Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

National Homecoming Conference April 3 – 5, 2020

Dr. Everett Ramsey and his congregation are hosting this event in Branson, Missouri. The speakers for this event will be myself, Dr. Lawrence Blanchard, Pastor Don Elmore, Pastor Dan Gayman, Pastor Charles Jennings, Dr. Everett Ramsey, and some other speakers that are unconfirmed at this time.

There will be special youth activities and youth teachers!

Please book your rooms at the location as that lowers the cost of the conference room. There is no specific charge for the conference, but donations will be taken to cover the costs involved. Registration is limited to 350 people on a first come first serve basis. For room information contact Dr. or Mrs. Ramsey at fbcstp@yahoo.com or call 471-967-2011.

A Conference You Should Attend

My job and our work is to God's Covenant Israel White people. We certainly should not be for a multicultural society and mixing our efforts which will only lead to mixed results. Yes, I understand that there are nonwhite people who are nice and have been helpful in many ways and some that even understand that the Israelites are white. God bless these people. But the answer is and will always be found in the Word of God and it is unto Israel. Dare we look anywhere else? Shall we exercise some multiracial approach and somehow think we will receive a better result? The Bible is unto Israel, and we must teach that.

The problem is when people try to be multicultural in their approach to the Bible and they get a corrupted vision and purpose. It is skewed to say the least. The Bible will straighten things out when it is correctly applied and it must be followed properly and in keeping with the Holy Master's desire. The World is mostly taking a blend-all, mix-all approach which is further distorted with Zionism. Let us not have such a view and perspective which is based upon what is humanistic Zionism. Such a view is the peoples' undoing because it is full of all things that are against the purposes of God's Kingdom and Creation. There is Right and there is Wrong.

Russia has Invaded our Election Again!

It was the Iowa Democratic Caucus. Crazy Bernie won, but they are all crazy. It was too crazy. But the real story to understand is it's all nuts and we are living in bizarre times. The dangerous thing of course is that we are living among SOCIALISTS and they will stop at nothing to take away our freedoms and liberty all in the cause of their economic desire. It ultimately is COMMUNISM.

Corona Virus, it Seems to Have Taken Over The "Dreaded" Measles Virus – Pun Intended

It would seem that's all that needs to be said because it is causing abject fear in most people. We are told to not to worry, as they talk about the "pandemic" ad nauseum, but our worries will soon be over because they will soon develop a vaccine that will save us all. That is truly scary.

More than a million people are infected world-wide, most of them reportedly live in China. They have been lying to us about this fiasco. Lying to us about this whole virus creation and how many have been infected including other viruses. When have we been able to trust the Chicoms? Do they have a track record of truthfulness? For that matter does the American government and pharmaceutical industry? Gee, I think they all fail. As of this writing around 14 people have died in the United States. By the way, more have died from the regular type of flu and many more from plain car accidents in the same time frame. This disease hype is just hype. Our rulers love to keep us in fear.

Nonetheless, practicing hygiene will pay off. Don't sneeze on others, cover your mouth with your arm, not just your hands. Avoid Mexico, China, Vietnam, Korea, Taiwan, Philippines, etc. Well, you get the point. Most places in the USA are very safe, but you might not want to take a cruise at this time.

Has anyone heard of population control? Well, this is a form that is being unleashed upon various communities, and they are doing much more than simply monitoring this virus. Think about it. This is a man created virus like the swine flu, SARS, AIDS, or Ebola. We may be in for much more, but hundreds (worldwide, most of them from China) are dying and yes, I do believe animals are involved at first as a way of transmitting this virus. I simply do not accept the story they are telling us as prima facie evidence. Almost all vaccines are created out of animals being infected and animals are ultimately the general way in which disease is transmitted and humans are their Guinea pigs. Mixing and manipulating. Of course, their vaccines all contain animal cells, mercury, corrupt human and animal DNA, and other chemicals such as formaldehyde. The ultimate point is a serum of monstrous (truly scary) substances are being used and manipulated and this is PHARMAKIA or SORCERY. Talk about a witch hunt. The Bible certainly told us the truth, but most of the people are not deeply investigating what God's Word is actually stating. Too many are looking on the surface and playing church.

Listen to these verses:

Revelation 18:23

And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the Bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries (Greek word Pharmakia) were ALL nations deceived.

Often we read in other verses about plagues and other things about these merchants: Revelation 16:1; 9-11; 17: 1-18; 18: 2-5; 8-9.

This is a man/government created virus, which some are now saying it came out of Canada, and there are many forms of speculation. It did not simply appear out of an animal or person, but was created to do what it has been doing. What must be done? It does seem that more are being isolated, but remember we are in Mystery Babylon not in a perfected Kingdom yet. Remember, many are involved in this fiasco. Immigration control in the extreme needs to be tighter.

Bible verses on quarantine: Leviticus 13:2-5, 31-33; 45-46; 14:8; 15:19; Numbers 5:2-3, 31:11-20; Deuteronomy 23:10-11; 2 Kings 7:3, 15:5; 2 Chronicles 26:21

Rush Limbaugh

Let's face it, many of us from time to time have listened to the Rush Limbaugh show. We often loved his insight and to a large degree depend upon him being there for us. Yes, at times he has angered us and frustrated us because at times his point of view is a little skewed. But let's face it, often he was our voice of reason. The point is, most of us are saddened by the recent news that he has stage four lung cancer in his lungs. For now, I for one am saddened by the cancer news and pray for his recovery and the opening of his eyes to God's Truth.

The Growing Sodomite Agenda

This was sent to me by our good friends from Texas, Marc and Laura, and it says much about today's society and its sad ramifications.

Austin Ruse, President of the Center for Family and Human Rights (C-Fam) said, "The public schools in the United States are nothing but factories of ideological propaganda for the Left. I don't know if they want to 'dumb people down,' but they certainly want to make them ideologically radical. And this is happening now abundantly on the question of LGBT and gender. They are cramming these poor children's heads with pure poison. And at the same time not educating them. Our public school system is an utter disaster from my point of view."

We all grow increasingly befuddled and tired of the increasing encroachment of the sodomite types upon politics, society at large, and this certainly includes false religion. True Biblical religion keeps and maintains the Bible. False religion plays off the Bible only to delude people with words of man which sound religious. The LGBT faction is not in accord with the Bible by any stretch of the imagination.

A Call to War?

I found what Charles Lindberg said in a speech that he gave in 1941 at the America First Speech very apropos for today. I thought you would enjoy this history. (by the way thanks Robin) See the whole speech at:

www.charleslindbergh.com/americanfirst/speech.asp:

"They planned: first, to prepare the United States for foreign war under the guise of American defense; second, to involve us in the war, step by step, without our realization; third, to create a series of incidents which would force us into the actual conflict. These plans were, of course, to be covered and assisted by the full power of their propaganda.

"Our theaters soon became filled with plays portraying the glory of war. Newsreels lost all semblance of objectivity. Newspapers and magazines began to lose advertising if they carried anti-war articles. A smear campaign was instituted against individuals who opposed intervention. The terms 'fifth columnist,' 'traitor,' 'Nazi,' 'anti-Semitic' were thrown ceaselessly at any one who dared to suggest that it was not to the best interests of the United States to enter the war. Men lost their jobs if they were frankly anti-war. Many others dared no longer speak.

"Before long, lecture halls that were open to the advocates of war were closed to speakers who opposed it. A fear campaign was inaugurated. We were told that aviation, which has held the British fleet off the continent of Europe, made America more vulnerable than ever before to invasion. Propaganda was in full swing.

"There was no difficulty in obtaining billions of dollars for arms under the guise of defending America. Our people stood united on a program of defense. Congress passed appropriation after appropriation for guns and planes and battleships, with the approval of the overwhelming majority of our citizens."

The reason I put part of Charles Lindbergh's speech about WWII and the propaganda he exposed was to dare tell the truth about the "war effort," and for more of the truth to be known. Let's break these formidable barriers about war.

None of us are against legitimate war, but they have been playing the American public for far too long. We are the casualties of their Zionist war and all that has become of the American military machine. Make no mistake concerning this vital issue.

Edomite Hollywood

I'm mad and angry at all that's going on to propagate the Zionist Agenda, and yes, I am venting my anger and frustration in part because this plague has mostly been ignored. Let there be no doubt, for instance, that there is a Jewish Entertainment, Sports, News, Political, Economic and Religious Industry. It, for the most part is of, by, and for the advancement of Jewish power and control. In other words, the New World Order is for the advancement of World Zionism.

Sadly, Hollywood has been run by Jews since it started. If you want that history you can read the book, An Empire of Their Own How the Jews Invented Hollywood by Neal Gabler. It is available from Amazon and others. Christians once had some control with the ratings board, but that is long gone.

I'm making the point that these wars have been artificially promoted by Hollywood actors to build up the war machine frenzy among the people. This happened to the point that Americans would enthusiastically endorse these wars and be willing to go along with the astronomical cost involving them including men's lives. We have been played and many hundreds of thousands of our people have been lost to these wars and we think we are freer, but the enemy has been amongst us.

We are not freer; we only think so while the enemy is praised, and undue honor bestowed upon their kind. Anglo-Saxons, be very careful whom you may call your friends and allies. I tell you unequivocally that the Word of God, the Lord Jesus Christ is our true and enduring friend. He will NEVER lie to us or mislead us.

Proverbs 18:24

A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

Hebrews 10:24-25

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Hebrews 13:5

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Wars will come and go, and they are terrible and unforgiving, but the Word of God will never leave us nor forsake us. If we befriend our enemies, God's Word warns us in 2 Chronicles 19:2 ...Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

Romans 1:18

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

Let us believe and trust what God's Word proclaims!

The President's SOTU Address

One of the things I like about President Trump is that he uses common sense and it shows in many of his decisions. Sure, he makes mistakes, but he is outside of the norm we have had in Washington D.C. for all of my life. If anyone stands with the Democrats and Pelosi, you're in the wrong league for sure. Wasn't the corrupt phony impeachment trial, Pelosi tearing up the President's speech, their war-monger John Bolton, and what Mitt Romney did an outrage? They are all scum.

Well, to a degree, the President's State of the Union speech was a can of worms, or shall I say a mixed bag. First, understand that I still mostly support and stand with the President, but no man is perfect, and I am not here to pick out all the things I disagree with the President over. But I will name a few and the first thing I will name and that is killing our nation is the issue that "we are all one blood."

In many ways, he made that point ad-nauseum. We are not one blood, nor have we ever been. That is a lie right out of the pits of hell and America for one is being destroyed by such a deception. What will bring us true freedom is what the Bible declares: Biblical separation! Again, we must stand upon the EVERLASTING WORD OF GOD, not the humanistic words.

Secondly, Trump heavily promoted the war effort by his generals and their war agenda, even though he said he wants to "bring our troops home." We can only pray that he will do that and what joy that would bring. But I am more than a little afraid that he is under their spell to keep this war effort alive. I pray he has a change of heart by the Divine. The fact is, as we all know only too well, that he has many Jewish ties. I'm afraid this will hold sway over him, and some other war or skirmish will erupt. I certainly believe in the power and Divine ability to pray. May God give His blessed ability for more pray and His Kingdom.

Glenn Beck recently explained the good old boy corruption of the Bidens and others. He is probably going to catch hell for what he has exposed, but there are some now coming out of the closet and a few are being exposed. Let's us continue to pray that God will intervene and take these tares out of His Kingdom. Frankly, I am encouraged that we may be at that time.

Thirdly, is the President's socialist/communist agenda. There were several socialist programs mentioned that would make Bernie Sanders blush, well maybe not Bernie. Oh, I know, how could one ever be for the President with all his agenda problems? Well, all you have to do is look at the other side. Of course, you can just stay at home and do nothing and live with the consequences of that decision. Personally, I prefer a more pro-active decision and to trust God has appointed Trump as a Cyrus for a such time as this.

President Trump has made a number of bad decisions which are against Biblical Reason. You can be assured that there will be a severe price to pay. There are always severe consequences to be made for going against the Word of God. Be assured that your sins will find you out.

I love you all deeply. Let's not let our differences on Trump and side doctrines divide us. Let's stay close to the main message of our Identity and what Christ is doing for His Body. Let us be extra cognizant of this and pray, yes, pray that we all come into the unity of the faith. We all have been somewhat guilty of causing some form of division, and House of Israel divided against itself will not prosper. Let us do our best to have the unity of His Spirit that is promised in Ephesians 4 and work to bring about more unity. Pastor Barley

Jeremiah's Successful Commission as Repairer of The Breach

By David Johnson

Dear fellow Americans, Ameluwkah! That means A Heaven's Kingdom of the People. It is the Hebrew word for America which dates back to 1400 BC Here begins Jeremiah's call:

Jeremiah 1:5

Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

God's Divine Word only has three people ever commissioned by God before their birth – Jeremiah, John the Baptist, and Jesus. Why?

We'll start with Jesus. John 18:37

Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of truth heareth my voice.

Jesus tells Pilate He is a king, for this reason he was born into this world, and everyone that bears witness unto the truth listens to Jesus.

Luke 1:17

And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

John was commissioned before birth by God Almighty to prepare the way for Jesus Christ. However, why was Jeremiah commissioned before his birth?

The answer is in Jeremiah 1:10.

See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

Jeremiah is commissioned to destroy nations and kingdoms. In fact, Jeremiah is set over these nations and kingdoms. This includes Babylon under King Nebuchadnezzar and the removal of King Zedekiah from King David's throne. All Christianity agrees. However, that is the first part to Jeremiah's commission.

The second part is to build and plant. Build and plant what? If Jeremiah is commissioned to destroy nations and kingdoms, what must he build and plant, but nations and kingdoms in place of the ones he destroyed? If Jeremiah destroys heathen and rebellious nations, which ones must he build and plant, but Israel nations and kingdoms. If he removes King Zedekiah from King David's throne, what must Jeremiah do? Put another king or queen on King David's throne. Since the call of Jeremiah is to remove the seed of David which includes the kingdom, the scepter, and the throne, then it must also be the seed of David, the kingdom, the scepter, and the throne which is built and planted.

Christendom altogether ignores Jeremiah's second part of his commission and spiritualizes it away as if God forgot and could not keep Jeremiah alive long enough to build and plant. Did God promise that King David's throne would be forever occupied here on earth? Consider Psalms, Jeremiah and Hosea:

Psalms 89:4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations.

Jeremiah 33:17-26 17For thus saith the LORD: David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; 18neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. 19And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, 20Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the night, and that there should be not day and night in their season;

²¹Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne. ²²As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. ²³Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; ²⁶Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

Have mercy on whom? The two families are the House of Israel and the House of Judah. They were to be shown mercy.

Jeremiah 39:6-7 ⁶Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes; also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. ⁷Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

Jeremiah 44:14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return in the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

Hosea 3:4-5 ⁴For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim. ⁵Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

Psalms is talking about the preservation of the King David's throne throughout all generations. Jeremiah 33 is talking about the preservation of the throne regardless of how evil the monarch is or becomes. Jeremiah 39 shows King Zedekiah lost the throne about 587 to 586 BC. Jeremiah 44 states only a remnant of a remnant shall escape. Hosea says Israel shall be many days without a king. Question: How many days without a king? A standard generation is forty years. Someone was on King David's throne between 587 and Jesus' birth or the prophecy fails. Who were the kings and queens of Israel from 587 BC to the birth of Jesus? Did they move or had they already moved?

To answer that, we need to know more about Jeremiah the prophet of Libnah. Did Jeremiah care about King Zedekiah? Did Jeremiah have a stake in all this? Yes! Jeremiah 52:1 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. Jeremiah was the father of Hamutal, thereby making King Zedekiah his grandson. Most grandparents care deeply for their grandchildren and Jeremiah was no exception.

King Zedekiah watched all his sons murdered by King Nebuchadnezzar. Then Zedekiah's eyeballs were gouged out. God made it clear that King Zedekiah and his sons were to lose King David's throne, so does that mean Jeremiah's commissioning came to an end? No! For it says twice in Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 41:10 Then Ismael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 43:6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaptan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

King Nebuchadnezzar did not understand Israelite inheritance laws. He believed he ended the kingly line by slaying only the sons and male nobles of Judah. Numbers 27:8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

King Zedekiah left behind his daughters to inherit King David's throne, and Jeremiah is in the same caravan as they are. They escaped to Egypt. Did they stay in Egypt? The Internet says, "According to a tradition that is preserved in books outside the Bible, he was stoned to death by his exasperated fellow countrymen in Egypt." Again, God's call to Jeremiah is spiritualized away as if God forgot and could not keep Jeremiah alive long enough to build and plant the seed of David elsewhere. Either Jeremiah failed, and thus God failed, or the Internet's secular record is wrong. Does the Bible confirm Jeremiah died in Egypt? No!

God's Word says in Jeremiah 15:14:

And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

Jeremiah 17:4 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

This is reaffirmed in Isaiah 55:5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

Question: Who has God glorified? Unlike Babylon, Egypt, and Judea, all well-known lands, God has glorified both Himself and Israel in their new land, a land unknown to Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 51:19-20 ¹⁹The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hosts is his name. ²⁰Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee I will break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms. According to God, Israel is the battle axe!

This is reaffirmed again in Isaiah 54:17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

Question: How can Israel be the battle axe to destroy and break in pieces other kingdoms and nations if the Kingdom of Judah was destroyed, the scepter and throne taken away from King Zedekiah, and the seed of David removed from Palestine? Answer: The land which thou knowest not became the new Israel nation destined to destroy other nations and kingdoms.

Moreover, the new Israel became so highly sought after that other nations run to it to seek the Lord God Almighty, to glorify God's people of Israel, God's Chosen People that bless and glorify the name Jesus Christ, that shining light, that beacon of hope for all future generations. God will use this new Israel to bring hope to the nations. As Nathan the prophet said to King David in 2 Samuel 7:10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime. Since King David was in Palestinian Jerusalem at the time this prophecy was declared, this appointed place for God's Chosen People must be elsewhere in a land unknown to them. This would certainly exclude Babylon, Egypt, and Judea, all well-known lands by Israelites. The Word of God states Jeremiah and King Zedekiah's daughters escaped to an unknown land. Jeremiah had to travel to this new unknown land. The Bible identifies many marks and features of this unknown land. Here are some:

Jeremiah 3:8 And I saw, when for the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce: yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

Note: The House of Israel and not the House of Judah received a bill of divorce and was put away through a migration. Where did the House of Israel go?

Jeremiah 3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for inheritance unto your fathers. Israel has migrated to the north. It also says that the House of Judah will meet the House of Israel in the north.

Jeremiah 31:7-10 7For thus saith the Lord; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. 8Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither. 9They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

¹⁰Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

Isaiah 28:11 For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

Isaiah 41:1 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

Isaiah 49:1 Listen, O isles, unto me: and hearken, ye people, from far; the Lord hath called me from the womb, from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

Isaiah 49:8 Thus saith the Lord, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages.

Isaiah 49:12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west: and these from the land of Sinim.

Isaiah 49:19-20 ¹⁹For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. ²⁰The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, the place is too strait for me; give place to me that I may dwell.

Note: Desolate and waste places can mean wasted, waste of space, uninhabitable.

Isaiah 51:5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

Isaiah 54:3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left: and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles (nations), and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

Wow! God says Israel shall inherit the Gentiles (nations).
Amazing!

Note: This word Gentiles does not mean non-Israelite as most churches teach. The word means nations. Make it a point to insert the word nations whenever you see this word.

Ezekiel 38:11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates. Babylon, Egypt, and Judea all had walls throughout their cities, as did Continental Europe, Asia, and northern Africa. Thus, this new unknown land must be located somewhere else.

In Jeremiah, Isaiah, and Ezekiel, God is addressing the House of Israel. Israel is speaking with stammering lips a new language resting in safety far removed from their enemies that swallowed them up, renewing their strength in the islands, the isles north and west of Palestine, in the land of the north. They shall inherit desolate regions, uninhabitable regions. They shall inhabit the coasts of the world living in unwallled villages. Israel shall inherit the Gentiles (nations)! The new land in the isles is too narrow or confined, so they expand their empire. In their expansion, they lose their firstborn nation. Nevertheless, Israel is to become the chief among the nations as both the House of Judah and the House of Israel reunite to become the House of Israel under one king.

Genesis 22:17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.

Genesis 28:14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

Note: Israel was to expand in all directions.

Deuteronomy 33:17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

Note: Israel, specifically the two tribes of Joseph, Ephraim and Manasseh, are to push all peoples throughout the ends of the earth. The numbers signify that Ephraim controls more people than Manasseh. Moreover, Israel is to control the gates of her enemies. This includes shipping lanes, technology, infrastructure, the military, and all lines of communication. Only the new Israel fulfills God's prophecy in finding this new unknown land.

Review Regarding Jeremiah's Call

1. What was Jesus' primary purpose for being born and coming into this world? John 18:27 ...To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

2. What was Jeremiah's Call?

To destroy nations and kingdoms, and build and plant King David's throne in a land unknown. Jeremiah 1:10.

See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

3. Where is this unknown land?

No specific name is given, just defining marks and characteristics of its new location. 2 Samuel 7:10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime.

4. What are some marks and characteristics of this unknown land?

- a. Israel was to be north and west of Palestine.
- b. Israel to be in the islands and isles afar off, ruling the coasts of the earth.
- c. Israel is to be the chief nation glorifying Israel's God, whom other nations seek.
- d. Israel speaking a new language.
- e. Israel resting and renewing its strength in these isles, many of them desolate.
- f. Israel becoming the battle axe to destroy heathen and rebellious nations and kingdoms.
- g. Israel finding the new land too strait and narrow and thus expanding their empire.
- h. Israel expanding west, east, north, and south throughout the earth, inheriting the Gentiles.
- i. Israel losing its firstborn in this expansion.
- j. Israel now living in a land of unwalled villages with no gates or bars.
- k. Israel controlling the gates of her enemies throughout the world.
- l. Israel to be many days without a king before reaching this new land.

5. Based upon these marks and characteristics, can this new Israel be located in the old Israel?

No. This new Israel is much bigger than the old Israel, filling the world.

6. Based upon these marks and characteristics, can this new Israel be located in Babylon?

No. Babylon is east of Judea and had gates and bars on its 80 foot tall walls.

7. Based upon these marks and characteristics, can this new Israel be located in Egypt?

No. Egypt is southwest of Judea and its cities had walls, gates, and bars.

8. Did Jesus Christ take King David's throne before he was physically born?

No. If Jesus was king in 587 BC, he would not need to be born to show himself as king.

9. Zedekiah saw all his sons and male nobles murdered. Did Jeremiah's Call end?

No. Jeremiah had King Zedekiah's daughters to inherit King David's throne.

Here are more marks and characteristics of this unknown land:

Genesis 12:2-3 ²And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: ³And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Note: This includes individuals and nations who bless Israel, thus blessed, or who curse Israel, thus cursed.

Genesis 17:5-6 ⁵Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. ⁶And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee.

Genesis 17:15-16 ¹⁵And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. ¹⁶And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

Genesis 18:17-18 ¹⁷And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; ¹⁸Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

Genesis 21:12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

Note: While Abraham had Ishmael through his bondwoman and many children through his second wife Keturah, Abraham and Sarah only had one son, Isaac. Thus, Sarah becoming the mother of nations comes through this one man, Isaac.

Genesis 35:10-11 ¹⁰*And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel. ¹¹And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins.*

Note: Jacob, now Israel, was to become a great nation and a company of nations, not just one singular nation.

Genesis 48:19-20 ¹⁹*And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. ²⁰And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.*

Note: Excluding Levi who was a priestly tribe, all twelve warrior tribes were to become nations, but Ephraim alone was to become many nations by itself, unto itself, without any help from any of the other tribes. Manasseh alone was to become a great nation.

If God Almighty fulfilled his commission through Jeremiah in planting Israel elsewhere and in preserving King David's throne here on earth, the answers must have already been laid out. See the answers for questions 3 and 4. From what you read, what two nations best describe Ephraim who was to become a company of nations, and Manasseh who was to become a great nation? Do these two countries fulfill prophecy of those features described in question 4?

The United Kingdom of Great Britain is both north and west of Palestine. The UK is in the islands and isles afar off from old Israel. By Crown definition of land ownership, Britain conservatively owns about 10,800 islands, many of them desolate and waste, but the rest have unwalled villages with no gates and bars housing Gentiles. Except for the UK, most people do not seek these unwalled villages.

Great Britain and America are chief nations of the world. Britain's GDP is number six in the world, and that does not include the GDP of her many nations, which she still has crown lease rights of those public lands. The US, of course, has the largest GDP on earth. Both nations no longer speak Hebrew, but English. When people first arrived at the isles of Britain and America, they were able to rest and renew their strength away from their enemies, far removed from their enemies in unwalled villages.

Both Britain and the US are the greatest warriors on planet earth. The Bronze Age Britons have existed since 2000 BC. They have battled Rome since the days of Julius Caesar. General Edmund Allenby ended the Turkish Empire in 1917. America and Great Britain ended both World Wars. These two nations have the most military bases throughout the world controlling the gates of their enemies and the most potential bases for their desolate islands.

When Britain's population expanded in the 1600's and 1700's, many complained that their small island country was too narrow and too strait for them. When Great Britain attempted expansion, it failed to establish permanent colonies in Guyana (1604) and in Saint Lucia (1605). Their first successful colony, Jamestown on the Chesapeake Bay, was established in 1607. Less than 160 years later, the British, the tribe of Ephraim, lost their firstborn in the American Revolution. Just ask immigrants – America is THE land of unwallled villages with no gates or bars that ALL nations of the world seek.

AMERICA! means A Heaven's Kingdom of the People.

BRITISH! is Hebrew for Covenant People.

BRITAIN means Covenant Land.

Britain and America are the two nations of Ephraim and Manasseh that push the people together to the ends of the earth. We are two brothers across the pond. While most of Israel settled in Europe, Great Britain literally expanded throughout the ends of the earth going west, east, north, and south spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His Kingdom Law to more peoples than any other nation. They provided Bibles, roads, ports, canals (Suez Canal built by Egyptians, but funded by Britain; the US funded and built the Panama Canal), government buildings and good government law based upon common and Bible Law, hospitals, schools, and the common business language of English, thus becoming a blessing to all nations that it occupied.

Those who bless us have become blessed. Japan is the prime example. Thirteen of the fourteen most desirable nations on earth are Anglo-Saxon, Japan being the prime exception. Those who curse us, well, do you want to live in those countries?

The Guinness Book of World Records wanted to know which country birthed the most nations. At that time, the UK had birthed a conservative sixty-two nations. Britain is indeed the company of nations and the multitude of nations, and those nations have grown to seventy-one.

So, where did Jeremiah go with King Zedekiah's daughters? The short answer is Jeremiah escaped to then known Briton with the king's daughters. For many days, (only three to four years), Israel abided without a king, but one of these daughters in 583 BC married a king in the line of Zarah of the House of Israel. Note: Zarah and Pharez were the twin sons of Judah which was the ruling tribe.

Zedekiah's daughter was in the line of Pharez, the breach line in King David's line in the House of Judah. These two Houses merged in marriage fixing the breach of Pharez from Genesis 38. Christ's line came through the family line of Judah, David, Josiah, and Jeconiah, not through the breach. The breach ran through Judah, David, Josiah, and Zedekiah. So, King David's line still lived on in the line of Zarah after King Zedekiah died, ending the breach line of Pharez. Both God and Jeremiah fulfilled the commission to preserve King David's throne, but let's double check:

2 Kings 19:30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

The same exact prophecy is reiterated in Isaiah 37:31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

Note: The remnant of Jeremiah and the king's daughters escaped of the House of Judah. Since King David's throne was in their possession, that throne had to take root downward in a land unknown, or built and planted somewhere else in a land unknown. Isaiah 13:2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. The new land has unwallled villages with no gates nor bars, but kings live in castles. Thus, they have gates of the nobles.

Isaiah 11:10-14 ¹⁰And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles (nations) seek: and his rest shall be glorious. ¹¹And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shina, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. These are more marks and characteristics of Israel finding rest in the islands and that the nations sought Israel.

¹²And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

According to God, Judah has dispersed throughout the earth.

¹³The envy of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

Note: The House of Judah and the House of Ephraim are two separate Houses. In Scripture, the House of Israel was oftentimes called the House of Joseph, or Ephraim. See Ezekiel 37 which follows shortly for another example.

Isaiah 11:14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. “Fly” is a term for speed often symbolized by an eagle. Back then, the fastest way to an isle was by ship. Israel formed a pact with the Philistines who were shipbuilders and sailed west through the straits of Gibraltar to the isles of the new Israel.

Ezekiel 37:16-17 ¹⁶Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions: ¹⁷And join them one to another into one stick: and they shall become one in thine hand. And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

Note: God calls the stick of Ephraim the stick of Joseph because they both represent the House of Israel. The House of Judah and some children of the House of Israel, the remnant that returned, have one stick. Joseph or Ephraim, which is all the House of Israel, has the other stick. God takes both Houses and unites them into one stick, or one kingdom. King Zedekiah's daughter formed one kingdom when the two Houses merged in marriage fixing the breach of Pharez. Jesus Christ told us to occupy until He comes. Occupy what, a garden, a terrace, a hillside? No, occupy the Kingdom!

Jesus warned the Jews in Matthew 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

That other nation is indisputably the Kingdom of Israel and her many nations. Great Britain and America are the answers to all these prophecies as these two countries have born the "most" good or best fruit, preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and his Kingdom Laws to every creature on earth. Because you have the answer, you can and will understand when Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Hosea, and other prophets make distinctions between the two families, the House of Judah and the House of Israel. Take Ezekiel 17, a riddle and parable of the new Israel and its new location. We will start with verses 11 to 21 because it is straight forward.

Ezekiel 17:11-21 ¹¹Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, ¹²Say now the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; ¹³And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: ¹⁴That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? ¹⁶As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon shall he die. ¹⁷Neither shall Pharoah with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons: ¹⁸Seeing he despise the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape. ¹⁹Therefore thus saith the Lord God: As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. ²⁰And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. ²¹And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scatter toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

The rebellious King Zedekiah tried to escape King Nebuchadnezzar by going to Egypt when God through Jeremiah told him not to. Even then, God told Jeremiah to tell King Zedekiah to break his covenant with Egypt, but Zedekiah refused. Thus, his kingdom was base, or brought down low.

King Nebuchadnezzar's army caught him in Jerusalem. Zedekiah died in Babylon having lost King David's throne, ending the Pharez line. Verses 22 to 24 became a lot easier to understand.

Ezekiel 17:22-24 ²²Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent: ²³In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. ²⁴And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken and have done it.

Note: The high cedar is King Zedekiah, but his line of Pharez is brought down low. Notice, his high branch has a tender one that shall be planted on a high mountain. This tender one is King Zedekiah's daughter. She shall become queen in the new Israel in the land unknown. Upon marriage, the low branch or tree of Zarah shall be exalted. Zarah, the dry tree flourishes and Pharez the green tree dies. How did this happen? Verses 3 to 9 answers:

Ezekiel 17:3-9 ³And say, Thus saith the Lord God; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar. ⁴He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. ⁵He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. ⁶And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. ⁷There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. ⁸It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. ⁹Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it might wither? It shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. ¹⁰Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

The eagle is a symbol for speed, or a ship as described in Isaiah 11:14. However, this is not Jeremiah's ship, which is the second eagle or ship in this riddle or parable. The first ship had a prince aboard, a high prince from the tribe of Judah in the line of Zarah. He sailed to the great waters, or the Atlantic Ocean. He took this ship to the isles in one of many migrations of Israel about 700 BC After all, of the 2.5 million to 4 million estimated Israelites that left Jerusalem, only 50,000 or so returned. What happened to these millions? Many came to this new Israel, others settled in Continental Europe to become other Anglo-Saxon nations. As he produced offspring, his line became low compared to the line of Pharez. Nevertheless, he produced good offspring; his offspring turned towards him as to how to rule. One of his heirs was ruler when King Zedekiah's daughter in the line of Pharez appeared in Jeremiah's ship, the second great eagle. King Zedekiah's daughter did bow down her vine towards him, showing she was interested. She shot forth her branches towards him, meaning they got married. He watered her furrows, meaning they had offspring. Jeremiah had to pull out the roots of Pharez. The Pharez line withered, coming to an end when the east wind toucheth it. An east wind is a wind coming from the east and blowing west, in this case, to the isles. Isaiah 58:12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

Jeremiah repaired the breach when he had King Zedekiah's daughter marry the prince of Zarah's line.

Both God and Jeremiah fulfilled Jeremiah's commission in preserving King David's throne, repairing the breach, and making Israel into many nations, a company of nations, and a powerful nation. I hope you believe we are Israel. Preaching the physical promises of Jesus Christ could help you convert someone to Christ when they see how Jesus fulfilled those physical promises in the land unknown. Amen.

Important Medical Information

By Martha Barley

A friend shared this important information for those who have medical bills that they cannot pay. Two former debt collectors have started an organization titled RIP Medical Debt. RIP buys portfolios of debt from health care providers and forgives them. They focus on those persons who earn less than two times the federal poverty level. You can go to their website ripmedicaldebt.org to see if you qualify.

Also, Dr. Marty Makary, surgeon and the author of the book titled The Price We Pay, shows that because you are not given the cost of a procedure beforehand, you can have it dismissed in court, but that is a hard way to get the debt cancelled. He talked about this on an episode of the Eric Metaxas show that you can watch here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bAIO7lrMvsE>

The Democrats are requesting $50 million for convention security. I suggest we send a couple of gun free signs and call it good. If it is good enough for our children's schools; it is good enough for them.
