Pastor Dave Barley

Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Hebrews 12:1-2

¹Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

² Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

I love the message presented in these verses from Hebrews, and, of course, we should not miss the fact (which most people conveniently ignore, that this book is clearly written unto the Adamic Israel people), but our blessed Redeemer, Jesus Christ, actually had JOY in being able to redeem His people Israel, the Hebrews. He loved His Hebrew people so much that not only did it take amazing love, but it also took joy. He loves us that much.

Many people want to focus on some vague understanding and application of "the world," as the only viable love that is Christ directed. Well, call me misguided and old fashioned in my Biblical understanding, but the New Testament is but a continuation of the Old Testament, and the Adamic Hebrew people of the Old Covenant are still the Called out and Chosen people of the New Testament. The world is going nowhere apart from this Divine calling upon Israel and Kingdom purpose.

Romans 9:4-5

⁴Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

⁵Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

Has the Israel Covenant message become a mere unfulfilled mission that now needs to be trumped by some nebulous world vision? Then you do not understand God's Calling and Purposes throughout His Word. Be it known that Adamic-Israel is the "world" that you are failing to see.

What about the rest of the world? Rest assured, God has a purpose for them, but that purpose, is not the overriding message of the Bible, and all the one-worldism thinking will not make it so. If you now see 5 to maybe 10 percent of the Bible gloriously directed to your world vision, and Biblical Israel a now "interference" in that world vision, perhaps your world vision needs to be brought in line with a higher percentage Biblical vision...just sayin.

I LOVE JESUS – WITHOUT THE WORD?

By Pastor Barley

I have observed over the many years a type of "I LOVE JESUS" Christians who claim to love Jesus, but do not want His Word attached to that love. They are all over the place. I see them in coffee shops, health food stores, malls, restaurants, you name it, and certainly in the "churches." They claim to love Jesus, and readily embrace everybody in the name of "love," and quite frankly, the true Jesus is not essential to that love. They just want to be loving, accepting, and have everyone get along. Hey, I want everyone to get along. It's like "climate change," I am certainly for an unpolluted earth, but I do not agree with the propaganda of "climate change" and all the corrupt political schemes behind such "science." As I like to ask such climate change misfits, "Do you know how much carbon monoxide is sent into the atmosphere every time a volcano goes off?" Answer: More carbon dioxide and pollutants than well over a hundred years of all the cars on the roads could ever begin to produce. Or, "Do you realize it takes carbon dioxide in order for trees, plants and so forth to put forth the oxygen we breathe?" Oxygen require carbon dioxide, hey, what a thought.

Well, to really love Jesus, it requires His whole Word, just like oxygen require carbon dioxide. Now, certainly many Christians love Jesus and His Word (mostly the New Testament). I do understand this, but I also know there are many, and the number seems to be growing in which they do not want any BIBLE INSTRUCTION inhibiting their "love feast" with the world. They view the Bible as an inhibitor, an old outdated distraction. In their mind, all we need is "love," and Jesus, of course, and that's it.

They believe that they are somehow free to have an open love with no restrictions or values (Biblical values) that might get in the way. There are actually some people reading this article who will agree with this type of "free love" as they, whether they realize it or not, do not like whole Bible principles to be employed in their dealings with other people. They just want Jesus first and maybe a little Bible thrown in later. After all, they reason, the main thing is to get them "SAVED" first, and so let's not confuse the people with Bible doctrine, laws, or perspective, we just need love, and Jesus without the Word of God.

I will be asked, "Are you against that Pastor Barley?" Let me assure you I am against such thinking. Every true Bible believing Christian should be against any preaching, teaching, witnessing of JESUS WITHOUT THE WORD.

There is no true Jesus without His Word.

Revelation 19:13

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

Who is Jesus? He is the Word of God. Without His Word, He is not the true Biblical Jesus. It is that simple, it is that absolute. To preach, teach, or witness Jesus without the Word, is an act of humanistic futility.

1 John 5:7

For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

Think about it, “THESE THREE ARE ONE.” The Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit are one, meaning, if we try to separate the Word from the Father or Holy Spirit, then we have an incomplete Gospel or witness. Quite frankly friends, we really do not know JESUS if He is taught without the Word which includes His Covenants, Divine mission, Promises unto Israel, His Laws and Purposes.

The question should be asked, “If I am to love Jesus, who is this Jesus that I am to love?” Is He some Red Santa Claus that is going to give me everything I want? Is He going to love me no matter what I do? Is He going to put restrictions, laws, principles, Bible doctrines on me that will go against my wants and desires? Can I New Age love everybody without those “hateful” Bible directives? Can I sleep with whomever I want and so forth?

Does the Word of God really make that big of a difference? Absolutely it does. Disregarding His Word is like jumping into a swimming pool without the water. In this case, the WATER OF GOD’S WORD, WHO IS THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AMEN.

John 14:6

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Let's see, is Jesus the way, truth, and the life without the Word? It is frankly impossible. The Word without Christ is a figment of our vain imagination. The Word with Christ is the way, truth and the life. We cannot have real Truth or Life without the Word of God directing our thoughts and actions.

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

I have asked people concerning this verse, "What WORD is this WORD that is God, if not the very Inspired Word of God itself, the Bible, part of the Godhead?" You may argue that the Bible was not even written when God existed, when the earth was formed, and so forth, so how can the Bible be the Word of God? The unwritten Word is not separate from the later written Word. It is in God, from God, and inspired of God. You cannot separate God from His Word. If you do so, you have confusion. You have vain babel without direction or purpose. The Word was released by God at the appropriate times and according to His Divine Purposes.

The words, "I love Jesus – without His Word," is pure carnal reasoning.

I LOVE JESUS, FOR HE IS THE WORD OF GOD.

OH MY GOSH, READ THIS ON THE ZIKA VIRUS. I'M SURE MANY OF US ALREADY SUSPECTED SOMETHING LIKE THIS. WITH ALL THE "LOVE" IN MY HEART I CAN MUSTER FOR THESE DEVILS, I SAY, JESUS, LOVE THESE DEVILS, JUST AS MUCH AS YOU LOVE "RED-ESAU."

Romans 9:13

As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

Zika Virus Outbreak Linked to Release of Genetically Engineered Mosquitoes

By Mike Adams, the Heath Ranger

(NaturalNews) GMO skeptics like myself have been warning for years of the unintended consequences of genetic pollution. Even when genetically engineered organisms are released into the world with the best of intentions, such actions can wreak havoc on the ecosystem and human civilization in ways that simply can't be foreseen by the world's most well-meaning scientists.

I specifically warned about this in 2012, listing the top 12 threats to humanity posed by out of control science. In that infographic, I designated "Level 4" hazards as "Self-replicating pollution," naming genetically engineered organisms as the vector for such threats against humanity. (In the years since, many top science figures like Stephen Hawking and Elon Musk have repeated the warnings from my list, including threats from AI.)

Now we may be seeing the first wave of the horrific destruction that can be unleashed by self-replicating genetically modified organisms. The Zika virus, now spreading with unbridled ferocity, appears to have been caused by the release of genetically engineered mosquitoes that scientists hoped would sharply reduce malaria infections.

"The Zika virus outbreak currently gripping the Americas could have been sparked by the release of genetically modified mosquitoes in 2012," reports The Mirror. "The insects were engineered by biotechnology experts to combat the spread of dengue fever and other diseases and released into the general population of Brazil in 2012... The Aedes aegypti mosquito sub-species that carries both the Zika virus and dengue was the type targeted with genetically modified mosquitoes."

But something went horribly wrong.

As pointed out in this fantastic article by AntiMedia.org, (<http://theantimedia.org/zika-outbreak-epicenter-in-same-area-where-gm-mosquitoes-were-released-in-2015/>) the genetic engineers running this massive open-air experiment with mosquitoes and humans failed to consider the impact of antibiotics in the environment caused by their heavy use in agricultural (animal feed) operations. . .

The presence of antibiotics causes the mosquitoes that are supposed to die off to survive and reproduce. These same genetically engineered mosquitoes may then bite humans, injecting them with the Zika virus that's now causing horrific mutations in head and brain formation in children.

DC Bill to Pay People to NOT Commit Crime

By Ben Nuckols

WASHINGTON (AP) -- They say crime doesn't pay, but that might not be entirely true in the District of Columbia as lawmakers look for ways to discourage people from becoming repeat offenders.

The D.C. Council voted unanimously Tuesday to approve a bill that includes a proposal to pay residents a stipend not to commit crimes. It's based on a program in Richmond, California, that advocates say has contributed to deep reductions in crime there.

Under the bill, city officials would identify up to 200 people a year who are considered at risk of either committing or becoming victims of violent crime. Those people would be directed to participate in behavioral therapy and other programs. If they fulfill those obligations and stay out of trouble, they would be paid.

The bill doesn't specify the value of the stipends, but participants in the California program receive up to $9,000 per year.

Councilmember Kenyan McDuffie, a Democrat who wrote the legislation, said it was part of a comprehensive approach to reducing violent crime in the city, which experienced a 54 percent increase in homicides last year. Homicides and violent crime are still down significantly since the 2000s, and even more so since the early 1990s when the District was dubbed the nation's "murder capital." (AGAIN, THERE'S MORE TO THIS ARTICLE, BUT I THINK WE ALL UNDERSTAND THE SAD REALITY OF THIS SITUATION...IT'S PART OF THE PRESENT AMERICAN HELL.)

DUH, FOX NEW IS NOT CONSERVATIVE, AND, GOOD FOR TRUMP NOT PLAYING ALONG IN THIS FOX NEWS DEBATE DEBACLE

By Pastor Barley

It's been a long time since I have dealt with the topic of media control, but it needs to be addressed again. Many years ago, I ignorantly dealt with the media in thinking that it might be possible to be interviewed by an honest reporter, but I was sadly mistaken. I found through one interview after another that the media had a sinister, alternative agenda, and that every one of them was a liar. They were not even slightly interested in the truth, a Christian Biblical perspective, or the heart and soul of many people with a view of history, archeology, or the Scriptures concerning who Israel is apart from the Jews.

I still remember talking to one reporter who wanted an interview, and when I told him of my experience with other reporters, he said, "Well, I'm not like those reporters, I'm only interested in the truth." That was a lie. He turned out to be one of the more sinister and deceptive of all the reporters I had encountered. Eventually, sometime in the 1990's, I stopped doing interviews and I have been, in a very real sense, set free and blessed by this separation and knowing that I was no longer casting God's pearls before swine.

This brings me to FOX news. They have promoted themselves as a conservative media alternative to the other media out there, but let me assure you friends, that is an outright lie. They are a media Ponzi scheme. They are fraudulently invested in the "truth." They regurgitate pieces of the truth from time to time in the name of "fairness," and being "balanced," but they are filthy swine, or to put it another way, they are totally Jewish controlled, or more specifically, Rupert Murdoch (and his cronies cleverly packaged) "conservativism" forum.

Now, I want it understood, that I am neither promoting Donald Trump for president, nor am I suggesting not to vote for Trump if you are going to vote. In the last newsletter, I, in a tongue-in-cheek way, said in one of my articles, TRUMP FOR PRESIDENT, TRUMP FOR PRESIDENT, but I was NOT actually promoting Trump for president. I basically was just praising Trump for saying NO to any Muslim refugees having open immigration into this nation. By repeating TRUMP FOR PRESIDENT twice, I was just attempting to be humorous, but I should have been more clear that I was not really promoting Trump, nor anyone else for president.

I'll leave the voting process up to you, and I am not trying be politically moral here, I'm just trying to remove myself as much as possible from the political madness. I have no idea whether the DONALD will be good for the nation or not if he is elected president. Personally, I think he would be a better president than _____ (fill in the blank and I'll leave you guessing).

I have to say, I'm just tickled that Donald Trump would say no, to the Debate by FOX news and give liberal chameleon Megan Kelly a proverbial kick in the butt. Stir it up Donald and put on your show, because in reality it's nothing more than a Jewish stage show in the final analysis.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD CLEARED OF MURDERING BABIES AND SELLING THEIR BODY PARTS OUTRAGE

Are you kidding me? Planned Parenthood is not charged with the evil they do that was exposed by the undercover videographers doing an investigation into this baby murder industry? Instead they are open and unrestricted for business as usual while the videographers are charged! What a sad day indeed where that which is called "evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" Isaiah 5:20.

I do not say, Jesus, save them, hide them in your love, and preserved them for universal salvation. I say, God destroy them as you have righteously done so many times before in your Word. If God's going to rehabilitate them and restore them at some distant Age from now, He certainly knows how to do this on a number of levels, but it does not discount the fact that He has a plan of destruction for evil doers that will destroy every aspect of their fleshly ways. I clearly would not want to be in their shoes.

Yahweh knows how to deal with them beyond my understanding of justice and restoration, but I am quite confident He and He alone has the Divine and Righteous answer to Divine Justice and the wicked will not escape His Wrath.

THE MILITIA IN OREGON AND THEIR LEADER'S EVIDENT ASSASSINATION

No, Pastor Barley, nor America's Promise Ministries have not engaged in any of the militia activity in Oregon for a number of Biblical reasons whether certain people will accept those reasons or not. First, I want to say, we here at America's Promise Ministries are truly sorry that Robert LaVoy Finicum, a rancher who acted as one of the main spokesman for the "occupiers," was shot and killed (murdered) by the FBI and other officers. Apparently, one other man (his name is not known as of this writing) of the militia, was wounded in this obvious setup/staged federal police pull over.

No matter where any of us throughout this nation are scattered, I'm sure we all have a deep heart for what these militia men have been through, the issues they stand upon, and the courage to go forth with their cause. Apparently, this militia group of ranchers strongly disagree with federal control of large tracts of the county. Leader of these brave men, Ammon Bundy and four other members were taken into custody following the confrontation along Highway 395, in northeast Oregon.

Many of us fear for this situation for a number of reasons. First all, I well remember Rudy Ridge and the murder of Sammy Weaver, his mother Vicki Weaver, and the wounding of their friend, Kevin. I, and many others were there throughout that whole sad ordeal in North Idaho, not far from Sandpoint, Idaho back in 1992. There was almost a blood bath that very well could possibly have erupted in that ordeal. It was stayed off because of cooler heads like Col. Bo Gritz and officer Jack McLamb, both friends of mine. But they had a big task on their hands to keep the crowd of angry gathered people from going berserk, grabbing their guns and most likely getting killed with many irresponsible, dumb "leaders" going off half-cocked in the name of very questionable causes. So, no matter what you may think of Col. Gritz or Jack McLamb, they actually did a good service in view of a very difficult situation the night we all learned of the murder of Vicki Weaver, some days after we had already heard of the murder of young Sammy Weaver.

Then, of course, who could forget the tragedy of the Waco, Texas standoff, in 1993 where 72 people of which 17 were children burned to death by federal intrusion (tanks and all), I do remember the good song Carl Klang did on the murder of those 17 children. A deep, heart felt song about that blatant attack by our federal government, when they could easily have timed their arrest of David Koresh to anytime he left the “compound” to go shopping somewhere in town. You can listen to it at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LlxzWpg2xks>

Well, now we have the Oregon militia land dispute ordeal. Sad as it maybe, I truly believe it was inevitable that the federal government was going to crack down on them whether right or wrong. Now obviously, anyone can martyr themselves for whatever cause, but is the cause Biblically sound, and is it proper Biblical timing? I don't know, but I kind of think these are very important questions we need to consider.

For instance, way back in the early 1990's, before most, I discovered, the principles of Revelation 18:1-6. The principle is that Mystery Babylon must fall first, then we are to come out of her, and then double unto her double. If you want to fight Babylon in a totally physical way, good luck, but don't expect God's blessing to flow in your cause, no matter how “righteous,” it may be. Please carefully read over these verses if you are unaware of their applicable Biblical Truth:

Revelation 18:1-6

¹And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

*²And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon

the great is fallen, is fallen (Please notice, first Babylon must fall), and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

³ For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

*⁴ And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues (Secondly, after Babylon falls, we are then to come out of her).

⁵ For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

⁶ Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double (Thirdly, we are to double unto Babylon).

STUPID IS AS STUPID DOES

Perhaps you have seen this or heard of it “College to spend a month in ‘Whiteness’ shaming.” That’s right, white college egg heads have actually been brainwashed so severely that they are willing to chain themselves up and wear black T-shirts with white lettering that says, “SO SORRY.”

Portland Community College (PCC) has assigned the month of April as “Whiteness History Month” (WHM), but they mean it as a project to explore how “whiteness” creates racial inequality. Imagine that folks, white people are the creators of racial inequality and should be ashamed of their white hell they have put this world through. PCC states on its website, “Scheduled for the month of April 2016, the project seeks to inspire innovative and practical solutions to community issues and social problems that stem from racism.”

Hey abused whiny White egg-heads, why don't you all get serious about your abusive White ways and move to dark Chicago, Atlanta, Detroit, Los Angeles, Houston, Dallas, Ferguson, Baltimore, or hey, just keep going to dark Africa and spread your White shame. It won't take you long to learn the meaning of "hell," and reality.

BIG NEWS "50% OF PRIESTS IN VATICAN CITY ARE GAY"

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IS THE CHURCH OF HOMOSEXUALS:

That's right, insider says they (the sodomites) run basically EVERYTHING. The Catholic Church is the church of the homosexuals. David Berger is a sodomite in the Vatican and he says homosexuals thrive in the Catholic church. In fact, they do exceptionally well (well over 50% in the Vatican alone). See article by Dan Avery: (<http://www.newnownext.com/author/averyd/>)

In fact, David Berger claims that upward to 40% of all priests (throughout the church) are sodomites. He, of course, uses the Biblically incorrect word "gay." In the Vatican he says "I experienced the number of gay men to be even higher," he told Stern magazine. Berger said that these Vatican sodomites are especially "loyal to the Pope and hard working." Which, he goes on to say, "Is why they have the best chances for a career and, through this, get into the Vatican. There, they find a network of gay men in which people help each other out."

Wow, I kid you not people. Doesn't this explain to you why our nation is so homosexual bound? Why Judeo-Christianity is so worldly in many ways and why we see little if no resistance against the advancement of Sodomy perversion in government, the theater, and religion?

There's no two ways about it. We have seen the proverbial handwriting on the wall for many decades especially with the encroachment of the “gay agenda.” The sodomites have obviously been forcing their perverted life-style upon this whole nation through the federal government. I have been saying for years, that this sodomite agenda would not be possible were it not for there being homosexual “religious leaders” pushing such an agenda. The Catholic church is and has been almost from its inception highly corrupt, idolatrous, and immoral. The Vatican Pope on down and all its idolatrous systems is evil, and pagan, and I will not apologize for the truth. Wake-up Protestants, moreover wake-up Christian Israel.

The Catholic church is not Christianity. Rather it has been the death of Christianity, and it loves to call that which is evil good, and that which is good, evil.

Revelation 17:1-2 states:

¹ And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

²With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

MORE ON THE POPE AND HIS UNBIBLICAL NEW WORLD ORDER VISION

If you can, watch the following link about the Pope:

<http://youtu.be/07dPzM5q43c>

Here is part of what the video says:

Pope Francis - “Most of the planet’s inhabitants declare themselves believers. This should lead to dialogue among religions. We should not stop praying for it and collaborating with those who think differently.”

(A lady speaks) “I have confidence in the Buddha.”

(A Jew speaks) “I believe in God.”

(A Catholic Priest speaks) “I believe in Jesus Christ.”

(A Muslim speaks) “I believe in God, Allah.”

Pope Francis - “Many think differently, feel differently, seeking God or meeting God in different ways. In this crowd, in this range of religions, there is only one certainty we have for all: We are all children of God.”

(A lady speaks) “I believe in love.”

(A Jew speaks) “I believe in love.”

(A Catholic Priest speaks) “I believe in love.”

(A Muslim speaks) “I believe in love.”

Pope Francis - “I hope you will spread my prayer request this month: That sincere dialogue among men and women of different faiths may produce the fruits of peace and justice. I have confidence in your prayers.”

First of all, I want to thank Pastor Gene for bringing this link to my attention and Pastor J. V. Foster for typing it out. I am doing what I can to warn all our readers against the Catholic harlot church ecumenicalism. This is nothing more than Popish dung. The Pope, Vatican, and all their Catholic corruption tell us that there are many roads to “heaven,” which sounds so heavenly and spiritual to the Biblically clueless. The Pope now says, you can go through Buddha, Allah, Confucius, any of the Hindu gods as a means of salvation, but the Bible clearly teaches in Acts 4:12 that it is only through Jesus Christ in which there is salvation:

“Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

Catholicism is a Cursed Religion

As you can clearly see, the Jesuit Pope is a one-worlder, as he wants the Catholic church to be the recognized church of the world in which you can believe in any god and yet be approved by the Catholic system. God help us. True Biblical Christianity tells us that there is no other means by which man can be saved other than the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other room for discussion. The buck (salvation) stops at the feet of the Lord Jesus Christ. Period! This means (let me be perfectly clear) that the Pope is antichrist.

The Biblical ramifications of this Popish deception is far more reaching than what most people realize. It promotes multiculturalism in the name of religion and that the Catholic religion will somehow make everyone bond in “love.” You really just need “love.” You really don’t need “Jesus.” According to them you just need Catholic Church sacraments and X number of “hail Marys.”

I hope everyone is able to recognize that this Catholic scheme is exactly what SPIRITUAL ISRAELISM AND MULTICULTURALISM is all about. It leads to the neutralization of who Israel is and replaces them with Catholic spirituality that sees itself as the real kingdom and light of the world. Yes, they see themselves as “saviors” of the world through their harlot religious system. It is spiritual mysticism. They apply all the Covenants, Promises, and services assigned to Israel for themselves. But this is clearly not what the Bible teaches. Romans 9:4-5 clearly states:

⁴ Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

Martin Luther King: What Good Did He Do?

By Canadian Gerry T. Neal

Monday, January 18, 2016 (portions printed below)

... Whenever someone questions the wisdom of the American government’s having decided, back in the 1980s, to award a day of honour to “Dr.” Martin Luther King Jr., even though they had decided to economize on national holidays by rolling the birthday of the father of their country into a generic “Presidents Day” in which Washington must share the honour with the likes of FDR, LBJ, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and Barack Obama, the standard answer one receives is “Look at all the good he accomplished.”

If you point out that MLK Jr. plagiarized his doctoral dissertation for Boston University from a previous dissertation by another student at the same university, Jack Boozer, the answer you will receive will be “So what? Look at all the good he did!”

If you point out that MLK Jr., while an ordained Baptist minister, did not believe in such basic truths of Christianity as the deity, Virgin Birth, and bodily Resurrection of Jesus Christ, the answer again will be “Look at all the good he did!”

If you point out that he surrounded himself with men like Stanley Levison, an advisor, speech-writer, and organizer of his, and Jack or Hunter Pitts O'Dell, an executive assistant of King's and director of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference, both of whom had been high-ranking members of the Soviet-sponsored Communist Party USA in the 1950s, that he privately confessed to holding to the tenets of Marxist-Leninism, and was associated with a number of Communist fronts such as the Highlander Folk School, the answer that will come back to you as if from a stuck LP record will be “Look at all the good he did!”

Well, all right then, what good did he do?

He was a leader in the Civil Rights Movement of the late 1950s and early 1960s whose foremost achievement was the passing of the 1964 Civil Rights Act in the United States that would become the model for legislation such as the Race Relations Bill passed in the UK in 1968 and the Canadian Human Rights Act passed here in Canada in 1977. He is credited, in the popular imagination and in many a classroom, with having almost single-handedly slain the dragon of de jure racial segregation in the southern United States. Temporarily setting aside the question of the inherent goodness of integration and badness of segregation, let us look first at the matter of whether MLK Jr. actually deserves this credit.

De jure segregation in the southern United States began when the former Confederate States regained control of their domestic affairs after the post-1865 military occupation known as Reconstruction. The idea of "separate but equal" public facilities for blacks and whites was challenged in the American Supreme Court in 1896 on the grounds of the equality clause in the Fourteenth Amendment, the passing of which was one of the objectives of the Republicans in power in Congress in Reconstruction. SCUSA, in its ruling in Plessy v. Ferguson, upheld the constitutionality and legality of "separate but equal" in a 7 to 1 vote. This decision stood until the matter was revisited in 1954 in the case of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, in which SCUSA reversed its earlier ruling and declared segregation to be unconstitutional and illegal.

The decision in Brown v. Board is susceptible to a number of criticisms, such as that it relied more upon the theories of social scientists than on constitutional law and that it set a dangerous precedent for subsequent judicial activism and intrusion into local decisions such as that in Roe v. Wade and for an excellent overview of its negative impact even on race relations, I recommend The New Color Line by Paul Craig Roberts and Lawrence M. Stratton. . .

The court's ruling was resisted by the states with "separate but equal" laws, of course, but the American federal government was prepared to back the decision with force and so Brown v. Board rendered the abolition of the Jim Crow type of segregation a fait accompli. MLK Jr.'s greatest actual achievement, the passing in Congress of the Civil Rights Act in 1964 owed as much to the death of JFK the preceding fall as it did to King's efforts, but, more importantly, this bill was designed, not to get rid of segregation laws but rather to impose integration. . . .

Martin Luther King Jr. did not accomplish the good that he is credited with, the abolition of Jim Crow, and what he actually accomplished, the forced integration of the American Civil Rights Act and imitation legislation in Canada and the UK, is no more just than segregation itself and is a generator of racial strife and discord. Perhaps our American neighbours ought to reconsider keeping the third Monday in January in remembrance of this man every year.

NOTE FROM PASTOR BARLEY: I found the following poem very interesting, and, obviously it could not be written today, as it originally was written. I hope you will appreciate our efforts in bringing this to your attention in light of all the mind numbing blackified brain washing detergent that we are being inundated with today.

In cleaning up an old stack of papers, my wife found this poem by the late Hon. Oliver Allstrom which is in the attached file. Not wanting to retype into the computer, tried to find it on the net. Did find a site pertaining to Oliver Allstrom which is here, http://en.metapedia.org/wiki/Oliver_Allstorm Couldn't find it there, at least not a link that worked. But did find another poem and article there that is a bit hard to give directions to, the way the site is set up. You might want to read an expanded view of his thoughts that he is covering. Here's that page and you may have to scroll down some pages to get to it.

https://archive.org/stream/foia_National_Citizens_Protective_Assn-St._Louis-1/National_Citizens_Protective_Assn-St._Louis-1#page/n4/mode/1up .

Anyway, hope you enjoy the knowledge and wisdom of Oliver Allstrom who's pen has fallen silent, but still lives on in the printed page. A pleasure to read the writings of a man with sound knowledge and a clear mind with a special gift of putting it on paper. This is as true today as the day it was written for the truth just don't yield to nobody. But, mercy, how far have we fallen? Read his account of history what has happened, was happening in his day and compare that all today. Should be front page news, but they wouldn't even print it on the back page.

The Saddest Story Ever Told
by Oliver Allstrom

When a White girl marries a negro,
Her sun of life goes down.
And glaring spots of sin
Appear on her white wedding gown.
And White and Black men stand
aghast,
While viewing this strange role:
And mutter, "they will wreck
themselves,
And damn each other's soul."
We know a carnivorous bug
Has crept into her brain,
And gnawed away her self-
respect,
Which left her half insane.
Now all her racial pride has flown
Beyond redemption's fold,
And she begins life's saddest tale
That ever yet was told.
Three days and nights she felt Black lips Press smug against her own.
And on the fourth, her troubled soul
Let out a frightful groan.
And so the weeks and months
flew by,
And then a baby came;
She looked at it with tear filled
eyes,
And hung her head with shame.
And then she dreamed of other
days,

Sweet girlhood days gone by,
And of the White friends left behind,
And so we hear her cry; "O,
could I turn life's pendulum
Backwards a few short years,
I would not bear this cross today
Nor shed these bitter tears."
My baby would be White as snow, And sleep upon my breast,
Like a little fledgling robin
That slumbers in its nest.
While now, O God, my mongrel child
Just whimpers through the night,
Till in my sleepless dreams
I scream, "Not White, O God, not White!"
And so I stagger through my
days
Far from God's love and grace,
Till now, I know, no Black man lives
Can take a White man's place.
My offspring shall be mongrel
bred,
Their hue-skin shall remain,
For even God with all his power
Cannot remove the stain.
I sold my birthright for a mess,
I mixed my White-born blood
With Black blood, so I languish
here
Like one bogged down in mud.
Though God may grant a pardon,
I never can retrace
My footsteps down life's narrow road,

Back to the White man's race.
So now I groan, "It might have been,"
Had racial pride been mine,
Today I'd hug a pure White child
And call him half divine.
I'd lift him up before the world
And praise his father's name,
While now, my baby's mongrel face
Reminds me of my shame.
All other crimes may be forgiven
When prayer its power fulfills;
The scheming crook may find
new hope,
And even the man that kills,
But all my prayers can never clear
My baby's mongrel skin,
Nor make him White as driven snow,
Nor cleanse my soul of sin.
I was my father's future hope,
My mother's joy and pride,
But I got lost on life's dark road,
And there my spirit died.
I smeared my all-White Heritage
And left the White man's track,
Now my descendants for all time
Shall be forever Black.
I try to hide from all the stars,
The moon and the setting sun;
For all mankind of my White race
Condemn what I have done;
I tremble and my teardrops flow,
I pray, but pray in vain;
For nevermore shall I be

One with my White race again.
And so dark clouds above me
roll,
Deep waters crash below,
I sink, and reap what I have sown
And drink my cup of woe.
My mother sleeps deep in her grave,
My dad lies at her side,
For both were crushed when I became
A negro's common bride.
Now, should I decide to leave him,
Where could I choose to go?
My misspent life will follow me
Like footprints in the snow.
Before me lie dark jungles
Where paramours seek a prey;
Behind me death keeps
whispering,
"I am the only way."
This Black and White, prenuptial
mess,
This racial suicide;
Must be forbidden by the law,
Men must find racial pride!
Then, never again, forever,
Shall tales like mine unfold,
With all its shame, the saddest
tale,
That ever yet was told.

of this tragic lament is presently

The Inklings from the New Magazine

(Sent in by a reader) December 21, 2015

The Inklings were literary figures who came together in 1927 for discussions concerning myth versus Christianity, literature and the future of Europe. C.S. Lewis had been anti-Christian and converted to a belief in Jesus Christ through his contact with Lord of the Rings writer J.R.R. Tolkien. The "myth became fact" as Lewis expressed it, "when we set out I did not believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and when we reached the zoo I did." His wit and intellect turned into Mere Christianity (1944) and his auto-biography Surprised by Joy (1955) Tolkien is remembered for The Lord of the Rings and C. S. Lewis for the The Chronicles of Narnia. These two men became the major basis for what is called "Western Thought."

The group called themselves 'The Inklings', a pun, "suggesting people with vague or half-formed intimations and ideas plus those who dabble in ink." These men did not deal in broken narratives, disfigurement and despair but realized "ours is a fallen world yet not a forsaken one." There were over two dozen men who participated in the informal group. These Englishmen were survivors of the "War to End all War" and later went on to serve in various capacities during the Second World War.

"These members shared Christianity within a wide spectrum of views. They shared adherence to the Nicene Creed and shared a set of enemies, including atheists, totalitarians, modernists, and anyone with a shallow imagination." Are you shallow in your imagination? Is this good or bad? or "It is what it is." I like that expression for it displays truth. "These men were friends, encouraging, provoking, enlightening and correcting one another." Do we need to be corrected as Christians? Is that why Christ commanded us to be in fellowship. I'm asking these questions for myself and exerting an exercise upon my own belief. What is the truth? Is it a myth? Or an imagination? Points to ponder.

Solzhenitsyn expressed in 1972 in his Nobel Lecture: "We shall be told: What can literature do in the face of a remorseless assault of open violence? But let us not forget that violence does not and cannot exist by itself. It is invariably intertwined with the lie.....Anyone who has once proclaimed violence as his method must inexorably choose the lie as his principle." The simple act of an ordinary brave man is not to participate in lies, not to support false actions! His rule: Let that come into the world, let it even reign supreme ----- The Inklings sought to tell the truth.... even while the bullies of Berlin and Moscow continued to spread lies with deadly fervor. They were the literary leaders of Western thinking. I always wondered what that was and also the word myth. Myth is a good word.

And this may be a good book to consider That Hideous Strength, in which Lewis presents the dark forces manufacturing fraudulent news stories for the purpose of manipulating public opinion. Lewis' main character Mark Studdock is required to produce fake stores of a riot in order to form the basis for the government declaring a state of emergency. Sounds like today.

Lewis and Tolkien shared in the power of the Word, the Word made flesh--Christ Jesus. Jesus Christ is the spice of our life. You know that is really very biblical. Jesus said he wants us to lead abundant lives. Try something different, take up a hobby, take on the job as a lower magistrate. Again my aim is to inform. For further "Inklings" read 'The Fellowship ---- - The Literary Lives of the Inklings by Phillip and Carol Zaleski.

Letters from Readers

I have so enjoyed your Summer Conference DVDs of 2015. Thank you! Listening and watching your sermons on your DVD ministry also gives me hope that there are those of us that know the Biblical Truth of the Israel people. I hope that you and your son, Michael, are improving with your health issues. My health issues are improving also, but I am on medication that I don't like taking, but I do what I'm told. Thank you for all you do for all of us. Blessings, SG OR

New Book

In Rise of the Black Serial Killer, Justin Cottrell expels the myth that serial killers in America are predominantly white. With a myriad of newspaper records and books, he has compiled a list of black serial killers that is equal to or greater than the number of white serial killers from 1860 to the present. Few, if any, have ever heard any of their names or stories until now.

This study contains a full list of every black serial killer and a brief description of their crimes. The author offers reasons why most people assume black serial killers don't exist-

-from media suppression to common misunderstandings.

TO THE ISLES AFAR OFF

by Robert C. Harvey

This is the remarkable account of how Christianity was brought from the Holy Land to the British Isles in the first century—and then from these Isles on to Rome. The book traces the role of Joseph of Arimathea in the founding of the British Church and explores the Church's deep Celtic roots. It was researched and written by an Anglican Bishop who has spent a lifetime walking the paths of history, legend, and faith. Intelligent, thought provoking, beautifully written, and impossible to forget, To The Isles Afar Off is a must read for anyone who is interested in British history or the history of the British Church. Mr. Harvey correctly identifies the people of Britain as descendants of Israel.

Iceland has the Right Idea, but the Wrong Formula for a Jubilee

By Martha Barley

I received several emails saying that Iceland had forgiven all the mortgage debt of the country. This is actually false, but NPR did a program on it explaining that they were forgiving the amounts added on to mortgages after the financial crisis of 2008. So some people have had some of their mortgage forgiven and others have not. This has led to a lot of hard feelings and people questioning the formula that was used. NPR reported this way:

"The [Progressive] party promised to go back and correct everyone's mortgages - basically, forgive the additional debt everyone had built up in 2008 and 2009. It's a beautiful idea that you could go back in time and try to undo this one very painful part of the financial crisis, make it like it had never happened. One problem with the jubilee idea of forgiving debt is that there's always someone on the other side, someone who lent the money.

But there is a plan to make even this part feel painless. The money to pay for the jubilee would come from a tax on three dead Icelandic banks - banks that many people blamed for Iceland's part in the financial crisis. A lot of people were really into the proposal. The Progressive Party ran on the jubilee idea and won." <http://www.npr.org/2014/12/11/370156273/iceland-experiments-with-a-jubilee-of-debt-forgiveness>

God's Jubilee cancels all debts of every single person, great or small! It is not the same amount for everyone as some would have debt and some would not. Why does God call for Israel to have a Jubilee every 50 years? Because He knows how hard it is for people to always struggle with debt.

According to thesimpledollar.com, those in America who have credit card debt in 2015 on average owe over $15,000! According to marketwatch.com, students graduating last year had over $35,000 in student loan debt. One of the major causes of suicide in this country is people who feel that they will never get out of debt! Also, laws have been changed making it very hard to have debts cancelled through bankruptcy. Our bankruptcy laws are actually a corruption of God's Law. Under God's Law, debts were cancelled every seven years and in America you can declare bankruptcy every seven years. But that is not the same thing! Can you imagine how much freedom a cancellation of debts every seven years and an economic reset every 50 years would bring to each and every person?

When you study out God's Economic Laws, you find that it would be such a blessing to us as a nation. Here are some highlights:

1. The Land is divided by lot and remains in your family for 50 years.
2. The Land cannot be taxed or taken away from you.
3. Debts are cancelled every seven years and every seventh year is a Sabbath. God promises that there will be food for the seventh year and the land rests breaking the insect cycles.
4. No interest can be charge on any debt in the nation of Israel. Interest can only be charged to non-Israelites living outside of Israel.
5. The ten percent tithe on your increase is voluntary.
6. The tithe supports the tribe of Levi who make up the civil servants, priests, and also includes making the feast days and travel to the feast days free to each citizen.
7. The year you marry is a Sabbath to you and you cannot work or go to war. What a great way to start off married life!

God came to give us life and life more abundantly and we would have that abundant life if we made His Law the Law of the Land.

*For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light;
and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:*

Proverbs 6:23
