The "no religion" crowd is, of course, completely full of it. Wokeness is a religion. Progressivism is a religion. Blind, buffoonish faith in science is a religion. A key difference is that these zealots don't believe in grace or forgiveness of sins—only retribution.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Greetings Brothers and Sisters of the Most High King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am enheartened by so many of you in that you straight forwardly keep the Faith and you continue to stand up with the Everlasting Word. Yes, there are some who live by fear, but many more are coming out of that state of mind into the Spirit and thinking much differently than the average person. Faith is our substance of things hoped for. Hebrews 11:1

We are starting a New Year 2022. In many ways, I cannot say happy New Year because God has allowed our enemy to control us. Some would say, "Poor Israel." But it is because of Anglo-Israel's disobedience that our people are getting the just Divine spanking they deserve. Remember that who God loveth He chasteneth. So, just remember that if He didn't love us we would be ignored instead of being spanked so in that sense it will be a happy New Year!

Our misery will continue until we get our Spiritual act together. We have earned Divine retribution due to Israel's whoring after other gods and their baalistic ideologies that we shall not escape until we humble ourselves, truly repent, and do a 2 Chronicles 7:14 form of national repentance.

We are to live by every Word that proceeds from God Almighty's Holy Script. Our Covenant journey is paved with numerous Divine rhythms which point the way we must venture. We are not on a worldly trip; we are on a Spiritual Destiny that is Divinely directed and purposed from the beginning. It is our Anglo-Israel mission.

We must strive to avoid the worldly path with all its pitfalls and keep our eyes on Jesus. It is our duty to follow the straight and narrow path. The world has some enormous and multitudinous obstacles that we are to stay away from and avoid at all costs. Again, these are pitfalls and if we are going the wrong direction they will swallow us up or drag us into more and more sin and conflicts. The Bible tells us this:

1 John 2:15-16

<sup>15</sup> Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

<sup>16</sup> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

Yes, it is red santa time again. I will remind you, that if we rearrange those letters they spell, "red satan." This is a pagan holiday that has nothing to do with Christ. It is a pagan Holy day in their celebration of red santa or red satan. I challenge all of you who say you are celebrating Christ's birth to celebrate your own birthday in the same manner. Hold your celebration three month's late and make sure everyone gets a gift but you!

The world embraces all the paganism of Christmas. Xmas trees, gift giving, red stockings, reindeer, elves, and lying. Parents lie to their children and tell them that red santa is keeping records and is capable of going all over the world distributing gifts throughout the world. This BIG LIE IS BEHIND IT ALL AND IS A MAN CREATED FALSE IMAGE OF IDOLATRY. One of the main things used to get people to celebrate this pagan holiday is the smile upon childrens' faces. There are innocent toys, games, and stories, but there are many deceptions used to lure children away in fantasies which will then be used to color their outlook on life. Children for the most part do not know how to say “no” with loving truth and many thus deceived adults do not know the dangers behind untamed desires. But children want at all costs their toys and desires of their heart and they are experts in manipulating their parents into giving them. Sadly, many parents go into debt to do just that.

The children are taught to care not what origin is behind the season or Biblical reasoning, in fact, if the truth were known, for the most part, Bible truth be damned if it dares interfere with their wants and desires. Most parents just give in and ignore the repercussions that shall ensue, or especially why we must obey God even when it is inconvenient and marks us different.

Parents will justify their actions, saying, our children will put pressure on us, so we’ll just go along to get along. Besides, it is fun, and we are justifying this celebration in making Jesus the reason for this season. Really?

Well perhaps to many of you, I am barking up a tree that will never see the light of day. Perhaps, but I am fully persuaded that the Lord Jesus Christ is highly honored by my presenting such truth and though I will be ignored by many, He does not ignore my efforts. I am not called to be man-pleaser, but I am called to preach and teach the truth and not adhere to the masses. Again, the world loves red santa, christmas trees, worldly presents, all the celebrations and so forth, but NOT the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word. Christmas has not turned the world into Christians but it has made them gluttonous luses with grandstanding idolatry. No matter how hard Christians try to make Christmas about Christ they need to face the truth that it is NOT about Christ. Some will say, “But I will be hated and despised.” No kidding. Did Jesus tells us in John 15:18:

If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

James 4:4

Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

Romans 12:2

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

World Respectability

I want to share with you a different issue that was recently on my mind. It has to do with worldly acceptance and admiration. I know this particular preacher in our area that is loved by many. But I thought, Dave, should you be like him, and then quickly it came to me, no, you are Biblically to be a Separatist. You are not to be mean, but you do have Biblical boundaries and obligations. Are we to make ourselves worldly appealing? To many, this is a great question, because some are under the wrong assumption that the more endearing we are to the world, the more loving and looked up to we will be. First of all, the Bible states:

Colossians 3:2

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

Ephesians 5:11

And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove (OR EXPOSE) them.

Matthew 16:25-26

<sup>25</sup> For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Matthew 6:24

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Also, in further consideration, we are to be mindful of who we are and that we are HIS called out and chosen. So, we are to be Separatists, His Separated Covenant people as our Pilgrim forefathers looked upon themselves.

Again, we are not to be mean spirited or hateful without Biblical cause. We are not, at the same time to be open vessels to the world showing them that we can go along with any ideology. We do have Biblical guidelines and boundaries and we must make right choices. We are to be Biblically steadfast. Puritanical to the degree that we maintain our Biblical identity and values. We are not to be worldly acceptable. There are Biblical values we must never compromise. For instance, at Christmas time, the world will gladly hoop and holler with the Christians making little distinction.

For instance, our Churches are to be a place of holiness. We are not to allow just any sinner into our midst without asking some serious questions. We are not to allow murderers, sodomites, practicing adulterers, fornicators, or any unrepentant White Israelites into the sanctuary. We, of course, are not to mix or mingle the church (meaning true Israel) with those outside our racial kindred. We are to keep our race pure and be pursuers of righteousness.

My point is that we are not to be all things to this world, but all things unto our Lord Jesus Christ and His Kingdom Principles. Today, as an example, the world is drawing many into its corrupt values and away from Biblical absolutes. In order for things to change for the better, it takes Biblical determination, faith, and righteousness, along with a life of Biblical direction and instruction.

Exodus 33:16

For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

There is no question in my mind that our blessed Lord Jesus takes a dim view of an ungodly churchy world and worldly churches.

2 Corinthians 6:17-18

<sup>17</sup> Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

<sup>18</sup> And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

The mandate of 2 Corinthians 6:17 to “Come out from among them and be ye separate,” has never been abrogated.

Revelation 18:4

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

Some youth have had the Biblical principles of holiness and separation instilled in them over the years. They are far more devout than young worldly derelicts, even those from so-called evangelical churches.

1 Peter 2:9-11

<sup>9</sup> But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

Ezra 10:11-14

11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do . . .

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

A Segment of Jewish History

The following bit of history is taken from the book A History of the Narronos, by Jewish author Cecil Roth (The Jewish Publication Society of America, 1932). It deals with Lord Oliver Cromwell and Jewish affairs few are aware of and why. This section will be taken from page 263.

"On November 3, 1634, they (Marrano Jewish merchants) appeared before Cromwell with a petition. The Protector (Lord Cromwell) received it benevolently; but it was rejected by the Council of State. Samuel Soeiro returned to Amsterdam to lay the matter before his father. The latter, though not yet fully recovered from his illness, was now no longer to be restrained; and, in September, 1655, he arrived in London. Here he was joined by a few Jews from other parts of Europe, such as Raphael Supino, of Leghorn.

Immediately on his arrival, he presented to the Lord Protector his Humble Addresses, which he had brought with him from Amsterdam; following it up with a further petition in which he requested in moving language the authorization of the Resettlement of the Jews. (In other words, LYING POMPOSITIES, AND EXAGGERATIONS).

"To consider the various aspects of this (I will add Talmudic venture) question, Cromwell convened a Conference of various notables—statesmen, lawyers, and theologians. They met at Whitehall on December 4, 7, 12, 14, and 18, 1655. (I will add, just imagine that group of baal priests). The lawyers gave it as their opinion (diatribe) that there was no statute which excluded the Jews from the country. Theological and mercantile interests however were either opposed to their readmission, or would only countenance it with such restrictions as to rob it of all attractiveness. (You see, they want in among us to rob, cheat, and steal. They were justifiably banished because of their usury practices, murder, adulteration, and many other Biblical crimes against humanity. We must remove them from our nations again. They hold no "attractiveness" for us. For blessings to flow they must be driven out.) By the close of the fifth session, Cromwell was convinced that the outcome of the conference would disappoint his expectations and be contrary to the best interests of the country (his opinion). He therefore dissolved the conference, after a speech of extraordinary vigor, before it came to any definite conclusion. It was now expected that he would make use of his prerogative and assent to the petition on his own authority. Month after month dragged on, and it became evident that this was not to be the case. Instead of formally authorizing the resettlement of the Jews, he preferred to connive (to cooperate secretly; conspire) at it; to all those persons already in the country, or who cared to follow them, to remain undisturbed, (John Hagee and company would be proud) without making any official (meaning secret) declaration on the subject. The little group of Marrano merchants (Jews) in London gave up hopes of anything more definitive. (Yet did they?) In the following Spring (March 24, 1655-6) they presented a further petition to Cromwell (Oh, I guess they kept pushing) asking simply that they might (old English) "meete at ovr said private devotions (You can bet they were Talmudic) in ovr particular houses without feere of molestation" and establish a cemetery (They sure want to dig their way in) "in such place out of the cittye as wee shall thinche convenient." This was granted..."

This bit of history my friends is very, very little known by the uncaring majority. Cromwell allowed the Jews into England, supposedly allowing those already in the country to thrive and continue to carry out their Talmudic ways. It falls within the Plot Against Christianity. The Christian Bible forbids these Talmudic Jews living among the Anglo-Israelites of the true lineage of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

True Israel was commanded by King Jesus to destroy these baal Babylonian Edomites and such enemies and not dare allow them into their country. They are among us today because Israel has opened their doors time after time to their enemy and these enemies have continued to make Israel smaller and more degenerate to the point we find ourselves at our breaking point.

But King Jesus Has a Way to Deliver His People, and it is the Kingdom!

One Last Bit of Information

I want to get off my mind and it has to do with the Spiritual decline, thinking, and behavior of some people. I do get from time to time reports by various people about differing types of actions and behavior they bring upon themselves. We all have problems and difficulties that we have to deal with and hopefully Biblically overcome. Be they financial, job, spouse/marriage, family, health, moral, worldly difficulties, you name it.

As an example, I remember Martha and I were with Pastor Emry and his wife, Elaine, at some restaurant in the Phoenix area and having a pleasant conversation on several items of interest, when we were just about finished and ready to leave, a man and his wife came up to our table and were outraged because Pastor Emry had not gone over to them and said hello to them. None of us had even noticed that this couple was in the same restaurant as we were.

Instead of assuming that we did not see them, this man was livid, imagining and conjuring up all sort of weird motivation as to why he believed Pastor Emry ignored he and his wife. We certainly apologized and Pastor Emry let him know that there certainly was no ill will or motive, it was clearly a misfortunate occurrence.

But guess what? This man would not let this matter drop. He went back to his house and wrote hate letter after hate letter over a year's period of time. We did eventually find out from other people that this man carried on this way with many other people.

My point in this is, there are some very strange characters at large in many areas including churches (of all kinds) who carry with them some very unbiblical forms of behavior and they certainly can have a negative effect on others. The Bible says for instance in this slightly altered verse, to add more clarity and meaning than that of the King James Bible:

“Brothers, I could not address you as spiritual but as worldly—mere infants in Christ. I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready. You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere men?”

1 Corinthians 3:1–3

Titus 2:12

Instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age,

1 Peter 1:14-16

As obedient children, do not be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your ignorance, but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; because it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

My point in what I am sharing with you is, let us all adhere to the precepts of the Holy Bible. Let us not allow ourselves to veer off course and behave in some fashion as animals hurting one another. Let us behave and endear others to behave righteously.

As an example, if you are called something ungodly do not respond in like manner, and simply walk away. Do your best to avoid trouble and troubling people. Do not go to or hang around bars or troubling areas. Do not become easily offended. Do not look for trouble or stir-up things. Be a source of godliness and Biblical answers. Do your best to, well, I believe this Bible verse will put many things into perspective:

Galatians 6:10

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

Children, Dogs, and the Master's Table

By Phillip Humber

“Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coast of Tyre and Sidon. And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.” Matthew 15:21-28

An honest and truthful examination of this passage of Scripture definitely turns today's modern Judeo-Christian theology upside down. Because of the desensitization of our own people over time, today's so-called Christian theology teaches that all races have equal standing before God, and that all one has to do, regardless of who they may be, is to reach out to Him in faith and He will hear and respond. This tenet of modern Christianity is in error in its theology. The races of earth are different. The Creator Yahweh made us so. According to Bible chronology Adam and Eve would be a bit over 6,000 years old now. But man has been on the earth long before Adam. We are different and there is nothing wrong with that. The Great Creator made us and everything else for His own purpose and glory. And regardless of whether we like it or not He does things His way.

It is common knowledge among those who actually study the Scriptures that during Christ's ministry on earth He healed many sick and mentally ill people. It is interesting to note that much of the time when He healed it was by the request of others. In the above passage we find a non-Israelite woman reaching out to Jesus in faith for the healing of her daughter, but He ignored her! Now she was apparently reaching out to Him in faith just as we are taught by our modern theology, and I imagine she was consumed with painful anxiety over her daughter, so why did He initially ignore her and not respond to her cry for help? This definitely does not fit today's false concept of the love of Jesus.

He answers this question Himself when He told His disciples that He was “not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” So, this woman was obviously not a lost sheep of the House of Israel. Therefore, His reasoning for not responding to her cry for help was in fact racial in nature.

After worshipping and persistently begging Him He finally tells her His reason why He did not respond to her cry for help. His reply was, “it is not meet [proper] to take the children's [Israelites] bread and cast it to dogs” [non-Israelites].

In His symbolic speech, He speaks of non-Israelites as dogs! Anyone else in our day and age speaking in this manner would instantly be labeled as a racist and looked at as some sort of hater! I do believe this remark by Christ is undoubtedly racial in nature, but I am also certain that it is not in any way motivated by any form of unrighteousness or ungodliness. So, to think evil of Him because we have been brainwashed into thinking a certain way is foolishness! I have recently heard of a young idiot on the internet comment on this passage. To begin with this young foolish blasphemer claims to be a pastor and that Jesus confessed his sin of racism and repented. May Yahweh break his teeth in his mouth for his abominable blasphemy! Although I am not surprised that today's mentality is trying to cancel Jesus! The world has always hated Him! Darkness always hates light and Jesus Christ was sinless while He walked this earth in the flesh!

Even after this racial remark the woman's faith did not waver! She even said that it was “truth” that it was not proper to give the dogs the children's bread. Yet she knew in her heart that Jesus could heal her daughter so she answered His remark by saying that even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from the master's table [the master of the table is Christ, the children who sit at it are Israel]. She knew without doubt that she was asking for something that was meant only for Israelites but her love and concern for her daughter compelled her! Just because she was not an Israelite does not mean she was not able to have a great love and care for her child.

In the end, because of her great faith and persistence, Jesus extends His mercy and grants her request just as she desired. But just because He extends His mercy toward her didn't change the fact that He came only for the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and it's not suitable or proper to give the children's bread to the dogs. Now, this does not mean that other races [dogs] cannot obtain grace and mercy from the Lord but according to this passage of Scripture it takes great faith and persistence for a dog to get a crumb from the Master's table.

“Give not that which is holy [set apart] to the dogs.”
Matthew 7:6

Resurgence

By Pastor Kevyn Reid

The act or fact of rising again. I recently listened to Pastor Barley's latest sermon (Our Awakening DVD 429 or CD 1127 free for the asking or at our website) concerning a state of awakening. I thought it was very necessary to follow up on his ideas and statements in the light of a new year, 2022. I would like for you to think of the end of the year as a symbol of the past life we have had, and the new one we all have to walk as Christians. The state of the dead is described and defined to us in dozens of ways in dozens of Scriptures throughout the Bible. Most often it is referred to as a state of sleep, where nothing more is thought about and memories are no more.

Ecclesiastes 9:5

For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

The dead know not anything. The walking dead are here among us, though living, they are, in fact, sleepwalking. They are those without the Kingdom or at least the hope of such a Kingdom, one that is promised by our Lord Jesus, Himself.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour."

John 12:24-26 (KJV)

This is a Kingdom parable given by Jesus in the Book of John. In this narrative, Jesus is linking a process of death and resurrection with the bearing of fruit in the Kingdom. He is illustrating that a state of death must take place before the bearing of fruit. This is a must for any Christian who wishes to be brought into the Kingdom as a faithful servant. The mission given to us all as disciples of our Lord is that of total service to Him. As a pastor, I must always keep in mind that I am a servant first and foremost, to both our Lord and Savior and His people.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. Ecclesiastes 12:13

In order to be a Christian witness and to be completely humbled and ready to serve, we must die, pass away from our old state of being, and then rise again under the ensign of his Kingdom, and be ready to serve Him in the capacity He has called us to and called us for. Each of us can remember a time of deep sleep that was once upon us. A time of being bodies that contained the bones of a dead man, a man with no hope, and no memory except for the miseries that were all around us and the ensuing calamities that were endlessly occurring. No way out of it; no way to be shaken out of the bad dream. What we all had was an awakening. An awakening to the Kingdom and the glorious promise of the resurrection at this end of this age. We were given purpose and life. God indeed breathed the breath of life into us at that moment just as he did Adam.

Since we are awake and alive...what now? As we shed away the remnants of this past year, let us step forward together, not to just live, but to be ALIVE. I urge us all to close the door on the troubles and sorrows of the past even the past year and open a door of hope instead. Pray for the willingness to be a servant in the Father's kingdom, and allow Him to guide you. I don't know about you, but the best news I have ever had is that of the Kingdom and promises made to us by Jesus Himself. You hear about it every time you visit a Kingdom church and you can read about it on every page of your Bible. I am excited to show the world just how awake I am, how about you? There are many of us that have been shaken out of the deep sleep of Babylon, her armies have lulled the world into a slumber with soothing lies and whispers of confidence in her systems of control.

You are awake. You are alive. There is a Kingdom at hand and lots of work to be done. Our friends and families are asleep. Let us go wake them.

“The reason people awaken is because they have finally stopped agreeing to things that insult their soul.” Anonymous

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Matthew 5:14

Report: Pfizer and Moderna Vax Injuries and Deaths are Concentrated in 5% of Certain Vaccine Lots

<https://dailyexpose.uk/2021/12/16/how-bad-is-my-covid-19-vaccine-batch/>

An investigation of data found in the USA's Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) has revealed that extremely high numbers of adverse reactions and deaths have been reported against specific lot numbers of the Covid-19 vaccines several times, meaning deadly batches of the experimental injections have now been identified.

Now, Craig-Paardekooper has created an online app that we have chosen to host at The Expose, allowing you to search for the batch code of Covid-19 vaccine that you received (or any batch code) and see how many deaths, adverse reactions, disabilities, and hospitalizations, are associated with that code. Scientists compared variability between Flu vaccine lots with variability between Covid vaccine lots, and were shocked to find EXCESSIVE and HIGHLY UNUSUAL degree of variation between different lots of the Covid vaccines.

When 22,000 flu vaccine lots were examined, almost all of them produced 5 or fewer severe adverse reactions per lot. Only 2 lots exceeded this (22 SAEs and 37 SAEs). When the same number of Covid vaccines were compared, there was found to be huge variation – with many lots producing 5 or fewer severe adverse reactions, but many others producing 1000-5000 severe adverse reactions.

So the coefficient of variation for Covid vaccines is 1000% – compared to the coefficient of variation for flu vaccines (which is 99%). In other words, Covid vaccines vary 10 times more than flu vaccines. Under FDA regulations, such high variation between different lots and between different manufacturers means the drugs are ADULTERATED, and carries significant legal penalties. Such variation may also negate EUA authorization – which is only granted based on consistency of the product. To find out how bad is your batch go to: <https://dailyexpose.uk/2021/12/16/how-bad-is-my-covid-19-vaccine-batch/>

The Lancet Scolds Those Claiming “Pandemic of The Unvaccinated”

By Tyler Durden December 15, 2021 - 04:07 AM

<https://www.zerohedge.com/covid-19/lancet-scolds-those-claiming-pandemic-unvaccinated>

Long before the vast majority of Omicron cases were among the vaccinated, and before CDC Director Rochelle Walensky admitted in early October that the Covid-19 vaccine does not prevent transmission, public officials, MSM pundits, and coffee shop doctors across the land were spouting insidious propaganda designed to shame people into taking the jab. That this is a 'pandemic of the unvaccinated.'

The phrase implies that the vaccine was a panacea against Covid-19, and anyone who refused to take it wasn't just part of the problem... but an irresponsible idiot who doesn't follow the science.

In a late November note, The Lancet (England's premier medical journal) published a letter from Günter Kampf, a prolific researcher at the University of Griefswald in Germany. In it, Kampf absolutely excoriates those calling this a "pandemic of the unvaccinated," amid "increasing evidence that vaccinated individuals continue to have a relevant role in transmission."

In the USA and Germany, high-level officials have used the term pandemic of the unvaccinated, suggesting that people who have been vaccinated are not relevant in the epidemiology of COVID-19. Officials' use of this phrase might have encouraged one scientist to claim that “the unvaccinated threaten the vaccinated for COVID-19”. But this view is far too simple. There is increasing evidence that vaccinated individuals continue to have a relevant role in transmission. In Massachusetts, USA, a total of 469 new COVID-19 cases were detected during various events in July, 2021, and 346 (74%) of these cases were in people who were fully or partly vaccinated, 274 (79%) of whom were symptomatic. Cycle threshold values were similarly low between people who were fully vaccinated (median 22.8) and people who were unvaccinated, not fully vaccinated, or whose vaccination status was unknown (median 21.5), indicating a high viral load even among people who were fully vaccinated.

In the USA, a total of 10,262 COVID-19 cases were reported in vaccinated people by April 30, 2021, of whom 2,725 (26.6%) were asymptomatic, 995 (9.7%) were hospitalized, and 160 (1.6%) died. In Germany, 55.4% of symptomatic COVID-19 cases in patients aged 60 years or older were in fully vaccinated individuals, and this proportion is increasing each week. In Münster, Germany, new cases of COVID-19 occurred in at least 85 (22%) of 380 people who were fully vaccinated or who had recovered from COVID-19 and who attended a nightclub.

People who are vaccinated have a lower risk of severe disease but are still a relevant part of the pandemic. It is therefore wrong and dangerous to speak of a pandemic of the unvaccinated. Historically, both the USA and Germany have engendered negative experiences by stigmatizing parts of the population for their skin color or religion. I call on high-level officials and scientists to stop the inappropriate stigmatization of unvaccinated people, who include our patients, colleagues, and other fellow citizens, and to put extra effort into bringing society together.
