Plan now to attend our Annual Northwest Bible Conference on August 3 thru 5

Hey, consider this a family reunion! Start planning and saving now for this special event! If you have an extended family, please encourage them to come. There will be youth classes taught by our speakers. Our speakers are: J. V. Foster (San Antonio), Thomas Rolland (Dallas), Doug Evers (Wisconsin), Ernestine Young (Boise), Richard Kirsch (Washington), and Dave and Martha Barley.

The conference will begin on Friday at 10:00 a.m. It will probably conclude sometime late Sunday afternoon. We will have a Baptismal service (time and place to be announced), including the Lord's Supper on Saturday evening, along with some special teaching. By way if you have musical abilities and wish to bless us with your talents, please let us know, email us at: amprom@air-pipe.com. Our conference registration fee is zero. We do, however, rely on your tithes and donations to cover the various expenses and also bless the speakers with their expenses.

DO I RECOMMEND THE MOVIE THRIVE: "What On Earth Will It Take?"

Answer: Yes, with some hesitation.

The movie is NOT Christian or Biblically motivated or directed in the slightest. However, I do think mature Bible students should watch this movie, because you can use this as a tool to help awaken others. THRIVE does a good job of exposing principle areas of the New World Order, especially with regard to the criminal banking system, the pharmaceutical dynasty, GMO (genetically modified organism), and surprisingly, it does expose many of the main players within the Illuminati. The solutions they present though are mostly New Age, and humanistic in the manner of “can’t we just all get along, love one another, and be good socialists?” This movie totally ignores the corruption of sodomy, race-mixing, adultery, fornication, idolatry, or any Biblical direction or reasoning. If this movie would have addressed these issues from a Biblical perspective for the advancement of the Kingdom of God, then we would have something to really unite around. ~ Pastor Barley

Here is the web-link for the movie. It is free to watch, but it is rather lengthy, around 2 hours and 12 minutes long. Please let me know what you think if you watch it:

You can watch the movie at any time, resuming from where you last left off, at the following link:

HEBREWS

(Part Six) by Pastor Barley

Hebrews 4:14-16

¹⁴ Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

¹⁵ For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

¹⁶ Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

We are beginning this section with a verse from Hebrews 4 because it acts as a prelude to Chapter 5. Some of us do not know that we need mercy, but the writer of Hebrews acknowledges that all of us do. Some of us may think that we have arrived, that we are Christians, we understand the Israel message, we know God's law, but I think that sometimes we forget that we, ourselves, need mercy. We have all sinned and fall fallen short of the glory of God.

Also, understand that we have a Savior and a Redeemer, a High Priest, that we can approach – Jesus Christ. There are those who believe that we cannot approach Jesus Christ – He is not to be approached because we are such sinners and unworthy. When we look into this, we find that we cannot live our lives without sin. That gives me boldness to go before the throne of God. I do not want to go before the throne of some mere man who lives a life of sin and is bound by its destructive forces. Jesus Christ led a sinless life, PRAISE HIM FOR THIS!

He also led a life like unto us. Like unto man. He knows the temptations and the problems that we have. He knows the difficulties that we face day in and day out, whatever they may be. He knows our doubts, frustrations, concerns about government, and the future because He experienced all of these human frailties Himself, and He overcame all these frailties of the flesh. These are keys to the Kingdom that are examples that we are to follow and pray for. They are not evil works that detract from His Grace, but are righteous ensamples of purposeful Grace that Christ lived so we might build upon the Kingdom of God that the glory of the Lord will shine forth. He is our example of how to be a Son of God!

So let us go boldly before His throne knowing that He will understand our concerns. We all have concerns, and sometimes we forget that we need to go before His throne (meaning His Majesty, His Presence, His Authority) more often than we have been. Have we been holding a lot of anger, resentment, bitterness, trouble, and confusion on the inside and not gone before His throne to plead our case, and be changed by His Presence?

Psalms 100:1-2

² Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

[Note: “ALL YE LANDS,” clearly all the earth, all lands (which includes all people) will one day, in the fullness of the coming Kingdom of God praise Yahweh.]

Psalms 68:3-4

³ But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

⁴ Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

[Note: Singing praises unto His name brings you unto His Presence. While some believe that only one particular “sacred name” alone is the code whereby we enter His Presence, are missing the point that Christians are called by His name that He sovereignly orchestrated and established for many centuries, the name of Jesus Christ. A name given unto Christians, not the Jews. The name JAH is more correctly spelled YH, as there were no vowels in the Hebrew language. Yahweh, is not entirely a correct spelling either for the same reason. Also, there are a variety of possible spellings and pronunciations of YHWH, the Hebrew name of God Almighty. Being perfect in His Name is not the overriding issue. The greater issue is, having a clean heart of worship and praise that can only happen through the leading of the Holy Spirit.]

It matters not what troubles us, we need to remember that He is there to help us in time of need. We can obtain mercy. You may not be having problems right now, but there will come a time when you will need to go before YHWH, who came as Jesus Christ the Anointed One, for the solution. There will be something that you cannot overcome – something that will be insurmountable to you. You never know when it will come, and often it comes when we least expect it or are prepared for it. Turning to or depending upon man is an ill advised course of action, man seeking the Creator, the Great I AM, is the optimum path.

Think about His mercy. We need His mercy, and He has given us mercy. If He has given us mercy, then we should think about extending that mercy to our fellow man as well. Give and it shall be given unto you (Luke 6:38).

THE MANIFESTATION OF THE SONS OF GOD

Chapter 5 deals with the manifestation of the sons of God. I pray that our heavenly Father will extend His mercy and grant me the understanding and capability to present it properly to you. Let us begin by reading verse one. I like to find as many details of Scripture as possible because when I do, these details unlock doors; they are keys to understanding His Word. When we unlock these doors, we have more freedom, more liberty, more understanding, spiritual light, and truth.

Hebrews 5:1

¹ For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:...

This verse gives the duties of the high priest in a nutshell. Priests are appointed by God on the behalf of men in things pertaining to God. The last half of this verse tells us that he (the high priest) may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. These priests are appointed by YHWH to minister the things of God for sin or because of sin, and what is required in this procedure? Atonement. Think about this. What does atonement mean to you? I am not sure what words you would use to describe atonement, but “compassion” and “love” are words that come to my mind. Strong’s Dictionary gives the definition as “to cover; figuratively to condone or placate.” The Hebrew word for “atonement is “kaphar.”

The King James translators translated that Hebrew word (kaphar) in various ways – as appease, forgive, be merciful, pardon, and reconcile. As we continue reading in these verses, a very important question is asked concerning mercy:

Hebrews 5:2

² Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

The high priest of Israel offered atonement for the nation of Israel. But they also had to make atonement for themselves. They had to understand that they were not above the law. They too sinned and were in need of atonement. So they offered atonement for themselves and for the nation. All Adamites needed atonement – “as in Adam all die, so shall in Christ shall all be made alive.”

The essentials of the High Priest’s office are found in Christ. I do not believe that many who lived during the time of the Old Testament understood this. I believe that David did, that Aaron did in part, and perhaps the other High Priests understood this in part, but the essentials of the High Priest are found in Christ. Christ had, and manifested all the qualities of a High Priest. The priests under the Old Covenant mainly went through rituals in the exercise of their duties. They did not seek the leading of the Holy Spirit or manifest much in the way of heart change spiritual awareness as given in Ephesians 5:29-32.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.

COMPASSION FOR THE IGNORANT

The Bible tells us that we are to be priests and kings of the Most High God. It is very important for us to understand that, and this means moving beyond “self” and developing a greater care for the Kingdom of God. We are called unto a holy calling, and this includes being intercessors for the nation and this requires us having compassion for this creation that is in the “bondage of corruption.” Look again at Hebrews 5, verse 2 – it says to have “compassion on the ignorant and on them who are out of the way.” Well, in this regard let’s read what the book of Numbers tells us:

Numbers 15:22

22 And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

Notice that the priests were to make atonement for those who sinned in ignorance, and when the offering was made, the priests made atonement for the entire congregation and the stranger that lived among them seeing that “all the people were in ignorance.” The Apostle Paul gets into this in Romans because all of creation needs something to transpire within this world. Jesus Christ came to bring about this change to all creation because all of creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly (Romans 8:20). Think about it. The creation was made or forced to be subject to vanity. But the glory few Christians realize is that, by and through the glorious atonement of Jesus Christ our Savior and Redeemer upon the cross, we now have amazing grace and forgiveness. Look at what Paul says in the following verse:

1 Timothy 1:12

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

This is the essence of what we were reading in the book of Numbers. Many of us have sinned ignorantly, we have done things in unbelief, or we have done things because we are unaware of the facts or of the truth. Paul writes from that perspective, and he tells us that he did things in ignorance. He was a blasphemer, a persecutor and injurious to others. But, he obtained mercy.

Many of us can say that we have felt that mercy. We understand Paul’s thankfulness for Christ’s mercy being extended, because we all need His mercy.

1 Timothy 1:14-16

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

Paul's ministry was a miraculous ministry because Paul reached out to the lost. Think about where we would be if he had "just got saved" and then sat and did nothing in some spiritual zone and not gone unto the gentitized lost sheep of the House of Israel with the good news of their redemption? He presented the divorced House of Israel with the Light of Jesus Christ, showing them that they now had mercy and amazing Grace. Keep in mind that this mercy was not available to the Israelites of old. This change is what the body of Christ needs to understand and embrace. Change that makes a life changing difference. This change is what the Kingdom of God is all about. Remember, Jesus said: "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy."

Let us go back to Isaiah.

Isaiah 61:1

1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

Is this not what Jesus read when He was in the temple? He read these very words.

² To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

When we read Jesus' words, He did not include the words of vengeance in His sermon. Below are the very words Jesus spoke:

Luke 4:18-19

¹⁸ The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

¹⁹ To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

Remember that we are reading about comforting all that mourn. But this does not mean that Christ will not bring judgment and a cleansing. When the Holy Spirit comes into your life, a change comes over you. The Spirit of Christ wants to remove the impurities within our lives. He wants to remove those things that are at enmity with Him and His Kingdom. He wants to remove those attitudes and actions that are blocking this special relationship that we are to have with Jesus Christ with the intent of setting us free.

Isaiah 61:3

³ To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

Hallelujah! That is it in a nutshell. If I could get you to understand anything, this is what life is to be like. This is the reality that the world does not see or understand. I hope that you see and understand it. We are to be called the trees of righteousness, we are to be planted by the Lord Jesus Christ that He might be glorified. That all of creation would glorify the Creator in Kingdom living is the purpose of Creation.

We are to be planted like this mustard seed that grows up into this marvelous tree, steadfast in faith, incorruptible (where the world can no longer corrupt us) in Jesus Christ. Trees of righteousness where those creatures in bondage can come to the Body of Christ and partake of the Truth that will set them free. We are to freely give them the fruit of Christ. The fruit of Christ is what this world needs. The fruit of Christ is what Adam and Eve did not receive in the Garden of Eden. The fruit of Christ makes the difference because without it we have just what we have today – a lot of waste places. As we continue in Isaiah 61, this is what verse 4 gets into.

⁴ And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

⁵ And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

⁶ But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles [nations], and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

Do you realize the importance and impact of that promise? This is a tremendous understanding that He gives us. We are going to be called the Priests of the Lord Jesus Christ, which means, ministers of Christ or disciples of Christ. If we are going to be called the Priests of Christ, then that means we will have certain duties and responsibilities that will be required of us. But before we can be appointed to this position of responsibility, we must go through the humbling and recognition that “It is me Lord, standing here in need of your mercy. I want to understand your mercy and feel your compassion so that I understand how to pass it along to others.”

Through this act of mercy and Grace we are given understanding. Think of Christians you know, do you think of compassion? Do you think of people with mercy and forgiveness? People who reach out beyond themselves pointing the way to righteousness? Christians can be very disappointing at times, can they not?

Look beyond yourself into the greatness and grandeur of the resurrected Christ. This is a very deep subject, but it is essential that we understand that we are nothing without His Grace and mercy, and why it is most essential that we have God’s love within our hearts. And let me quickly add, not so that we become blind to the corruption and “love the problem away,” but that we are moved to implement the principles of repentance and restoration.

KING OF SALEM VS THE KING OF SODOM

Our flesh may give up on someone, but that does not mean that Jesus Christ will give up on them. While we are unable to change a person because that takes a work and an act of Holy Spirit, we can pray for that individual that the Holy Spirit will change that person that they may image the Christ, meaning to put on the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the calling for all of God’s priests. Priests were required to interceded for the nation of Israel, but remember, they also did some self-examination before they ever went in to offer up atonement for the nation of Israel. They did so, to get their heart right, or in right standing before the Lord.

This makes a balanced Christian. As we get into this, you are going to see that this is balanced office that we are talking about leading up to an office of Melchisedec, which is both priest and king.

Genesis 14:14

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine [communion]: and he was the priest of the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

So Melchizedek comes before Abraham, he pronounces a blessing upon him, he performs the office of a priest to Abraham. What does Abraham do? He gives him tithes of all. But notice in the following verse that Abraham refuses to take even a “shoelatchet” from the corrupt king of Sodom. All good righteous loving Americans should apply this principle to the system of Mystery Babylon that possesses our beloved nation today.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

I find it interesting that the king of Sodom was also involved in this scenario. The king of Sodom had conditions – the world has conditions. World leaders from the beginning of time have had conditions. They come with a false form of peace, but secretly they desire war. Melchizedek came with a true and righteous form of peace that takes spiritual understanding to grasp. However, the king of Sodom came, and he wanted persons. He had trickery in his thoughts as he came to Abraham. But Abraham recognized his trickery and refused to take from the king even so much as a shoelatchet.

That is one of the attributes that is really needed among the sons of God today – to have an understanding of what is happening in our world. When we come presenting peace, we are not to present the type of peace that this world offers. We come presenting a peace that is based upon the righteousness of Jesus Christ, and the world rejects that righteousness every time because they do not want to be involved in that form of government. It is the kingdom of God that is to be established upon this earth. It is the kingdom of God that you and I are to be a part of and to exalt, seek, and look forward to.

Jesus is not looking for the wealthy or the prideful, but the humble and repentant. Wealth usually diminishes the type of wisdom and understanding that Christ is looking for in His people. What is required is that we have the heart of a priest and a desire to be a part of God's divine order of the ages. To be a part of the change that must take place. Godly character can and will make a powerful change in our lives, but it will also do the same for others.

There is power in the name of Jesus Christ. Our enemies hate Christians because of that name, authority and standard of righteousness it represents. There is power in words, in understanding, in the spirit, power that we can have that will help us in tremendous ways as we grow as Christian people. A calling after the order of Melchizedek.

Turning again to Hebrews 5:5:

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

In Christ's suffering, He was consecrated to His eternal office. In the Psalms, we read the following:

Psalms 2:1-5

1 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

This is what the world is doing to the sons of God. We see the heathen raging and imagining a vain thing. They imagine a vain form of peace, a vain form of life, a vain form of war, a vain form of things that appeal to the mind of flesh. When we come along presenting the gospel of the kingdom message to them, they rage, and they say: “Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.” We see evidence of this in many nations of the world, like China, Africa, and even our so-called freedom loving U.S.A. They want to destroy any form of Christianity whatsoever. Christianity and the gospel of Christ is a threat to them.

I find it interesting that on the news many months ago a gunman entered a Baptist Church and began killing Christians. Then we had the murderous incident at Columbine High School where they targeted Christians. Didn't Jesus tell us that they would hate us and try to kill us?

THE NATURE OF THE ENEMY

Why do they hate us? Because we represent an order and arrangement that is totally foreign to their nature and understanding. Do you think things would be different if Christians were in charge today; if God-fearing, God's law-abiding Christians were in Congress, Judicial posts, and in the office of President, do you think there would be a difference in our nation? I am NOT talking about Judeo-Christianity that is contradiction of terms and purposes. One blatantly antichrist (Judaism) and the other (Christian) for Christ and His Kingdom. I am talking about the Body of Christ that is led and guided by the Word of God. You bet there would be a tremendous change within this nation. Do you think that our enemies fear this? They most certainly do. Any time you have Christians coming forward presenting the truth of God's Word, you hear the heathen rage.

When you mention that the White Anglo, Celto-Saxon people are the true racial Israelites, you hear the heathen rage even louder. Why is that? It is because we have an understanding of who we are and what our responsibilities are as God's covenant people. We have a deeper understanding of our calling and purposes because we seek the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness. In other words, we seek our rightful inheritance as the following verse explains:

Hebrews 5:8

⁸ Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Why? So that we might control them? Certainly not, but that we might “BE A LIGHT UNTO THE NATIONS,” according to the Abrahamic Covenant. Do you think the heathen and the ungodly would like to be possessed by us today? Not at all, but what do they want to do? They seek to possess us, and they use and feed off the trickery and deceptive devices of the RED EDOMITE MONEY CHANGERS to gain power over us today. Anyone who has studied law and studied the different terms that attorneys’ use in the courtroom, such as the word “subject” has a special meaning because the courts consider us their subjects. Or, if you delve into it even more deeply you find that there is a legalistic and economic language that they also have us subject to. We are in bondage to our Babylon’s judicial system, economic system, health system, and educational system, that have all been infiltrated from an enemy that most church denominations align themselves with and identify themselves with, in the term “JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY.” But as long as their false shepherds keep telling those “WHO LOVE TO HAVE IT SO,” that the Jews are God’s true Covenant people and that we must put aside all evidence, reason, logic, and Biblical understanding to the contrary, this lie will continue and Christianity will remain endangered by the very people they praise and defend at all costs. If Christians would seriously look at the fruit of Talmudic Babylonian Judaism, and they judged this beast system by its actual crop, they would find the forbidden fruit of CORRUPTION. The barren fruit of TARES who are lifting their heads on the dollars and blind support of Judeo-Christians. We are all suffering from this BONDAGE OF CORRUPTION today.

Why do you think we have so much less power today? So much less freedom and liberty in practically every area and facet of our lives, including, to some degree, even spiritual power today? It is because of our Biblical ignorance and lack of righteous resolve, believing that we are not God called, that we are not His servant people, and therefore we are not worthy; we are not ready to take possession, and be the Lights of the world that Christ has called us to be. Oh, there are those whose flesh is continually pumped up to go out with fleshly armor and guns and wage a physical war against the enemy. But are they ready spiritually and mentally to rule justly and righteously? Do we have the spiritual power to take possession or are we all hype and no substance? It takes a transformation of our heart, a transformation of our nature, a transformation of our character, a transformation of our minds in order for us to be ready to take possession.

Hebrews 5:9-10:

⁹ Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

¹⁰ Be wise now therefore, O ye kings:

...you kings who are reading this unique Bible study, listen up. be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

APPLY THE BIBLICAL TRUTH WE HAVE BEEN GIVEN

You hear it said that we are not supposed to judge; well, I am sorry folks, but that is not what our Scriptures tell us – it tells us to judge with righteous judgment. (John 7:24: *Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.) We are to be judges. Government has recently decreed that it will hold parents accountable for the acts of their children. However, then they do a doublespeak and tell us that we are not to Biblically discipline our children. Making those decisions to discipline your children requires you to make judgments all day long.

It sounds crazy and confusing, but it is Babylon we are talking about – and Babylon means “confusion.” Babylon is insanity driven and motivated. Babylon is the hell of Communism, and we have all ten planks of the Communist Manifesto alive, well, functioning and being taught in our government schools right here in this country. It is even in our churches. Red Communism is anti-Christ. Our educational system today is RED ANTI-CHRIST COMMUNISM!

Some months ago I heard on the news that there is a Christian church and Christian organizations back East that are sending out the call and thumbing their nose at the government by saying, “We do not care if you like it or not, we are telling our people and every Christian who hears our voice to take your children out of the public schools.” They are drawing the line. Do you feel the line being drawn today? Do you not see the tares raising their heads? I do. There has to be a difference? What is that difference? I believe the sons of God are revealing that difference. The sons of God understand that there has to be a difference between Christianity and heathenism – regardless of its religious or government ideology. That is what separatism is all about. What does the Bible tell us? “Don’t be unequally yoked together” and “have no fellowship with the ungodly.” (1 Cor. 10:20, 2 Cor. 6:14, Eph.5:11)

That admonition does not apply just religiously. It applies in all areas of our lives. If you want righteousness, light, and truth and to overcome the powers of darkness, then you are going to have to become involved in a very real way with what I am pointing out from the Word of God.

Hebrews 5:11-12

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Blessed are they that put their trust in Him. Kings of this earth are really void of compassion. They offer a false sense of peace, but they do not practice or project mercy and compassion. I would encourage all of you to examine in your minds what true peace is and what false peace is.

In our world today, there are more people on drugs, taking Ritalin and Prozac and other chemicals because they do not have peace within themselves. There is an unstable mental attitude prevailing today. And yet we have New Age groups, mainline Christian groups and various government “help” groups that are all calling, “Come to us, we will give you peace. We will free you up from all this hell and anxiety that Christianity is putting you today by their inhibiting your homosexual lifestyle, your violent behavior against your mate, the killing of your children, your immorality, and you killing your unborn child. We want to free you up from all this restraint.” Consequently, we have more killings, more shootings, more anger, disruption, and more “legal” and illegal drug abuse and self abusers.

Perversion is rampant on every side. Why do we have this anxiety and lack of stability among us today? Because people are not following the biblical way of peace. But there are priests after the order of Melchizedek who do know and follow the way of righteous peace. And this creation is groaning for the sons of God to be revealed. (Romans 8:19-21)

Melchizedek was a priest after this order:

Hebrews 5:6-10

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

KING AND PRIEST

Melchisedec was King of Salem (meaning PEACE). He was a true theocratic king because he was both king and priest. There you have a true theocratic king. No ordinary man can be both king and priest. It must be by Divine appointment. Remember when Saul was king, he did not wish to wait for Samuel, so he assumed the role of priest. God removed him from the throne because of this unlawful assumption.

Who alone qualifies for this Divine appointment? Jesus Christ, the son of God fully qualified for this office. He is both king and priest. It is through His power and resurrection that He will bring forth many sons unto glory. The Bible says that there will be a great manifestation of the sons of God. Divine government is going to be exercised. There is going to be great discernment that will be revealed within these sons of God. The sons of God will put into full practice the Divine command to “be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth.” Abraham and Melchisedec were putting this command into practice when they met together. There was a deep spiritual significance in that meeting between Abraham and Melchisedec. Think about that. And while you are thinking, remember that it all gets back to Jesus’ command to “seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you.”

There are those people who just want things to be given unto them. Well, that is not the biblical way. You are going to have to seek, and you are going to apply some effort, put some study in, you are going to have to go through the fire. On the other end of that refining and purging fire, you will come out a precious stone that has been tried and tested.

Remember the stones in the breastplate of the Urim and Thummim? Each represented a son of Jacob Israel, and they were precious stones. I believe that this “light,” as the Urim is said to have been, and the Thummim which represents “truth” have deep spiritual significance for us if we but understood it. The sons of God are all going to be used in a great way to bring about a transformation in this world and to establish the kingdom of God. The world out there does not want this light to shine upon its darkness.

Rothschilds Want Iran’s Banks

February 10, 2012, By Pete Papaherakles

Could gaining control of the Central Bank of the Islamic Republic of Iran (CBI) be one of the main reasons that Iran is being targeted by Western and Israeli powers? As tensions are building up for an unthinkable war with Iran, it is worth exploring Iran’s banking system compared to its U.S., British and Israeli counterparts.

Some researchers are pointing out that Iran is one of the only three countries left in the world whose central bank is not under Rothschild control. Before 9-11 there were reportedly seven: Afghanistan, Iraq, Sudan, Libya, Cuba, North Korea and Iran. By 2003, however, Afghanistan and Iraq were swallowed up by the Rothschild octopus, and by 2011 Sudan and Libya were also gone. In Libya, a Rothschild bank was established in Benghazi while the country was still at war.

Islam forbids the charging of interest, a major problem for the Rothschild banking system. Until a few hundred years ago, charging interest was also forbidden in the Christian world and was even punishable by death. It was considered exploitation and enslavement.

Since the Rothschilds took over the Bank of England around 1815, they have been expanding their banking control over all the countries of the world. Their method has been to get a country's corrupt politicians to accept massive loans, which they can never repay, and thus go into debt to the Rothschild banking powers. If a leader refuses to accept the loan, he is oftentimes either ousted or assassinated. And if that fails, invasions can follow, and a Rothschild usury-based bank is established.

The Rothschilds exert powerful influence over the world's major news agencies. By repetition, the masses are duped into believing horror stories about evil villains.

The Rothschilds control the Bank of England, the Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank, the IMF, the World Bank and the Bank of International Settlements.

Also they own most of the gold in the world as well as the London Gold Exchange, which sets the price of gold every day. It is said the family owns over half the wealth of the planet"estimated by Credit Suisse to be $231 trillion and is controlled by Evelyn Rothschild, the current head of the family.

Objective researchers content that Iran is not being demonized because they are a nuclear threat, just as the Taliban, Iraq's Saddam Hussein and Libya's Muammar Qaddafi were not a threat.

What then is the real reason? Is it the trillions to be made in oil profits, or the trillions in war profits? Is it to bankrupt the U.S. economy, or is it to start World War III? Is it to destroy Israel's enemies or to destroy the Iranian central bank so that no one is left to defy Rothschild money racket?

It might be any one of those reasons or, worse, it might be all of them.

Interesting Post by Santorium Supporter

By Adrian Murray, Ft. Worth, TX

“Having lost my preferred choice for a presidential candidate on Tuesday, I determined that after a suitable period of mourning and reflection the only viable option was to shake it off and begin the search anew, the presumptive, media-anointed frontrunner not being desirable or acceptable.

“Last night, as part of this Quixote-like quest, I ventured into the heretofore unexplored dimension of a Ron Paul rally and was witness to something that can only be described as all parts exhilarating, befuddling, encouraging, depressing, moving, maddening and, ultimately, inspiring. More on all that later.

“Over the years I have been to more political rallies, events, forums, roundtables, discussion groups, debates and whatever than I care to remember... Attending a Ron Paul campaign rally is a singularly unique experience. I have never seen anything like it before. Perhaps phenomenal is the word that comes closest in accuracy, not in the ordinary “awesome” sense, but in the other-worldly, spatiotemporal sense...The purpose of this piece is not to analyze Mr. Paul's specific policies, although my worldview does not coalesce with his on many fronts...

"I have spoken before a lot of groups in the last several years as we have all grappled with the seeming dissolution of our country... My point has been that the greatest issue facing the conservative cause is a demographical one, a lack of diversity that will shortly render the conservative message irrelevant. Where are the youth? I and others have asked. Where are the people of color? Why doesn't the conservative message resonate?

"The answer to where they are could be found last night at the Will Rogers Auditorium. Often at political events there is a sense of excitement, anticipation, a certain buzz in the audience while waiting for the main event. Excitement, anticipation, and buzz are weak and inadequate words to describe the pre-rally crowd last night. Energy is even inadequate. What undulated through the thousands who thronged outside before the doors opened last night was a kinetic power, the power of hope, the power of liberation, the power of anger at a system turned upside down, the power of liberation and, yes, the ultimate and emancipating power of freedom. You had to be there to understand it.

"Once inside, for the only time in my politically active life, I was transported to a world I had not seen before. There was enough energy in that room to power a skyscraper. The auditorium was a cauldron of American citizens who understand and have grasped the true nature of the tyranny which has befallen this nation, a conflagration, if you will, of passion and anger and joy and determination. This is where the fire starts this time. The eruption when Mr. Paul took the stage was deafening...

"Foreign policy, while a crucial element of any president's agenda, has slowly shifted from my center of attention to domestic policy, I having long come to the conclusion that the greatest threat to American freedom comes not from foreign governments, but from our own. Sadly, America has become one of the least free nations on earth. Increasingly, everything in our lives is being regulated by a faceless bureaucracy, to a degree that neither Orwell nor Huxley could have imagined...

“What exactly is our national security securing? Certainly not our liberty. We have been sacrificing ever larger chunks of our liberty to the gods of security for decades now and in the interests of securing our liberty have given it all away. “Go to an airport if you want to witness the loss of liberty in all its glorious humiliation...”

“This part of Mr. Paul’s message, if I have interpreted it correctly, is what resonates with me. All the other things pale in contrast to our becoming a nation of slaves.

“So what did I come away with last night? It can be captured in one picture. Before Mr. Paul was introduced, part of his family took the stage: his wife, one of his sons, a smattering of cousins, nieces, and nephews. That picture tells us all we need to know. They are us. They weren’t pulled from central casting, exquisitely coifed, and finely tailored, prepped and ready for the cameras. No. They are a family. They are us.

“Where personally do I go now? As I said, I have more internal debates than an outwardly sane person should admit. For over three years now, I have been looking for an army – an army to take on the anti-Americans, the Communists, the statist, the outright criminals running our government. An army of citizens fiercely devoted to liberty and the founding principles of America...

“The flame of liberty’s torch is no longer just slowly being extinguished. Each day brings new Executive Orders, new laws, new regulations, each more ominous than the last. Corruption in our government and our financial markets is rampant. The disease of dependency is infecting every layer of society. America is dying. We need an army of citizens, motivated and committed, to restore liberty in America, to breathe new life, new vibrancy into a nation on life support...“Which logically only leads to one question: “Is there a doctor in the house?”

“Which logically only leads to one answer:

“During times of deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act.” George Orwell, author of 1984

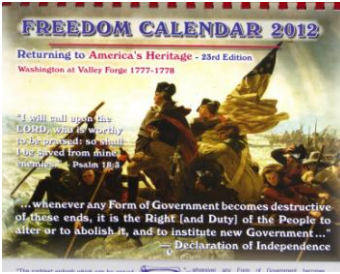

Prior to reading this post, I was reading about the large crowds that had turned out to hear Dr. Paul in California. According to some reports there were over 7,000 at UCLA (some say 10,000), 3,000 at U of C at Chico, and 4,000 at UC at Berkley, the most liberal university in the west. I WANT TO ENCOURAGE PEOPLE TO GO TO THESE RALLIES AND HAND OUT BILLIONS FOR THE BANKERS AND DEBTS FOR THE PEOPLE by our founder.
