rather than seeking to be a part of the bigger picture. Nehemiah is an example of such a man who looked at the big picture. He unselfishly and bravely rallied the people to the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem. Of course, the best example I can give is that of our great Redeemer - - Jesus Christ. He certainly humbled Himself; He saw and He pursued the bigger picture, even though it required His physical death. But through His great sacrifice, He redeemed those who were certainly undeserving, steeped in ungodly acts, and noticeable "less" than He. The nature and character of Jesus Christ is to be our example. In fact, the Scriptures tells us in Philippians 2:3-8:

³ Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

⁴ Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

⁵ Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

⁶ Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

⁷ But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

⁸ And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

“Charity does not behave itself unseemly.”

This literally means, do not behave in a way that is unbecoming of a representative of Jesus Christ.

Let us Be Careful What We Believe

The other day I was sent a video of Jewish film director Stanley Kubrick of the film 2001 Space Odyssey who openly admitted he staged and filmed the so-called space walk on the moon. A little later I received a talk from this minister during one point of his message speaking about pyramids he started speaking of flying dragons and called them flying saucers, with no proof but his theory. Now, if we did not land on the moon and no one has seen a said alien from let's say Mars, someone is lying. Let's be careful what we believe. Not all we hear is fact and we need to stay in the Word!

Most of the Old Testament says very little on Satan or the adversary and there is even not much written about Adam and Eve. This snake in the garden may not be a devil, but a scheming ADULTERER, or adulterator, who adulterates, or perverts things like things like they are being perverted today. Our minds are corrupted in ways we are not aware of or realize. Adam and Eve were manipulated by this adversary, meaning they were deceived by the deception presented. You see, it is like the term JEW, we have to dissect it to discover its real purpose and meaning, because obviously it does not mean what appears. Israelite is a term better suited to the twelve- tribes of Israel in dispersion.

Some are reporting that Henry Kissinger is saying that the Israelis will relocate to the Ukraine. I doubt it because they are milking the world by their claim to that land. More Jews live in New York City or Florida than in Israel. We already know New York City is a Jewish haven and stronghold they do not want to give up. Do not just believe something because someone presents it as truth. We want to be witness of God and His truth and not viewed by those we need to witness to as nut cases!

Be teachable.
You're not always right.

This poem was written in 1932 by a pastor in Mississippi named A. M. Overton, who had a wife and three small children. His wife was pregnant with their fourth child but when it came time for delivery, there were complications and both she and the baby died. During the funeral service, the preacher officiating the service noticed my grandfather writing something on a piece of paper. After the service, the minister asked him about it, and he handed him the paper with a poem he had just written which he titled, "He Maketh No Mistake."

He Maketh No Mistake

My Father's way may twist and turn,
my heart may throb and ache.
But in my soul I'm glad I know,
He maketh no mistake.

My cherished plans may go astray,
my hopes may fade away,
but still I'll trust my Lord to lead,
for He doth know the way.

Tho'night be dark and it may seem that day will never break;
I'll pin my faith, my all in Him,
He maketh no mistake.

There's so much now I cannot see,
my eyesight's far too dim;
but come what may, I'll simply trust and leave it all to Him.

For by and by the mist will lift and plain it all He'll make.
Through all the way, tho' dark to me,
He maketh not one mistake

God's Glorious Purpose

By Pastor Kevyn Reid

Behind every good man is a good woman, as the old saying goes. Today, we are taught to think the reverse, that is, behind every strong woman walks a non-sexist, obliging, feminist man. Is it possible that we would have stronger, more masculine, and good-hearted men that are willing to lead and be good husbands and fathers who provide for their family emotionally, spiritually, and financially if there were more good women around? Let us consult God's Word on the matter, after all, our Bible does have all the answers...

God's plan for your life is referred to as Providence, or God's caring provision for His people as He guides them in their journey of faith through life, accomplishing His purpose in them. The word Providence comes from the Latin "pro" meaning "before" and "video" for sight. So, God has a foreordained plan for us, and it is His wish for us to fulfill this as Kingdom minded individuals to the best of our mortal capabilities while on the earth.

Matthew 20:1-16 is a parable about our role as workers in Christ's Kingdom now. Our first goal is to be at work in the Master's vineyard. True joy is found when we labor for the Master as opposed to mammon. The worker who realizes that his or her work is first for the Master finds true joy and fulfillment.

Let us consult the book of Esther for more clarity. Esther was an orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai (Esther 2:7). She was granted favor by the Ahasuerus, King of Persia, and elevated to the position of Queen. God used Esther to disrupt a plot devised by Haman to assassinate the King. Esther, even as Queen, still gives credit to Mordecai for the investigation although she did not have to. It was Mordecai after all that reported the plot to Esther in the first place. Esther's mission was made clear even though appearing before the king uninvited was punishable by death, yet Esther's resolve remained and according to chapter 4 verse 16, she says:

“And if I perish, I perish.”

This amazing statement implies Esther's implicit trust in God and in Mordecai. Esther's actions may have seemed insignificant at the time, however this event determined Israel and Judah's ultimate course in history.

Esther's position in life required submission even though she was a Queen. She was redeemed by her kinsman, Mordecai and submitted to him as well as the submission of herself to the King and God. This chain of command is exemplified throughout the entire Bible. It is important to understand because if Esther was unable or unwilling to follow the directives of those placed in authority over her, she would not have been used by God in such an astonishing manner.

When we recognize our Biblical roles of both authority and servitude, we can be used by God and fashioned to His desires and will to assist in establishing His Kingdom upon the earth. In order to be used by God we must be able to see and understand how He sees us. He sees us as Jacob's sons and daughters and, therefore, His Word is addressed to us.

We are Kings and Priests according to 1 Peter 2:9, and the seed of Abraham according to Galatians 3:29. Knowing our identity begets a calling and allows us to commit to the gifts God has given us, even though we see only our mental and physical limits. Esther's story is OUR story; our identity in God and through this identity God gives us PURPOSE.

Mordecai was elevated in the King's court with high honors and became historically known by being mentioned in the Books of the Kings in Media and Persia. He was a kind and generous man interested in helping others. Esther's treatment of him allowed him to be used by God in the Kingdom. If Esther would have treated him as women are told to treat men by today's standards, would we even know who he was or what his great place in history was? Would God have cursed Esther? Would God have simply used another? These are important questions to ask ourselves in this age.

Feminism has been a rising ideology for the past fifty years or so. However, those who have embraced those ideals have begun to realize its downsides. The way to pull men out of the pit they have been thrown into today is by allowing women to be womanly again. This must be done in a Biblical, God-ordered manner. Relax and let the man God has put in your life take the lead. Read your Bible with him and encourage him to step up to the plate on a task, advise then let him shoulder the responsibility, assisting, not asserting, in any way you can. Build men up! Men are torn down in so many ungodly ways today. Do not contribute to that by bashing them yourself. Instead, thank them for the ways they protect and provide for you. Compliment them on masculine behavior. Let them hold the door or carry a box for you even if you think you can handle it yourself. These actions, unfortunately, can get you labeled as a misogynist even if you are a woman, and it is certainly counter-cultural. Swimming upstream is never easy but to those who can rise to the challenge. Remember it is the truly brave who history remembers. So if you are a woman who wants to change the world as Esther did, cast off the bonds of worldly feminism and embrace God's standard of femininity.

"We're not called to make peace with evil.

We're not called to befriend evil.

We're not called to be tolerant of evil.

We're not called to ignore evil.

We're not called to expose our children to evil and call it "education," "inclusivity," "tolerance," "entertainment" or "fun."

We're called to STAND against evil with boldness and truth, with the power and authority we're given through Christ.

Brave troops didn't die for our freedoms so we could partner with Authoritarians.

And Jesus didn't sacrifice his life for our sins so we could partner with Satan.

Churches need to stop pushing compliant, conformist Christianity and start preaching courageous Christianity. The future of America depends on it."
