

America's Promise Ministries Newsletter

PO Box 157

Sandpoint, ID 83864

March/April 2017

Table of Contents

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:2

Divine Purpose.....2

A SPIRITUAL ALERT: 40 DAYS OF PRAYER.....33

Moses the Economist, Part 4 by C. F. Parker.....17

Understanding the Sabbath By Martha Barley.....20

To Whom Will Jesus Say, I Never Knew You?

By Jaye Torgerson, Eau Claire, WI.....23

A President that Reduces Debt and Waste!28

Obama Deported Millions, Killed Thousands and Now He's Out to Slyly Depose his Successor, So Why Does Everyone Think He's President Perfect? By Piers Morgan.....30

South African President Calls For Confiscating White-Owned Land.....31

Shelby Steele: The Exhaustion of American Liberalism..... 32

Matt Schlapp
President of CPAC
explains the theme:

“We, the people, reclaiming America's promise. We feel like two things, number one, like you throughout the last decade, we've lost so much of what we want America to be and what America is supposed to be. And number two, we think that activists need to be reminded of the principles of our founding.”

America's Promise Ministries Newsletter

March/April 2017

Pastor Dave Barley

Founder: Pastor Sheldon Emry

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

We the People: Reclaiming America's Promise

CPAC 2017 Theme

DIVINE PURPOSE

Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

There truly is a Divine Purpose in all things. Yes, there are good things and there are bad things, and yet, the Bible says, “all things work together for good,” BUT, “to them that love God.” Do you “love God?” I do believe that most of you do love God, which means that you also love His Word and His Purposes. Let me add the last part of verse 28 into this discussion, which says, “to them (Covenant called Adamic-Israel) who are called according to his purpose” (this is a Covenant calling). Within the framework of today's political events, which I believe are miraculous, and the fact that Biblically, God's purpose is to unite and bring His Covenant Israel people into His Blessed Kingdom, therefore, it may well be, that God Almighty has a Divine Blessed Purpose in the election of President Donald Trump.

The election of Donald Trump did not cause the liberals hate, it revealed it.

His election most assuredly is causing the tares to raise their heads. In many ways, they are losing their minds (or their heads) over the Trump presidency. If you will stop and think about it, the tares are being revealed as never before through the Trump presidency. Again, there surely is something Divine happening here. There is a "revealing" that almost no one foresaw, but we all were praying for the wicked to be revealed and exposed.

President Trump's recent news conference exposed the lying corrupt media. It was an event which none of us have ever seen before. I predict that the exposure of the corrupt media is just one of many other wicked systems that will be targeted and exposed. Again friends, there is a "REVEALING" happening at this very hour that is of a supernatural consequence.

Fellow brethren, I, like most of you am an unapologetic Trump supporter and advocate. Ok, let me add, for the most part I am an enthusiastic supporter of Trump. So far, I think he may well be on his way to being one of America's greatest presidents. Yes, even despite all the large number of Jews involved in his cabinets and various offices, Donald Trump is proving that he is God's appointed Cyrus for this day and time. He is, so far, standing strong, and, in many ways is not bowing to the media and establishment pressures to conform to the "swamp mentality."

Agree with President Trump or not, "the heathen are raging" about his presidency, political picks, policies, and decisions. I am so glad that the dark age of the Obamination presidency is over. However, we all know that Obama and his big-mouthed schemes and purposes are not over and his NOT-SO-grand re-entry into the Washington D. C. area is very overt. He is a tare raising his head. The liberals and assorted parasites can hardly wait for his return to the political stage.

The sodomites, lesbians, liberals, abortion rights advocates, socialist, communist, feminists, and other political activists, are working for his inglorious arrival.

Make no mistake about it. Obama is a globalist and he and his fellow Communists throughout the world are doing everything within their power to hand over the USA to an anti-Christ one world agenda. The globalization of our nation is their goal. Most of the countries of the EU are in step with globalism. But Brexit and Donald Trump emerged. The globalists did not expect God's Divine Intervention with a Donald Trump.

Regarding President (CYRUS) Trump, I really do not believe all the anti-Christ's know who they are dealing with. Clearly Trump is not a wimp. I firmly believe God is on his side. With God on his side, that's more than enough to handle any enemy or anything the enemy may throw out at him. The enemies of America keep thinking that they can break Trump, but because of God's protection they have not been able to do so.

The District of Criminal elites don't know what to do. They are so used to cowering under the political pressure, but so far, Trump stands-tall. He is the man for this hour. Also, I am convinced that, now (finally), U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions will play a very significant role in the Trump presidency. This is why the Democrats fought so hard to destroy Jeff Sessions.

The Evil Media

Be very clear, that the media is ever-so-much an "EVIL," as the International bankers. They are liars and deceivers. They promote the sodomite agenda, unjust wars, perversion, abortion/murder, tyranny, antichristism, anti-Bible, anti-Kingdom of God. They are enemies of Christ, truth, justice, and yes, our American way (meaning the America that seeks God's righteousness).

Do You See the Enemy?

I see the "enemy" and all the various ungodly pathetic things they are doing and saying, however, I see the marvelous hand of the Almighty in this Trump presidency. Again, I am well aware of all the anti-Christ Jews, some of whom are visible and seemingly open in who they are and their involvement in the Trump cabinet positions, but there are numerous ones who are not so visible behind the scenes just waiting for the opportune moment to do their Zionistic interferences. Already the Zionist Jews believe they have the office of the Executive branch totally within their control. They already know that with all their powerful Jewish lobby groups that they have the legislative branch also within their beckoning domination. But God is Sovereign and He does Rule in the affairs of men!

Luke 12:32

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Genesis 15:1

After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

King Jesus, the One who knows the hairs on our heads, the fall of every sparrow, the Creator of all things, and who is the Alpha and Omega, is the One who picked and appointed Donald Trump as His "CYRUS." Whatever enemy force is out there in nothing compared to God Almighty, who is the Omniscient and Omnipotent controller and the "BUCK-STOPS AND BEGINS WITH HIS SUPREME PURPOSES." May we all remember these Biblical Words and be ever inspired by them, “HAVE FAITH IN GOD” (Jesus said these Words, in Mark 11:22).

Clearly, President Trump is not our Savior or Deliverer, but it is most certain that he is now in the highest earthly office, by Divine appointment.

Was the Super Bowl Spiritually Ordained?

To help us with this understanding, I would like to direct our thoughts to the recent “Super Bowl” football game in Houston, Texas, where the Atlanta Falcons and the New England Patriots competed. Here in the Sandpoint, Idaho, area it was a very cold and snowy day. We were invited over to my son Patrick’s house to watch the game and visit with other family members who visiting from out of town. I personally was hoping that the New England Patriots would win, simply because it was well known that the owner of the Patriots team, Mr. Kraft, and Donald Trump were close personal friends. Also, Trump was friends with the quarterback for the Patriots, Tom Brady, and coach Bill Belichick. I bring all this up because of the obvious support base for Donald Trump by the Patriots and the more than obvious media bias against the Patriots because of the Trump support.

Now Martha and I were well over 50 miles away from our house and it was extremely bad weather, the snowfall just would not let up. It was near half-time in the game, and the score was Falcons “21” to the Patriots “0.” The game seemed to be lost for the Patriots, and it was getting dark and we knew that the road home would be hazardous, so we said our sweet good-byes and headed home with the thought that the Falcons had won the Super Bowl. When we safely arrived at our home, we turned on the game, fully expecting the Falcons to be the winners, but, to our big surprise, there was just 2 minutes left in the game and the score was Patriots "20," Falcons "28." We all know, of course, the New England Patriots went on to tie the game "28" to "28." Then the Patriots in over-time won the Super-bowl, quite literally stunning all viewers, but none so much as the liberals who wanted the Falcons to win. You see, they were hoping to embarrass Donald Trump and belittle him over this loss. Martha and I were stunned to say the least. We both immediately thought of this game's victory compared with the Trump presidential victory on election night.

The Presidency seemed loss for Trump against Hillary, even around 9 P.M., but then things started to change and Donald Trump ended up winning the office of President of the United States of America. It clearly was no coincidence that this Super Bowl victory mirrored that of the Trump presidential election night. My point in all this is, this was all DIVINE INTERVENTION. Clearly, the antichrist did not orchestrate these supernatural events. They were directed by the hand of God, not evolution, or the big-bang theory "god." No, my dear friends, this was unmistakably Holy Spirit directed and purposed. We truly are living in the last days Biblically and God is speaking, and manifesting His Presence and Intentions.

Hold on to Jesus as you never have before. Things are happening at a rapid pace.

A Separation is Coming

Think about all the many national and even global causes and effects that have been occurring. Until recently, they were mostly bad causes and effects brought on because America blatantly elected an alien, Barack Hussein Obama, a black, antichrist, Muslim, who hates America just as much as he does White Christian people. He empowered all the dark races to rise up and take whatever power and control they could grab.

(See page 31.) He gave them power to pretty much do whatever they wanted and not have to fear the justice department, the police, military, or media. Also, let us not forget how Obama constantly berated Christians and Christianity, while at the same time exalting the virtues of militant antichrist Islam. Isis, Jihad, military weapons and other assorted Muslim empowering aids were clearly given through Obama Executive incentives.

The ghost of Obamination is still a very scary presence in the Washington D.C. area. His corrupting influence is far from gone. Stay tuned as he and his crony one-world plotters work against what once was White America. Obama is certainly not the only seriously misdirected president, but he clearly has done more to inflame the hatred of the non-white races against White people and even has white people hating white people. The sooner we all wake up to this sad fact, the better off we will be. We simply are not meant to be unequally yoked together. Multiculturalism is not our brave new world, it is our hell from which things will only get more, and more insane within the frame work of a very dark reality, prophesied over and over in the Word of God. The Muslim religion like the Jewish religions are enemies of Christ. As Christ said in Matthew 12:30:

He that is not with me is against me;

Ezra 9:1-6

¹ Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

² For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

³ And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

⁴ Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

⁵ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord my God.

⁶ And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

Nehemiah 13:3

Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

Adultery, A Road to Hell

Thou shalt NOT COMMIT ADULTERY. Thou shalt not adulterate, mix, or amalgamate yourselves Israel, and if you do, you will go through "hell." This means "be ye not unequally yoked together." This means respect your race, your family seed, your kindred lineage, and your religious beliefs. Do not allow the world to pervert your ways by sowing unnatural seed or corrupting what God has designed in its original state. This does not mean that other races cannot trade, do business, or exchange on certain proper levels. This does not mean that there cannot be help or aid given. But there are rules, Biblical rules, principles, and limitations.

There are no laws, rules, or regulations of man that will ever supersede the Supreme Authority of God's Word. The Holy Spirit does not replace God's Laws. The Holy Spirit's role is not to keep us away from God's Laws, but to give us understanding and greater purpose in their need and application. There is no so called superior "spiritual" replacement of God's Law Word, because true Spirituality will always underscore the Laws of God, unless they have been fulfilled by the shed blood of the Lord Jesus, such as the blood rituals, and certain priestly duties. Remember what Jesus stated in Matthew 5:18-19.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

His Grace

Certainly, we are not "saved, or redeemed" by the Law. Jesus the Christ (Anointed Messiah) is our blessed and whole means of salvation. Through Grace we have a better vision and understanding of our salvation, but we cannot "Grace-away" the Laws of God. Though "Grace" is unmerited favor, this does not mean "we are free to sin." As the Apostle Paul stated, "God forbid."

Jesus Christ is our "unmerited favor." His merit upon the cross is what Saves and Redeems His people. With the highest regard, respect, worship, and honor, we say "HIS GRACE," meaning, we are His servant people and He is our blessed King. It's all about "HIS GRACE," which He extends to us by His shed precious blood.

Any earthly king always has laws that His "subjects" (people) are to obey and which helps bring some degree of civility throughout the national house or Kingdom land. We want to bring glory and honor to our blessed King Jesus the Christ. The Biblical way in which this is done is by being "righteous," which means "law-abiding." Being lawless does not bestow love, honor, devotion, deep respect, or worship. Lawlessness brings dishonor to our Blessed Savior.

Grace does not mean being absent or without the law. That would be lawlessness, being in a state of corruption and chaos. Jesus is not the Author of confusion (1 Corinthians 14:33). Remember, the New Covenant is that Christ will write His Laws with the hearts of His people (Hebrews 8:8-10). Biblical Grace does not mean we have the right to be lawless (or a people without, or absent of the law). It simply means that we have the King's favor if we are lawful, thereby being "civil, or civilized."

Ephesians 2:10

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Notice, we are to "walk in them," meaning "good works," which obviously means "God's righteous Laws." If Grace is merely "unmerited favor," supposedly meaning without law and order, we would all be in confusion and disarray. Grace is not being free to do our own thing and disobey God anytime our carnal mind so choses.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

¹⁹ What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

²⁰ For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

We are HIS PROPERTY. We belong to Him. As His property,

He has full authority and rights of ownership over us. But He is a loving merciful Master and Savior. He did not Redeem us to abuse us. He redeemed His people, to set them free in His (Christ's) Liberty. In His "plantation," we learn the Master's rules and methods. We learn to operate His rules and to live, move, and have our being in harmony with His Will.

Grace is new found liberty in Christ, the likes of which the world has never known. Grace which brings us into favor with HIS GRACE. It brings us in favor with His Kingdom Purposes, in that we are His workmanship, not our own fleshly purposes, but His. We do not get the credit, King Jesus gets all the honor, and glory, AMEN. Not away from righteousness, but unto His righteousness.

1 Timothy 1:8

But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

What is all this "the law is bad" type of reasoning we hear from certain Judeo-Christian circles? The Apostle Paul says, "the law is good." If we are in obedience to God's Laws (spiritually and physically), we are being lawful. But if we are disobeying God's Laws, we are being "unlawful." This is how a man is to use and apply God's Laws. We are to "use it lawfully."

1 Timothy 1:9-10

⁹ Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

¹⁰ For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

The “law is not made for a righteous man,” because a righteous man is already living in obedience to God’s Laws. But the Law is made for the “lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murders of mothers, for manslayers, for whoremongers, ...them that defile themselves with mankind (homosexuals), for menstealers (abductors), liars, perjurers,” and so forth.

Yes, “while we were yet sinners, Christ died for the ungodly, or sinners” (Romans 5:6-8). The Scriptures literally say, Israel was “without strength,” to save themselves. They desperately needed a Savior, and they needed HIS GRACE. Christ bestowed His Righteousness and His Grace merit upon us through the shedding of His Sacrificial Blood.

Part of His Amazing Grace, was that He was going to write His Laws upon the hearts of His Israel people.

1 Peter 2:12

Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

The “Gentiles” who are the subject matter, are the divorced, dispersed lost sheep of the Northern House of Israel. However, in this Bible passage, the Apostle Peter is telling the non-divorced Southern Kingdom of Judah (who were mainly of the houses of Judah, Benjamin, and Levi), that they are to set the example righteously. That “they (these divorced Northern House of Israel comprised of ten tribes) may by your (speaking of the non-divorced Southern Kingdom of Judah) good WORKS...glorify God.”

They will see your “good works” and glorify God. This is being the “salt of the earth.” We are within King Jesus good "Graces," when we are obeying Him, and this is what brings honor to Him, His name, and His Righteous Purposes. God's Covenant people will never be free when they are disobedient to the King's Law Word. Grace is not free from God's Laws, Grace is the absence of disobedience, or lawlessness. Grace is the power of the Holy Spirit moving upon His people to live within God's Law Word. Freedom and Grace flow from this Spiritual process.

In this we have "unmerited favor." In Grace, we are within the Law of Christ (our Grace), which produces more freedom. This Grace freedom is "unmerited favor," because it is the bi-product of true liberty "Christ in you the hope of glory." Oh, such freedom. This freedom comes from Christ writing His Laws within the hearts of His people (Hebrews 8:8-10.) This is accomplished through the reading of God's word. Becoming familiar with God's Laws of Righteousness. Without the Word, all men are "most miserable."

His Laws will always be the guide and light of distinction between right and wrong, good and evil. Grace without the Law is rather meaningless. Grace alone is not the all-encompassing truth. Many times, I have heard "Grace," explained this way, that "Grace is without race or the law."

That statement is not only wrong, it is a major part of "the problem." Grace does not legitimize multiculturalism, where there is no more law that is to be obeyed. Indeed, Grace is upon the called-out and chosen Adamic Israel people. They are the "fallen-race" who were once divorced and separated. They are now under Christ's sinless shed blood, His Grace, His merit, His Purposes, NOT Israel's Old Covenant merits, but Christ's New Covenant Grace, favor, and merit. His blessed blood restores us, rending the veil that separated us. Jesus restored that which was lost.

There are Boundaries

Israelites can only be God's Light if they use God's Word. Meaning, we are not free to partake of other cultures or religions, or mingle our seed with those who are outside of our racial lineage, or nationalistic boundaries. We are not to be internationalists, we are to be patriots of the Kingdom of God and have allegiance to our own and the things of God.

We are not to appropriate to ourselves other cultures in any shape or form as it leads to idolatry. When we do, we will most assuredly lose our sons and daughters to the corrupting ways of this world. Are not the precious sons and daughters of Adamic Israel in this sad situation today? We are not pirates nor are we to behave as barbarians. We are not to elevate pagan cultures as though it were some sign of enlightenment that will better us. To the contrary, these third world cultures are nation destroying idolatrous cultures who have never been to the betterment of God's Covenant Adamic Israel people.

Show me one black advanced civilized nation? Where is the light of Africa without the leadership of the White culture being involved? And even when it is involved, chaos, turmoil, and riots persist because we no longer use the Word of God and His Law as our mandate. God tells us to BE YE SEPARATE. Let the other races be with their own kind and let us trust God to handle His Creation. Where did we get the idea that we must inject ourselves into the culture and society of the other races? We cannot straighten out our own national house. Who are we to go out to other cultures and try to fix what we think is wrong with them when we cannot fix ourselves? The real crazy part of this is that we try to do so without applying Biblical principles. Hey, White man, you are NOT the Great Physician, God Almighty is. Have faith in Him. Trust not in thy own understanding. Clean your own national house, then, God will open other doors for His people.

The reason third world nations keep coming to White Adamic nations is because we not only invite them, but we believe that we can somehow make them like us, so we try to make them in our image and likeness. But our job is not to make them like our image, our job is to come into the image and likeness of Christ.

We are not to give, aid, and support to other people until we all reach some worldly idea of equality. The multiculturalists want to see a globalist world that is brown or dark colored in which the White race has been so thoroughly integrated and polluted that their national standing is pretty much mute. It simply will not happen, God's plan is not for His Covenant people to be mixed, blended, and so integrated that no one will ever be able to tell the difference between the Elect people and the world. God's Plan of the Ages will stand.

Be assured, you will never find a more giving, caring, helpful people than the White Adamic people. But we are not to be helpful to a fault. We are to be helpful Biblically and only as the Holy Spirit directs. The Holy Spirit will not direct His people to violate His WORD. We are not to be emotionally driven reactionaries. We are to be a Covenant purposed and directed people who do things righteously and according to the Purposes of God. Adamic Israel, we are not to be playing "footsy" with the world and expect God's Divine favor. We may be "in this world," but we are not to be of this corrupt world order.

Proverbs 19:21

There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

Moses the Economist, Part 4

By C. F. Parker

[This treatise originally appeared in serial form in the National Message Magazine of the British Israel World Federation in 1946. It is a presentation on how to implement God's Law.]

Tithing, Firstfruits, Concessions, and Contributions

The individual is seldom self-supporting; especially is this true in advanced civilization. In primitive and pastoral communities, the family quite often is capable of providing for itself, but in modern life, this is the exception. Generally speaking, we are all dependent on one another for the necessities of life. Not only the individual but the family as a whole depends upon its neighbours to supply necessary items that it cannot produce. In brief, civilizations depend upon the exchange of commodities for their very existence.

There are many individuals, and at times whole families or communities, that are either totally non-productive or whose production of commodities is so low that their own needs cannot be satisfied, either by their direct efforts or by exchange among their neighbours. In Old Testament times, such cases may be classed broadly as follows:

- (a) The totally non-productive--children, aged, infirm, sick, etc.
- (b) Those who labored, but who did not produce commodities--civil servants and professionals, etc.
- (c) Semi-productives--part time workers; producers of mixed services and commodities, the latter not being sufficient for self-maintenance; the temporarily unemployed.

These divisions are discernible in the Old Testament. Category (a) would include the poor, widows, fatherless, sick, and aged; (b) would include the Levites and Aaronic priesthoods; lastly, in (c) would come the part-time worker, who is given an important place in the New Testament parable of the vineyard, where, in view of his having been hired towards the end of the working day, he received special consideration as a wage-earner. This subject will be dealt with later.

All these classes are dependent because of their limited abilities, or because of restrictions forbidding them from exchanging their own output in goods and/or services with their fellow men.

- (d) There is also another class of people who suffer no physical handicap or restrictions, yet who also are dependent. This class consists of the manufacturers of commodities--the carpenter, the smith, craftsmen generally, and the numerous non-professional producers of invisible services-musicians, transport operators, housewives, etc., who render services in exchange for the commodities they need.
- (e) All these four classes, whether or not they be able-bodied and capable of earning their own living by serving and exchanging on the open market, are entirely dependent for the existence on this fifth class: the farmers, who alone provide food for mankind.

The fourth class, although dependent on the farmer for food and other products of the land necessary for clothing, etc., will not be a burden on his shoulders, for these two will exchange their produce and services which they will need of each other. The carpenter or manufacturer, as the case may be, will need the vegetables, dairy produce, wool, etc., of the farmer, who in turn must have their woodwork, machines, tools and innumerable items.

The first three classes, (a), (b), and (c), are kept by the farmer through a system of tithing, concessions and contributions. It may be thought unfair that the fourth class should not share this burden, so it will be well to outline the logic of the Mosaic system. Strictly speaking, this fourth class is non-productive of material substance: that is to say, the smith, carpenter, musician, artists, etc., although they may fashion something useful and beautiful out of something rough and basic, do not increase any actual substance. After beating out a golden vessel, the goldsmith finds that the vessel weighs no more than the lump of gold with which he started. So, too, the carpenter; in fact, he has less when finished, for he has thrown away shavings and splinters from the original wood. The artist's canvas weighs no more than the original materials when he has finished his work, and the musician's composition cannot be called a physical creation-it is his original ink marked on to the original paper: aesthetically, something beautiful may have been created, yet physically it is no more than the original substances. This, it is that all this class is non-productive in the physical sense, for it simply reshapes and reorganizes existing materials, and for this reason it is not intended to bear the burden of the first three classes, (a), (b), and (c).

The farmer should, according to Moses, bear the burden in question, for all mankind he is the only one who, starting and working with a certain quantity of materials, finishes up with more. He reaps more than he sows; yet he has not created the increase. Strictly speaking, if there was no such thing as increase of seeds and stock, the farmer would merely dig up that which was originally planted and he would never have any new livestock; but in fact, he sows the seed and is then powerless, except in a limited sense by applying manures, etc., to dictate how it shall grow, yet it grows and increase, until finally he obtains from the soil far more than that with which he started. This constitutes the big difference between class (e) and classes (a), (b), (c), and (d).

The Israelite believed that God, not the farmer, had rendered the increase of seed and stock; hence this was not the farmer's increase but God's. It was unlike the golden bowl fashioned by the craftsman, the furniture of the carpenter, the painting of the artist, or the composition of the musician, which they had effected by the work of their own hands and might claim as their own work on raw materials; admittedly the raw material itself was God's, but man had fashioned it into something for his own betterment. These classes had a claim greater than that of the farmer, for neither was the substance nor the work of increasing his-it was God's. God gave this free increase to the farmer with the provision that out of it a small portion be set aside for the civil servants, and those who were unable to render exchangeable services. Thus, to the farmer was assigned the responsibility of feeding and clothing members of classes (a), (b), and (c); the fourth class, (d) being entirely able-bodied people, was left to provide for its own maintenance by rendering useful services and/or commodities exchangeable on the open market. It must be remembered that this class, composed of manufacturers, artists and others, while it did not pay tax as such, for tax was levied on "increase" alone, yet as heads of or members of families, each of this class presumably enjoyed a family lease of land by virtue of which they might also become farmers and members of that titheable class.

Understanding the Sabbath

By Martha Barley

The Sabbath started as the 7th day. Then at Mt. Sinai when the Law of God was given, the sabbath days became specific days of the month see Exodus 12, Leviticus 16 & 23, and Numbers 29. Then in Hosea, Israel was told that because of their disobedience this would happen.

Hosea 2:11

I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

Fourteen years later in Isaiah 1:13, the Lord said, "Bring me no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of the assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity (margin - grief) even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them."

This raises two questions:

1. What would be the event that would cause them to cease?
2. When did they cease?

The answer is the Resurrection of Jesus.

From this time forward as witnessed by the early church fathers and in the New Testament we see the rending of the curtain in the Temple and the worship of the Christians on the Lord's Day. This signified the ending of the Old Levitical order and a change to the New establishment of Christ as our Melchizedek Priest and King. Matthew records the change in 28:1, "In the END of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre."

When you go the original Greek, you find the rendering first day of the week is wrong. Eis miam sabbaton should have been translated "toward the first of the sabbaths." In Young's Literal Translation, it says. "And on the eve of sabbaths, at the dawn, toward the first of sabbaths." This is when the Old Mosaic System of dates of the month for sabbaths and feast days ceased and the new first of the sabbaths, Sunday began. For proof, request the book, Israel's Calendar and The True Sabbath by Curtis Clair Ewing and Charles Wesley Ewing.. (#865 Sugg. Gift $5.00)

Seventy Weeks: The Historical Alternative

This is the story of the only Messianic Divine measure recorded in the Bible. The truth of its interpretation goes back to the Protestant Reformation. This book reveals the truth about Daniel's 70th week. Its contents shatter the sand built foundations of today's popular Futurism and Dispensationalist teachings.

Sugg. Gift $8

The Present Reign Of Jesus Christ: A Historical Interpretation of the Book of Revelation

The Book of Revelation was designed by our Lord to progressively reveal Himself throughout the unfolding of His great "eternal" Kingdom. A Kingdom which was destined to grow from a "stone" to become a "great mountain" which will triumph over all its enemies and fill the earth. The prophecy of the revelation is dramatically violent, victorious, and encouraging. It forewarns of a glorious struggle between the true Church and the corporate enemies of Christ. It is written in the symbolic language of the prophets and can only be understood and interpreted with consistent application of this language, a sound knowledge of history and guidance of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, this dissertation attempts to summarize the massive volumes of historical literature by providing the reader with a historical linear perspective of the Church. In other words, you'll be shown where we are today in the book of Revelation. This work stands as an aggressive rebuke to the modern dispensational and preterist counter schemes which have caused the church to fall from clear prophetic understanding for generations.

Sugg. Gift $8

To Whom Will Jesus Say, I Never Knew You?

By Jaye Torgerson, Eau Claire, WI

Shortly into the Sermon on the Mount Jesus told His audience, “Think not that I am come to destroy the law.” He then warned that they should not “break one of these least commandments,” and that if their righteousness did not “exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees” they would not “enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:17-20). “Law,” in this context, was the Law of the Lord, the moral compass used by Jesus, and that which He will use to govern the kingdom of heaven upon His return at the end of the age. We are not expected to obey these Laws perfectly. Jesus did this for us. The requirement is that we follow His example by using them as our moral compass, “for sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4).

For the purpose of this article, it will be stated that the “kingdom of heaven”— is not in heaven. “Of” does not mean “in.” It means the same as “of” in “the kingdom of God,” the term used by the other Gospel writers. A comparison of Matthew’s “kingdom of heaven” in 8:11-12 to Luke’s “kingdom of God” in 13:28-29 will reveal both writers as describing the same kingdom, and that its location is on earth. Supporting this is that “things that offend, and them which do iniquity” (Matthew 13:41) are in this kingdom, and will be removed upon Christ’s return. This could not be if Matthew was locating the kingdom of heaven as in heaven.

The question then is, what are “things that offend,” what is “iniquity,” and is there a connection between these and the people to whom Jesus will say, “I never knew you” (Matthew 7:23)? The prophecy reads as follows.

“Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” (Matthew 7:21-23)

It cannot be emphasized to strongly that the “many” in this prophecy are not Muslims, Hindus, or Jews. The context identifies them as Christians, as a certain type of Christian. Also, it seems to be describing their pastors and leaders. Christ has returned, and they are asking Him why they are not entering the kingdom as are other yet-alive Christians. Having taught, and done wonderful works in His name, they cannot understand why they do not qualify as having done “the will of my Father.” They plead their case before King Jesus, but only to hear Him say, “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Psalm 40:8 and other texts, tell us that the will of God is found in His Law: “I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart.” The apostle Paul alluded to this when he spoke of God, saying, “And knowest his will ... being instructed out of the law” (Romans 2:18). So, God’s will for Christians includes the obeying of His Law. Also, repeating this truth was the apostle John when he defined sin as “the transgression of the law.” As a follow-up, he stated that “whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin ... because he is born of God” (v. 9). John was not saying that born of God/born again Christians will not sin (they do), but that they will not make a practice of transgressing the Law. Also, known as repentance, this tells us that truly born again (from above) Christians will not practice a particular sin, or sins, even when their government makes it legal to do so. For example, induced abortion, once illegal, was made legal by the US Supreme Court decision, Roe v. Wade in 1973. Its legality would be one of the aforementioned “things that offend” in the parable of the tares. Government leaders who create policies that “offend,” and those who sin by taking advantage of them, are both in the category of “them which work iniquity.” It does not take a rocket scientist to understand this, neither the fact that induced abortion is not the only sin made legal by government in recent times.

As of this writing, Jesus is yet sitting at the right hand of God the Father, making intercession for the saints. But according to His I-never-knew-you prophecy, there is a type of Christian in whom the Holy Spirit does not abide, and who our Lord does not acknowledge. He does not, apparently, hear their prayers. Is it because they have not asked Him into their heart, or into their life (terminology not in the Bible, but used by most evangelical leaders)? No! The reason stated is that they “work iniquity.” The Greek dictionary in Strong’s Concordance tells us that “iniquity” is translated from #458, *anomia, and that it means lawlessness. Jesus does not acknowledge this type of Christian for the reason stated in Proverbs 28:9, “He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.” This puts today’s grace only type believers in the I-never-knew-you category. They have twisted Romans 6:14 (“ye are not under the law, but under grace”*) into the idea that, because we are not under the penalty of the Law, that the entire Law was replaced by some other moral code. As a result, they are not using the moral compass used by Jesus, and are working iniquity/lawless.

Sins Corrected by Ezra and Nehemiah, but Rampant in Today’s Church

In the books of Ezra and Nehemiah are three different sins described in detail. On the subjects of money, marriage, and the Fourth Commandment, these sins are rampant in today’s church. That the Laws of God which prohibit them were once both statutory law and Christian cultural custom seems not to bother most evangelicals. Usury for example, God’s Law prohibiting the collecting of interest on money was upheld by the church until about the 15th Century. Gradually abandoned due to the love of money, usury is now widely practiced by Christians. One of the many symptoms of this sin is the burden of annual interest on an unpayable $20 trillion national debt. In Matthew 25:26-27, Jesus compared usury to reaping where one has not sown.

God's Law prohibiting unnecessary commercial activity on the Sabbath was honored in Christendom, well into the 1900s. (The apostolic church observed Sunday as the required, one day in a cycle of sevens.) But as the number of Christians in government declined, those inconvenient "blue laws" were struck down and the Christian Sabbath is now one of the busiest days for store and restaurant chains. However, and to their credit, the Christian owned and operated, Chick-fil-A restaurants, and the Hobby Lobby stores do not open on Sunday.

God's Law prohibiting mixed marriage was also, both statutory law and Christian cultural custom until recent decades. But in the case, Virginia v. Loving in 1967, the US Supreme Court declared that good was evil by striking down all state laws prohibiting this sin. Since then it has increased tenfold as most pastors, unwilling to be persecuted for righteousness sake, abandoned this Law of God for political correctness. These are the church leaders who join hands with Hollywood, the ACLU, and the Southern Poverty Law Center by labeling the few Christians organizations which speak against this sin, as "racist," and "hate groups."

In 2015, one sin begat another when Virginia v. Loving was used as a case precedent by LGBT groups. They argued that state laws prohibiting same sex marriage should also be struck down. As a result, this type of "marriage" also has legal protection, and is being normalized by the social engineers in Hollywood, public education, and mainstream news outlets. In another generation, it too, will be a sin few pastors oppose.

In an attempt to excuse their flocks from politically incorrect Laws of God, most evangelical pastors will say, "That's not for us, the law was given to the Jews." But this is a big mistake because the Law was given to Israel, of which 1st Century Jews were only a small portion. For example, about 20 years before the Jews were scattered in AD 70, James addressed an epistle "to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad” (James 1:1). Also in contradistinction to those not yet scattered, is that these Israelites (and yes, they were racial Israelites) were accepting Jesus and the New Covenant. James was writing to the greater, non-Jew portion of Israel, those whose ancestors were scattered, and who remained abroad after the 7th and 6th Century BC, Assyrian and Babylonian invasions and deportations. The lost tribes of Israel, it was they who were the “other sheep I have which are not of this fold” (Jesus: John 10:16). The Jews knew them as “the dispersed among the Gentiles,” and “the children of God that were scattered abroad” (John 7:35, 11:52). They were also the Christians called Gentiles in Paul’s epistles. These were the Israelites among whom the Gospel traveled, from the Mediterranean area to Western Europe. We, the people of historic Christianity (Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, Scandinavian and related Europeans) are their descendants. We are Israelites, the people of whom Isaiah prophesied, would be “called by a new name ... by another name” (62:2; 65:15). That name is “Christians” (Acts 11:26), and history tells us that Isaiah’s prophecy was fulfilled over 1000 years ago, when the last of Western European nations became known by Israel’s prophesied new name. We are racial Israelites, the people whose responsibility it is, to walk in the Law of the Lord. As professing Christians, we must make an honest attempt to obey these Laws. To not do so, will put us in the category of those to whom Jesus will say those awful words: “I never knew you.”

Adapted from the author’s book, Jew and Non-Jew Israelites (#849 Sugg. Gift $25 Postpaid) You may also email Jaye (torgersonjaye@yahoo.com) regarding this article; your questions and comments are welcome. May the Lord bless you with the Berean spirit; may He inspire you to search the scriptures, whether these things are so. Reprinted with Permission

A President that Reduces Debt and Waste!

On January 20th, the day of President Trump's Inauguration, the US Debt stood at $19,947 billion. As of March 16th, the most recent date for US debt reporting, the US Debt stands at $19,846 billion. President Trump has cut the US Debt burden by over $100 billion and 0.5% in the first two months since his inauguration!

<http://www.thegatewaypundit.com/2017/03/355719/>

He has also issued an executive order aimed at reorganizing and eliminating waste. "The order will require a "thorough examination" of every executive branch agency to identify "where money can be saved and services improved." Trump Budget Director Mick Mulvaney will ask agencies to "review themselves" to conduct the "long overdue reorganization," The administration may ultimately recommend the elimination of wholesale agencies.

Why is it that under the Obama administration, it was perfectly reasonable, honorable, and justifiable for the United States of America to unite with the Russian government in Outer Space ventures in the name of unity and peace, but when President Trump says, "Wouldn't it be nice if Russia and America could get along and work together in peace," that it is now a ridiculous point? That now, the "socialistic liberals" are speaking words of WAR against Russia, because they want to justify their scenario that "Russia is now our enemy and propagator of voting espionage." Under Obama's presidency, Russia sold the U.S. the rocket engines it needed for launches as a feature of U.S. foreign policy. In April 2016, Russian cosmonaut Sergei Krikalev said, that the space cooperation between Moscow and Washington was a vivid example of the countries' partnership.

The Obama-Hillary and assorted globalist are such liars and hypocrites.

PASTOR BARLEY'S SERMONS ON CD OR DVD

___ Our Ephesian Identity 1-20	$60/set
___ Traditions 1- 11	$33/set
___ Lamentations 1-22	$66/set
___ Liberalism 1-20	$60/set
___ Trump is a Cyrus 1-3	$9/set
___ My "unchristmas" Message	$3
___ Absent from the Body	$3
___ Let There Be Light on Vaccinations 1-2	$6/set

America's Promise CD/DVD Ministry

Join us in worshipping the Lord each week! Receive our weekly services on either CD or DVD! Many people are wallowing in the knowledge of all our problems, but they are not putting their mind on the things of God! In these sermons, you will hear line upon line from God's Word that will build you and your family up in the Most Holy Faith.

___ Yes, add us to the mailing list. I want to receive CD or DVD circle one
Suggested gift is $20 per month

Name _____

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

Total Cost + $5 Postage = _____

Be sure to circle DVD or CD

Obama Deported Millions, Killed Thousands and Now He's Out to Slyly Depose his Successor, So Why Does Everyone Think He's President Perfect? By Piers Morgan

In fact, Obama deported nearly THREE MILLION people. That is the most deported by any president, ever.

Obama was a hawk, alright, and a lethal one. Recently released figures revealed that in 2016, US special operations were active in 70% of the world's nations, or 138 countries. This was a 130% increase over Bush's administration. In the same year, Obama ordered his military to drop at least 26,171 bombs. That's 72 a day, or three every hour. They rained relentlessly down on seven majority-Muslim countries – Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, Yemen, Somalia and Pakistan. Obama ordered 10 times more drone strikes than George W. Bush, a mind-blowing statistic.

His other failures make equally unedifying reading. Drug abuse in America, particularly involving opiates, rocketed to obscene levels in the Obama years. Racial tensions, especially between police and civilians, worsened to levels not seen since the 60s and 70s. Violent crime, on a downward curve for several decades, spiked by 15% in each of the last two years. Even Obamacare, his once-vaunted flagship health program, has disintegrated amid bitter acrimony and soaring costs to millions of Americans. As for 'Monster' President Trump's war with the media, arguably the single worst offender in presidential history when it came to attacking press freedom was...you've guessed it, Barack Obama. Under Obama, the Justice Department and FBI spied on reporters by monitoring their phone records, and pursued Fox News reporter James Rosen's private emails, then misled Congress about it. His administration set a record for failing to provide information requested by the press and public under the Freedom of Information Act.

Read more: <http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-4301466/PIERS-MORGAN-Obama-deported-millions-killed-thousands.html#ixzz4byynnO59y>

South African President Calls For Confiscating White-Owned Land

By Scott Greer

South African president Jacob Zuma this week called for the confiscation of land owned by white people in his country — without any restitution made to the Caucasian property owners.

In a speech given Friday morning, Zuma said the proposal would be the result of establishing a “pre-colonial land audit of land use and occupation patterns” that would determine what land needs to be taken. The move would require an overwhelming majority in parliament to change the law to allow the expropriation, according to The Telegraph.

“We need to accept the reality that those who are in parliament where laws are made, particularly the black parties, should unite because we need a two-thirds majority to effect changes in the constitution,” the South African president argued.

Zuma had previously mentioned the land grab in a speech to parliament last month, but this week marked the first time he had explicitly called for altering the law to do so....

South Africa’s neighbor Zimbabwe has enacted similar legislation that has allowed the government to seize white-owned land without compensation. Malema has praised Zimbabwe’s action numerous times, but the move cost the country billions of dollars in lost production and led to a wide-scale agricultural collapse.

Read more: <http://dailycaller.com/2017/03/04/south-african-president-calls-for-confiscating-white-owned-land/#ixzz4byrICyB>

Shelby Steele: The Exhaustion of American Liberalism

The recent flurry of marches, demonstrations and even riots, along with the Democratic Party's spiteful reaction to the Trump presidency, exposes what modern liberalism has become: a politics shrouded in pathos.

Unlike the civil-rights movement of the 1950s and '60s, when protesters wore their Sunday best and carried themselves with heroic dignity, today's liberal marches are marked by incoherence and downright lunacy—hats designed to evoke sexual organs, poems that scream in anger yet have no point to make, and an hysterical anti-Americanism.

All this suggests lostness, the end of something rather than the beginning. What is ending?

America, since the '60s, has lived through what might be called an age of white guilt. We may still be in this age, but the Trump election suggests an exhaustion with the idea of white guilt, and with the drama of culpability, innocence and correctness in which it mires us.

This was the circumstance in which innocence of America's bigotries and dissociation from the American past became a currency of hardcore political power. Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton, good liberals both, pursued power by offering their candidacies as opportunities for Americans to document their innocence of the nation's past. "I had to vote for Obama," a rock-ribbed Republican said to me. "I couldn't tell my grandson that I didn't vote for the first black president." You can read the rest of the article at:

<https://www.wsj.com/articles/the-exhaustion-of-american-liberalism-1488751826>

A SPIRITUAL ALERT:

This coming 1st of April through the 10th of May 2017. I, and a group of other Israel Covenant Bible believing pastors, are asking that you join with us in a 40 day campaign of prayer for America as suggested by Pastor Mark Downey.

This will be in keeping with 2 Chronicles 7:14 that states:

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

Let's keep this simple. Basically, we want to do this in keeping with Ephesians and the putting on the whole armor of God as a first step in preparing for this national prayer event for God's Covenant remnant people. Remember, God desires a Gideon type of remnant believing people.

Here is a list of some of the things I believe we should be praying about.

- 1) We pray against the wicked and against their wicked devices.
- 2) We pray for a greater move of repentance of your Called out and Chosen Covenant People who are of the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
- 3) We pray for a national move of your Holy Spirit upon the seed of your Adamic Jacob Israel.
- 4) We pray for there to be a whole Bible Holy Spirit led awakening in America.

5) We pray for a Holy Spirit led anointed Word of Truth to awaken your people to their Israelite Covenant identity and their rightful Divine Purposes.

6) We pray against the wicked ways and purposes of the Red-Edomites. Blessed Savior, remove this Red-Edomite scourge from our nation, that America may truly have and live in the Liberty of Christ.

7) We pray for President Donald Trump. Yes, Jesus, we are aware of his many imperfections. We ourselves have many spiritual imperfections, but we also see a man that is called of God for this hour in our nation. May President Trump fulfill a role of Cyrus and even Sampson from the Scriptures against the anti-Christ.

8) We pray for a supernatural love for righteousness and appreciation for the Bible. May your blessed Law Word become a bright and shining Light for America.

9) We pray against the hordes of aliens pouring into this nation who do not love King Jesus and only desire the destruction of White people. We pray for their removal.

10) We pray for National Repentance the likes of which the nation has never seen before. We pray this especially for our children and their children's children, the future of seed of your called out and chosen Heritage people, Israel.

Post Truth – Adj. relating to or denoting circumstances in which objective facts are less influential in shaping public opinion than appeals to emotion and personal belief. Oxford word of the year dictionaries.com

Covenant Heritage Series by Lawrence Blanchard

Book One #850

An overview of the progressive revelation of God showing that the Bible is written about, and for, one man's family from the Old Testament to the New Testament. 136 pages, perfect bound soft cover. $18 postpaid Ebook $5

Book Two #851

Traces the migrations, heraldry, and languages from biblical Israel to the present day. Presenting the best available information as to who the Jews are today. 288 pages, perfect bound soft cover. $39 postpaid

Covenant Heritage Series by Lawrence Blanchard

Book Three #852

Book Four #853

Book Five #855

The Old Testament (Covenant) lays the foundation and the New Testament (Covenant) is the fulfillment of the consistent story of Israel. 250 pages, perfect bound soft cover. $25 postpaid

A study of the meaning of Genesis 1-11 in the context of the rest of the Bible and an introduction as to God's purpose for creating Adam and who he was. 304 pages, perfect bound soft cover. $38 postpaid

This helps God's covenant people to understand the unbiblical and destructive doctrine of diversity $25 postpaid

All five books #854
$125 postpaid