America's Promise Ministries Newsletter

July 2013

Pastor Dave Barley

Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

GREETINGS CHRISTIAN BRETHREN,

I'm looking forward to AMERICA'S PROMISE MINISTRIES BIBLE CONFERENCE this 26-28th of July. You and your family should attend, but if you cannot, you should do your best to financially support this important gathering and send your kids or grandkids. Supporting the Kingdom work is always a good and blessed thing to do, and we should all do so with a glad heart for "God loveth a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:7) We do not charge an attendance fee but we do expect everyone to contribute something. Our conference is free for all to come and be blessed. Those who can help with our financial needs are certainly encouraged to do so as the Lord leads. Our main focus though is on Holy Spirit feasting and feeding upon God's Word for the strengthening of the children of Abraham. May the New Covenant of Christ our King and His perfect law be written upon the tables of our circumcised hearts.

The conference speakers include: Author and lecturer Michael A. Hoffman II, Pastor Richard Kirsch, Pastor Thomas Rolland, Pastor Ernestine Young, Nutritionist Doug Evers, Pastor Dave and Martha Barley.

Included in this newsletter will be a list of nearby hotels. Of this list, there are some rooms available at the Howard Johnson (208) 263-5383, for $49.99 (with one queen bed), and $59.99 (for two queen beds). That is a great price (while they last), its close by, and non-smoking, of course.

The conference will begin the 26th of July, Friday morning at 10:00 AM, and will conclude Sunday afternoon. We will be providing a noon meal each day of the conference. Of course, we follow Bible food laws in what we will be serving for food, and we appreciate any fruit or salads or deserts you want to bring!

During this gathering will include a special communion service in recognition of Christ atoning blood, and water Baptism for those who wish to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Kingdom living without being a Baptized dedicated Christian with a Holy Spirit anointing is really not possible.

SUPREME COURT TARES SIDE AGAINST ARIZONA AND OTHER STATES WHO SEEK PROOF OF CITIZENSHIP BEFORE A PERSON IS ALLOWED TO VOTE:

What should be a Supreme Court no-brainer decision of supporting a states' right to require proof of legal citizenship before allowing a person to vote, was undermined by a usurping Court. Once again, Bush Jr. Appointee to the Supreme Court, Chief Justice John Roberts, voted with Sotomayor, Kagan, Ginsburg, Breyer, and Kennedy, in the attack against reasonable state-rights of voter determination. Remember, Mr. Fox in the henhouse (Roberts) voted with the left-wing court upholding Obama's unaffordable national health act, and then he ruled in another court decision to support pro-sodomite marriage "equality." Did our patriot forefathers really confer overriding dictatorial powers upon the Supreme Court?

In this section of the newsletter, I want to quote some very significant and most pertinent historical thoughts from the book, 1913, by Oliver DeMille, pages 64 & 65. You should find this very useful:

“A Brief History of Critical Supreme Court Cases

‘For example, as early as 1803, the court began to assert its own authority over the other branches of government (Ed note: Sound familiar?). This occurred in the case Marbury v. Madison, as Chief Justice John Marshall announced in his opinion that “the Supreme Court was the exclusive and final arbiter of what was constitutional and what was not, and furthermore, that its decisions were binding on all branches of government.”

‘This was a significant change to the original Constitution, which gave the court the final say in determining the winner and the loser in any given case but said nothing about the power to use a case as decisive precedent for any other case—and certainly granted the judiciary no power over any other branch of government.

‘For many decades, law students have been taught differently, and the legal profession has mostly accepted that setting precedent is part of the court’s role. But it wasn’t originally so. Again, as mentioned, the original intent of the founding was for the court to have the final say in any given case, but not beyond.

‘Before Marbury v. Madison, the Congress had the right to read the Constitution and interpret it for itself, as did the president. Each of the three branches, and also the states, were intended to be independent and to apply their own interpretation of the Constitution within their constitutional powers.

“Thomas Jefferson wrote to Abigail Adams: “You seem to think it devolved on the judges to decide on the validity of the sedition law, but nothing in the Constitution has given them the right to decide for the executive, more than to the executive to decide for them. Both [the Supreme Court and the president] are equally independent in the sphere of action assigned to them.”

‘He also wrote: “My construction of the Constitution...is that each department is truly dependent of the others, and has an equal right to decide for itself what is the meaning of the Constitution in the cases submitted to its action...”

‘Jefferson wrote the following specifically about the decision in Marbury v. Madison: “The Constitution intended that the three great branches of the government should be...independent of each other...It did not intend to give the judiciary control over the executive...I have long wished for a proper occasion to have the gratuitous opinion of Marbury v. Madison brought before the public, and denounced as NOT law.”

‘Jefferson also went on to warn: “To this I am opposed; because when all government...in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the centre of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated.”

Friends, I think that is quite clear from one of the main fathers of the Constitution. If his stated intent and purposes are not clear on this issue concerning the dangers of court supremacy over our Constitution, I don’t know what is.

LEGAL ISRAEL is another name for SPIRITUAL ISRAEL (Part one)

by Pastor Barley

NOTE: Please read this important Bible study. It is a matter of vital Biblical importance. This study is in no way meant to promote a spirit of bondage, but for true Israel to come out of the bondage of her present spiritual Israel blindness.

Isaiah 41:8-9

⁸But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

⁹Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

Please note this “seed of Abraham” is not a legal identification of who Israel is, but a racial, genealogical identification. I prefer not to attack the messenger, but only that portion of his message that I strongly disagree with, so I will not be throwing out names, or making this personal. However in the writings of a particular Spiritual Israel minister about who an Israelite is, he wrote the following:

“The divine purpose was to gentilize Israel. By God divorcing Israel, she became like all other nations in the sense that she was not married to God. But because of the promises given in Hosea and other places, God bound Himself to remarry and regather Israel into His house. Matthew 13:44 teaches, however, that He was to do this by purchasing the entire field. Ultimately, this means that the entire field will become Israel, not by physical genealogy, but by obtaining legal citizenship in the Kingdom of God.”

Notice this last statement. Nowhere in the Scriptures does the field become Israel. No one becomes an Israelite. They are either born one or they are born a nonIsraelite. This is total supposition on the author's part.

In an assortment of his other writings, he emphasizes that Israel really cannot and should not be identified by physical genealogy, but by his interpretation of "legal citizenship." Quite frankly, this is utter nonsense, and this twisted gospel must be challenged and exposed, as most assuredly, our silence is giving consent to this false teaching.

Yes, "The divine purpose was to gentitized Israel," however, the Divine purpose was not to leave the Northern House of Israel "gentitized." The Divine purpose was to bring both the Northern House of Israel and the Southern House of Judah back together under the bonds of the New Covenant. Not to leave them "gentitized." Hebrews 8:8-10 makes this very clear:

⁸ For finding fault with them (Israel), he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

⁹ Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

¹⁰ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

Please note, that the Scriptures do not say, "For this New Covenant, I will make with Israel, Judah, and non- Israelite strangers, so all can obtain “legal citizenship.” The misguided idea being, that we can all become legal Israelites. The words of the New Covenant are and remain unto physical Israel or God lied throughout the Old Testament when He promised to restore the Kingdom to Israel!

This particular Spiritual Israel minister goes on to say, “The way into God’s Kingdom is the same for all people, “for there is no partiality with God” (Rom. 2:11).” To which some of his readers will think, “Oh how loving and spiritual, yes, there shouldn’t be any “partiality” and if “there is no partiality with God,” then by- golly, there shouldn’t be any in our theology either. So we should glory in God’s racial variety and stand against anyone who looks down on multicultural Christianity. Well, I don’t care how good or loving something may sound or appear, a loving falsehood, is still a corruption of the Truth. One short passage of Scriptures should add corrective thinking to that partiality point that minister was making:

Romans 9:13-22

¹³ As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

¹⁴ What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

¹⁵ For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

¹⁶ So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

¹⁷ For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

The point of these verses, I believe, are self-evident. God is the Creator, He is the Potter, we are His clay, and He is not partial as man is with his carnal thinking. The Scriptures tell us, “His ways, are not our ways. (Isaiah 55:8).” God’s ways and purposes are righteous, whether man agrees with them or not. This idea that we are “equal” is based upon a spirit of rebellion. It’s like calling “evil, good, and good, evil.” Isaiah 5:20 Well, this is what the Bible warns us about as man does according to his carnal sense of values. Let’s face it, most of the world in no way, shape, or form, agrees with Biblical Kingdom values. You are a rare individual if you truly value Biblical values, and you actually think and reason with Biblical spiritual reasoning.

For instance, God’s Word is full of acts that show partiality to Israel. So what does God mean when He says, “for there is no partiality with God” (Romans 2:11 NAS)? As always when there is a seeming contradiction we must look at the context. Romans 2 is all about God being an impartial judge. So let’s not mix apples with oranges. God is partial to Israel, but He is not partial when it comes to administering

His Law! A modern day example is the second sentence in our Declaration of Independence.

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

The founders never meant that everyone gets equal stuff as the left portrays it today. No, they meant that God gave each person life and that they have unalienable rights. This is the same type of twisting this author is doing. He is using this verse to say that everyone is Israel when the passage is about God impartially administering His Law! No matter what race, you are not free to rape, murder, and steal as an example.

The principle of “separatism” is actually a very Biblical theologically sound aspect of Kingdom government. Most of what we see and hear regarding modern day racial concerns are not Biblically based at all.

When “strangers” were living among Israel, there is little doubt that they were mostly Adamite strangers, meaning people of Israel’s own racial stock. A quick example is that of Hagar (the stranger), living among Abraham’s camp, who eventually became his bond woman (second) wife, and mother of the bond-child, Ishmael. She obviously was an Adamite, of the same racial stock that Abraham descended from. Again, we do not believe all races came from Adam and Eve, but that there were pre-Adamite people of the other races. Adam and Eve did not produce seed that evolved into all the different races we have today. They produced Biblically according to God’s Divine “kind after kind” order of creation. Adam means “ruddy complexion, to blush, or show red in the face” an obvious white-racial feature, though some may wish to argue the point.

The point I want to stress is, that often people will read the word “stranger” in the Scriptures, and automatically assume this means Israel was just soaking up the glories of “multiculturalism.” They would be so very wrong in this thinking, including the argument posed by this Spiritual Israel minister, that Abraham’s 318 servants were probably a group of “Heinz-57” steak-sauce variety, and that “impartial” Abraham just surrounded himself and his family with a wide variety of the colored-races. WHAT NONSENSE!

This does not mean that some of the colored races were not allowed to live in the land of Israel, but they were not given family rights or freedom to openly wander around and mingle with the people of Israel, except under proper, respectful, racially guarded lines. Race-mixing was not permitted, nor was religious mixing permitted, as this was idolatry. In previous Bible newsletters, I have used the example of Nehemiah to establish this fact. In this case, I will use the Bible story of Phineas to prove this point:

Numbers 25:1-3

¹ And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

² And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

³ And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

Some people may say to themselves, “Well, I don’t see people sacrificing to gods, or bowing before them, or joining themselves unto Baal today,” to which I say, are you blind? It is going on every day, especially right in front of the people’s eyes on their modern widescreen television sets. And equally sad, is the fact that our nation’s corrupt immigration bureaucracy encourages and funds pagan, unchristian people to bring their false religious practices into our nation and flaunt it in the face of our Lord Jesus Christ. Equally sad, is the fact that millions of our blind, babylonianized Caucasian Israelite kinsmen are “whoring” around with these Baal-peor people, thinking this is somehow a blessing to our nation, when in fact it is a major reason why nationally, we are cursed.

Numbers 25:4-8

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor.

6 And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

Most Christians find what Phinehas did to be abhorrent, blasphemous, and down right evil. They would be wrong. He was simply following the orders of Moses, in carrying out God’s law. He did not act as a vigilante. He was of the Aaronic priesthood, civil-servant capacity, and God Almighty was moved by this man’s righteous sense of indignation and duty.

There were immigrant servants of Israel, just like in years past, when White Germans, Norwegians, English, Spanish (remember the original Spaniards, were mostly Caucasians), Dutch, French, and so forth, immigrated to our nation to become wholly American. They not did hate America, or despise, or seek to undermine our national stability with communist, socialist, subversive activity. Neither did they seek to make America racially indifferent or color blind.

In the Old Covenant land of Israel, the strangers seeking to live in that land had to love Yahweh and respect His laws, as there was one Divine law for all, but their status was quite different than that of Israel. This Biblical approach to Israel's immigration policy alone greatly limited nonAdamite nonCaucasian people from entering the Kingdom of Israel. They did not have a land inheritance and they returned to their own people who lived in near-by nations periodically. They did not have full citizenship status. This does not mean that the aliens or strangers among Israel were abused or mistreated; to the contrary, they were, in proper Kingdom order, respected and unoppressed as long as they remained Christian, and did not seek to amalgamate with Israel.

Concerning the strangers status of servant, or slave, Deuteronomy 29: verse 11 states: “Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water.”

In fact, the following Scripture verses from God's law in Leviticus portrays the strangers among Israel as being the property of Israel. Meaning, in the Kingdom of Israel, strangers were considered “bondmen, and bondmaids,” and they could be bought and sold, as “possessions.” I am not saying this to demean anyone, but to show that today's sense of equality and fairness is out of balance with the laws of God. Remember, Biblically, even Israelites in debt could be sold into slavery until the year of release, which includes the event of Jubilee as well.

Under proper Kingdom rule, the strangers were actually quite blessed as bondmen and bondmaids of Israel. They all had equal protection under God's laws, but they just did not have full citizenship rights. Again, remember Hagar, Sarah's bondmaid, and her giving birth to Abraham's son Ishmael did not give her full, unimpeachable citizen rights. She disrupted the order of Abraham's family. She sought to create dissension between Sarah and Abraham, and she was ordered out of the land. Notice that bondmen and bondmaids could not be stolen from their homeland and sold like so many people have been now and throughout history. Stealing people is kidnapping which is a capital offense under God's Law.

Leviticus 25:44-46

⁴⁴ Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

⁴⁵ Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

⁴⁶ And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

Many people do not even know these verses exist in the Bible. They are not there to puff up our flesh. They are given to show the proper way to treat strangers among us, and, believe it or not, as a form of immigration control. But the best immigration control for Israel is that they OBEY GOD ALMIGHTY AND HIS WORD. If Israel obeys His Word,

He will protect them from mobs of strangers rising up like a flood, but if they seek the ways of Sodom and Gomorrah, the Almighty will unleash the strangers among them as a swarm of locusts, a Divine form of judgment against His sinful people.

I must emphasize that race-mixing was not to be tolerated, and how dare anyone look to the sins of King Solomon to justify such Baal behavior. His international outreach ways brought severe judgment upon the Kingdom of Israel and paved the way for God divorcing the ten-tribed Northern House of Israel. Increased multi-ethnic immigration only leads to more interracial situations, more false pagan religions being practiced in and among God's Covenant people, and an obvious economic drain upon the economy in which these foreigners are sending Israel's wealth out of the country. And so, the Biblical principle of SEPARATISM, is not wrong or evil, but is a blessed principle of restoration when properly applied.

Nehemiah 9:2

² And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

You see, whether an Israelite, or non-Israelite, idolatry, or false worship, is a pollutant to the Body of Christ that was not to be tolerated. Who we associate with is vitally important, both on a spiritual level, and on a racial level. When Israel does not guard their ethnic heritage, this demonstrates the depth of their spiritual and fleshly corruption. As an example:

2 Corinthians 6:16-18

¹⁶ And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

¹⁷ Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

¹⁸ And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Yes, I know Judeo-Christianity waters down these verses not knowing the true Israel message throughout the Bible, and they solely interpret these verses to mean that Christians should not touch idols. But to miss the meat of the full teaching of these Bible passages is to miss God's Word to Israel. "...YE (ISRAEL) ARE THE TEMPLE OF THE LIVING GOD...I WILL DWELL IN THEM (ISRAEL); AND I WILL BE THEIR (ISRAEL'S) GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE."

Most Christians read these Bible passages without a clue that they are directed unto the Covenant Israel people. These verses are from a variety of Old Covenant Bible passages concerning God's Promises to Israel, promises I might add, that HE WILL KEEP. Passages such as:

Jeremiah 31:1

At the same time, saith the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

Please compare the wording of this verse with those we read in 2 Corinthians 6. The Covenant God of Israel established these things, they are His Biblical Divine Purposes for Israel, and no matter how severe their judgment or captivity, His Promises to Israel will be fulfilled, and He will not replace His people with some spiritual, legal, multi-ethnic Israel. He never did it under the Old Covenant, even though He did divorce the Northern House of Israel, but they always remained His Covenant people under the Abrahamic Covenant, and His Word clearly shows that through the New Covenant, He has not gone back on His Word to Israel.

Jeremiah 31:33

But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

So you see, the verses above from 2 Corinthians 6:16-18, which are interpreted by Judeo-Christianity without an Israelite Covenant understanding is spiritually shallow and almost void of meaning. So when we read 2 Corinthians 6:17, “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate.” (2 Corinthians 6:17) the call is for Israel, God’s people, to come out from among wrong relationships with the strangers, as described in Nehemiah 9:2 which we quoted earlier and in many other Bible passages. God never called Israel to create “LEGAL ISRAELITES.” He called Israel to be Biblically and lawfully separate, except where authorized by Divine Law. Israel was never to multi-culturalize themselves with strangers. Let us remember:

Deuteronomy 32:8-9

⁸When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

⁹For the Lord’s portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Psalms 33:12

¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

God never wanted His Israel inheritance to be bastardized. The evidence concerning God’s Covenant and Calling upon

His people Israel is overwhelming, and we must not blaspheme His Purposes or diminish the fact that JACOB (ISRAEL) IS THE LOT OF HIS INHERITANCE. No sir, I'm not messing with His inheritance, and spiritualizing the Israel truth or relegating it to some legal status. I am not drinking this strange brew nor should you my friend.

All-White Town Fights to Preserve Segregation in Mandela's 'Rainbow Nation'

By F. Brinley Bruton, Staff Writer, NBC News

KLEINFONTEIN, South Africa - An all-white enclave less than an hour from South Africa's capital is fighting to hold on to a segregated life reminiscent of the country before Nelson Mandela toppled the apartheid regime.

"We feel that our culture is being threatened and we want to protect it and we want to nurture it," said Marisa Haasbroek, a writer and mother who serves as voluntary spokeswoman for a gated community called Kleinfontein.

A bust of Henrik Verwoerd, who is credited as the father of apartheid, sits near the entrance to Kleinfontein. Kleinfontein does not hide its ties to South Africa's divided past, nor its mistrust of the country's present: At its entrance stands a bust of Hendrik Verwoerd, who is seen as the father of apartheid.

A fence surrounds its almost 2,000 acres and guards in fatigues police at the entrance of the community condemned as "racist" by some critics. Among the reasons that Haasbroek and others in the cooperative town cite for walling themselves off are the country's high crime rates and institutionalized affirmative action, which they say results in white people being frozen out of jobs and university places.

Before moving to the town of some 1,000 residents, applicants must embrace the community's "core values," which are about being a Protestant Christian, an Afrikaner – the group descended from Dutch settlers – and speaking Dutch-based Afrikaans. No non-whites or Jews live or work within its boundaries.

Less than 25 years after the end of the apartheid regime run by white Afrikaners, Haasbroek said their specific identity was under threat. "My son is the tenth generation with the Haasbroek name in South Africa," she said. "We are not colonists. We have been here for generations and generations building up the roads, making the infrastructure." "And suddenly we don't feel welcome anymore," she added.

If Afrikaners' rights aren't protected, the children of a community that South African President Jacob Zuma calls Africa's "only white tribe" will disappear, according to Marisa Haasbroek. So the residents of Kleinfontein have dug in and built a community that they say reflects their heritage. Residents have to be approved by a committee. And all the work is done by Afrikaners. Signs declaring "We are here to stay" in Afrikaans dot the property.

But the issue of who is allowed to live in Kleinfontein -- and who is excluded -- offends many. Its residents are from the same white minority that ruled the country for decades, imposing strict racial segregation and oppressing the majority non-white population.

While the community has been in existence in the outskirts of Pretoria since 1992 – two years after anti-apartheid icon Mandela was released from prison and two years before blacks were allowed to vote – criticism of it has grown recently. In late May, a black man was blocked from buying a house there. Demonstrators protested outside its gates and local officials launched an investigation of the community, saying discrimination on the basis of language, race and color is illegal.

But along with the criticism, there has been sympathy. Subscriptions to its "Friends of Kleinfontein" newsletter jumped by around 20% in the last three weeks, Haasbroek said. At least 10 people called the community saying they wanted to move there immediately. "The impression we got from many Afrikaners is that many of them support our right to live the way we do, even if they themselves don't want to come in live in our quiet little town," Haasbroek said. But it isn't just any quiet little town.

While residents say they simply want to preserve their culture and language, critics argue that the mere existence of the community is a rejection of Mandela and his vision of a non-racial nation. "The fact that there are children growing up there and being indoctrinated with hateful ideology that paints all black people as criminals, that really concerns me," said Czerina Patel, a South African journalist who is the executive director of Yenza, a charity that works with disadvantaged young people.

"The bottom line is [if a non-white] Afrikaans-speaking person wanted to live there they couldn't," she added. Residents of Kleinfontein respond to criticism by saying it is they who were being squeezed out of Mandela's "Rainbow Nation."

Johan Foley's home includes the old South African flag and the old Transvaal province flag. Johan Foley, a former bank manager, did not mince his words about why he moved to Kleinfontein about 20 years ago. "We are worrying about black people," said Foley, 76. "Every time they get their hands on something, it is going bankrupt, there are troubles," he said. "White people gave them clothes, an education." Foley said he moved to Kleinfontein after he built a "pretty house" in Nylstroom – renamed Modimolle by the post-apartheid government. "We found something strange happened – all of the empty lots in town suddenly they built up with these 40-square-meter houses. And then we found out they had sold out the whole of Nylstroom to the black people," he said. "And at that moment, I decided I had to sell my house."

He is entrenched and will never leave, he said, because his vision of South Africa is being ruined. "Since 1994, since black people are taking over this country, everything has gone wrong," Foley said. The community is a shadow of the country's former mighty ruling class. A clutch of tents and mobile homes sits on part of the property – these are Afrikaners who are too poor to buy into the cooperative, or build or buy one of the modest brick homes that dot the property. Workers employed to build roads and carry out maintenance live in in these mobile homes in Kleinfontein.

A sense of crisis pervades any conversation about the future. In the event of the death of Mandela -- who made a point of reaching out to the white community and indeed appointed an Afrikaner as his personal secretary -- things were likely to get worse, residents said. "(Mandela) reached out but I don't think his followers or the people who came after have the same spirit," Haasbroek said. "That's why people are worried." And if Afrikaners' rights aren't protected, the children of a community that South African President Jacob Zuma calls Africa's "only white tribe" will disappear, she said. "I don't think they'll have a future here. Will they have jobs?" Haasbroek said of her children. "Afrikaners are getting poorer and poorer. I can pack up my things and do what my sister did and go to Australia. My husband's an engineer, he can get a job anywhere," she added. "But what about my people?"

A BIBLICAL SEPARATION IS COMING

By Pastor Barley

The Bible, God's Law-Word to His people, has warned us about both the blessings and the curses that will develop and spread throughout the nations, or mountains of end-time Israel. If we live in harmony with God's declared Word, then we are blessed, but, if we live according to man's unnatural order, then we are cursed. We rapidly decline and develop a plethora of nation destroying conditions. Here is a short list of some of the bigger nation destroying conditions we must certainly be mindful of:

Abortion, or infanticide, (the molech, government sanction of murdering innocent babies).

Sodomy, again, another government sanctioned homosexual perverted, immoral, unholy, unnatural, antichrist, lifestyle.

Race-mixing, another government protected right, that is unnatural, unbiblical (and therefore, unholy) lifestyle, that brings about and produces many nation destroying conditions.

Usury, the unbiblical (and therefore, unholy) twisted, corrupt manipulation of money (in any form) by which interest is attached to it.

Idolatry, all forms of false anti-Jesus Christ worship, which includes all forms of anti-WORD OF GOD living, and anti-Laws of God practices.

LACK OF REPENTANCE, meaning, we must not be blind to this Biblical solution expressed and stated clearly in 2 Chronicles 7:14.

The full list, of course, is much larger and detailed, but we must have a Christian Biblical vision and understanding of God's Word to His Covenant people. We are to be Christian Law-Word abiding people. In the following Scripture verses from the book of Deuteronomy, chapter 4, we are urged to be obedient to God's Word, EVEN IN THE LATTER DAYS. Many Christians would be surprised that way back in the Old Covenant, our Covenant Keeping Heavenly Father would put forth this warning for those of us in the LATTER DAYS.

Deuteronomy 4:30-31

³⁰*When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou* turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

³¹(For the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them.

We must not mistake His Voice, or His Word, for that of unregenerate antichrist men of whatever position that may hold of worldly standing. The governments of men, are not the governments of Christ our King, though, in His Sovereign Purposes, He does use them as His rod of correction and judgment upon His Covenant Israel people. Israel living within a beast system, be it, Egypt, Babylon, Assyria, Greece, Rome, or end-time Mystery Babylon, though these system may, at times, have been benevolent unto Israel, these systems always grew more oppressive and tyrannical.

All manner of false antichrist voices can be heard throughout the beast systems of Israel's captors, and surely, I need not remind you that we are in captivity today in our present Mystery Babylonian beast system. What is right according to God's Bible Word, Mystery Babylon calls wrong. The antichrist agenda and ways are thriving, and given "legal" protection and support as a method of warfare against Christendom. What should this mean to Christians? It should mean that we should do everything within our power to separate from the ways of the beast system, and not be partakers of her sinful, nation destroying ways. We must follow 2 Chronicles 7:14 in our personal lives and pray for the rest of Israel to do the same.

You may argue, "Well, we are in captivity, there is nothing we can do about it, all we can do is tough it out." Many even argue, "Don't we have to go along, to get along, and besides, I haven't heard the Divine call to COME OUT OF HER AND BE NOT PARTAKERS OF HER SINS." Let's not be Spiritually, or Biblically naïve about our Christian duties and responsibilities. We all separate in many ways from the crazy worldly insanity that surrounds us every day. We do not promote or support abortion, sodomy, race-mixing, usury, idolatry, or non-repentance, again, just to name a few nation destroying conditions. Though, we all have sinned and fallen short of the mark of Christ, we still do, in many ways, separate from the world, and many of you share with me, that as you read and absorb more and more of the truth of God's Word, you do come out of the ways of Babylon.

Our Christian forefathers of America endeavored to COME OUT OF THE CORRUPT WAYS OF ENGLAND, SPAIN, FRANCE, AND OTHER CORRUPTED EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. Though America has become a highly corrupt nation these last one hundred years, the fact remains that most of the founders of our nation were Bible learned men and women who openly practiced and lived according the Kingdom principles that were strongly based upon the Biblical principles of SEPARATION. The principles of "COME OUT OF HER, AND BE NOT PARTAKERS OF HER SINS." We are never admonished to be spiritually or Biblically irresponsible. Christians are always called upon to separate from the wicked, as the Apostle Paul stated, "be ye not unequally yoked together," because, if we are, we are indeed partaking of her sins. The increase of strangers within Israel, is never a sign of blessings, but of Israel embracing the heathen and increasing in corruption with an unholy alliance.

The Caucasian Covenant Israel people have forgotten their Covenant place, Covenant duty, and Covenant racial obligations that are censored and frowned upon by Judeo-Christianity, Spiritual Israelism, and their government approved benefactors.

September 11, 2013

I wanted to draw your attention to two events that are taking place this fall. This is truly a Choose ye this Day moment.

First, the American Muslim Political Action Committee (AMPAC) is call for a Million Muslim March on September 11, 2013. Here is a portion of their announcement.

We at AMPAC (American Political Action Committee) are planning an historic event for 9.11.13 where one million Muslims will march to Washington D.C. and demand that our civil rights be protected by our government.

We are demanding that laws be enacted protecting our 1st amendment. We are asking President Obama to fulfill his promise from his first campaign for Presidency of a transparent government. Lastly, we are asking for the release of the 9/11 commission report to the American people.

On 9.11.01 our country was forever changed by the horrific events in New York. The entire country was victimized by the acts done on that day. Muslim and Non-Muslim alike were traumatized but we as Muslims continue 12 years later to be victimized by being made the villains. To this day every media outlet and anti-Islamic organization has committed slanderous and libel statements against us as Muslims and our religion of Islam.

Yet our Government either sits idly by and does nothing to protect our freedoms or it exacerbates the problem with its constant war on terrorism in Islamic countries, congressional hearings on Islam in America, and its changes to the NDAA law.

Second, World Net Daily's founder is calling for a National Day of Prayer and Repentance on September 11, 2013. Here is a portion of their announcement.

Government is broken. No longer does Washington see itself as a servant of the people but rather as their master. So where do we turn? How can we save America? What would our founders do faced with such predicaments?

Those of us who understand the challenges we face for the very survival of America as we have known it throughout most of its history - a shining city on a hill, one nation under God - must start planning now to do something radical.

We've got to do battle with the powers and the principalities we face, with the violence and immorality, envy, hatred and avarice by humbling ourselves and seeking the will and mercy of God. A nationwide day of prayer and repentance can have an enormous impact on restoring our country.

Imagine thousands of churches opening their doors to millions of worshippers who heartily confess their sins, seek forgiveness and pray for salvation and redemption and the restoration of our country.

This is a matter between God and His people.

His word tells us in 2 Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

We've got our instructions. God is waiting on us to act - His people. He's not waiting on the whole world to act. He's not waiting on a majority of Americans to act. He's waiting on us. Will we follow His command and accept His promise to forgive our sin and heal our land? Mark the date - Sept. 11, 2013.

Notice that both these groups recognize that government is the problem. However, who will you appeal to? Jesus Christ the Messiah of Israel or Allah, the savior of the Islamic world?

I repeat what Joshua said to the nation of Israel, "but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:10

Blessings,

Pastor Dave Barley

In Dream He Came

Asleep in my bed,
Wretched and dead
In a dream I suddenly saw
A light afar off for which I was lead

Suddenly, I was on bended knee
Wondering what was to be
When gentle hands caressed my face.
He lifted me to stand in His strong arms, I was embraced

Before me was Jesus in His amazing grace
How I knew Him I cannot say, His face be hidden
But know him I did in a miraculous way.

In Shekinah Glory and shimmering robe
His perfect love I did fully know
I felt so loved words can't describe
I knew that from now on I am truly alive.

He said not a word, yet His message was clear
That His love is so vast I would never again fear.

I knew then I am never the same
For when Christ enters it's a new game.
Now I was on "The Way" you see
No longer focused on self and me
Forever now I must obey

I must now strive His will to perfect
No longer slave to flesh or sect.
Now recreated in good works done
In Christ Jesus, God's Beloved Son

A testimony, Ed Baird
